Miss Anne Ayers is up from Salem, and we are informed that her parents will shortly locate here again. This is indeed pleasing to their many friends in Heppner and vicinity.

E. H. Clarke, who is a familiar figure in these parts, was over from Pendleton Saturday. E. H. is as big a favorite of Heppner ladies as with the numerous spectators of Morrow county.

T. J. Stogelius and wife, Billy and Eva Crowley, Ad. Couger, Emma Roberts and family, representatives of Long Creek, who attended our races and celebration last week, left for Long Creek this morning.

A lot of cattle from the Gilman-French possession over at Cornucop were supplied below Friday last on a special. There seems to be a big demand for cattle here, and this section is doing its share towards supplying it.

The nights are frosty, and neighboring front yards show by their verdure, "the here and yellow leaf," but autumn is a-coming, and the weather is becoming more being directed to Morrow county at present cannot be imagined.

Thus, Morgan, one of our worthy school directors, who at present is sojourning at Canyon City, will please call at the Gazette, Park & Cox's in town Friday when he will find some papers awaiting his signature. Don't miss this to our district.

There is no better medicine for family use than Ayer's Cathartic Pills. Their sugar-coating makes them easy and even agreeable to take, and as they contain no opium or other injurious drug, they are perfectly safe for patients of any age.

The great Dr. Boerhaave left three directions for preserving the health—keep the feet warm, the head cool, and the bowels open. Had he practiced in our day, he might have avoided, and purged the blood with Ayer's Sarsaparilla; but he certainly would consider it the best.

J. N. Brown returned last evening from Portland, where he had gone to have his eye examined by an oculist. Mr. Brown thinks his eye will be all right as soon as the inflammation leaves and he has quit using the medicine, as it was this that greatly enlarged the pupil, thus making it almost impossible for him to see.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Miss Beatrice Dennis, of Salem, to Chas. M. Whitehead, of Portland. Wedding to occur Wednesday Nov. 2, 1892, 11 o'clock a. m. at the Williamette Parlor, Salem, Ore., on Miss Dennis, the daughter of Rev. H. F. Dennis, who was at one time a minister in Heppner, but now located at Lewiston, Idaho.

SUDDEN DEATH.—Heppner people were surprised to learn of the death of Ben Pressley, step-son of George Vinson, at 5 o'clock p. m. last Saturday evening. It appears that he was injured down in Wasco county a few weeks ago by a horse falling on him, but he was not considered to be in a serious condition till early last week, when his folks at Heppner were notified and he was brought home. He only lived a few days after reaching here. Deceased was about 19 years of age, and was well respected. The funeral occurred at the M. E. church yesterday morning, the interment occurring immediately afterwards in the Heppner cemetery.

STAND BY OUR RECORD.—Though Friday was a legal holiday, a few of our business men did not observe it by closing up, though the majority did so. It has long been the custom of Heppner people to close up on legal holidays, and should a few fail to do so it will cause others to keep open. Heppner has a record of being the "biggest little town in the Northwest," and we should not in any way lower our standing in the estimation of the people.

A NEW NEIGHBOR.—Geo. W. Lord has moved into the former art gallery over Messrs. Brown & Hamilton's office, and has fitted up for architecture work. He is prepared to contract for all kinds of buildings, or will supervise construction, and purchase material for the same, giving his customers the benefit of his experience and percentage. 532-1f

They increase appetite, purify the whole system and act on the liver. Small Pills Beans.

RUNAWAY.—J. F. Corlies met with a runaway over in Sanford canyon Monday of last week. A saddle horse came bucking down the hill with the saddle under him, which scared his team, and being unable to hold them, away they went, but we believe an invoice of damages did not foot up very high, fortunately.

NARROW ESCAPE.—Billy Hildebrand, while working out at T. J. Matlock's ranch last Friday, was severely kicked in the back, and though he escaped any broken bones, it is a puzzle as to how it was done. He came to town Monday, and with some effort was able to get around.

FASHIONABLE DRESSMAKING.—Mrs. Forwood has secured a first-class dressmaker from Portland, and fashionable dress is guaranteed. Parlors, Main street, one block below the National Bank of Heppner. 34-1f.

GRAND CELEBRATION.

A Roaring Success in Every Particular.

THE G. A. R. BOYS HAVE THEIR TIME.

Saturday Morning Occupied in Taking in New Members in Their Ranks—The Ball in the Evening.

The program for Friday's celebration was carried out almost to a letter, except that the address was made by Hon. W. R. Ellis, in the absence of Hon. Geo. C. Brownell. The parade was ably managed by Marshal E. L. Matlock, which was pronounced a success in every particular.

The ode for Columbus Day was recited by Miss Martha Neville, who was highly complimented. Miss Neville had a full appreciation of what was necessary in the rendition of that beautiful piece, and she captured the audience from the very beginning of the recitation.

The following written program was carried out in the evening:

1. Music by the band.
2. Music by the choir.
3. Prayer by Rev. Bramblet.
4. "America" by choir.
5. Welcome address, Frank Kellogg.
6. Response, by D. C. Ely.
7. "Glory Hallelujah," by the choir.
8. Recitation by Miss Beattie Estes.
9. "Star Spangled Banner" by choir.
10. Recitation by Oscar Borg.
11. Ode by band.
12. Address by N. J. Sanoott.
13. Music "Columbia" by choir.
14. Song by Dallas Daupman, "Virginia Lawland."
15. Song by Mrs. Stevenson.
16. Recitation by Myrtle Brown, "Going to the Soldiers Home."
17. Recitation by Harlan Stanton.
18. "Home Sweet Home," by choir.
19. "Drummer Boy," Cora Driskell.
20. "Soldier's Letter," Annie Webb.
21. "Dragon's Saber," Stella Webb.
22. "No. 42" by Harlan Stanton.
23. "Stars and Stripes," H. Stanton.
24. Music by band "Marching Thro' Georgia."
25. Miscellaneous.

This was followed by an "unwritten program," but the master of ceremonies, Mr. Willis, failed to hand in his list, hence we cannot publish it.

Mr. N. J. Sanoott's speech was a masterly effort and warmly applauded. He has ability in this line, rarely equalled and seldom excelled by so young a man, being only in his 23d year. We will, perhaps, publish same in full in our next issue.

Harlan Stanton in his Dutch recitations took the house. The whole program, in fact, was quite good, and the audience of one thousand people went away well pleased.

SATURDAY'S PROGRAM.

The G. A. R. boys spent the morning in secret session in the Odd Fellow's hall and in the evening occurred the ball at which all old soldiers were invited.

RESOLUTION OF THANKS.

The members of Rawlins Post, G. A. R. No. 31, hereby return their sincere thanks to the citizens of Heppner, the members of the Cornet Band, the secret societies, and especially the ladies of the choir and city for their cordial reception and entertainment of the veteran soldiers who met in Heppner in celebration of Columbus Day; also to the speaker, Mr. N. J. Sanoott, for his eloquent and patriotic address. We shall always remember with most kindly feelings all those who assisted us in this great celebration, and will carry with us to our homes the fond remembrance of the kind treatment we received from all the citizens of Heppner.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be furnished the Heppner papers for publication.

"Judge."

The Omaha Bee, in speaking of Judge, says that it did fair work in 1884, excellent work in 1888, but that in this campaign it is outdoing itself. Judge was never making such great hits as it is this year; it is leaving all its rivals behind. Such great pictures as the "Cleveland Parachute" and the bursting of the Peck boom are memorable in campaign oratoring. But Judge has some great pictures in store, and the five papers for the next five weeks of the campaign will be sent for fifty cents. Address the Judge Publishing Co., 110 Fifth avenue, New York City.

The Gaze and President.

Who will be president? Send your answer, with eight two-cent stamps for a sample copy of the Canadian Queen, containing rules and conditions, and secure one of the following valuable prizes:

To the first correct answer will be awarded a Steinway or Chickering piano; the next two, each a pair of beautiful diamond earrings; the next ten, each a first-class sewing machine, and to the last ten will be awarded each a full silver tea service (value $20.00).

In addition to these, every person correctly naming the next president will have their choice of a magnificent diamond bracelet, a pair of diamond earrings, or an imported opera glass.

Contest closes Nov. 7th. Any letter postmarked that date will be accepted.

During the contest special prizes will be given to the first ten answers received each day, without regard to name of candidate.

All prizes for the U. S. free of duty. Address: Dept. "A."

THE QUEEN PUBLISHING CO., Ltd., Toronto, Canada.

The American Wool Interest.

Is the title of an exceptionally interesting pamphlet of 64 pages, just published by the American Protective Tariff League, and edited by Hon. Wm. Lawrence, President of the Ohio Wool Growers Association. Every person who wants to know all about the wool question should send for a copy. Price, six cents. Address, WILSON F. WAKEMAN, General Secretary, 135 West 23d Street, New York.

SHOEMAKER.—Ed Birbeck, a shoemaker and repairer of many years' experience, has just located in the Abrahamson building, on May street, where he is prepared to do everything in his line. Mr. Birbeck is strictly a first-class workman and warrants all work. Give him a call. 14-1f
