Newer and neater quarters at the Palace Hotel's north business room. Charley Jones, the barber, wants to see his old friends there. Baths in connection.

Mat Mosgrove got in Saturday from a tour of Grant and Gilliam counties. He complains much of the roads, and particularly of the stretch between Canning and Heppner.

There is no use in suffering with rheumatism as long as you can get Congo Oil. It is for sale by all druggists at $2 per bottle, but it would be just as cheap at four times the price. It is a positive cure for rheumatism, and no mistake. Try it and be convinced.

The mountain ranches in this country are not to be despised, for they raise most everything, including wood and water. Johnny Beeler says that his plum trees have grown the length of a broom handle this season, and that he will have plenty of fruit in a few years.

WILL RESPOND.—"Chuck" Gleason, who is one of Oregon's pioneers, is in receipt of an invitation to loan or present to the Pioneer Association, such articles of interest, relics of bygone days, as he may have on hand, for use at the Portland Exposition, and also at the World's Fair. Now this reminds "Chuck" that he has in his possession an article, rich in pioneer lore, it being no more nor less than a miniature tomahawk, captured at the battle of Walla Walla in the '50's. "Chuck" was right there himself, and at the time the battle ended (we don't know where "Chuck" had been) he found hiding behind a clump of sagebrush, Queen Do nika on-the-name, sister-in-law of the mayor of Frenchtown, armed with this historic weapon. She made one savage lunge at "Chuck" but he was so swift for the lady, and despoiled her of her hatchet in short order, and without any attempt toward imitating any stage posture, either. This "Chuck" has faithfully and carefully kept, and he hopes that it will prove an interesting memento to the eyes of the sightseers at the World's Fair. It looks not unlike a modern re-pick, though its origin cannot be questioned, and may be seen down at the Belvedere in charge of Dick Neville.

WAR ON THE BORDER.—Over at Monument, a few days ago, Johnny Nailen, the old pioneer, became "mixed up" with an old fellow who stops at Pete Caris' place. He chased Johnny with a club for some distance and then procured a corn knife. The latter being crippled in one arm, was compelled to protect himself. The only weapon about the premises was a 50 cal. pistol, which he loaded with 44 cal. Winchester cartridges, but being the only ammunition obtainable. The adversary approached with his weapon, Johnny being on his "own domain," and he proceeded to shoot, but the first shot snapped and drove the cart ridge up into the cylinder, rendering it useless. Johnny had a pitchfork in reserve, and, with a mighty swoop, downed the neighbor, belaboring him with might and main, using the pitchfork as a club. Taking possession of the corn knife, Mr. Nailen proceeded to Hamilton, where he swore out a warrant for the neighbor's arrest, who, on examination, was bound over to await the action of the grand jury.

FOR EASTERN OREGON.—Hon. T. E. Fell departed today for Tacoma, where, in conjunction with others, he will perhaps, put in a scouring mill. There are about 500,000 pounds of wool annually, tributary to Heppner, which go to San Francisco to be scouring ready for market, not being in demand otherwise. Even when it has brought very low prices, San Francisco not being a representative market, or anything near as good as Heppner. This quality of wool requiring to be scoured before being placed on the market, Mr. Fell is on the lookout for a point in the Northwest where the water is suitable for a scouring mill, and believes that Tacoma is the place. San Francisco has at present the only successful scouring mill west of the Missouri river, one wholly to the quality of water there. Water for scouring purposes must have no potash in it, or the fibre is damaged.

THE BEEF ORDINANCE.—The "beef or dinance" is proving to be a grand success so far. Though it has not passed the council, it has produced no end of "beefing." Some have even gone so far as to threaten members of the council should they vote for it. A coward is the only person that can be moved by threats, and Heppner's council is not built that way. But they will listen to a petition of our people, and that is the proper way to meet this. The editor of the Gazette is personally convinced that a majority of the people of Heppner are opposed to the ordinance. It is evident that the farmers are against it. Now in this emergency, the opponents should circulate a petition and present to the council at the next regular meeting, as they would then be no guessing as to how the citizens feel on the subject.

SLID OUT.—C. H. Jacque, a commercial traveler for the hardware firm of Foster & Robertson, of Portland, has been missing for several days and his employers have come to the conclusion that he has skipped the tra-la-la. He was last heard of in La Grande, says the Gazette last week, and up to that time had made collections for the firm amounting to about $1700. Numerous telegrams have been received by the firm to ascertain his whereabouts, but nothing has been heard from him since he was last seen in La Grande. It is reported on good authority that he lost $500 in playing draw poker in La Grande one day last week, and this circumstance strengthens the conviction that he has decamped.

BORED OVER.—Yesterday Johnny Skogland was arrested by Deputy Mike Fitzgerald, charged with the larceny of a pair of spurs from the lower stable. He had started for Long Creek, and was overtaken near Ukiah, Camas prairie. On being brought before Justice Hallock he waived examination, and was bound over to await the action of the grand jury, in the sum of $500, in default of which he was remanded to jail. This is a pretty serious case, as the property was taken from a building. The spurs belonged to Jas. Cochrin, who had a horse in the stable at the time. A pair of stolen gloves were also found on his person.

WOULD LIKE TO LEASE A HOTEL.—C. O. Sargent, of this city, is anxious to take charge of a good hotel, not particular as to location. Mr. Sargent is an old-timer in this line, and is sure to give satisfaction wherever he should go. Anyone having a hotel to rent or lease, would do well to correspond with C. O. Sargent, Heppner, Oregon. 523-27

DEMONIC.—E. F. Perkins has lately opened up the restaurant in the Lichten building, which he has named the Demonic. None but white cooks are employed, and the public can therefore get a good, old-fashioned meal, cooked in the best of style. Price, 25 cents; beds, 25 cents. 509-14f

A GOOD OFFER.—The proprietors of the Semi-Weekly Gazette have decided to offer an inducement for advance payments on subscription. The price remains the same, $3 per year, but where payments are made in advance, only $2.50 a year will be charged. What do we mean by "advance payments?" A payment made within thirty days after the subscription becomes due will be called "in advance." In a very short time we will print after each person's name the date to which subscription is paid. This will remind you each week as to how you stand with us, and will render it an easy matter for you to save 50 cents a year on your subscription.

BADLY WOUNDED FOOT.—Last Sunday John McCarty, of Shaw & McCarty, the butchers, had the misfortune to step on a cleaver with his left foot, down at the slaughter house, cutting quite a severe gash. This all important toe was swelling behind the door, where Mr. McCarty stepped for a moment to avoid scaring a calf which was preparing to slaughter, taking his foot the entire length of the blade.

A SURE ESCORT KING.—Prof. Martin, the king of magicians, is also a king of bilks. The Gazette did a lot of work for him which Martin had us send o. o. d. to Portland, but he never called for it. In this case, he got his Heppner dates pretty cheap, but he can't play that game the second time. A newspaper man gets it "in the neck" if anybody in the neighborhood is struck.

RECOVERING.—News comes over from Monument that Fry Wilson is just recovering from a badly sprained leg, received from a pack horse, which persisted in jumping onto Fry while being led through the timber, instead of keeping terra firma, as a wise animal should.

E. O.: Big apples and rosy cheeked girls are not the peculiar products of Web foot. Unatilla county claims many of the latter, and as to big apples, one brought to this office by William Goodnight will not take a back seat. It is of the Gloria Munda variety, weighs 1 1/2 pounds and measures 17 inches in circumference. The apple was grown on wid. Hopper's place below Pendleton.

Long Creek Eagle: "See here Pat, why didn't you give me a complimentary notice when I brought that wagon load of fine melons to Long Creek the other day?" was a question propounded to ye editor a few days ago. We replied by saying "why didn't you compliment the sheep with one of the melons?" Seeing the point, our friend had nothing more to say.

No person should travel without a box of Ayer's pills. As a safe and speedy remedy for constipation and all irregularities of the stomach and bowels, they have no equal, and, being skillfully sugar-coated, are pleasant to take, and long retain their virtues.

You cannot be too particular about the medicine you use. When you need a blood-purifier, be sure you get Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and no other. It will cleanse with, purify, and vitalize every drop of blood in your body. It makes the weak strong.

Eagle: Miss May Day Lewis, the daughter of J. T. Lewis of this place, accidentally fell in attempting to get out of a vehicle in which she was riding last Sunday, and sustained a fracture of her right arm.

Eagle: Miss Lena Patterson, sister of ye Eagle man, took her departure yesterday for Canyon City. She will have charge of the primary department of the school of that city during the coming winter.

Miss Martha Neville, one of Morrow county's foremost teachers, is busily engaged on her second term at the Pettysville school. This fact by itself suggests that she is giving excellent satisfaction.

The Bennett Hotel at Arlington has been moved from the old location near the depot, to Main St., about two blocks from the depot, where its proprietor will welcome you as of old. 23-1f

The Gazette has secured a first-class job printer from Portland—one who has spent a year in the best offices on the coast, and we can do your work in the most approved style, and at reasonable rates.

A gentle rain, a sort of a sizzle-sizzle, yesterday, is helping matters out wonderfully. Without some rain we could not expect much fall range or growth of the many acres of grain now.

Joe Eskelson and Ralph Bengt were in Saturday from the Social Ridge country. There is much grain being sown down in that vicinity, even though there has been no rain.

Johnny Beeler is in the hog business, and finds that it pays well. He is raising thoroughbreds which he readily disposes of as "shoats" for $10 a pair, and they are worth it.

Geo. French is heard from at Rock Spring, Wyoming. He says that weather is getting cold now, and not so comfortable on the trail.
