ings.
Of all the snobbish equipages of the snobbish rich the most snobbish is one of those high carts, with the half of the seat upon which the driver sits fully a foot higher than the other half of the seat, and thus laden, says the Boston Transcript: Upon the high seat, driv-ing a snobbish young lady, in a gorgeous snobbish pink driving go bishly puffed up at the shoulders; upon the other half of the seat a snobbish young gentleman conversing snobbishly with the young lady. He sits so much lower than she that his shoulders are about on a level with her belt, and he has to look up sidewise with a most painful, grotesque stretching of his neck. The young lady now and then looks down upon him, smiling in her snobbishly superior way. The specta-cle is so genuinely grotesque that all the people on the street are on an involun-tary broad grin, not snobbish, as they look at the foolish-looking young man, so high up in the air and yet so low down as regards the young lady. The horse wears a snobbish brass-mounted harness, with a little ring tinkling snobbishly somewhere at the front of it. The animal's tail is snobbishly banged. The young lady urges him on at a ma-jestic gait. The low-down young man still cranes his neck upward, grimacing. The young lady beams down from her height, grimacing. The dog-cart rolls on down the road. It is all exquis-

itelysnobbish, pitlably ridiculous.
