ALLIGATOR SHOOTING. An Exciting Sport Which Is Pursued in

Darkness. Mr. Kirk Munroe describes in the Cosmopolitan a cance trip in company with two young Seminole Indians, Mic-sochee and Kowika, who were engaged in their regular occupation of hunting alligators for their hides. The canoe was a dugout, made by Miccochee himelf out of a huge eyprus log. The trio made camp fate in the afternoon, and after awhile Mr. Munroe discovered what he had not before suspected-that she huntling was to be done at night.
