National Republican Ticket

- FOR PRESIDENT, BENJAMIN HARRISON, of Indiana. FOR VICE-PRESIDENT, WHITE LAW REID, of New York. FOR PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS, J. F. CAPLES, of Portland. H. B. MILLER, of Grant's Pass. G. M. IRWIN, of Union. D. M. DUNNE, of Portland.

PATRICK EGAN HOME.

The Hon. Patrick Egan, minister plenipotentiary of the United States to Chili, who arrived at New York last Tuesday brings with him a treaty which provides that all claims on the part of corporations, companies or private individuals shall be submitted to three commissioners, one to be selected by the United States, one by Chili and the other to be a person upon whom the presidents of both countries agree. If no agreement is reached within three months after the ratification of the treaty the Swiss republic shall name the commissioner. The commissioners are to be held in Washington. The concuring decision of any two of the commissioners are to be final. Claims must be presented to the commissioners after due notice to the two governments within two months after the first day of meeting. In conversation with a reporter, Mr. Egan says he was charged by President Montt of Chili to convey to President Harrison a cordial message, couched in very complimentary language to the bearer. He had with him also, he said, letters of credit for 75,000 in gold on Paris from the Chilean government, to be distributed among the families of Higgins and Turnbull, the two American men-of-war's men killed and injured in the Baltimore trouble, and among those that were injured. The amount of indemnity, he said, was satisfactory to both governments. The offer of this sum was made by Chili to him after some negotiations on the part of both governments, and, as per instructions from Washington, he accepted it. Other claims pending will be also settled immediately. Mr. Egan is highly appreciated by President Montt and his cabinet.

CANT VOTE FOR CLEVE.

The democratic committee, through their secretary, filed a ticket with secretary of State Pinkham on last Monday, says a dispatch from Idaho. In obedience to instructions from the democratic national committee they left off the names of the democratic electors, substituting the people's party electors therefor. The action of the state committee is severely criticised by leading democrats. Many express indignation that they are not to be allowed to vote for Cleveland and hang their heads in shame. They feel sore over the slaughter of democratic hopes in the state at the expense of national party politics. Republicans are jubilant. They say this putting down of democratic electors is an open confession on the part of the democrats that they could not carry the state for Cleveland. It also shows that the democrats regard the people's party in the light of allies to the democrats, and that it is anything but Harrison. Many republicans here who have up to this time looked with some favor upon the people's party movement on account of their free coinage plank, now that they see the local object of the movement are deserting the populist ranks and coming back into the old party. The news of the coalition between the democrats and populists was received with much joy at republican headquarters. Leading politicians now have no fear of carrying the state for Harrison and Reid and the entire state by 2,000 majority. It is a safe estimate that fully two-thirds of the republican votes that have gone over to the populists will come back.

GEORGE THOMSON CURTIS, a celebrated author and lawyer, writes as follows to the American Economist: "In common with many other democrats, I cannot follow the leaders of the party in denouncing republican protection as a fraud upon the labor of the great majority of the American people for the benefit of the few; nor can I subscribe to the doctrine that a protective tariff is in our constitutional. I have no pecuniary interests in manufactures, but I know what protection has done and is doing for this country. It operates for the benefit of the few, I am one of that few. I am one of the many; one of the great majority benefited by it, including those who denounce it for the sake of obtaining political power."

THE democratic national campaign committee have asked that in all sure republican states, the democratic electors be withdrawn and the people's party electors substituted. This, of course, is to throw the election in the house, and it may work. A vote for Weaver in Oregon, or any other republican state, is a vote for Cleveland.

THE Heppner flouring mill uses the home product and turns out as good flour as was ever ground by any mill, and not a sack of outside flour should be used in the community. Our home institutions must be patronized, as long as they do their part.

SOME tough characters attempted to rob a bank at Erie, Pa., but met with some resistance from a plucky bank clerk, and had to give up their job. An officer carried the whole four before they got out of town.

TOM Coleman, alias Tom Googhegan, alias "Cooney the Fox," who was supposed to have something to do with the Cronin murder, is now in the Oregon penitentiary. He denies any complicity with that murder, but he will likely be taken back to Chicago anyway, for he knows too much about the affair to be entirely innocent.

THERE is not so Irishmen in America, and but few in the home country, who did not know Patrick Sarsfield Gilmore, the great band master, as one of their countrymen. His death, which occurred recently, was sudden. He had just been appointed as musical director of the World's Fair.

DOWN in Georgia, the denizens are after Weaver. During the war, it is said that he committed all sorts of atrocious acts, which they have not forgotten. Money and goods, they claim, were stolen and sent North by Weaver for his own use.

MITCHELL, the democratic candidate for governor down in Florida, is elected by not less than 25,000 majority. The negroes divided their votes between the democrat and populist candidates, and too, without solicitation. The republicans had no tickets in the field.

WOULDN'T a little water be acceptable in Heppner just about now? Three-fourths of the wells are failing or entirely dry, and the Gazette thinks that by the time city water is ready to be supplied to the town, that a large majority of our people will be glad of it.

MAJOR MASON has reached Chicago, and we are informed, some ten days in advance of the time allotted him. The major will be present at the opening exercises of the world's fair, and is expected home in time to cast his vote this fall.

THE Gazette is in receipt of "The Campaign Text Book of the Democratic Party," for which it is thankful, as it shall be perused with care. An unprejudiced person should read both sides of the question.

OBITUARY.

Died, Oct. 2, 1892, at her home in Heppner, Oregon, Maggie M., beloved wife of Dr. E. P. Gagen, aged 25 years and five months.

Deceased, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Pace, was born in Iowa, May 20, 1867, from whence her parents removed to Brown Co., Kansas, in 1871, and engaged in farming near Salsbetta. "Twas there she passed her early life and budding into womanhood, a general favorite with all, adored for her intellect and goodness, and loved as only those can be who have stamped upon the character its own grace and loveliness. 'Twas here she met the doctor, then a practicing physician near her home, and their marriage was solemnized May 27, 1886.

Two years later they came to Oregon, settling in Lexington, Morrow Co., where the first little one came to brighten their home; but the babe was taken, her heart was broken. She was taken back to her old home, where the scenes of childhood, and time, the great restorer to the audacious heart, wrought its change, and on her return the blighted home was again one of sunshine and felicity.

On the 21st ult., another babe was born, but only to againadden the heart, as she was extinct, and septemia soon claimed the mother as its own. Drs. Shipley and Swinburne came to the husband's assistance, and all was done to alleviate her sufferings and soothe the dying hour. Her farewell to husband, relatives and friends was most heart-rending. The mind was clear and active, her faith in Him who holds our destinies was perfect, the curtain seemed lifted, and the only regret, as she expressed, again and again, was the transient good bye to those left behind.

OBITUARY.

Died, in Lexington, Sept. 26, of consumption, Rachel Wilson, wife of J. S. Tower, and sister of F. S. Wilson, age 82 years, 9 months and 2 days.

Mrs. Tower was born in Indiana Dec. 24 1810, and came to Oregon in 1851. Her long and painful illness was borne with Christian patience and fortitude, and after many months of suffering, trusting in God, she quietly fell asleep, in the hope of blessed immortality.

valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me." The thought of our theme is the Christian's confidence. The outline is, 1, Jesus a Saviour; 2, Jesus a friend; 3, Jesus a support; finally, Jesus is all in all to the Christian. Text at 7 o'clock is to the young people. Text, "Remember now thy Creator in the days of thy youth." All are invited to come and hear these important themes. M. BRAMBLE, Pastor.

VISITED HEPPNER—The Gazette reporter was told confidentially that Detective Sullivan, of the Sound country, was in Heppner over Tuesday night, and, of course, would have made no mention of it had he not found that a large proportion of our people know his presence at that time. There are a number of people here who know him by sight. He was on the lookout for a forger who was supposed to be in Heppner.

NUPTIALS—At the residence of the bride's parents, near Heppner, on Oct. 3, 1892, occurred the marriage of Mr. Rich and toward and Miss Emma French, Judge Keith officiating. Both are well known young people, and the Gazette counts Richard as one of its stoutest friends. We wish them a long and happy life.

FILED OUT.—On last Monday night near Lexington, while Dr. Shipley was on one of his usual errands of mercy, the harness broke, letting the buggy tongue fall to the ground. The horses took fright, breaking the tongue and overturning the rig, but neither the doctor nor the vehicle were damaged much.

RUNAWAY.—While coming to town Wednesday, Ed. Hooker's leaders broke their doubletree, and becoming frightened, broke away and were not stopped till they reached Main street in front of Pap Simons', where they were caught, with skinned legs, but nothing more serious.

COMRADES, TAKE NOTICE.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury.

As mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by J. C. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken in capsules, and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. CHENEY & Co. Testimonials free.

"Any Port is a Storm."

That's a good maxim, but it will not work as a rule in the purchase of a remedy for Rheumatism. Any of the cheap nostrums will not effect a cure—in fact none of them will. Don't trifle with life and suffering agony. Get Dr. Drummond's Lightning Remedy, and a speedy cure is certain. It costs $5 a bottle, but one bottle is worth a hundred of anything else, and for that reason it is the cheapest when a cure is wanted. Sent to any address by prepaid express on receipt of price. Drummond Medicine Co., 43 1/2 Maiden Lane, N. Y. Agents wanted. 33
