Each season has its own peculiar malady; but with the blood maintained in a state of uniform vigor and purity by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparil little danger need be feared from meteorological influences. No other blood medicine is so safe and effective.

The electric lights were shut down Sunday night at 12 p. m. in order to clean out the boiler. After a two and one-half month's run, the boiler was found in excellent shape with no scale at all. The artesian water seems to work well in boilers.

Condon Globe: Mr. Andrew Neel's sheep camp was robbed a few nights ago of all the grub in the camp, flour, bacon, etc., not leaving the border even a smell. He is certain who the sneak thieves are, and should they repeat the crime, a search warrant will be issued, and the worthless outfit will get their fill of grub at the expense of the state.

In conversation with our reporter yesterday, Joe Dabois admitted being one of the victims of misplaced confidence who was caught beneath the camp wagon down on the sand last week. Joe says about the only difficulty he experienced was that of breathing, though he imagines that before morning the prison would have become a very tiresome one.

THE TRESPASS CASE.—The trespass case, State vs. Conners, Autone Vay's sheep-herder, for invading the premises of Joe Vay on the 13th of this month, came up for trial Saturday last. The jury was M. M. Beighley, Al Binns, Joe Hayes, H. Blackman, Thos. Quaid and Arthur Amersman. They failed to agree, for standing for acquittal and two for conviction. The case was retried yesterday, P. Colin, M. Lichtenhal, Harry Warren, P. O. Borg, Otis Patterson and W. A. Kirk forming the jury, who also failed to agree, the standing for acquittal and two for conviction. There appearing to be no way of reaching a verdict on the case, it was dismissed this morning. It was intended to appeal the case in which Mr. Conners was convicted of using abusive language in the presence of a woman, but that was settled and no further action will be taken in the matter. The case, State vs. Joe Vay, for running scabby sheep on other's range, will come up this evening, and perhaps, will occupy the greater part of the morning. Verily, the Vay boys are having a time of it.

WHAT'S THE MATTER?—Yesterday was the day set for the asylum meeting, but we understand the committees did not get together. What's the matter? Are we going to become entirely wedded to mossbackism and go down in oblivion? The Gazette concedes nothing to any Eastern Oregon town that Heppner can not equal or excel. "Faint heart never won a fair lady," and it will never build a town or bring public institutions within its borders. Pendleton, Baker City, Union and other small-places place the earth, duly fenced, but Heppner is modest and wants the asylum, and can show the committee why we should have it. Wake up! The commissioners are likely to be in this evening.

IN 1864.—On Henry Heppner's return from the Dalles, our reporter wanted to know of him about his loss and when it happened. "Why, between The Dalles and Canyon City," remarked Henry, handling a choice cigar. "It was in '64, and I was packing between the two towns. When I was surprised by the Indians I had a well loaded train, 39 head of mules and 2 head of horses. By hiding in the willows and shrubs of Muddy canyon, I saved my scalp, but it was a close call. It left me without a cent." Mr. Heppner got his claim before the commissioner and hopes ere long to be reimbursed for his loss.

DEATH OF JACOB CONSER.—A telegram was received Saturday from Geo. Conser stating that his father had died at 10 a. m. that day. Jacob Conser was born in Union county, Pa., Feb. 20, 1818. He died at 28, 1839, he was married to Knox county, Ill., to Nancy Gundman. Several children were born from this union. The family came across the plains to the Pacific coast, arriving in Oregon in the fall of 1848. They settled in the Santiam country, where they lived for thirty years, during which period, however, Mrs. Conser died. Mr. Conser and the children then moved to Jefferson, where they lived until 1881. Eight of these children are still living. Mr. Conser has also one sister living in this county, Mrs. Burnett, of Sweet Home. He served several terms in the territorial legislature during the pioneer days of Oregon. In 1881 he removed to Eugene, and May 5, was married to Mrs. Elizabeth Felix-Humphrey, who survives him. The funeral will take place tomorrow at Jefferson, Marion Co., at 1 o'clock p. m. Short services will be held at the residence in this city in the afternoon. One of his sons, Geo. Conser, lives at Heppner and is the well known cashier of the First National Bank.

ACCIDENT NEAR HAMILTON.—Sid Green, who is driving stage between here and Canyon City, met with quite an accident last Tuesday evening between here and Hamilton. Owing to the bad condition of the roads the stage was late and the night very dark, and coming around a short turn the hind wheels of the back slid off the grade causing the back to upset. Miss Selena Cobos was the only passenger at the time of the accident. As soon as she discovered that the back was going to upset she jumped off to the upper side of the grade. Very fortunately no one was hurt and no damage was done excepting a brace that helps to support the tongue was broken. Sid managed to get down as far as Cobos's sheep camp and with the assistance of Will Cobos and Overton Malkey repaired the back sufficiently to enable Mr. Green to reach his destination without any further trouble.—Cor. to Eagle.

TEA PARTY.—An afternoon tea party was given by Mrs. A. M. Gunn, at her home last Saturday. After tea, the party was entertained by music and a pleasant hour spent in conversation. Those present were: Mrs. Frank Kellogg, Mrs. J. N. Elder, Mrs. F. O. Dinkum, Mrs. E. R. Bishop, Mrs. W. J. Leezer, Mrs. Henry Blackman, Mrs. Wm. Douglas, Mrs. W. R. Ellis, Mrs. Geo. Thornton, Mrs. S. N. McBride, Mrs. Geo. Nobis, Mrs. O. E. Farnsworth, Mrs. W. P. Danna, Miss May Bailey, Miss Bedgood and Miss Belle Bishop, of Pendleton.

SOLICITORS SAGER.—Sallie Quiner, the pretty young woman whom Edwin had loved so madly that he tried to kill, and ended by getting two years in the penitentiary, is doing all within a woman's power to obtain pardon for him. This morning she called upon District Attorney Hume and made a heroic attempt to enlist his sympathies and get him to sign the petition. Mr. Hume said he was of the opinion when he convicted Hahn that the young man was guilty, and has had no cause to change his mind. Mr. Hume did not sign it.—Telegram.

DEATH OF MISS LAURA THOMPSON.—The death of Miss Laura Thompson, for nearly seven years a resident of this city, occurred at San Diego, California, on the 11th inst., whither she had gone, in company with Mrs. M. Marshall, to spend the winter. As was generally known, Miss Thompson was aunt to the Rev. W. E. Potwine, of this city, with whom she had made her home since coming to Pendleton. Though advanced in life—being seventy-three years old—she was quite an active and vigorous woman until within a few months of her death.—E. O.

ST. PATRICK A GENTLEMAN.—The ball last Friday night in honor of St. Patrick's Day, was well attended—a larger crowd than at any previous occasion of the kind for some time. The music was furnished by Messrs. F. J. Hallock, Green Mathews and Jeff Hayes, and was first class. The young people enjoyed themselves till about 12:30.

MOUNTAIN HOUSE.—Mr. Joseph Crank has lately leased the hostelry known as the Mountain House, refitting and refurnishing it throughout. Board and bed, per week $6; board without bed, $4.50; meals and bed 25 cents each. Mr. Crank asks a portion of the patronage, believing that he can give as good a service as anyone in Heppner, and for less money. 43-w

BUTTER CREEK WEDDING.—As stated in Friday's edition, the marriage of Mr. Jas. McCumber and Miss Mary McCarty was consummated at the home of the bride's parents at 11 o'clock on that day. Rev. J. R. Galloway performing the ceremony. All present had a most enjoyable time. The many friends of the young couple wish them a successful married life.

RIP VAN WINKLE.—The Heppner wood yard, under the management of Rip Van Winkle, is prepared to deliver wood at your residence, sawed or unsawed. Wood sawed and delivered at $7.50 per cord. Wood sawed twice in two, 75 cts. per cord; three and good $1.00. Yard near the depot. Leave orders at Sloan & Howard's. 41f.

A MISCHIEVOUS BONE.—J. B. Hunt came in yesterday from Clark's canyon to have a cod fish bone removed from the mesophagus. The accident happened at breakfast Sunday morning. After three trials, and with the aid of a prober, Drs. Swinburne and Gagen successfully removed the offender.

FROM THE BLUES.—Bed Parker brings down word from the Blues that up to Sunday last, the ten days previous had brought 20 inches of snow. Friday last 5 inches were added. This is more snow than at any time previous this winter. Ben expects to go to Portland this week.

A FINE HORSE.—The imported running stallion, Sir Henry, has been brought over to Heppner, and will stand the ensuing season at this place. He is the property of "Cayuse" Reynolds, and is a fine horse. 570H

It Tastes Good. One reason why Scott's Emulsion of Pure Norwegian Cod Liver Oil and Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda has had such a large sale is because it is "Almost as palatable as milk," but the best reason is that its curative properties are unequalled. It cures the cough, supplies the waste of tissues, produces flesh and builds up the entire system.

Scott's Emulsion. Cures Coughs, Colds, Consumption, Scrofula, and all Anemic and Wasting Diseases. Prepared by Scott & Bowne, Chemists, New York. Sold by all Druggists.
