

A GRAND PRIZE. BIBLE COMPETITION.

$2,000 IN PRIZES
Will be Equally Distributed.

For several years past competitions of an instructive order have been offered by reputable business houses and manufacturers in England with the object of increasing their sales and interesting their customers in their respective goods. These contests, on account of unquestioned fairness displayed in conducting them, have interested the best people of Great Britain. Believing that competitions of a manufacturing nature such as ours, and conducted in the same honorable manner, would excite universal interest among the intelligent people of the United States and Canada, our company has decided to offer a prize competition in which our effort will be to make it strictly fair and impartial. The intention is to satisfy every one entering this competition that they have been fully credited with the position which their efforts have earned for them. We are sure that this class of a prize contest will receive the approval of parents and all those who have the instruction of the young at heart. The prizes to be awarded in this competition will consist entirely of articles of sufficient value to be appreciated by every person receiving one as a fair reward for the efforts put forth by them. Our intention is to divide the amount to be given away in prizes, varying in value from eight to one hundred dollars each, and we enter into an honorable agreement with those entering this competition to distribute fairly two thousand dollars in prizes.

PRIZE BIBLE COMPETITION.
We will pay ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS in cash to the first person who correctly answers the following questions: Where in the Bible do the following words first appear: 1. RAIN; 2. BREAD; 3. MILK. The second person answering correctly will receive FIFTY DOLLARS in cash. The third person sending correct answers will receive FIFTY DOLLARS in cash. The next ten will each receive one elegant Silk Dress pattern (sixteen yards in any color). The next ten will each receive a first-class pair of Opera Glasses.

LAST PRIZES.—The thirty-three persons sending the thirty-three correct answers who have received last will receive duplicates of the prizes that are awarded for the first thirty-three correct answers. The last correct answer receiving the One Hundred Dollars, the next to the last the seventy-five Dollars, and so on until the thirty-three prizes for the last thirty-three correct answers have been distributed.

SPECIAL PRIZES.—A prize consisting of an elegant Lady's or Gentleman's Watch will be given to the person sending the first correct answer which is the first received from their state or Province.

Answers must be accompanied with fifteen United States two-cent postage stamps for one package of FRANKFORD, which is the latest scientific discovery for cleansing and preserving the teeth. Our object is to introduce and attract attention to FRANKFORD, which is the only preparation whose manufacturers are willing to offer a reward of Five Hundred Dollars to any dentist who can show that it is superior to the tooth. A mouthful of tooth powder is the surest sign of its constant use. It is recommended by the leaders of the dental profession everywhere. Ask your dentist what he thinks of it. FRANKFORD is sent by mail, post paid, and free of charge.

Be sure and send your answers to-day. You may receive a valuable prize for your trouble. Address

WORKING THE TAILOR.

Original scheme of a Philadelphia inventor. An ingenious swindle was recently worked successfully upon a Chestnut street druggist and a Chestnut street tailor, says the Philadelphia Inquirer. The criminal was a young man of intelligence, address, whose somewhat shabby clothes were brushed clean and his boots polished. Entering the pharmacy he informed the proprietor that the tailor, whose name he gave, was suffering with dyspepsia, and had requested that some medicine be sent to him. The druggist ordered a prescription, and while it was being compounded entered into a chat with the stranger, who paid for the bottle of medicine, and, before taking it away, asked the druggist to have another vial ready, and said that the tailor would call for it in a day or two. Then the swindler went to the tailor and ordered a suit of clothes, the price of which was fifty dollars. He wanted the garments made up in a hurry, and they were ready for him two days afterwards. He put them on in the store and left his back-number suit to be sent to a fictitious address. "My friend," he said to the tailor (giving the name of the druggist) "has some money of mine, and if you will walk down there I will pay the bill." The tailor and the artful forger reached the pharmacy. "I perceive that we are all acquainted," the swindler said as they shook hands. "Now," he continued, speaking to the druggist, "give Mr. — what I left here for him and excuse me for a moment." With that he slipped out of a side entrance, and the druggist handed the tailor a vial wrapped in the customary white paper. "What do I want with this?" asked the sartorial artist. "That," responded the pharmacist, "is what your friend gave me to get for you." "Not at all!" the tailor ejaculated. "I understand that you have the cash for the clothes that he got from me." They started each other in the face for thirty seconds and made a simultaneous rush for the door through which the mutual friend had disappeared. But he was not in sight.
