HOW'S THIS, SOLDIERS!

Some of the northern papers are howling about the positive fact that Grover Cleveland hired a cheap man to represent him when the north pillaged and plundered and burned and ravished the south. There could not be a better recommendation. The scamps of the north who went into the war, went in for $14 a month, with an explicit understanding that they should and could steal all that was in sight. Grover Cleveland knew that the country would need his services in 1867 and again in 1872, and he did not propose to have his body filled with lead in order to give a Yankee a chance to pick his pocket after he had been killed. He simply did a good business job, as he did when he slipped the dirty beggars, called pensioners, in the face. Why should he—a statesman and a man of his intellect—take the chance of war, when he could hire a cheap fellow to represent him? There is no reason. That is one of the best things that Cleveland ever did. Had he fought, he would have been lowered in the estimation of the south. He did not propose to use his skill in killing the boys of the southland. The solid south owes a debt of gratitude to Grover Cleveland.—N. Carolina Globe.

How does this suit you, soldier? Can you conscientiously vote for the candidate of the South? Are you "the scamp" who went into the war for $14 a month? Or perhaps it was a brother or father. And now he is a "dirty beggar." A soldier, a patriot, was joined in the face by Cleveland. The editor of the Globe is not a true southerner or he would not use such language, but if Cleveland is that sort of a man he should not be elected, and if the boys know themselves, will not be.

A FRENCHER in the Palouse country, whose name is withheld on account of his friends, has been investigating the matter and discovers that he, with all its appointments, is located at Oakesdale, and the Sun at that place takes advantage of the situation to do a little townsite booming as follows: Olfax may have her court house, Palouse City may keep her sawmill, Pullman is welcome to her agricultural college, and Spokane her water power. Many other towns have the above named industries, but Oakesdale is alone in her glory. There are many other court houses, saw mills, agricultural colleges and water-powers, but there is only one heil, and if the reverend gentleman's words be true, Oakesdale has a "scoop" on the entire world. All hail, Oakesdale, the peerless princess of the world!—Northwest Magazine.

The first issue of the John Day Sentinel under the new management, made its appearance last week on a half sheet, owing to the fact that the office was attached and closed several days by a business firm of that city. However, under the circumstances it makes a creditable appearance, and warms the people up in good shape on the populist's views and theories, as to the general fitness of things.

The celebration, incident to the 400th anniversary of the landing of Columbus, just held in New York City, was grand in every feature. But now this is over, and next comes Chicago's time, and it is a safe wager that she will not be outdone by New York. On the other hand, if within her power, Chicago will outdo the Empire State city; at least she will go in with that determination.

No possible hope for Mrs. Harrison's recovery, is the latest report from the White House. Her condition becomes graver with the passing of every hour, and her death is now considered only a question of time. Mr. Harrison has the sympathy of every true American during the hour of sickness.

Hon. Geo. C. BROWNELL has been secured as the Columbus Day orator for Heppner. Mr. Brownell is a young orator, not excelled by any in his class. His speech that day will be strictly non-partisan and fully appropriate for such an occasion.

PRINVILLE will be lighted by electric lights as soon as the plant can be placed in position. Good for Prineville.

Hon. Geo. C. BROWNELL will be the Columbus Day orator for Heppner.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS

A Successful Meeting of the Grand Lodge, K. of P. of Oregon—Officers Elected.
The Grand Lodge, Knights of Pythias, convened in Eugene on Tuesday of last week. Delegation began to arrive in Eugene Monday. About fifty members of the uniformed ranks from Willamette, Castle, Ivanhoe and Germania Divisions arrived in a special car Monday night. The afternoon local Tuesday brought in a uniformed division from Albany together with the Albany band. At 3:30 o'clock the parade formed in front of the Masonic Hall and marched west on 8th street, thence north on Olive and returning down Willamette to the public school ground. The procession was headed by Mayor McClung and councilmen in carriages with prominent officers of the K. of P. Following came the Albany band, the uniformed ranks of the order, the Eugene band, visiting delegates and members of our local lodge. On reaching the school campus the competitive drill of the uniformed ranks was held. It was expected that three divisions would compete but when the time came only one, Ivanhoe No. 8, of Portland, entered. They drilled well and won the prize of course by default of the others entering. The captain, Al Werlin, however, deserves praise for his skillful maneuvering of the men. After the drill the uniformed divisions were drawn up in line and a photograph was taken by C. L. Winter.

Tuesday evening the reception was held in Rhinehart's opera house. Mayor McClung, in behalf of Eugene City, bid the Grand Lodge cordial welcome in a few well chosen words. In behalf of the local lodge, K. of P., Dr. Loomis extended hearty welcome to the visiting members of the order. Grand Chancellor, J. T. Hayne, in behalf of the Grand Lodge expressed their appreciation of their cordiality in an appropriate response.

Mr. Hayne then presented Ivanhoe Division with the prize they won in the competitive drill. It consisted of a large silver water tankard.

Grand Orator Fitch delivered the oration of the evening which was pregnant with beautiful sentiments. Past Grand Chancellor Cleveland of Astoria being called upon paid a fitting tribute to the exercises of the evening.

Wednesday morning the session was called to order and the work of the grand lodge was begun in regular routine, committees appointed and assigned their work.

Grand Chancellor Hayne read his annual report. Nine new lodges were added to the list during the past year, viz: Juventus, No. 48; Stevens, No. 49; Thermopylae, No. 50; Grant's Pass; Hercules, No. 51; Milton; Lucullus, No. 52; Junction City; Aurora, No. 54; Wasco; Starr, No. 55; Oswego.

Confidence, No. 25, at Arlington, was reorganized during the early part of this year.

Four new divisions of the uniform rank have been instituted during the past year and four more are in view. There are now 12 divisions in the state.

Supreme Chancellor Shaw and Major General Carnahan visited the state during the past year and were given a knightly reception in Portland.

Geo. Hochstetler read a joint report by himself and Wilson T. Hume of the doings of the supreme lodge at Kansas City. There were 12,000 uniformed knights on the tested field.

A new ritual was adopted. It will be printed only in the English language.

The election of officers occurred at Wednesday afternoon's session, resulting in the election of the following officers:

Grand Chancellor—E. E. Sharon, Pendleton.
Grand vice-chancellor—J. A. Waddle, Portland.
Grand prelate—J. L. Hill, Albany.
Grand master at arms—Dr. E. P. Geary, Medford.
Grand K. of R. & S.—George McConnell, Ashland.
Grand master of exchequer—E. M. Sirgent, Portland.
Grand inner guard—J. O. Watts, Eugene.
Grand outer guard—Charles Fellows, Portland.
Grand trustee—J. T. Hayne, Portland.

Henry Blackman was also placed in nomination for grand chancellor by A. A. Cleveland of Astoria, but declined and seconded Sharon's nomination, of which the telegraphic report to the Portland Telegram says the following:

"Hon. Henry Blackman covered himself with glory by seconding the nomination of E. E. Sharon for grand chancellor, and himself declining the honors. He is the oldest past chancellor in Eastern Oregon, and is a wheel-horse in the order."

Wednesday evening and Thursday morning's business was mostly routine. The state has been redistricted, and the incoming grand chancellor announced his appointment of deputies that evening. The grand lodge appointed a set of officers to confer the amplified rank in Heilmet lodge, of Eugene.

Upon invitation of D. V. S. Reid, principal of the public schools, a committee visited the schools during the forenoon. The grand lodge rank was conferred upon one past chancellor.

A number of amendments to the constitution were offered, and under the rules were laid over one year.

The fair village Heppner was selected as the place of meeting for the next grand lodge, of which selection the Eugene Guard gives Durie Lodge's representatives the following credit:

"Heppner was chosen as the place for the next meeting of the grand lodge, by practically an unanimous vote. The hard work of Senator Blackman and editor Otis Patterson accomplished the victory for the Eastern Oregon town."

After accepting an invitation to attend a grand ball, especially arranged for the visitors' benefit and entertainment, at which all enjoyed themselves, the grand lodge adjourned to meet in this city the second Tuesday in October, 1893.

Bank building, down May to Chase street, thence down Chase to Center, back to Main at First National Bank building, thence down Main to Church street, thence over to Gale past M. E. church, up Gale to May, over to Main again and down Main to Opera House where Hon. Geo. C. Brownell, of Oregon City, will deliver the oration, and the Columbian Day exercises will be completed, after which will occur the grand barbeque dinner, followed by racing at the park in the afternoon. In the evening will occur the G. A. R. exercises and campfire, as per program on first page.

Saturday, Oct. 22, 1893.
The forenoon will be occupied by the members of the G. A. R. in secret session, in which all members in good standing are expected to participate. Rawlins Post will probably be pleased to receive additional members on this occasion.

In the afternoon will occur racing at the park, and in the evening a ball will be given at the opera house in honor of the G. A. R. boys, to which they and families are invited. All others are expected to purchase tickets. The proceeds of the ball will go towards defraying the expenses of the celebration and reunion. Tickets for ball will be on sale at the drug stores.

COMMUNICATION.

EDITOR OF THE GAZETTE.—Please inform a reader of your paper, list, whether a man can be fenced in by his neighbors so that he can not go to or from his ranch? 2nd, Can a road be established that has been in use for over ten years? 3rd, What length of time must be given before a road can be changed? Yours,
Raw Dog.

HARDY, OR., Oct. 11, 1892.
In answer to question No. 1, I will say you cannot be fenced in from the public highway by anyone owning land adjoining or surrounding your ranch. If they refuse you outlet, you can force same according to Hill's Code or Laws of Oregon, Sec. 4076, p. 1728, which you will find as follows:

Sec. 4075. "Whenever it shall appear to the county court of any county in this state, by the sworn petition of any person, that the residence of such person is not reached by any convenient public road herebefore provided by law, and that it is necessary that the public and such persons shall have ingress to and egress from the residence of such person, the county court shall thereupon appoint three disinterested freeholders of the county as viewers, and cause an order to be issued directing them to meet at a time therein specified, and not less than ten days from the making of such order, and view out and locate a county road thirty feet in width from the residence of such person to some other public road or navigable stream, according to the application, and to assess damages to be sustained, a copy of which order shall be served upon the persons through whose land said road shall pass within four days after the making of such order."

In reference to No. 2, can hardly say. As a source of, perhaps, a little consolation, might say that Oregon's road laws at the best are very "lame." However, Sec. 4101 says: "If a road or any part of it shall not be opened for four years after, or from the time of its location, the same shall be declared vacant." You may also get some information on this point from Sec. 4074, and probably from some other sections of the laws governing public highways.

In answer to the 3rd question will say: A petition must be signed and notice posted thirty days before county court meets. When they meet same will be acted upon, viewers and surveyor appointed, when petition will be considered. If getting up petition it would be necessary to show that the proposed change does not injure the public, and that it does not materially lighten the road. All expenses connected with the viewing and surveying of same must be paid by petitioners. If viewers and surveyor report favorably, the road would be opened at the following term of court. Sec. 4072, p. 1726, of Hill's Laws of Oregon will cover this, partially at least.
