VALUABLE PRESENT. A Year's Subscription to a Popular Agricultural Paper GIVEN FREETO OURREADERS

By a special arrangement with the publishers we are prepared to furnish FREE to each of our readers a year's subscription to the popular monthly agricultural journal, the AMERICAN FARMER.

This offer is made to any of our subscribers who will pay up all arrears on subscription and one year in advance.

The Original Webster's Unabridged DICTIONARY.

BY SPECIAL ARRANGEMENT WITH THE publishers, we are able to obtain a number of the above book, and propose to furnish a copy to each of our subscribers.

As some have asked if this is really the Original Webster's Unabridged Dictionary, we are able to state we have learned direct from the publishers that this is the very work complete on which forty of the best work of the author's life were so well employed in writing it.

As the publishers limit the time and number of books they will furnish at the low price, we advise all who desire to avail themselves of this great opportunity to attend to it at once.

FASCINATING PARISIENNES. A French Traveling Man Says They Are Miracles of Instinct.

The representative of a Paris silk house was telling a little party of friends at the Auditorium, one day last week, how the Parisian woman manages to render herself fascinating in spite of natural disadvantages.

"An Englishwoman is beautiful by nature or not beautiful," said he. "A Parisienne can rarely compete with the beautiful Englishwoman in features or in complexion and purity of skin, but she exerts such an effort of will in making herself fascinating that she often surpasses her rival in spite of natural disadvantages.

Every Parisienne is a living work of art, the product of a mysterious collaboration of surrounding influences, some stored in the galleries of the Louvre museum, others acting and living in the sculptors, the painters, the poets, the Apollin and the Phrynes of the day, and in the development of that refined and unmoral institution which is the privilege of the Latin.

LIGHT HAIR AND GENIUS. Appearances Would Seem to Indicate That They Go Together.

It has long been an accepted fact that the great men of this world, in war, statecraft, or the arts, have all been blond men. There have been a few exceptions—there always are.

send English amateurs to compete in the Chicago tournament. Well, Sanger can represent Great Britain to the queen's taste.

So the international character of what will undoubtedly be the greatest cycle race meeting ever held will really depend upon one man—Osmond. The American public will refuse to take Sanger, "English champion," seriously. It will insist upon regarding him as Sanger, plain American and, next to
