A Clergyman's Statement
Constitutional Scrofula Entirely Cured.

"C. L. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass."
Gentlemen: "Wishing to thank you for the gift of your Sarsaparilla has done for me, I will say that I have been afflicted with the same disease. I believed the boy's trouble was constitutional, and not common sore mouth. I procured a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla and commenced to give it regularly to both mother and baby, and occasionally washed his mouth with a syrup of buck brush root. Improvement began at once. We have succeeded in eradicating the scrofulous blood from the system and to-day we are blessed with a nice, fat baby boy, eighteen months old. He is the very picture of health, all life and full of mischief—thanks to Hood's Sarsaparilla. I am a minister in the Methodist Protestant church. I am here to back what I say and I am in no way interested in any profit in the matter, except it affords me much pleasure to recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla to all who are afflicted with the same ailment."

THE POPULIST CONVENTION.

Our Third Party Friends Meet and Choose a County Ticket.

The populists met Saturday last to choose their ticket for contest in June, and exhibited their enthusiasm by sending in a full delegation.

In the forenoon temporary organization was effected by choosing E. B. Stanton as temporary chairman and L. P. Lewis, secretary. These were afterwards made the permanent officers of the organization.

The convention assembled at a reasonable hour after dinner and put in nomination the following ticket: B. E. King, representative; Joe Hayes, sheriff; C. M. Hogue, clerk; Miss Ada Conlee, school superintendent; W. B. Ewing, assessor; Joe Gibson, treasurer; W. B. Gilliam, commissioner; Chas. Ingraham, surveyor; J. R. Nunnemaker, coroner. This was all accomplished without much friction except in the case of county treasurer. J. L. Yeager, of Heppner, had been slated for the plum, and though on the second vote he showed sufficient strength to nominate him, Mr. Birbeck having previously declined, another vote was taken, Gibson having changed his mind and the latter was nominated by a goodly vote.

Considerable enthusiasm was shown during the work of the convention, though, with a few exceptions, the ticket is not as strong as the party might have put in the field. Out in the Eight Mile section, the populists were in favor of Gen. Chapin for representative, and considerable disappointment was expressed that he was not selected in the place of Mr. King.

Most of the delegates lived at a distance from town and being in a hurry to get away, no ratification meeting was held on Saturday evening, as has long been the custom of nominating conventions.
