Now is the time to clean and oil your harness for the winter. And don't forget that C-burn's Ivory Black Harness Oil is the best for the purpose. For sale by P. C. Thompson Co.

Joe Rhea recently dehorned 120 head of cattle for W. O. Minor, and this evening well. One Rhea's head of 80 head were dehorned by J. A. Wooley, of Lone, and they too are in fine condition.

Owing to the fact that job stock has advanced about twenty per cent from reasons which will be explained elsewhere, we are compelled to make a slight advance on all printing. A reduction will be made as soon as prices of material will justify same.

Hattree's Congo Oil is rapidly coming to the front as a leading medicine. J. A. Harrison, the Fossil constable, applied it to his legs, which were recently kicked by a horse, and next day he threw aside his crutches. "It's the best," Harrison says. Lyman Brown tried the oil for rheumatism with which he has been troubled for years, and this is what he says: "It kicked it after two applications." 543-17.

The correctness of the maxim "nothing succeeds like success" is well exemplified in Ayer's Sarsaparilla. The most successful combination of all the best and tonic, it always succeeds in causing diseases of the blood, and hence its world-wide popularity.

W. C. Brown, of Lone Rock, was over Saturday.

Johnny Keeney, brother of Eli, is back to Heppner.

Fred Ashbaugh was in from McKinney creek yesterday.

Joe Weber, manager of the Home Mutual Ins. Co., is in town.

Mrs. Hick Mathews returned Saturday from a visit to Centralia, Wash.

Quite a number of our neighboring young men have secured work on the waterworks.

Heppner's school has 325 pupils, an unprecedented number and fully 75 more than last year.

Mrs. Joe Luckman is in very poor health, and will come to town shortly for treatment.

The Day Johnson land contest was adjourned from Saturday noon until 10 o'clock yesterday.

Chas. Sherman departed yesterday for Portland and Tacoma. He will likely locate at the latter place.

The revival at the M. E. church, South, is well attended, and considerable interest is being manifested.

W. E. Pryne, who has been assisting in putting in Heppner electric lights, left yesterday for Hillsboro.

Andrew Neal and wife came over from Lone Rock yesterday. They found the roads in pretty bad condition.

Oscar Minor has six China pheasants, one hen and five roosters. He was not fortunate with his brood last season.

The Gazette office was the recipient of a pleasant call, last Saturday, from R. V. Frank Atkins and Edwin Palmer.

The display of holiday goods down at T. W. Ayers, Jr., & Co.'s is doing for a new all, which will appear in our next issue.

Engineer J. A. Patterson has given up locomotive 441, so long on the branch, getting in its place 381, and lately the new engine, 338.

Ye neighboring Heppner hills are frosted slightly with snow, but the greater part of the fall, last Friday night, has disappeared.

Chas. Holland, of the lower country, was in Heppner Saturday. He carries all practical farmers, "the more snow the better."

Newt. Griffith is suffering from an attack of erysipelas to the face. We are informed that his baby is also quite ill with pneumonia.

C. A. Rhea's hands are all down to his lower ranch, and are doing well. No snow has fallen down that way yet, to amount to anything.

Union-Journal: Parson Egbert, formerly of Walla Walla, was elected to the legislature from Pierce county on the people's party ticket.

Born—To the wife of J. H. Allen, in Red canyon, Dec. 6th, a 12 pound girl. Mother and child doing nicely under the care of Mrs. M. J. Saling.

Ed. Ashbaugh, one of Eight Mile's progressive farmers, was in Heppner Friday. He has 300 acres of summer-fallow grain, all doing well.

Ben Swagart says this weather is all right for the farmer, but there is not enough snow yet. A big snow means much for the farmer next year.

Mrs. Jas. Hayes was called below yesterday by the death of her mother, Mrs. Sophia Hayes, of Eugene. Mrs. Hayes died Saturday, quite suddenly.

The council met today to consider some matters relative to the bonds about to be issued, but adjourned without having accomplished anything.

The bald man's motto: "There is room at the top." Thus top may be supplied with a good crop of fine hair by using Hall's Hair Renewer. Try it.

Jas. N. ville has been suffering for some weeks from a broken rib, received by falling out of a wagon the first of last month. He has almost entirely recovered.

"Down goes McGinty" is very stale, but "Down goes prices" is very pleasing to the consumer. Such is the case at Levi Robinson's auction sale, daily at 2 p.m.

The contest case, Day vs. Johnson, bids fair to last all this week. Messrs. Brown & Daxson are assisting the defense, while Messrs. Rea and Ellis are retained by the plaintiff.

The Gordon attorney, who was over a short time ago, did not secure bonds for Tom Kimesy. As the trial is near at hand, he was advised to let that matter go and get some witnesses.

Milt and Sam Morgan and Clyde Saling, while in Monday, were seen by the Gazette man to whom they gave a flattering account of Sam's horse. Language very good and stock are doing well.

The little daughter and son of Jas. Tolbert, of Six Dollar, are quite sick with diphtheria, the former being much the worse of the two. It is hoped that the dread disease may not become spread.

M. S. Corrigan, of Galloway, came over to Heppner yesterday. His head of sheep number 1800 is doing quite well. Grass is growing down his way, there being no snow to amount to anything.

No better preparation for the hair has ever been invented than Ayer's Hair Vigor. It restores the original color to faded and gray hair, and imparts that natural gloss and freshness, ever so admired. Its reputation is world-wide. The balance of pipe for waterworks has arrived and excavating is progressing rapidly. The engines have been placed in position in the power house, and now the only thing lacking is the boiler, which is expected in a few days.

Union-Journal: Mr. Vinson of the Nic-Vinson firm has gone to Spokane to start another shop. These marble men have a large stock coming in March for Spokane and Walla Walla, which Mr. Vinson ordered personally while on his recent East-trip.

Messrs. Dave McAttee and Gazette are each the owner of a blooded dog, somewhat "tenacious" in size yet, but promising hunters. These are presents from our good friend, Billy Robbins. Through the kindness of J. N. Brown, they were carried over, and are now dividing their time in eating and getting hungry again.

MARRIED IN CALIFORNIA.—A telegram received by Senator W. F. Matlock from his son, Wesley N. Matlock, dated at Fresno, Cal., announces Wesley's intention to be married tomorrow (Wednesday.) His intended is Miss Carrie Anderson, daughter of the president of Santa Rosa College. It is needless to remark that the young man's friends here unite in wishing that good luck and happiness without limit may attend the married life of himself and bride.—E. O.

CALLED HOME.—On Saturday last, at the home of her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Wright, occurred the death of Ida May Wright, beloved wife of Geo. Wright, aged 23 years, 1-month and 18 days. Mrs. Wright had only been ill eight days. Her maiden name was Green, and she was married to Mr. Wright Feb. 22, 1892, at her home in Ohio, having shortly afterward for their Oregon home, since residing in Morrow county. She was highly esteemed by all who knew her, and as much beloved by the family of which she became a member by marriage, for her many excellent traits of character. She leaves behind, besides her husband, a baby boy born on the 2nd inst. The funeral occurred at the M. E. church Sunday afternoon, after which the remains were interred in the Heppner cemetery.

TO CALIFORNIA.—Tomorrow Mr. and Mrs. Frank McFarland leave for their new home in Los Angeles, California. This estimable couple have long been residents of Eastern Oregon, and for the past four years of Heppner, where Mr. McFarland has been engaged in business, a member of the firm of C. M. & McFarland. Recently this firm has been changed to an incorporated concern under the name of McFarland Mercantile Co., Mr. McFarland still retaining an interest in the business. Lately he became interested in projects down in California which require his presence there. Mr. McFarland and family have many friends here who wish them health, wealth and pleasure in their new home.

THE RICHARDSONS.—On the first charge, that of taking articles from the house of Mrs. Kate Farrell, the Richardson were found "not guilty," but at a subsequent trial Saturday for taking articles from H. Wade's they were adjudged guilty of petit larceny and each sentenced to three months in jail. As they are to be held anyhow to await the action of the grand jury on a charge of maliciously destroying property, they can "kill two birds with one stone." The Richardson pair do not get along like two turtle doves, even if they are in a cage. A few days ago Phoebe fell out with her husband, and in the melee, the latter got much the worst of it. Phoebe was then locked up in a cell to herself.

A REMINDER OF OLD TIMES.—Pat Spillane and Arthur Daly, the latter better known by the euphonious cognomen of "Colorow," came Saturday to see the sights. There's nothing strange about Pat's name, but Arthur came by his, they say, in the early days when he used to ride the bell mare of a pack train. The country was choke full of Spaniards, who found it easier to remember Arthur's red head than his name, hence the nickname, "Colorow," and it has clung to him to this day.

MOUNTAIN HOUSE.—Mr. Joseph Crank has lately leased the hostelry known as the Mountain House, refitting and refurbishing it throughout. Board and feed, per week $6; board without bed, $4.50; meals and bed 25 cents each. Mr. Crank asks a portion of the patronage, believing that he can give as good service as anyone in Heppner, and for less money.

A NEW NEIGHBOR.—Geo. W. Lord has moved into the former art gallery over Messrs. Brown & Hamilton's office, and has fitted up for architecture work. He is prepared to contract for all kinds of buildings, or will supervise construction, and purchase material for the same, giving his customers the benefit of his experience and percentage.

IN MEMORIAM.

To the Officers and Members of Fairview Grange No. 218.

We, the committee, appointed to present resolutions on the death of Bro. Samuel King, report the following:

WHEREAS, the great Master has seen fit in his divine providence to remove from our midst our friend and brother, Samuel King,

Resolved, that while our hearts are laden with sorrow and mourning, and we drop the silent tear in memory of him who has so suddenly been stricken down in the bright morning of life and usefulness, and that we as a body extend our tender and heartfelt sympathy to his bereaved parents, brothers and sisters, in their hour of affliction, and that we point them to that divine source which alone can bring up the broken heart.

Resolved, that a copy of these resolutions be furnished each of our county papers, also that they be spread upon the minutes of this meeting.

H. D. WHITMAN, Secretary.

HATTIE WHITMAN, Committee.

CYNTHIA WALKER, Committee.

FAIRVIEW, Dec. 4, 1892.

CHURCH ANNOUNCEMENT.

Resume services at the Baptist church next Sunday. Preaching at 11 o'clock and at night. On Sunday, Dec. 25, will preach a Christmas discourse. All are invited to come and enjoy our meetings. 50-51 M. BRAMBLEY, Pastor.

FROM GOOSEBERRY.

Mr. Editor: Gooseberry's under the snow. Gooseberry is white now, green and white; beautiful. The people are happy. I don't mean people's party.

Do you know, Mr. Editor, what has become of all those correspondents from Gooseberry, Bismarck, and Lone, etc., that used to crowd your valuable columns for space. "Old Bachelor," of this place, must have gotten married, I presume, or got lost in some other way, as we never hear anything from him.

The democracy of Dry Fork met at Rocky Point at Thanksgiving and after giving the Lord and people's party their dues for helping to elect Mr. Cleveland, they enjoyed a fine dinner. A few Republicans were seen outside the broken lights sniffing free-trade turkey.

Mr. Esteb, our "anxious to please" postmaster, is nearly recovered from his sickness. Only lost about 60 pounds in weight.

There is some talk in the neighborhood about moving the postoffice, but now I'll tell ye all that the majority do not want it changed, and that's enough.

Everybody is kicking at the slowness of the Heppner-Gooseberry mail route, but look here! I think it is the fastest mail route in the world, considering the roads. (Goodness, I broke my pen.)

There is going to be something at the schoolhouse next Saturday. Nobody knows what, but you may depend it will be something surprising.

JONATHAN.

GOOSEBERRY, Dec. 10, '92.

Where?

At Abramsmick's. In addition to his tailoring business, he has added a fine line of underwear of all kinds, negligee shirts, hosiery, etc. Also has on hand some elegant patterns for suits. A. Abramsmick, May street, Heppner, Or.

J. H. Kolman, Heppner, Or.:

DEAR SIR—The Bill of Goods I procured from you when I was in your city last week, I am well pleased and satisfied with. Must admit that I bought them from you at almost one half what I would have had to pay elsewhere in your city. The farmers and stockmen of this and adjoining counties congratulate you on your good and noble work in opening up at Heppner and throwing a bomb shell into high prices. It is our duty to patronize you and we shall all unite in extending our patronage to the Boston Cash Store.

Brother Kolman, keep up the good work, and bless you for the bargains you are extending to us all, and hope your trade will increase tenfold, as you deserve it. With best wishes,

Respectfully Yours,
