1 Year's Subscription to a Popular Agricultural Paper

GIVEN FREE TO OURREADERS

by a special arrangement with the publishers we are prepared to furnish FREE to each of our readers a year's subscription to the popular monthly agricultural journal, the AMERICAN FARMER, published at Springfield and

This offer is made to any of our subscribers who will pay up all arrearages on subscription and one year in advance, and to any new subscribers who will pay one year in advance. The AMERICAN FARMER enjoys a large national circulation, and ranks among the leading agricultural papers. By this arrangement it COSTS YOU NOTHING to receive the AMERICAN FARMER for one year, It will be to your advantage to call promptly. Sample copies can be seen at our office.

The Original Webster's Unabridged DICTIONARY.

By SPECIAL ARRANGEMENT WITH THE publishers, we are able to obtain a number of the above book, and propose to furnish a copy to each of our subscribers.

The dictionary is a necessity in every home, school and business house. It fills a vacancy, and furnishes knowledge which no one hundred other volumes of the choicest books could supply. Young and old, educated and ignorant, rich and poor, should have it within reach, and refer to its contents every day in the year.

As some have asked if this is really the Original Webster's Unabridged Dictionary, we are able to state we have learned direct from the publishers the fact, that this is the very work comulete on which about forty of the best years of the author's life were so well employed in writing. It contains the entire vocabulary of about 100,000 words, including the correct spelling, derivation and definition of same, send and 300,000 square inches of printed surface, and is bound in clotch half morocco and sheep.

Until further notice we will turnish this

Until further notice we will furnish this valuable Dictionary—
First—To any new subscriber.

First—To any new subscriber.
Second—To any renewal subscriber.
Third—To any subscriber now in arrears who pays up and one year in advance, at the following prices, viz:
Full Cloth bound, gilt side and back stamps, marbled edges, $1.00.
Half Morocco, bound, gilt side and back stamps, marbled edges, $1.50.
Full Sheep bound, leather label, marbled edges, $2.00

Physicians Give their Remedies to the People edges, $2.00

Fifty cents added in all cases for express age to Heppner. As the publishers limit the time and number of books they will furnish at the low rices, we advise all who desire to avail themelves of this great opportunity to attend to it

CHINESE MERCHANTS.

The Honor They Maintain in Their Business Affairs.

Mr. Moule, in his "New China and written after thirty years' resireputation for integrity. Indeed what be has to say upon this point may very well set an American reader to thinking, if not to blushing, says the Youth's Companion. One general statement may be made as to the character of Chinese business men. It used to be a common dictum that the word of a Cantonese Hong merchant was worth as much as another man's bond. Two years ago the manager of the

Hong Kong and Shanghai banking cor-poration (an English house) publicly avowed that in the course of a long experience he had never known, so far as his bank was concerned, a Chinese defaulter in money transactions.

GRAVEYARD POETRY.

Some Mirth-Provoking Rhymes on a Serious Subject. Nine-tenths of those who think they can write respectable poetry are mis-taken, writes T. DeWitt Talmage in the February Ladies' Home Journal. It is safe to say that most of the home-made poetry is an offense to God and man. One would have thought that the New Hampshire village would have risen in

"As this man was leading her to drink She kick'd and kill'd him quicker'n a wink."

One would have thought that even conservative New Jersey would have been in rebellion at a child's epitaph which reads thus: "She was not smart, she was not fair, Buthearts with grief for her are awellin'; All empty stands her little chair: She died of eatin' watermelon."

She died of eatin' watermelon."

A theater party of single young folks from a near-by New Jersey town, says the New York Sun, having dined at the Brunswick rather early concluded to utilize the spare time in seeing the city, and they went to the Madison Square Garden tower as the nearest point of interest. They were almost too late, because the time was within three minutes of six o'clock, and the elevator quit business at that hour. The attendant was profuse with apologies, and said he could only take them to the top of the tower, but they would have to walk
