THE SOUTH CAROLINA FIGHT

Governor Tillman has well said that "the struggle in South Carolina has been that of democracy against aristocracy, of the people against oligarchy." Tillman himself stands for the "concracked" element of the population, the "po' white trash"—the element out of which has sprung some of the greatest figures in American public life—such men as Jackson and Lincoln. It was the country and mountain vote that elected him, and the country and mountain people are now with him in his fight against the aristocracy and the militia of the towns and cities.

This poor white element, contemptuously though it has always been held by the proud southern "chivs," and the black slaves and servants of the household, possesses civic virtues of the highest degree. Simple-hearted and kindly, its men are proud and independent, and its women virtuous. As a rule it stood by the flag in the 60s, and as a rule it stands up for law and government today.

Against these rugged hosts and the law and a fearless governor to uphold the law, are arrayed the whisky element, the posterity of a long line of insurance companies, and, travesty upon temperance, the prohibitionists of the state. Special correspondents at the front telegraph that the most fanatical prohibitionists are working shoulder to shoulder with the men who kept the lowest of grogshops before the dispensary law went into effect.

So long as the law stands it will be enforced. The aristocratic militia companies will have to obey orders or throw up their commissions, and as fast as they go out of commission, new companies will be recruited that will uphold the law and the governor's efforts to enforce it. Tillman is the right man for South Carolina. She needs a long time of just such governors.—Spokane Review.

This democrats of this county evidently put their strongest material on Tuesday, but they won't get enough votes on election day to make the contest interesting.

A MAN who is strong in the right does not sacrifice principle or harmony—it is not what "they say" but what I do that concerns me most," is the motto of the truly great in self-government, and the man so governed is free from the control of the unworthy.

IN THE CITY of Albany, N. Y., Mr. Cleveland's home, on Tuesday, the democratic ticket was defeated for the first time in fifteen years. Elections were held in other cities of New York and also in New Jersey, the republicans sweeping the works Strauss says which way the wind blows.

Prof. J. D. Brown, of Lexington, is a stranger to us personally, and from what we can learn he is little known in the county over, having resided here but a short time. In other words he is a carpet-bagger, and as such deserves to stay at home until he becomes better acquainted with the needs of the county.

A CENSING and ambitious politician is Senator Hill of New York. It is a striking commentary upon the extreme defavor in which the Cleveland administration is held that this man who wanted to be president, should seek to strengthen himself by boldly attacking the record of his own party. Here we have a clear illustration of how odium democracy grows even with itself.—Review.

The fresh editor of the Record is doing a vast amount of crowing this week over the brilliant victory in store for the democratic nominee. We will acknowledge, brother, that you are intelligent beyond your years, but we venture the assertion that you will have to eat a large mess of crow after the June election. You must not forget for a minute that the republicans have a ticket in the field, and that it is there to win.

JOE WALDRUP, the populist candidate for congress, is somewhat on the political order of Dennis Kearney. He can best be described as the latter was some years ago by an admirer. "And who is this man Kearney, Mike, of whom you are always talking?" "Faith if you wasn't just from the old sod, Teddy, I could not excuse your ignorance; why, Dennis is the greatest man in America." "But what does he do?" "Do; why he don't do nothing—he's a workin' man."—Portland Dispatch.

PROBABLY the most remarkable political address of the year was that just issued by the democratic leaders of Minnesota through the democratic association of Minnesota. It says in part: "It is useless to disguise the fact that our party is confronted with serious peril. It is time for plain words. Silence now is disloyalty to our party and its cause. In less than two years after winning the most complete victory any party ever won, and while in full possession of the powers then given us, we present the appearance of a defeated party, while our opponents defeated in the battle wear all the airs of victory."

The democrats in congress are still wedded to sham. They pretend to restrict expenditures and boast of economies on the stump and then bring in deficiency bills. The fifth deficiency bill in this congress has already passed the house. A deficiency bill represents sham economy. It is the parliamentary device resorted to cover up a campaign lie. It is the result of pretended retrenchment in appropriations, when, as a matter of fact, in order to deceive the people, an adequate amount was in the first instance intentionally not appropriated. The amount of deficiencies already passed by the house in this congress, to make good pretended economies of the last congress, is $5,000,000. The chairman of the appropriations committee of the house has admitted that it will be necessary to appropriate $14,000,000 in deficiency bills in order to maintain the government. In other words, when, during the last campaign the democrats in their speeches claimed that they had effected savings of $14,000,000 in the current expenses of the government they misrepresented the facts. They had simply deferred the payment of honest obligations, and are now compelled to make appropriations in the guise of deficiency bills. The democrats seem never to tire of resorting to this ancient trick. They still presume upon the gullibility of the American public.—Salem Statesman.

Those who never read the advertisements in their newspapers miss more than they presume. Jonathan Kenson, of Bolan, Worth Co., Iowa, who had been troubled with rheumatism in his back, arms and shoulders read an item in his paper about how a prominent German citizen of Ft. Madison had been cured. He procured the same medicine, and to use his own words: "It cured me right up." He also says: "A neighbor and his wife were both sick in bed with rheumatism. Their boy was over to his house and said they were so bad he had to do the cooking. I told him of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and how it had cured me; he got a bottle and it cured them up in a week. 50 cent bottles for sale by S. Conn-Johnson Drug Co.

BOYS DON'T BE DECEIVED.

When the old parties can still hood-wink their voting dupes with a sham battle over the tariff after plugging away at it for 80 years there seems but little hope till a new generation is born. Settle the tariff and then the republicans say we will settle the money question. What have you been doing since 1892, my G. O. P. friends? Shall we all starve and be slaves while you follow the lead of John Sherman, Bill McKinley, Grover Cleveland, Reed and other gold bug republicans. With ten million of people in the U. S. suffering for the necessities of life. Wheat at 25 cents in Eastern Oregon and 60 cents in New York and everything in proportion, except taxes. With plunderers at the public crib, with "star routes" fraud in one cabinet and the Tennessee coal and iron company in the other, with the sugar and standard oil trusts in the presidents chair, then bow for another chance and have your blind dupes yelling themselves hoarse for the G. O. P.

There is not one old party man out of twenty that "dares" to read the other's side, and should party bosses won't let them it they can help it. They would follow the example of a P. M., of Morrow county, who made a boast that lots of populist literature came to his office and he would not distribute it, but he put it in the stove. There must have been something in them that burnt his seared conscience.

The editor of the Gazette told us that the republican party is a free trade party. Now a question, is McKinley, Tom Reed, Whitelaw Reid, John Sherman, Sen. Hoar, C. M. Deputy, The New York Tribune and the Oregonian republicans? Your county convention endorsed the grand record of their party. Did that include the seventeen days they were dodging a vote on Bland's bill and then getting $15 a day and mileage extra? If that is a free silver party, what in "Hades" are the gold bugs? Now be sure that you don't follow Pat's advice to vote early and often, for some of us populists will kick at that and if we catch you at it, will give you a trip over the road. We are supposed to have a free ballot and fair count.

KING E. WILLIAM.

The Complexion of a Chinese. Is not yellower than that of an unfortunate individual whose liver complaint has assumed the chronic form. The eyeballs of the sufferer assume a saffron hue, there is dull pain in the region of the organ affected, the tongue is coated, breath sour, sick headaches usually but not always occur, and there is sometimes dizziness, arising from a sitting posture. Constipation and dyspepsia are also attendants of this very common ailment, always in its aggravated form, liable to breed abscesses of the liver, which are then very dangerous. Hostile's Stomach Bitters wholly eradicates it, as well as the troubles complicated with it, and which it originates. In chills and fever, a complaint which always yields to the Bitters, the liver is seriously involved. This fine alterative tonic removes coarseness and indigestion, rheumatic, nervous and kidney trouble and debility.

IOS SPEAKS.

I see in the Gazette of the 13th that the populists are a free trade party, that is, you claim that their vote in congress shows this.

Now as a populist I will dispute your assertion. We claim that the tariff issue is used by both old parties to blind the masses, and that the money question is the main issue. We made the same claim in 1892, and the events which have followed prove us to be right. Republican and democratic papers both called for the repeal of the purchasing clause of the Sherman law, and said we would have prosperous times as soon as it was repealed. The populists said no. Let me ask you who was right? And farther every populist in the house and senate voted against repeal, and the majority of the republicans and democrats voted for repeal. You say that the republican party is a free silver party. We will take your own measure and by that measure they are opposed to silver and paper, they want nothing but gold. For instance look at their vote in the house, July 13th, '92, for free silver, 9; against free silver, 60; August 23rd, '93, for the repeal, 111; against the repeal, 13. In the house March 1st, 1894, repeal for seigniorage bill, 19; repeal against seigniorage bill, 71. You may settle the tariff and then in 1896 you will see and do something on the money question. Now Otis you know as well as I do that if we ran on a gold basis till that time that it will be settled by the sheriff and you also know that if we do not have relief sooner than that republicans, democrats and populists will all be paupers together and a little ring of Wall Street gamblers, some 30,000 in number, will own all the property in the United States.

We have no tariff plank in the Omaha platform and our members have not our own views, but this I will say, not a populist would have voted for the #### COMMITTEE CALL.

Notice is hereby given to the members of the people's party central committee of Morrow county, that there will be a meeting of said committee at Lexington, April 14th, at 10 o'clock a. m. Every member should be present if possible.

W. C. MARRIS, Chairman.

219-22 LEXINGTON, OR., March 31st, 1894.

Wilson bill without the income tax amendment. How does your party stand on that amendment? If I am to believe your leading papers and some of your local leaders you are bitterly opposed to it because it might compel Astor or Vanderbilt to commit perjury to escape taxation. It runs too much in private affairs, oh, but when it comes to you or me, don't the assessors ask us how much we are worth; how many hogs, sheep, horses, cattle, how much land, money, notes, etc. How is the tariff on the same point. The revenue officer asks questions, opens boxes, bales, trunks, throws out dirty linen, and searches man or woman, but the same class who say that that is right, say it is wrong to tax Gould, Rockefeller, et al.

Give the country plenty of money and then we will have prosperity and you can have either high or low tariff, but the next tariff you yell for be sure that you have it fixed so that an American laborer has protection against the Poles, Hung, Italians and other alien contract laborers, and not as at present to protect Carnegie's manufacturers and allow him to import workmen to take the place of American citizens, or to allow White-law Reid to import his laborers from France to build his million dollar mansion.

I will refer you to Peffer and Allen in the U. S. senate or the national congress, and for fear you have not seen them I will send them in my next.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflated you have a rumbling sound in your ears, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; sine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give you one hundred dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars: free.

PATENTS

FOR INVENTIONS.

Equal with the interest of those having claims against the government is that of INVENTORS, who often lose the benefit of valuable inventions because of the incompetency or inattention of the attorneys employed to obtain their patents. Too much care cannot be exercised in employing competent and reliable solicitors to procure patents, for the value of a patent depends greatly, if not entirely, upon the care and skill of the attorney.

With the view of protecting inventors from worthless or careless attorneys, and of seeing that inventors are well protected by valid patents, we have retained counsel expert in patent practice, and therefore are prepared to Obtain Patents in the United States and all Foreign Countries, Conduct Interferences, Make Special Examinations, Prosecute Rejected Cases, Register Trade-Marks and Copyrights, Render Opinions as to Scope and Validity of Patents, Prosecute and Defend Infringement Suits, Etc., Etc.

If you have an invention on hand send a sketch or photograph thereof, together with a brief description of the important features, and you will be at once advised as to the best course to pursue. Models are seldom necessary. If others are infringing on your rights, or if you are charged with infringement by others, submit the matter to us for a reliable OPINION before acting on the matter.

Honorably discharged soldiers and sailors who served ninety days, or over, in the late war, are entitled, if now partially or wholly disabled for ordinary manual labor, whether their disability was caused by service or not, and regardless of their pecuniary circumstances, to receive a pension. Widows of such soldiers and sailors are entitled, if not remarried, whether the soldier's death was due to army service or not, if now dependent upon their own labor for support. Widows of such soldiers and sailors are entitled, if the soldier's death was due to service, to receive a pension for themselves, if they are now dependent upon their own labor for support. It makes no difference whether the soldier served or died in late war or in regular army or navy.
