UP IN MARION COUNTY.

From the Portland Dispatch There is a good deal of difference of opinion about how Nathan Pierce's name shall be placed on the ballots for the coming election. T. Cader Powell, the county clerk here, will put it on but once. In Marion county it is different, howev er. The clerk there knew not which born of the dilemma to grasp, but after conferring with the attorney general and the chairmen of the state republican and state democratic central committees he determined to place Mr. Pierce's name on the ballot in two places, grouped as a fusion candidate (democratic-people's party) among the democrats and as a people's party nominee among the other electors. In this manner the ballots will be printed, the name of Mr. Pierce appearing in two places, in two diff-rent groups and under two distinct numbers. Mr. Egan is endeavoring to follow the
