National Republican Ticket.

FOR PRESIDENT,
BENJAMIN HARRISON,
of Indiana.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT, WHITELAW REID,
of New York.

FOR PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS,
J. F. CAMPBELL, of Portland,
H. B. MILLER, of Grant's Pass,
G. M. IRWIN, of Union,
D. M. DUNNE, of Portland.

The cholera scare seems to have almost entirely died out in New York.

The Evening Star is the name of a daily paper now published at La Grande by Messrs. Parker & Eckley.

It is expected that Senator Mitchell will be the orator for the Columbus Day celebration, however, as yet no positive answer has been received from him.

Every business man in Heppner should be represented in the Industrial parade next Friday. Begin at once and have your float ready and decorated for the occasion.

Hon. Sol Hirsch, of Portland, who was appointed minister to Turkey by President Harrison, has arrived in New York on his return home, where he tenders his resignation to the president. He has made an excellent minister, and leaves the position with credit to himself and honor to his country.

From the secretary of the Oregon Press Association we got the following statistics regarding the newspapers in this state: There are 8 religious, 6 fraternal, 3 educational, 21 populist, 37 democratic, 44 republican, 39 independent, 3 agricultural, 1 medical, 4 miscellaneous, 12 amateur and 1 commercial publication in Oregon, making a total of 176. As yet the republicans lead.

The John Day Sentinel, published at John Day, Grant county, by Nelson & Wood, has been sold to the People's Party Publishing Co. and will hereafter be run in the interests of the people's party and farmers' alliance. Messrs. Nelson & Wood made the Sentinel a bright and new paper and we hope their successors will keep it up to its present standard. The senior editor, Thomas Nelson, has been secured as foreman of this office, while Mr. Wood goes to Central, Wash., where he expects to accept the position of principal of the public schools at that place.

A HANDFUL of democrats back in Kansas are making fools of themselves. The democratic state convention formally made a fusion with the people's party whereby it is hoped to carry the state against Harrison. This handful of kickers who want to burst the fusion are evidently working in the interest of the republicans—Portland Telegram. Well now that's a funny state of affairs. In one state they give them a—If they do fuse, and in another they raise the devil if they don't, consequently it is not a surprise to see them refusing to march under the crack of the political ring-trickster's whip.

A NOTH Dakota editor writes: The politician is my abhorred; I shall not want for anything during the campaign. He leads me into the snare for my vote's sake. He filches my pockets with good cigars and my beer glass runsneth over. He enquireth concerning the health of my family, even unto the fourth generation. Yes; though I walk through the mud and rain to vote for him and about myself horse when he is elected, he straightway forgetteth me. Yes, though I meeteth him in his own office he knoweth me not. Surely the wool hath been pulled over mine eyes all the days of my life.

It has been said of the past meetings of the Oregon Press Association that little or nothing was accomplished, except to have a good time. Whether this is true or not the Gazette cannot say. However, this cannot be said of the last meeting which was held at The Dalles, for much valuable work was accomplished during this session. Some of the editors had never before visited this grand Island Empire, and as many did not thoroughly understand what an open river meant to this grand section. But when they had seen the obstruction at the Cascades and Celilo, they pledged their support to the open river cause, and for temporary relief, they favor a portage road at Celilo, and the Association's legislative committee, with the support of every progressive journal in Oregon, will ask for an appropriation from the state, by its next legislature for this portage road.

EIGHT MILE NOTES.

Farmers are seeding. Some are seedling as high as three hundred acres. Rain badly needed.

We congratulate Mr. and Mrs. Henry Furlong on the arrival of a young son. He was born Sept. 25th.

This neighborhood was very much shocked to hear of the death of Mrs. Wayne Huston. Much deep sympathy is felt here for the sorrowing relatives of the deceased.

Mrs. Anson Wright is having a pleasant time visiting in this neighborhood with old friends and neighbors. She is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Knighten (parents of Mrs. Wright).

Mr. and Mrs. Isaiah Smith and daughter Rosa, are here visiting from Elliott, Iowa. They are the guests of Mr. Fred Ashbaugh (Mr. Smith's son in law). This country is new to Mrs. Smith and Rosa, but Mr. Smith has been here before. In order that they should behold the land in all its glory an excursion was formed to go to the Opal mines. The excursionists, men, women and children, numbered 25, your correspondent being one of the number. All enjoyed the trip very much, although it was quite dusty and a portion of the time very warm. It took us three days to make the round trip; all were gay and happy, congratulating ourselves that nothing had happened to mar our pleasure. When we returned home we took the newly laid out road along Rock creek, that leads to Parker's mill. We found a road that caused the drivers to keep their eyes open and watch where they were driving. At one point, without any warning, our horses suddenly commenced kicking and plunging about, and we soon ascertained that we had stirred up a yellow jacket's nest. We did not stand fight, but hurried away, calling ourselves whipped and let them have the honor of the victory. Mr. Case Paquin was driving four horses and he had bills on them, and he had a circus for a while, three of his horses demoin at one time and the music of the bells resounding through the forest. No one was hurt, but several were frightened, (not the brave men, only the ladies and children.) We reached Parker's mill in safety and there we camped for the night. Next morning we visited the mill and saw the busy hands at work, sawing lumber, etc. We visited the park at Mr. Parker's residence and saw four mule deer. Their appearance was very odd, having ears like a mule. Some of the ladies went to the house and made Mrs. Brown and little daughter a visit. We found the little daughter a fine looking child, of whom its parents might justly feel proud. We reached home that evening, much pleased with our visit and what we saw at the Opal mines. Some professors of geology could find enough to interest them for a long time in examining the rocks. Mr. A. Ashbaugh accompanied Charlie Ashbaugh to the Ashbaugh Bro's sheep camp and they delined in the mountain stream and got an abundance of trout which they enjoyed very much. Stacy Roberts and family visited the Opal mines a few days ago, and were well pleased with their visit. One impromptu item in our excursion to the Blaine mountains was that the gentlemen never mentioned politics. I mention this because it was so remarkably strange, as there was not a man in the company that is not deeply interested in politics. E. M. C. COURT MILK, Or., Oct. 5, 1892.

CHURCH NOTICE.

As the pastor of the M. E. church is sick, there will be no services except Sunday school in our church Sabbath. As Rev. Edwin Palmer, pastor of the M. E. church, South, is here, our people will worship with them at their church. Although I may not be able to be present, I urge our people to attend and give Bro. Palmer a crowded house.

ATTENTION G. A. R.

It is the wish of the commander of Regular Post G. A. R., that all comrades and old soldiers be in Heppner on the night of Oct. 20, for the purpose of mustering in all desiring to become members, and attending to all other business that they come before the Post. It is also requested that all be on hand early the morning of the 21st, to take part in the parade and perform such other duties as may be imposed on them in connection with the campfire and celebration. By order of

G. W. SMITH,
Post Commander.

AT THE BAPTIST CHURCH.

The following questions were submitted to us last week in writing, for our consideration. "What is sin, was it from cause or necessity; if from cause, what was the cause; if from necessity, where was it needed?" We will answer the above questions to the best of our ability at the Baptist church next Sunday at 11 o'clock. At 7 o'clock, text: "Is the young man Abraham safe?" Sam. 4:18-22. Questions: 1. "He was a beautiful young man;" 2. "He was a son of an illustrious king;" 3. "The son of a rich father;" 4. "The son of a pious father." The thought of our theme is the value of time and opportunity. All are invited, both men, women and children, saloon keepers and all of their attendants.

M. BRAMBLET,
Pastor.

On The Way to Paradise.

Let us hope that the people who habitually disregard their health will reach that desirable place, and avoid the locality which is less desirable as an eternal residence on account of the heat and surroundings generally. But while we tarry in this vale of tears, why should we voluntarily endure the tortures of dyspepsia when a systematic use of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters will rid us of the atrocious miasma which—unless physicians are very much at fault—tends to shorten the term of our existence. Heartburn, indigestion, constipation almost always accompany this complaint and are symptomatic of it. These are all extirpated by the Bitters, which also conquers completely malaria, rheumatism, nervousness and debility. Since the appearance of "the grippe" it has shown almost marvellous power over this formidable complaint that has carried off so many of our brightest and best.

The World Enriched.

The facilities of the present day for the production of everything that will compare to the quality of the old are almost unlimited, and when Syrup of Figs was first produced the world was enriched with the only remedy which is truly pleasing and refreshing to the taste and prompt and effectual to cleanse the system gently in the spring time or, in fact, at any time and the better it is known the more popular it becomes. 330 542 1 w.
