National Republican Ticket.

FOR PRESIDENT,
BENJAMIN HARRISON,
of Indiana.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT, WHITELAW REID, of New York.

FOR PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS,
J. F. CAPLES, of Portland.
B. B. MILLER, of Grant's Pass.
G. M. IRWIN, of Union.
D. M. DUNNE, of Portland.

The Standard Statesman is running an eight-page daily during this, the fair week.

MAINE has gone republican by over 12,000. The last election was carried on under the new Australian system of voting.

GEORGE WILLIAM CURTIS was one of Cleveland's staunchest supporters, and the greatest of democrats will miss him this spring.

The meeting of the Oregon Press Association at The Dalles, Oct. 4, 5 and 6, should be largely attended by the brethren of the press.

Every time some one yells within the city limits, it sounds like a cry of "fire." It is to be hoped that fire protection will be provided for us before that dreaded visitor comes our way.

Mrs. HARRISON, wife of the president, is in a serious condition and her life is almost despaired of. Mr. and Mrs. Harrison are now stopping at Loon Lake in the Adirondack region.

The combination heretofore existing between the trans-continental railway lines is breaking up, to the relief of shippers and the public generally. While it lasted, though, it worked well for the capitalists.

The public are about convinced that John L. Sullivan is a better man morally and weaker physically than he has been pictured. Since his defeat he has shown himself to be a man among men, that is one thing sure.

Many people are wearing Morrow county caps, which experts say are equal to the finest in the world. They very much resemble the Mexican opal, both in appearance and in the formation in which they are found.

The Gazette stands well up to the head of the procession in the matter of circulation, compared with other papers of its kind. Why shouldn't it be a good medium for advertisers? That is why its columns are in demand at double the rates of so-called lending journals.

There is hardly a vacant house in Heppner, and building is going on right and left. Our splendid school and the fact that Heppner will have water and modern lighting soon, did the business. Heppner is second in nothing when she makes up her mind to "get there."

When you need anything, buy of those who advertise their wares. They have a larger trade than those who do not, and therefore can sell cheaper. The man who wants your patronage is the man you want to see. Read the Gazette's list of live men, and cut your cloth accordingly.

All over Heppner may be seen evidences of growth. Houses are running up here and there. Our people can now build and have an assurance that their property will grow in value. Water will grow vegetation, and nothing can help residence property more than trees, flowers and grasses.

The Gazette is a sheet of reciprocity—helps those who help it. Doesn't always work square up to the golden rule, but comes as near it as the average, and don't make any fuss about it either. Be loyal to your friends and let your enemies take care of themselves, and you will not be far wrong.

SOME of our local capitalists can make good interest on their surplus cash by investing it in houses to rent. There will not be a vacant house in Heppner within six weeks, and there will be plenty of demands for twenty more than can be gotten. It would be a "pious" idea to look after this matter a little.

It has been suggested that some precautions should be taken to prevent the cholera epidemic from entering this country via the Canadian Pacific. A quarantine station at Blaine would do much towards this. It is said that the Canadian officials are very careless and are allowing all the immigrants from pest-laden Europe to land at their Eastern ports.

That dread epidemic, cholera, has at last passed the quarantine at New York. Five cases are reported so far, and everything possible is being done to prevent its spread. The only way to keep from taking cholera, should it become prevalent, is to diet against it. One should drink no water or milk except such as has been pretty thoroughly boiled, and should eat no food that has not been thoroughly and freshly cooked. If a baker's bread is used, it should be warmed over before being served. Butter and cheese are entirely forbidden.

The Record's boss is getting to be very technical in his democracy—very much, so indeed for one who is looked upon as rather young in the faith. One with half an eye can see that Cleveland surrenders to the Hill forces or New York goes wrong; that Indiana is hopelessly for Harrison; that Russell, Platt and Blaine know what the moon is made of and which side of their bread is buttered; that Cleveland is not the kind of a man, and to his credit, that sells himself to his enemies. It wouldn't do, for such an action would cause a serious wavering of the faithful Clevelandites in other and useful states.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN delivered his first political speech in 1834, when a candidate for the legislature of Illinois. It was as follows: "Gentlemen, fellow-citizens: I presume you know who I am. I am humble Abraham Lincoln. I have been solicited by many friends to become a candidate for the legislature. My politics can be briefly stated. I am in favor of the internal improvement system and a high protective tariff. These are my sentiments and political principles. If elected, I shall be thankful; if not, it will be all the same." The same issue confronts the American people today that confronted Lincoln in 1834. Is not the example of "humble Abe," patriot and martyr, a better one to follow than that of Calhoun, the slave driver, or Jeff Davis, the secessionist? Jackson never countenanced such men.

LETTER II.

DEAR SIR—I have been a lookin' out over the country a prospectin' to see how the pepel's party was goin' to make it this fall in the election. I find that hour prospects is good. We air awl a stickin' to the party awl rite yet. But I am afraid that sum of hour best men air a goin' to go back on hour principles, but hour leader over in Lexington (Bro. Sign I mean) keeps a talkin' to them an' a truin' to keep them on the rite track. He says that the time has cum that the pepel will assert their rite, an' if we can't get hour rite by the ballot we will buy the bullet, an' we blier ever word that he see. The east Oregonian see that the only way to beat the pepel's party in Oregon is to face with the pepel's party. I don't believe that will suite us very well, we don't go much on fusion, but I think we will rather than be beat.

An now the election has gone of down in Ark-ann saw and we hev lost another state that we had calculated on carvin' this fall, but it went dimmocratic, just like old Albie-Balm for a' the world; we calculated on a majority of about 25,000 an' hit has gone dimmocratic by about 50,000, only 75,000 more dimmocrats than we thot there was. It begins to look as tho we pepel party ain't in it. An' then look at old Vermont, she has gone publican. Well, all I hav to say for her is let her go; she's no good anyway, an' I don't want anything to do with the publicans. Now the next election is in Maine, we air shure that we air goin' to git that state if the publicans an' democrates don't faze.

Resolved, That while we bow in mute submission unto Him whose word is our law, we nevertheless extend to our beloved brother our heartfelt sympathy in this his hour of affliction.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon our minutes, a copy under seal of the Lodge transmitted to Brother Rhea, and a copy to each of our city papers for publication.

Fraternally submitted by F. C. and E. E. R SWINBURNE, Right or Wrong.

Which will ye have? It does seem as if some folks prefer to have the last opinion of the liver rather than the first. They perpetually dose themselves with purgatives totally without virtue as a forerunner of the early revolutionary period, and the exclamation is pregnant with truth. For over a third of a century the Bitters daily has met with the endorsement of people suffering from liver complaint, malaria, constipation, rheumatism, debility and troubles accompanied by dyspepsia. Lately it has declared itself and been thoroughly approved as a remedy for "the grippe."

Let it Reason.
If anyone who suffers from Rheumatism would stop and reason a moment before they decide to purchase some remedy, they could not help avoid any so called cure. The price is $1. Figuring the retailers, the jobbers and the manufacturers' profits out of that solitary dollar, and there is left not over 20 cents for the medicine. Dr. Drummond's Lightning Remedy speaks to one's good sense. The price is 35¢ per bottle and to any one suffering from Rheumatism it is as cheap as it is good and effective. Sent to any address by Drummond's Medicine Co., 48-50 Maiden Lane, New York. Agents wanted.

Buckley's Aratic Salve.
The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns, and all skin eruptions, and positively cures piles, or no pay required. It has been pretty thoroughly boiled, and should eat no food that has not been thoroughly and freshly cooked. If a baker's bread is used, it should be warmed over before being served. Butter and cheese are entirely forbidden.

Ladies, Heppner's popular millinery establishment has reopened under our management. Has been refitted and enlarged to accommodate a larger and more complete stock of millinery, fancy and dry goods and ladies furnishings. Look out for our cards to be sent out soon for our fall opening. See ad.

Here and There.

A good shower would be appreciated. L. Paine, of Hamilton, Grant county, came over Tuesday.

The county court proceedings will appear in our next issue.

The Odd Fellows are having a big time at Portland this week.

Heppner ought to have longer terms of school. Ten months is short enough.

Most of the Heppner merchants report business pretty lively, regardless of scarcity of money.

Don't the dusty condition of Main street make you think that water is somewhat of a necessity?

Dick Taylor starts today for England via Chicago, where he expects to remain, for a short time at least.

R. J. Hill is pulling down some cord wood for winter use, and will sell as low among the citizens of Heppner.

Nearly every well in town is dry or failing. Wonder if city water wouldn't be very acceptable about now.

T. K. Roberts and J. B. Manning will confer a favor on the Gazette to apprise it where they may be reached by mail.

All signs point toward a hard winter ahead of us. Farmers and stockmen can't have too much hay, in our opinion.

Heppner will soon need an engine house for the hook and ladder, and also the hose carts, which will be not less than two.

Parties just down from Eastern Washington say that the farmers up there will have about one third crop. Tomorrow is not much worse off than this.

The general verdict is that contractor L. D. Boyd has done a well as the contract called for in most respects.

Taffo, the Celilo canneryman, hauled out twenty tons of salmon in one day the first of this week, and a short day too—up to 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

The Gazette reporter found Clerk Morrow and Deputy Welis very busy at the court house Tuesday. This is the season of the year when they have plenty to do.

When will Heppner Hook and Ladder Co., No. 1, have their next meeting? With the addition of two good hose companies the boys will perhaps take more interest.

Strangers say that Heppner could not have secured a more likely location for her school house than the one selected, and we believe it will be quite satisfactory to nearly all our people. Under the circumstances, it certainly could not be bettered.

"Hardware" did you say? Why, yes at P. C. Thompson & Co.'s stand, and the place for bargains.

PORTLAND EXPOSITION SEPTEMBER 21ST TO OCTOBER 2ND.
