LONG CREEK, Or., Nov. 16, 1892 J. H. Kolman, Heppner, Or .:

DEAR SIE-The Bill of Goods I purchased from you when I was in your city last week, I am well pleased and satisfied with. Must admit that I bought them from you at almost one half what I would have had to pay elsewhere in your city. The farmers and stockmen of this and adjoining counties congratulate you on your good and noble work in opening up at Heppner and throwing a bomb shell into high prices. It is our duty to patronize you and we shall all noite in extending our patronage to the Boston Cash Store.

Brother Kolman, keep up the good work, and bless you for the bargains you are extending to us all, and hope your trade will increase tenfold, as you deserve it. With best wishes, Respectfully Yours, J. M
