 "My little boy was very bad off for two months with diarrhea. We used various medicines, also called in two doctors, but nothing done him any good until we used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which gave immediate relief and soon cured him. I consider it the best medicine made and can conscientiously recommend it to all who need a diarrhea or colic medicine." J. E. Hare, Trenton, Tex. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Slocum-Johnson Drug Co.
 Dr. L. F. Shipley was out on Eight Mile last week, and was surprised at the crop prospect. Engleman Bros. have a large field of grain, with well-filled heads. He thinks that the average of fall-sown grain out there will be about 10 bushels per acre, while spring grain is not hurt much, and being late, with a few showers such as are promised by the weather clerk, will make a fair crop.
 Elder S. S. Baaver, of McAllisterville Joustville Co., Pa., says his wife is subject to cramp in the stomach. Last summer she tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for it and was much pleased with the speedy relief it afforded. For sale by Slocum-Johnson Drug Co.
 Billy Barratt, of Sand Hollow, found three young rabbits a few days ago and brought them in to the old house cat, thinking, of course, that she would make a meal of them in short order. She has a family of her own, three kittens about six weeks old, and to these she has added the rabbits and is raising them with all the care that a mother cat can bestow.
 A prospecting party composed of H. Vanderpool, Geo. Vinson, H. Colwell, C. E. Jones, Gill Jones and J. T. Cantwell got back from a prospecting tour of Grand county. They struck some good placer ground on the John Day above the old Oriental mines, and have located same.
 The advice that most men will give you is not to drink, but when you do get the best. The Belvedere saloon carries an excellent stock of cigars, liquors and beer. A fine billiard parlor in connection. Call on Charlie and John who will always treat you courteously.
 Tom Smith, of Susanville, Grant Co., came in yesterday with two loads of wool. His teams started out late last evening, but Tom will likely remain for a few days. He will hold the remainder of his clip at Susanville, not being able to sell what is already stored in the warehouse at this place.
 Jas. McGill, of Pendleton now, but of every place in general, has recently, through Minister Eagan, heard from his family in Chili. His father has been dead some five years. McGill has not made any great number of friends here for the reason that he is a bilk.
 The Sanger & Lent show cleaned up Weston to a finish. They didn't try their chances here, and it is well they pursued that course. Our officers were laying for the combination, and the first crooked move would have resulted disastrously.
 Pendleton has in their warehouse, about 1,300,000 pounds of wool. Only 250,000 counts have been sold, and the remainder is being consigned, securing advances from four to seven cents. This is about the condition of the wool market all over the Northwest.
