THE silver fight is not over. No, it has just commenced.

THE Kentucky congressman, Breckenridge, is the subject of quite a scandal Washington, D. C.

THE home rule bill has at last passed the English house of commons. It will now be sent over to the house of lords for their action on the measure.

THE latest in the line of fraternal papers in Oregon is the Oregon Knignt. It is a bright publication and the Knights of Pythias should be proud of it.

THE Living Issue publishes Hons. W. R. Ellis and J. L. Wilson as voting for the gold-bugs. This is a mistake, as both voted against the unconditional repeal of the Sherman act.

IT's getting down to a point where partizanship must cease to a certain extent. The West and South can combine and get along nicely, but the East and West, never.

CONGRESSMAN Hermann should succeed Dolph to the senate, if a republican is to be elected. Hermann is in touch with the people. Dolph can not be returned to the U. S. senate.

IF THE Sherman law is unconditionally repealed, then followed by radical tariff changes, we may expect still harder times than we have had, and lucky is the man that can weather it through to 1896. England is all smiles now.

WESTERN republicans in congress threaten to retaliate on Eastern protection-gold-bugs by voting for free trade. While we do not believe in free trade, yet this move is nothing more than right, and, perhaps, it may bring many a gold-bug republican to his senses.

ENGLAND demonetized silver in 1816. Why? Because she had no silver of her own, so set about to make the balance of the World's stock as valueless as possible, giving her holdings in gold a greater purchasing power, producing if possible a discount on silver, and all other products, as compared with gold. Our country, the home of silver, fell into the trap and England has been successful. As a measure of values silver if let alone, can perform that function even better than gold. Legislation is responsible for its present condition.

A MICHIGAN MIRACLE.

Between Life And Death---A Singular Story of a Detroit Molder.

A TERRIBLE BATTLE WHICH LASTED MONTHS.

One of the Remarkable Incidents bordering on the Romantic.

From the Detroit Free Press.

Thomas Hagen was seated in his comfortable rocking chair at his cosy home, 1289 Russell Street, yesterday morning when a visitor was announced. The gentleman arose and greeted the newcomer with the grace of a diplomat and as he opened up a conversation it was evident that Mr. Hagen was a person of more than ordinary intelligence. To his visitor the remarkable changes and peculiar career of this man was a source of much interest. The wonderful transformation in his appearance within the past two years is itself worthy of the study of a scientist. Mr. Hagen, a couple of years ago, was so weak and emaciated that today he does not seem the same individual.

Rheumatism was the cause of his terrible sufferings.

He is a Detroiter by birth, having first seen the light of day in this city 36 years ago. When quite a boy he was apprenticed to the molder's trade, and ever since he has followed this avocation. He is quite a prominent member of the local Stovemolder's Union, and can be found nearly every Saturday night in attendance at the meeting of the Union. About two years ago Mr. Hagen became seriously affected with rheumatism, the result of working in draughts of cold air.

"The shooting pains of rheumatism are actually, I believe, the most horrible penalties that can be inflicted on mankind. I cannot begin to tell you of the agony I suffered. I had a thorough experience in the art of torture, and no matter what I used to ease the pain, it seemed as though I was doomed to greater suffering. I had a number of friends who took great interest in my case, and recommended numerous remedies, which I tried without avail. Nothing seem to do me any good. I was under the care of several well-known Detroit physicians, but their services were absolutely without favorable results. I was bedridden. Why, I could not move from one chair to another without assistance. Some days I would feel a little brighter than others.

"But presently another attack of that infernal rheumatism would strike me, leaving me a veritable wreck on the barren shores of humanity.

"By accident I read two years ago a Canadian paper containing a remarkable story of a miracle in Hamilton, Ont. It was that of a man who was tortured to death by rheumatism. He was induced to use Dr. William's Pink Pills for pale people. He was immediately cured I doubted the truth of the matter at first, but thought I would try it. I had my people hunt all over town, but they could not find the pills at any of the drug stores. The only place they were then sold at was over in Windsor. Well, my relatives went over there and purchased a few boxes. Great Christopher! but my mind goes back in ecstasy to the change which immediately came over me after using the ink Pills. I began to improve and in a few weeks rheumatic pains left me, and in a short time I was able to be out and around. From that time I have been at work.

"It was not long after I secured the pills over at Windsor that I found they were for sale here in Detroit, at Brown & Co.'s, corner of Woodard and Congress, Michell's and Bassett & L'Hommedieu's, Woodward avenue. I purchased them for fifty cents per box. I guess you can buy them now at almost every drug store in Detroit.

"I have recommended the Pink Pills to several of my friends around town, and although their cases were similiar to mine, they have all been cured. There is nothing on the face of God's earth equal to them for rheumatism and and other diseases. Until my dying day I will praise the pills for being the cause of my present happy and contented condition."

Dr. William's Pink Pills are not a patent medicine in the sense in which that term is usually understood, but are a scientific preparation successfully used in general practice for many years before being offered to the public generally. They contain in a condensed form all the elements necessary to give new life and richness to the blood, and restore shattered nerves. They are an unfailing specific for such diseases as locomotor ataxia, partial paralysis, St. Vitus' dance, sciatica, neuralgia, rheumatism, nervous headache, the after effect of la grippe, palpitation of the heart, pale and sallow complexions, that tired feeling resulting from nervous prostration; all diseases depending upon vitiated humors in the blood, such as scrofula, chronic erysipelas, etc. They are also a specific for trouble peculiar to females, such as suppression, irregularities, and all forms of weakness. They build up the blood and restore the glow of health to pale or sallow cheeks. In the case of men they effect a radical cure in all cases arising from mental worry, overwork, or excesses of whatever nature.

These pills are manufactured by the Dr. William's Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y., and Brockville, Ont., and are sold only in boxes bearing the firm's trade mark and wrapper at 50 cts a box, or six boxes for $2.50. Bear in mind that Dr. William's Pink Pills are never sold in a bulk, or by the dozen or hundred, and any dealer who offers a substitute in this form is trying to defraud you and should be avoided. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills may be had of all druggists or direct by mail from Dr. Williams' Medicine Company from either address. The price at which these pills are sold makes a course of treatment comparatively inexpensive as compared with other remedies or medical treatment.

COMMUNICATED.

M. E. church, South, East Columbia Conference, was called to order at 9 a. m. by Bishop O. P. Fitzgerald. There is a full attendance of ministers. Attendance of "lay" representation is small. The session promises to be very pleasant and profitable. The first day's session was devoted to hearing reports from presiding elders and pastors.

Preaching last evening by Rev. Howson B. Terry, of Rosalia. Preaching this evening by Rev. Craig, of Spokane.

The intervals of sessions are spent in committee work.

The Bishop is rather feeble, having recently been attacked by the grippe, but his dignified presidency is pleasantly modified by sparkling flashes of native wit. The personel of the conference is about the average of like representative bodies, being composed of men of large and varied experience and attainments. Conference will close Sunday evening with the reading by the Bishop of the appointments.

Respectfully,
EDWIN PALMER.

A Good Thing to Keep at Hand.

From the Troy (Kansas) Chief.

Some years ago we were very much subject to severe spells of cholera morbus; and now when we feel any of the symptoms that usually preceed that ailment, such as sickness at the stomach, diarrhoea, etc., we become scary. We have found Chamberlain's Colic Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy the very thing to straighten one out in such cases, and always keep it about. We are not writing this for a pay testimonial, but to let our readers know what is a good thing to keep handy in the house. For sale by Slocum-Johnson Drug Co. *

CHURCH ANNOUNCEMENT.

At M. E. church, Sabbath service morning and evening. In the evening farewell services. Text, 'Finally brethern, farewell. Be perfect, be of good comfort, be of one mind, live in peace and the God of Love and Peace shall be with you." I would be glad to have you present at this last meeting.

J. M. SHULER,
Pastor.

Preaching at the Baptist church next Sunday at 11 o'clock. Theme: "Hard times and how to better them."

Among the incidents of childhood that stand out in bold relief, as our memory reverts to the days when we were young, none are more prominent than severe sickness. The young mother vividly remembers that it was Chamberlain's Cough Remedy cured her of croup, and in turn administers it to her own offspring and always with the best results. NEW RESTAURANT.

I have opened a first class restaurant at the old Matlock building called Holton restaurant.
43-tf. Mrs. G. W. SWAGGART.

GREAT SHOWER OF STARS.

It Made Many People Believe That the End of the World Had Come.

The most imposing display of shooting stars on record occurred on the night of November 13, 1833, and was witnessed in the greater part of civilized North America. To be exact, it extended over the limits comprised between longitude sixty-one degrees in the Atlantic and one hundred degrees in Central Mexico, and from about the latitude of the Great lakes to the West Indies, says the Philadelphia Press.

Seldom has nature exhibited a scene of greater or more awful sublimity. A resident of the vicinity of Niagara falls gives the following account of this, the grandest display of natural fireworks:

"The two leading powers in nature, water and fire, seemed to engage in an emulative display of their grandeur. The deafening roar of the cataract filled the mind of the spectator with an infinitely heightened sense of sublimity when its waters were lightened by the glare of the meteoric torrent in the sky. In many parts of the country the people were stricken dumb, imagining that the end of the world had come. Others, whose education and vigor of mind prevented them from yielding to such terrors, were nevertheless vividly reminded of the grand description in the Apocalypse, where it says: 'The stars of heaven fell into the earth, even as a fig tree casteth her untimely figs when she is shaken of a mighty wind.'"

In 1832 a similar celestial exhibition, though of less magnitude, was witnessed along the Ohio river and off the coast of Spain; the year before, 1831, a great "fall of stars" was reported by Capt. Hammonds, of the British vessel Restitution, then sailing in the Indian ocean. It is rather remarkable that each of these "star showers" occurred on the night of November 13.

TO PREVENT SEASICKNESS.

Sundry Theories, Wise [illegible], Regarding [illegible]

For [illegible] curious notion [illegible] among that the stomach [illegible] is full as possible, says [illegible] Thus have we seen stout old men and women take with praiseworthy persistence—had the result been satisfactory—biscuits, brandy and soda, apples, a pint of porter, a red herring and various other edibles and potables with an entire want of success in retaining them, a course of procedure peculiarly trying to those who happen to be standing, or, rather, lying on the verge of the act of vomiting. Were we to counsel those who are liable to this affection we should recommend as follows: Take a moderate meal two hours before going on board. Remain on deck amidships, well protected against cold, as long as possible. As soon as the premonitory symptoms appear retire to the berth, undress as quickly as possible and lie flat on the back for the first twelve or even twenty-four hours without food. Then take a small portion of dry bread and roast beef without fluid; this the stomach will probably retain. If there is much movement of the vessel lie quiet again or even go upon deck, and in the course of thirty-six or forty-eight hours the system will have recovered itself and no further trouble will be experienced. It is a mistake to introduce a quantity of fluid, even of strong coffee, into the flaccid stomach, but if sickness persists a glass of champagne will probably prove serviceable. In some few persons quinine or antipyrin, chloral or potassium bromide may act well, but as a rule medicine of all kinds should be eschewed by those who do not wish to aggravate what is already hard to bear.

STRICKEN DEAD.

TRUSTWORTHY STATEMENTS.

A recent New York dispatch reads:

"James C. H——, a fine looking and apparently healthy man, was observed to stagger while walking on Fifth Avenue this afternoon, and after taking one or two uncertain steps fell to the sidewalk. When picked up he was dead. A physician examined the body, and pronounced heart disease the cause of death. A peculiarly sad feature of the case is that Mr. H—— was on his way to Maine, to settle in the home of his boyhood. He had passed the previous ten years in the western mining country, and had amassed a fortune. If YOU have any of the symptoms given in the following testimonials you should lose no time in seeking relief.

From John L. Roberts, Slatington, Pa.: "I have suffered with palpitation, irregular pulse, fainting and smothering spells, pain in shoulders, side, and arms for over forty years. For twelve years have been treated without avail by prominent physicians in my neighborhood and in New York. Growing constantly worse, smothering spells followed one another, so my life was often in danger and I needed constant care. As my son had been cured by Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure, he sent me three bottles. The first dose gave me instant relief. Before using the last bottle I was completely cured. Although seventy-five years old I feel twenty years younger. I claim my cure to be almost a miracle."

Here is a letter from Mrs. John Kolges, of Cleveland, O.: "I had been troubled with my heart and stomach for years, but for sixteen months had been confined to my bed. I had four of the best doctors in the city, but none of them could benefit the weakness of my heart. I also had dropsy and rheumatism. I never took medicine that relieved me at once as Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure does. I am much stronger. My appetite is splendid. I gain strength with every dose. I have gained more in six weeks from your treatment than in sixteen months from all the doctors."

"Dr. Miles' New Cure for the Heart is sold on a positive guarantee by all druggists. It is safe, effective, agreeable, and does cure." Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

PATENTS

FOR INVENTIONS.

Equal with the interest of those having claims against the government is that of INVENTORS, who often lose the benefit of valuable inventions because of the incompetency or inattention of the attorneys employed to obtain their patents. Too much care cannot be exercised in employing competent and reliable solicitors to procure patents, for the value of a patent depends greatly, if not entirely, upon the care and skill of the attorney.

With the view of protecting inventors from worthless or careless attorneys, and of seeing that inventions are well protected by valid patents, we have retained counsel expert in patent practice, and therefore are prepared to Obtain Patents in the United States and all Foreign Countries, Conduct Interferences, Make Special Examinations, Prosecute Rejected Cases, Register Trade-Marks and Copyrights, Render Opinions as to Scope and Validity of Patents, Prosecute and Defend Infringement Suits, Etc., Etc.

If you have an invention on hand send a sketch or photograph thereof, together with a brief description of the important features, and you will be at once advised as to the best course to pursue. Models are seldom necessary. If others are infringing on your rights, or if you are charged with infringement by others, submit the matter to us for a reliable OPINION before acting on the matter.
