EDITOR GAZETTE Permit me through your columns to say a word to our many friends in and around Heppner.

We are much pleased with our new home. Of course many of the Heppner people have lived "in the valley," and they know. We have just purchased reception and a public supper. I do not sentiment of our heart is "Esto Per- for and against were numerous... petuo". One brother has just brought s a sack of mushroons and has told my wife how to cook them, but I have been reading how that a whole family in New York had been poisoned with them. and have suggested to her that she first feed some of them to the cat and if it does not die we will try them.

of about fifty-five m mbers. We are fortunate in having both as president of League and superintendent of Sunday school one of the professors of Willamette University, and one of the public schools is only half a block from our church in which are six teachers, and they assist us so that I have the most efficient belpers that I ever nad, and for singing you can put us against the world, books in every seat and every one just throws his or her head back and with open mouth sings. We have no choir and do not want one. The S. S. has a good library and one peculiarity is that books are well taken care of. People die here; I have had two funerals, and there are several sick in the neighborhood now. Also they marry; I am to marry a couple on Tuesday. If any of you come to Salem, take the big car at the depot, tell the conductor to set Salem and he will let you off at my door. Tim Bisbee made as glad by spending the night with us.
