 Sell your wool, but if you can't sell it tonight it. Most any wool man can secure advances sufficient for present and future needs, so far as this year is concerned.
 School closed in the Eckelston district last Saturday. Mr. Miller was the teacher for the past term and was very well liked. The people out in this district this year.
 The Dalles Chronicle: The lecture last night by R. O. Bates proved as interesting as was claimed, and few there were who did not shed tears at the pathetic recital of the trials undergone during the war in the rebellion.
 Dr. B. F. Vaughan has gone east to complete his dental education, leaving Drs. J. W. Rasmus and Eugene Vaughan in charge of his office. Those owing Dr. Vaughan will please make settlement with Dr. Eugene Vaughan who has full authority.
 The advice that most men will give you is not to drink, but when you do get the best. The Belvedere saloon carries an excellent stock of cigars, liquors, wines and beer. A fine billiard parlor in connection. Call on Charlie and John who will always treat you courteously.
 Casey Roberts, of Eight Mile, confidently expects a big crop this year if the season can have one more good rain before harvest. The weather has not been exceedingly hot so far, and every thing points to the full realization of the farmers' expectations.

Born—In Heppner, Saturday, the 3rd inst., to the wife of Walter Crawford, a boy.

Miss Long, niece of Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Howard, has returned to her home at Union.

Joe Bannister took out a big load of merchandise for Cox Bros., of Hardman, today.

Frank Roberts has begun sprinkling, using the city hydrants for that purpose. Good scheme.

Jeff Jones leaves tomorrow for Island, Or., Clackamas county. His family will accompany him.

T. J. Carie, of Lone, was up to attend a regular meeting of Heppner Lodge last Saturday evening.

Walt Richardson has completed shearing this spring. He says wool is much heavier this year than last.

C. S. Emery was in from Hardman yesterday. Crops are looking very well in his section, though a little late.

School districts cannot collect any taxes this year, so there will be low fall and winter terms taught in this county.

W. G. Sweetser, of Black Horse, left a clothes box of raiment on our table yesterday. They grew on "bunchgrass" with out irrigation.

Mrs. John Neal, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. A. L. Ayres, left yesterday for Salem. Mrs. Ayres will remain there this summer.

Alon Crawford, an old Heppnerite, is in our midst. He is a resident of Union county, but contemplates returning to Morrow county.

J. A. Thompson and T. J. Owens stopped in Heppner Sunday on their way to the mountains for wood. They say the crop of material is retarding the growth of their grain.

The Elysian Sisters of Dorian Temple will conduct a stand on July 4th, at the celebration grounds. The proceeds are to go towards the purchase of para picnics, etc.

E. D. Palmer, of Lexington, took in Heppner's busy market Saturday. Mr. Palmer has faith that Morrow county will have a big yield of grain this year.

Born—To the wife of J. S. Young, a 9 1/2 pound boy, May, 31, 1893. Mother and baby getting along well under the care of Mrs. Rebecca Kelly, but Jake is worse than usual.

Mr. Thomas Murray Spencer, the well known traveling man, has been chosen as delegate from Oregon to the national gathering of T. P. A., to meet in Peoria, June 6.

Rev. Edwin Palmer and Rev. H. M. DuBose left this morning for Pendleton, where the latter will lecture. Mr. Palmer will return in time to hold the regular Sunday services.

For a refreshing glass of beer and a nice lunch, call on Kiekner & Sheidow at the Arcade. Also a fine stock of liquors and cigars. Good old porter in stock, excellent for family use.

Miss Martha Neville completed her term of school down at Petyville last Friday. The day was made pleasant by songs, recitations, dialogues, etc. Miss Martha is a very successful teacher.

The Heppner Park Association grounds will be sold next Saturday to satisfy a note given by the Association to Jas. Jones. This ends the corporation, but there will doubtless be races there this fall.

Today Marshal John Rasmus arrested an old sheep herder from the John Day, on a charge of insanity. He is apparently harmless, but we learn has created more or less consternation among the people between here and Hardman.

The last Saturday of this month, at 1 o'clock p. m., Rawlins Post of Lexington, will meet in Heppner. Also the W. R. C. at the same time and place. Those intending to become members should take notice.

Bob Watkins, who was with the outfit of sheeters this year called the "Watkins crew," having completed his labor in Morrow county for the season, will devote his attention to his ranch and other home affairs.

Mr. E. A. Brandage suffered a slight stroke of paralysis last week, but he is able to be about again. His proposed trip has been postponed for the time being, but he hopes to be able to leave in the course of a few weeks.

C. G. Fugus, E. B. Stenton, J. F. Willis and Post Commander Smith were among the Grand Army "boys" in town Saturday. As Tom Morgan would put it, they haven't yet lost their "snip" on the prospects of a good wheat crop.

A. B. Niles, of the popular firm of Niles & Aiken, marble and granite dealers, of Walla Walla, is in the city and will rustle for orders in the vicinity of Heppner for the next few days. The reliability of the firm is unquestionable.

Angus Charlton, of Gooseberry, called on us this morning on his way home. He remarked to our local man that he was a hard day on grain. He saw several fields that were suffering considerably as he was coming to town.

John J. Holland, advance man for Sanger & Leat's circus and menagerie, was in town over last night to make arrangements for this show to east their tents here on June 28th. Their advertising car No. 1, will arrive next Saturday, and will be followed by car No. 2, quite soon thereafter.

C. N. Peck reports that in the neighborhood of Lexington the apple crop is fair to excel the average of past years. Feathers will be a failure in that locality. Prunes and plums are badly damaged, and will be a short crop. Small fruits are doing well. So far the prospect is good for crops, though there may be "blue" times between now and harvest.

Yesterday morning Jas. Jones left for the Walla Walla race meeting with the two-year-old, Gora Jones, and the four-year-old, Bob White. He was accompanied by Geo. Aiken with Champagne. Sen. Blackman's horse. The first named horses are now the property of Jas. Jones and Dave McAtee. Mr. McAtee will join the party at Walla Walla or Spokane, and will take in the whole Montana circuit.

The following visiting ministers and laymen were present at the M. E. South conference, last week: Rev. P. M. Bell, Le Grand; Elder Howard, Pendleton; M. B. Hooper, Dayton, Wash.; Rev. Frank Atkins, Pendleton; Rev. Chas. Kirk, Summerville; Rev. M. Larkin, Boise City; G. H. Gibbs, Dayton, Wash.; Rev. E. G. Michaels, Walla Walla; Rev. W. M. Fancher, Weston; Rev. Silvestro, Dayton; Rev. DeBose, San Francisco.

Grant Johnson, representing J. M. Russell & Co., of Portland, is here seeking consignments for his firm. This is the only manner in which they will touch wool this season, owing to the uncertainty of trade conditions which is shaking the financial foundation of the country from stem to stern. Mr. Johnson is well-known here and has a host of friends, having visited this section before, both in the capacity of a wool grader and buyer.

BETTER ROADS—C. N. Peck returned yesterday from a trip to the mountains, via Lupford canyon. Every time rain falls before harvest. The weather has not been exceedingly hot so far, and Dyspepsia and Indigestion

Mrs. N. Fiske
 San Francisco.

The combination of excellent stomach tonics in Hood's Sarsaparilla is such that, with proper attention to diet, indigestion and even the worst cases of dyspepsia are cured by this medicine. Read this:
 "Having for several years been greatly troubled with indigestion, and having seen Hood's Sarsaparilla advertised, I concluded to give it a trial. To my happiness and great satisfaction I found it to be the only remedy for this complaint." Mrs. N. Fiske, 425 Geary Street, San Francisco, Cal.

piece of road, it requires a half day's work to make it possible, and then one can not haul over three-fourths of a load. This is occasioned by about one-fourth of a mile of bad road, the remaining twenty miles, if the destination be near Lexington, is fairly good. Such a condition of a public thoroughfare is a public menace. One is in constant danger of break downs, balking horses, and many other casualties not enumerated here. Such things as a bread-box, blankets and the like, can hardly be kept on a wagon, the roads are so rough. The notice of the supervisor is called to the condition of the roads of this locality, which should have immediate attention. We fear that many who reside in this vicinity do not appreciate the value of a good road to the general public. This should not be the case.

M. E. SOUTH CONFERENCE.—Conference opened on Thursday, June 1st and closed Sunday evening, June 4th. First day was devoted to hearing reports from pastors, there being two present, in regard to the condition, spiritual and otherwise, of their respective charges. Reports showed them to be in a flourishing condition. Second day was devoted to a discussion of the general interests of the churches in the district. Third day reading and discussion of the reports from the various committees and election of delegates to annual conference. J. J. Adkins was selected as one of the delegates. Preaching during conference by Rev. M. Larkin, Rev. C. G. Michael, Rev. Wm. Fancher, Rev. D. W. Younk, Rev. G. H. Gibbs, Rev. Henry Barnhart and Dr. G. M. DuBose. Conference adjourned to meet next year at Weston.

AND NOW FOR BONNEVILLE.—Conductor H. C. French has secured from the Union Pacific, the privilege of running an excursion from Heppner to Bonneville, on Sunday, June 25th, 1893. The round trip from Heppner, Arlington and intermediate points, has been placed at $2.50. The train will stop at any place between Heppner and Arlington to take on or let off passengers, leaving Heppner at 6 a. m. One of the important features of the excursion will be a visit to the grandest bit of scenery on the coast, Multnomah Falls. Do not delay buying tickets till the last hour. It takes time to make arrangements and secure coaches, and Mr. French should know in the neighborhood of the number he will have to accommodate long before the 25th inst. And above all, don't forget to bring well filled baskets.

THE NEXT BEST THING.—It is not probable that many wool men will have an opportunity to sell at Heppner this year, but if they do we would at once advise them to sell without delay. The next best thing to that the Gazette can think of is to consign clips, getting reasonable advances. The sooner wool is at the chief markets the better. There is no market at any primary shipping point on the coast, and the sooner the head markets are reached the better.

WANTED.—A good rafter to take charge of a fine stock of the latest and best subscription books, and dispose of them in and around Heppner. Liberal commission to a good man. Must give bonds. Address, O. K. Publishing Co., Box 322, Butte, Montana. 27it.

FASHIONABLE DRESSMAKERS.—Mrs. W. W. Smead and Mrs. Margaret Looney are prepared to do dressmaking in the latest fashion and sewing of every nature, at hard time prices, at the home of Mrs. W. W. Smead. Don't fail to give them a call. 118 aw.

A FINE HORSE.—The imported running stallion, Sir Henry, has been brought over to Heppner, and will stand the ensuing season at this place. He is the property of "Cayuse" Reynolds, and is a fine horse.

FIRST CLASS TAILORING.—Fred Miller now located on May street in the old bakery building, where he is prepared to do first class work. A perfect fit guaranteed. Give him a trial. 1t.

CAMP MEETING.—The Methodist camp meeting at Lexington commenced yesterday and will continue over two Sabbaths. A boarding tent is on the ground, and ample provision made for all who may attend.

Excursion AND Picnic

AT

 (Mouth of Rhea Creek)

Thursday, June 8, 1893.
 At 11 O'clock Sharp.

This will be the best of all the previous good times on these occasions, as ample arrangements are being made to insure a pleasant time. A large general table will be provided, and friends are invited to contribute to this feature. The program will consist of Music, Recitations, Essays, Select Readings and Papers on various subjects of interest to Sabbath School workers, followed by joint discussions, in which all are invited to take part (see program).

For rates of fare, see railroad advertisements.

The songs are selected from Gospel Hymns No. 5, the following numbers: 148, 49, 151, 160, 122, 26, 4, 150. Please come prepared to aid in the singing; bring plenty of books.

We hope to have every Sabbath School in the county represented; not only by Delegate, but with appropriate programs of their own choosing.

The Grove Committee will meet on Monday, June 5th. Come and help without further notice. 30 33
