NOTICE.

1. The sum of five cents per line will be charged for "cards of thanks," "resolutions of respect," lists of wedding presents and donors, and obituary notices, (other than those of the editor or publisher) given as a matter of news; and notice of special meetings for whatever purpose. 2. Notices of church and society and all other entertainments from which revenue is to be derived, shall be charged for at the rate of five cents a line. These rates will be strictly adhered to in every instance. Advertising rates reasonable and made known upon application.

Give your business to Heppner people, and therefore assist to build up Heppner. Patronize those who patronize you.

Here and There.

Don't overlook the Ladies' Bazaar. To enjoy life use IUTTS PILLS. Heppner will celebrate next Friday and Saturday.

Allen Evans has been in Heppner several days this week.

Carl Crow, of Lexington, paid Heppner a visit Tuesday.

Fred Miller knows how to give you a good fit in tailoring.

J. O. Williams, of Spring Hollow, was in Heppner Wednesday.

N. R. McVey, of Gooseberry, was on our streets this morning.

Charles Johnson was in from Peuland's mountain ranch Tuesday evening.

Dr. E. T. Ogen has disposed of his Chase street property to Joe Hayes.

The Gem and Palace saloons for fine liquors, McAttee Bros., Props.

Hugh Fields left on Wednesday morning's train for Brownsville, his home.

B. L. Akers, one of Gooseberry's successful farmers came into Heppner last evening.

H. M. Thornton was up from Lone Tuesday evening, returning Wednesday morning.

You should not fail to attend the Columbus Day celebration and G. A. R. campfire.

Geo. Miller, the lone postmaster and justice of the peace, came up on last evening's train.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Ellis left this morning for Portland for a few days' visit in the metropolis.

Heppner will doubtless have the largest crowd ever seen in this city, next Friday, the day we celebrate.

Episcopus & Son still shoe horses and do general blacksmithing at the old stand Matlock corner.

Salem Statesman: David Herron, of Heppner, is visiting with his mother, Mrs. W. J. Herron, of this city.

There will be preaching at the M. E. church, South, next Sunday at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m., by Rev. Edwin Palmer.

Thomas Ayers and wife returned from their wedding tour Tuesday evening, after a short but pleasant visit with friends and relatives in Portland and Salem.

Mrs. A. J. Stevenson is prepared to do all kinds of nursing. Call at her home in north Heppner, or address her at this place.

Hiyu ketchum whiskeys. Hart & Mathews, at the city barber shop—the place to get a first-class shave, haircut or shampoo.

Joe Gibson and Alva Leach, of Lexington, are assisting the Heppner Silver Cornet Band in preparing music for the Columbus Day celebration.

Master Clay French is the authorized agent for the Oregonian at this place. Subscribe through him, and have your paper delivered free of charge.

Yani, Vidi, Vieni. This is true of Hill's Hair Remover, for it is the great over-querer of gray or faded hair, making it look the same even color of youth.

The people of Heppner can now breathe easier, since Koman, of the Boston Kesh Store, has opened up, on account of the low prices at which he is selling goods.

Newer and better quarters at the Palace Hotel, north business room, Charley Jones, the baker, wants to see his old friends there. Batha in connection.

Sam Elliot, of John Day, got in last evening with his freight wagon. He returned today loaded with freight for the firm of Haystack, Dart & Co., of that city.

The latest dentistry, crown and bridge work, most successfully accomplished by Dr. B. F. Vaughan. Give admittance when desired. Thompson building, Heppner, Or.

Wrestling Leader: W. L. S. King, of Heppner, was a visitor to Seaside during the week. Mr. King is endeavoring to secure the next session of the grand lodge K. of P., at Heppner.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Conter were in from Elsie Mile Wednesday. Mr. Conter informs us that he would move to Heppner this fall if he could possibly find a home for rent.

Slewers. R. M. Johnson and W. D. Matlock came over from Lone Rock Wednesday to purchase some of the celebrated Cunningham brooks. They returned home yesterday morning.

The Bennett Hotel at Arlington has been moved to the old location near the depot, to Main St., about two blocks from the depot, where its proprietor will welcome you as of old.

T. J. Allen was up from the Lone country last Wednesday. In conversation with him he tells us that there is no mistake about his being married, though he thinks it rather a regrettable circumstance.

J. H. Korman informs our reporter that he has had an excellent trade ever since he opened up, which he attributes to the low prices he is able to give them, because of the fact that he runs a strictly cash store.

Rev. Edwin Palmer, the new minister for the M. E. church, South, arrived last Tuesday evening from Anderson, Cal. Mr. Palmer is a very pleasant gentleman, and will doubtless take well with the people of Heppner.

Those members of the old Heppner cornet band who have any property belonging to the band in their possession, music, helmets, plumes, patches, uniforms, are requested to deliver same to Homer McFarland at once.

There is no use in suffering with rheumatism as long as you can get Oingo Oil. It is for sale by all druggists at $2 per bottle, but it would be dirt cheap at four times the price. It is a positive cure for rheumatism, and no mistake. Try it and be convinced.

We desire to call the attention of our readers to the fact that the Elgin Herald, also mine host of the Alta house, who, being of a confident nature, took stock in the representations of the plausible fraud who stated that he worked the Elgin mine and among other prominent men had taken a risk on ex-Governor Moody, for which his honor had given him his check for $18.00 on the bank at The Dalles. Being a little short and desiring to settle his bill he tendered Mr. Beau the ex-Gov's check which was taken and was not squared to date. Mr. Beau presented the check at the counter very kindly while here, and wish to thank the good people of Heppner, through the columns of the Gazette, for the courtesies shown them and the many contributions given them in this city.

When the hair begins to come out in clumps, it shows a weakness of the scalp that calls for immediate attention. The best preparation to arrest further loss of hair and restore the scalp to a healthy condition is Ayer's Hair Vigor.

J. Watermelon Redington, of Heppner, a well known local property and stockholder, was in this city Wednesday and looking after his property and shaking hands with old friends here. John left yesterday morning for his home in Payalop, where he is now editing a first class family sheet.

"Save who can!" was the frantic cry of Napoleon to his army at Waterloo. Save health and strength while you can, by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, is advice that applies to all, both young and old. Don't wait until disease fastens on you; begin at once.

Uncle Thos. Scott, postmaster at Gallop, was seen on our streets this morning. In conversation with him he informs our reporter that, although he sent in his resignation as postmaster at Gallop, yet on increase of salary he has decided to retain the position.

The general merchandise establishment formerly owned by C. H. & M. Farland, has lately changed hands, now being under the control and management of The McFarland Mercantile Company, which continues business at the old stand with a larger stock than ever.

Late word from Dan Neville, who is at Seaside, where he is large holder of sheep, reports him within a few days' drive of Cheyenne, with good range, fat sheep and pleasant weather. He will return to Heppner in time for the presidential election, when he confidently expects to kill his father's vote.

Milton Hale of Wagner, was in the city several days this week making arrangements to dispose of some 60 head of hogs which he had fattened on his Wagner ranch. He informed our reporter that he had sold them to Sam Korman, and would drive them over at an early date.

John Zellinger and wife came down from the mountains Tuesday evening, returning yesterday morning. John's friends were pleased to note that he had discarded his crutches some time since, now being able to walk with the assistance of two canes. John isn't a dead man yet by any means.

Warren Curner, accompanied by his daughter Maud, arrived from Wagner last Wednesday evening. Miss Maud will remain in Heppner and attend the public school here this winter. Mr. Curner informs us that he will also put his boy in school here if he can secure a boarding place here for him in a private family.

Bob Shaw arrived yesterday from Grand County with 307 head of cattle, which he had purchased over the John Day, of Henry Blackwell. Bob in turn disposed of them to Messrs. Oscar Thompson and Bob Stanfield, of Butter creek, the former purchasing 100 head and the latter the remainder. These gentlemen will feed them over winter for spring market.

In the last issue of the Gazette we neglected to mention the fact that J. W. Dawson and T. R. Lyons, two young lawyers from Portland, had come to Heppner with the intention of locating, if everything looked favorable. Later we learn from them that they have decided to remain here, and will open up a law office in the room formerly occupied by G. B. Hart's barber shop, next door to E. L. Mathews. These gentlemen will give their entire time to collections, law and notarial work, and coming as they do, well recommended, we bespeak for them liberal patronage.

VICTIM OF A LOVER'S QUARREL.—Miss Birdie Morton, who for many months has been recognized as the belle of Mount Tabor valley, a suburb about five miles east of Portland, now lies at the point of death, a victim of a lover's quarrel.

Birdie Wolf, the assassin, watched for some time for Miss Morton to leave the house, and when she did, she shot her down in cold blood. Wolf immediately made his escape and at last reports had not yet been captured, though it is thought by many that he has committed suicide in the woods near by. Birdie Wolf up to last night commanded high respect. He studied law in the office of Judge C. S. Hanna for a long time, and was regarded as a model young man. He is now in his 22nd year, is 5 feet 8 inches in height, 22 years of age and weighs about 165 pounds. Yesterday he wore a blue coat, light pants and a Derby hat. His coat had a brown collar. He has a very heavy mustache and dark hair. His most promise at last was a large Roman nose. Altogether he is quite a good-looking fellow. Birdie Morton was an exemplary young lady, and to say that the community is shocked by her tragic fate would hardly express it. All night her home was thronged by sympathizing friends, and not a few suspicious threats against Wolf, in case he was caught, were made. But it is probable that no demonstration will be made, although the feeling against him is very strong. Much sympathy is expressed for his relatives, who keenly feel the terrible affliction that has been brought upon them.

A CRUEL JOKE.—A young gentleman by the name of Lawrence Hodgman, of Elgin, Illinois, advertised in the "Heart and Hand," requesting that some fair maiden correspond with him—"object matrimony." A cruel joker, of Pendleton, who writes a good feminine hand, at once began a warm and effusive correspondence with the Elgin victim, which was answered by letters brim full of love. Of course the proposal was at once accepted, and the Elgin "society" who it seems is quite wealthy, arrived to claim his bride and take her on a wedding tour through Oregon and California, and then carry her back to Elgin, where they were to be met by the band and escorted to their new home. However, Hodgman, soon after his arrival in Pendleton, learned that his prospective bride was a cruel youth, who had deceived him with a picture of a beautiful actress, and at once consulted an attorney with the intention of bringing suit against the joker who worked him, to recover damages for misrepresentation. Although the Elgin "society" may have just cause to sue, yet we would advise him to slip quietly back to Elgin, and never mention it, and the next time he feels matrimonially inclined, don't come west for suit snaps, for they don't exist here, down east is their native home.

HIS GAME WORKED SMOOTHLY.—A gay and festive individual representing a prominent local insurance company, worked Pendleton in good shape a few days since, says the Oregon Alliance Herald. Also mine host of the Alta house, who, being of a confident nature, took stock in the representations of the plausible fraud who stated that he worked the Elgin mine and among other prominent men had taken a risk on ex-Governor Moody, for which his honor had given him his check for $18.00 on the bank at The Dalles. Being a little short and desiring to settle his bill he tendered Mr. Beau the ex-Gov's check which was taken and was not squared to date. Mr. Beau presented the check at the counter of the First National Bank in this city with its endorsement; it was paid. Five days passed; Mr. Beau received notice to call at the bank, notified the paper was worthless and a forgery; for the information he was charged $3 additional. Not long since the cashier of that same institution came near investing $100, but fortune was on his side and the party discharged. But not so with mine host of the Alta. He is out and the insurance man has gone where the woodbine twines.

GOOD NEWS FROM EGBERG.—From the representatives of Doric Lodge No. 20, Knights of Pythias of Heppner, Henry Blackman and Otis Patterson, we learn that the Grand Lodge Conclave, which is now in session in that city, is a very interesting one, a large number of Knights being present, and the majority of the lodges in this state fully represented. Ed Sharou, of Pendleton, who as faithfully served as Grand Vice Chancellor during the past year, has been elected Grand Chancellor for the ensuing year. This is the highest office in the grand lodge and it is quite a compliment to Mr. Sharou, as well as the Pendleton lodges. But that which was most gratifying to the members of Doric lodge No. 20, and interested Heppnerites, was the telegram announcing the fact that Heppner gets the next session of the grand lodge, by an almost unanimous vote. This is a great honor to be able to get the next annual session of that body to convene in this city, and every means should and will be taken to entertain them royally during their session here next year. Verily Heppner has a great resolution away from home, even if some of our people here do call it a country town.

WILL GET A WARM RECEPTION.—The members of the congregation of the First Methodist church are preparing a warm reception for their new pastor, Rev. Henry Rossmus, some evening next week says the Spokane Evening Star. Mr. Rossmus was the unanimous choice of the congregation, and his appointment by the recent conference at Walla Walla was very naturally highly gratifying to them. He is not only exceedingly popular, but is one of the most eloquent preachers in the Northwest. The selection of W. W. Van Dusen of Walla Walla as presiding elder to succeed Mr. Rossmus, also gives general satisfaction among the Methodists of Spokane. Walla Walla Statesman.

A NEW NEIGHBOR.—Geo. W. Lord has moved into the former art gallery over Messrs. Brown & Hamilton's office, and has fitted up for architecture work. He is prepared to contract for all kinds of buildings, or will supervise construction, and purchase material for the same, giving his customers the benefit of his experience and percentage.

FASHIONABLE DRESSMAKER.—Mrs. Fordward's dressmaking parlors, on lower Main street, one block below the Heppner National Bank, is a late enterprise in Heppner. She has a first-class dressmaker from Portland, and is prepared to do all kinds of work in the latest style.

SHOEMAKER.—Ed Birbeck, a shoemaker and repairer of many years' experience, has just located in the Abrahamson building, on May street, where he is prepared to do everything in his line. Mr. Birbeck is strictly a first-class work, and warrants all work. Give him a call.

A Little Girl's Experience in a Light-house.—Mr. and Mrs. Loren Tressot are keepers of the Gov. light-house at Sand Beach, Mich., and are blessed with a daughter four years old. Last April she was taken down with measles, followed with a dreadful cough and turning into a fever. Doctors at home and at Detroit treated her, but in vain, she grew worse rapidly until she was a mere "handful of bones."

Then she tried Dr. King's New Discovery, and after the use of two and a half bottles, was completely cured. They say Dr. King's New Discovery is worth its weight in gold, yet you may get a trial bottle free at Slocum-Johnston Drug Co.'s store.

Strength and Health.—If you are not feeling strong and healthy, try Electric Bitters. It is grippiness left you weak and weary, use Electric Bitters. This remedy acts directly on liver, stomach and kidneys, gently aiding these organs to perform their functions. If you are afflicted with sick headache, you will find speedy and permanent relief by taking Electric Bitters. One trial will convince you that this is the remedy you need. Large bottles only 50c at Slocum-Johnston Drug Co.'s.

Backen's Anus Salve.—The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever, sore, tetter, chapped hands, chubins, corns, and all skin eruptions, and positively cures piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction, or money refunded. With the specific, it becomes an utter impossibility for the liquor appetite to exist. Cures guaranteed. 48 page book of particulars free. Address the GOLDEN SPECIFIC CO., 185 Race Street, Cincinnati, Ohio.

DRUNKENNESS or the LIQUOR HABIT.—Cured at Home in Ten Days by Administering Dr. Hanes' Golden Specific.

It can be given in a glass of beer, a cup of coffee or tea, or in food, without the knowledge of the patient. It is absolutely harmless, and will effect a permanent cure, speedily, whether the patient is a moderate drinker or an alcoholic wreck. It has been given in thousands of cases, and in every instance a perfect cure has followed. It never fails. The system once impregnated with the specific, it becomes an utter impossibility for the liquor appetite to exist. Cures guaranteed. 48 page book of particulars free. Address the GOLDEN SPECIFIC CO., 185 Race Street, Cincinnati, Ohio.

"Any Port is a Shore."

That's a good maxim, but it will not work as a rule in the purchase of a remedy for Rheumatism. Any of the cheap nostrums will not effect a cure—in fact none of them will. Don't trifle with life and prolong agony. Get Dr. Druggist's Lightning Remedy, and a speedy cure is certain. It costs $5 a bottle, but one bottle is worth a hundred of anything else, and for that reason it is the cheapest when a cure is wanted. Sent to any address by prepaid express on receipt of price. Druggist's Medicine Co., 48-50 Maiden Lane, N. Y. Agents wanted. 33

Beware of Outcasts For Fear That Contain Mercury.

As mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescription from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is too sad to be good, you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally, and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. CHENEY & CO. Testimonials free.

Sold by Druggists, price 75c per bottle.
