Every day at 6 a. m., except Sunday.
Arrives every day at 8 p. m., except Sunday.

Give your business to Heppner people, and therefore assist to build up Heppner. Patronize those who patronize you.

Here and There.
Mary had a little lamb,
But that was long ago;
She can't afford to keep it now
Since wool has gone so low.

"Oh, would I were a bird!" she sang,
and each disengaged one
Thought to himself a wicked thought:
"Oh, would I were a gun!"

Chas. Sheldon got back Friday from Portland.
George Swagart was up from Tub Springs early this week.

John McCarty's horses ran away Friday last, but nothing was hurt.
Wanted—A few more customers for the home laundry, Mountain House.

The Heppner-Canyon stage line is the best, cheapest and quickest to the interior.
Mrs. W. V. Crook, nee Miss Ellor Breen, is up from Hillsboro visiting relatives.

Hood's Pills are the best family cathartic and liver medicine. Harmless, reliable, sure.
If you want a good gun or sewing machine, come to the Gazette office and we'll fit you out.

If you are dull and stupid you are bilious and need a tonic. Take Simmons Liver Regulator.
Those that have county scrip for sale should call on George Corser at the First National Bank.

Miss Dottie K. Sperry, of East Port land, will shortly give a literary entertainment in Heppner.
The Gazette will be sent to any address in the United States till after campaign for 50 cents.

Mrs. W. A. Johnston accompanied by her son, departed last evening for Portland to visit with friends.
Legal blanks, plenty of them, at the Gazette office, and at world's prices. Discount on large orders.

Green Matthews has opened up his barber shop, next door to Hayes Bros Shaves, etc., on tap as usual.
Miss Ada Minor departed Wednesday evening for Fairhaven where she will visit her sister, Mrs. Dudson.

Every man who takes any interest in fast stock should subscribe for The Horseman. Gazette shop, agents.
M. D. Hayman sued Joe Keeney for $40 due on wages, Tuesday afternoon. The case will come for trial May 1st.

The Gazette will take county scrip at face on subscription, and pay balance of same in cash at highest market price.
The Gazette office now runs an insurance and notarial shop. Come in when you want to do your insuring and swearing.

The Christian church social last evening was a complete success taking in $17.50. Those present report a most enjoyable time.
The G. A. R. are seriously considering the question of holding Decoration Day services at Heppner. We think it would be a good plan.

Squirrel shooting is the pastime at present of ye Heppner people. The "marble playing" craze has subsided completely, and pretty soon the lesp-frog season will be dead.
The Leon-Repatta, cult belonging to the Matlocks, recently killed itself by running into a barbed-wire fence, was valued at $1,500.

J. S. Delevan came in Sunday night from Long Creek. He looks none the worse for his recent experience on Beech creek. He was accompanied by Ed Keeney, of Long Creek.
Echo stage leaves Heppner for Echo Tuesday, Thursdays and Saturdays, Arroyos Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays. Fare, one way, $2.50. Phil Cohn, agent, A. Andrews, Prop.

Lost—A note dated June 12, 1892, signed by G. W. Swagart, calling for $2,000, in favor of P. C. Thompson. The public are warned against negotiating for or purchasing said note.
Henry and O. F. Thompson were in town Wednesday last. They state that the prospect for fruit is good this year out on Butter creek, the trees being loaded with blossom—too much in fact for the trees to safely bear.

Mat Hillard, of Haystack, has just returned from France. He says times are good there. A three-year-old steer in that country is worth from $70 to $80, cows from $50 to $70. Of course, it costs more to raise them than in the West.
Next Monday at the opera house, the pupils of the eight lower grades will give an entertainment for the benefit of the school, proceeds to be applied to the purchase of apparatus. Admission, 25 cents; children 15 cents. Doors open at 7 o'clock.

If those who owe us would just pay $1 apiece it would help us to pay our debts. Fact is, the Gazette has got to do some "tall rustling," and we expect our patrons to do something. Our paper house and printers still require hard cash, and cash we must have.
Gid Hatt has now established a tea and social parlor, at the Matlock building next door to Simons' blacksmith shop where he invites the patronage of his old customers and all who desire strictly first class work, shaving, shampooing and hair-cutting at living prices. Don't overlook!

Wednesday morning, O. L. Patterson struck out for Long Creek to again occupy the editorial tripod of the Lone Creek Eagle. Three weeks' absence in Fresno and Portland had gotten the boy in notion of ranting on city airs, and it was with difficulty that he came down to navy blue overalls once more.

The regular subscription price of the Semi-Weekly Gazette is $2.50 and the regular price of the Weekly Oregonian is $1.50. Any one subscribing for the Gazette and paying for one year in advance can get both the Gazette and Weekly Oregonian for $3. All old subscribers paying their subscription for one year in advance will be entitled to the same.

It would be worth while for the ladies to bear in mind that if they take a gentle course of Ayer's Sarsaparilla in the spring, they will have no trouble with "prickly heat," "chives," "sties," "boils," or "black heads," when summer comes. Prevention is better than cure.

Times-Mountaineer: Mr. A. A. Jayne, the republican nominee for prosecuting attorney, is a well known lawyer of Arlington, and is in every way qualified for the position. He will very likely receive the full party vote in June, and be the district attorney after July.

Numerous are the sheepshearing crews here at present, and all seem to have plenty to do at 5 cents a head. The Richardson crew pulled out yesterday for the country, and ere this reaches the press, no doubt are hard at work in the shearing corral.

Fossil Journal: J. D. Hunsinger, who in partnership with Willie Hoover ran the Fossil gallery for a time in 1892, has entered into a partnership with Theo. Danner at Argenta, Ark. Mr. Danner was formerly a photographer in Heppner.

Dr. J. E. Bingham, of Walla Walla, and Dr. Vincent, of Pendleton, made an examination of R. G. Thompson's injured limb Wednesday. They found the member mending rapidly and the condition they report to be very favorable.

Roscoe Shaw and John Chrisman arrived with freight teams from Grant county Wednesday. Johnny is just recovering from a severe attack of typhoid fever from which he has suffered very much during the past winter.

Mrs. Geo. Thornton left Monday night for a visit with her husband at the Dalles. She was accompanied by Mrs. Josephine Forwood's children who went to join their mother at that place.

Mrs. Ed. Copner and daughter came over from Lone Rock Monday night and departed last night for Portland, where their future home will be. Ed is now a full-fledged knight of the grip.

A fine rain Wednesday and Wednesday night brightened up crops, gardens and grass in this locality, though nothing was in danger of suffering from lack of moisture in Morrow county.

Married—At the residence of N. S. Whiston, in this city, on Monday evening, April 23, Harry V. DeWitt to Miss Ida Gerkin, Rev. Frank Adkins officiating.

When Coxe's army arrived in Omaha it is reported that nearly every one left town through fear of an attack from the tough looking band of Coxe-ites.

Orin L. Patterson departed for Long Creek on Wednesday morning's stage.

S. I. Stratton, of Lone Rock, was in the city on business yesterday.
Arthur Smith will clean watches at the reduced price of $1.

DEMOCRATIC MEAL—A good joke is told at the expense of one of the delegates to the Astoria convention from this city, and one that will be duly appreciated by his many friends in the county. He has been the executive officer of the county for two years, and has faithfully performed his duties to the satisfaction of democrats and republicans. Not being a candidate for re-election, he is not seeking favors, but will always remain true to democracy. While in Portland, enroute to the city by the sounding sea, he and two others stepped into a restaurant for dinner. When the waiter came to his order, he said he wanted a good democratic meal, while the others named two or three articles on the bill of fare. In good time a plate of soup came to him, which he managed to diminish very quickly. While the others were satisfying themselves on roast beef and other dishes, no attention was paid to him, and he sat gazing into his empty soup bowl. After they had finished their dinner and were about to leave, he inquired of the waiter the reason he had not been served with other dishes besides soup. With a protection grin on his face, the caterer mildly answered, "You wanted a democratic meal, and you got soup, and that is symbolic of the place where the party is at the present time."
—Times-Mountaineer.

A FITTING TRIBUTE—Last Sunday night, Rev. M. Bramblet preached his farewell sermon in the M. E. church, South, which had been tendered him for that occasion, it being the largest church house in the town, and in order to accommodate the audience. On this occasion the various pastors dismissed and with the congregations came out to hear Mr. Bramblet's last words of good counsel, as a Heppner pastor. Following this, on Monday night, the neighbors and friends of Rev. Bramblet and family, to the extent of forty or fifty, gathered at the pastor's residence, and a very pleasant, old-fashioned "home-warming" resulted. Mr. Bramblet has lived here two years, and the respect shown him on recent occasions, as mentioned above, is but a fitting tribute to his worth as a citizen and a minister of the Gospel. It is regretted that circumstances have necessitated their removal to the neighboring hamlet of Lone Rock, but our loss is their gain, which is some consolation. (Apr. 27, '94.)

TO OHIO—C. N. Peck left last evening for Sunbury, Ohio, and will return in the course of three or four weeks. If we were to guess on the purpose of Mr. Peck's visit, we would say that it is to visit old friends and relatives. And the chances are that he will be accompanied on the return by one of these friends—a lady friend, Mr. Peck is one of our bachelors who has so far resisted all efforts of our Morrow county belles to catch him in the meshes of wedlock.

Invalid 3 Years, Cured by Hood's

"Gentlemen—I am glad to see that I have been given good health by Hood's Sarsaparilla. For three years I was an invalid, suffering terribly from Nervousness and Lamenness.

"I was so nervous I could not bear the least noise, and I had to walk with crutches for six months, as I could not put one of my feet to the floor. Physicians did not do me any good, so a friend told me to get Hood's Sarsaparilla, but "I said There Was No Use.

"However, after thinking the matter over, I decided to give it a trial, and have taken six bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and the result is that I am well as any one could wish to be, and can do any kind of work. I advise all my friends to take Hood's Sarsaparilla for I believe it will do them good."
Miss SARAH DONSON, Colton, California.

Hood's Pills cure liver ills, constipation, biliousness, jaundice, sick headache, indigestion.

LAND FOR SALE—480 acres over in Wilson Prairie. A good stock ranch and will be sold cheap. Call at Gazette office for particulars and terms.

SHOEMAKER—Ed. Birbeck, a shoemaker and repairer of many years' experience, has just located in the Abrahamson building, on May street, where he is prepared to do everything in his line. Mr. Birbeck is strictly a first-class workman and warrants all work. Give him a call.

SURPRISE PARTY.—Recently Dottie Bramblet was the recipient of a surprise party, the occasion of her twelfth birthday. There were present the following: Bertha Matlock, Bessie Sutton, Myra Yeager, Alma Thompson, Elsie Ayers, Bertha Kinsman, Bessie Vinson, Ida Howard, Estie Leazer, Zoe Patterson, Elza Sutton and Jewel Bramblet.

CLUB MEETING.—The Republican Club of Heppner will meet at the opera house next Saturday evening. On that occasion A. A. Jayne, of Arlington, republican nominee for prosecuting attorney, will address the meeting, followed by E. A. Brandage, of this place, and others. An excellent program is being prepared and all are invited to come out.

FOR MANY PAPERS—Every newspaper man has at some time in his business experience met the man who now takes more papers than he can read. He was in town last week. He paid 25 cents for an almanac, wiped his nose on an awning, tried to blow out an electric light at the hotel, failed to light his cigar on it, put a nickel in the slot at the post-office expecting the postmaster to appear, wanted to lick the cashier of the bank because it closed at 4 o'clock and watched the sign over one of the jewelry stores, waiting for it to strike.

A SOLID MAN.—JAY P. LUCAS, the present clerk of Gilliam county, is again a candidate on the republican ticket for the sixth term. As a rule, even the third term is difficult to obtain at the hands of the voting population, but in Mr. Lucas' case all precedent seems cast to one side, and he bids fair to rival the clerk of one of the valley counties, Bush Wilson, who went into that office a young man and remained till too old to further discharge the duties of the office. It seems that Mr. Lucas always has a walkover, both for nomination and election.

WEIGHING THE MAILS.—Postmaster Mallory is kept quite busy at present weighing the incoming and outgoing mails and forwarding the report of same daily. This is not only required of the various postoffices but also the railroads carrying government mail. Every four years the government requires that the mails carried over all the railroads of the country be simultaneously weighed for one month in order to make calculations as to how much each road should be paid for transportation. This is the year for this work and the time designated for doing it is from April 16 to May 16.

THE APRIL NUMBER.—In the April edition of Toilettes are presented the richest assortment of fashionable models ever offered to the American public. The full spring styles are illustrated in more than a hundred beautiful engravings of millinery, walking suits, coats, wraps, garter, corsage, collarettes, morning dresses and children's wear. All the best characteristics of female attire are seen in this delightful edition, which is an honor to the publishers and affords the most perfect examples of the resources of modern art in conjunction with the printing press. It is the cheapest periodical of the kind ever issued and goes far to remove many foolish prejudices existing against fashion books in general. It can be obtained from all newsdealers, or direct from Toilettes Publishing Co., 125 West 231 St., New York. Single copies 20 cents; yearly subscriptions $1.50.

Honorably discharged soldiers and sailors who served ninety days, or over, in the late war, are entitled, if now partially or wholly disabled for ordinary manual labor, whether disability was caused by service or not, and regardless of their pecuniary circumstances.
WIDOWS of such soldiers and sailors are entitled (if not remarried) whether soldier's death was due to army service or not, if now dependent upon their own labor for support. Widows not dependent upon their own labor are entitled (if under sixteen years) in almost all cases where there was no widow, or the last surviving or remarried.
CHILDREN are entitled (if under sixteen years) in almost all cases where there was no widow, or from effects of service, and they are now dependent upon their own labor for support. It makes no difference whether soldier served or died in late war or in regular army or navy.
Soldiers of the late war, pensioned under one law, may apply for higher rates under other laws, without losing any rights.
Thousands of soldiers drawing from $3 to $10 per month under the old law are entitled to higher rates under new law, not only on account of disabilities for which now pensioned, but also for others, whether due to service or not.
Soldiers and sailors disabled in line of duty in regular army or navy since the war are also entitled, whether discharged for disability or not.
Survivors, and their widows, of the Black Hawk, Creek, Cherokee and Seminole or Florida Indian Wars of 1832 to 1842, are entitled under a recent act.
Mexican War soldiers and their widows also entitled, if sixty-two years of age or disabled or dependent.
Old claims completed and settlement obtained, whether pension has been granted under later laws or not.
Rejected claims reopened and settlement secured, if rejection improper or illegal.
Certificates of service and discharge obtained for soldiers and sailors of the late war who have lost their original papers. No charge for advice. No fee unless successful. Address,

THE MONOGRAPH.
For one Dollar and Your Opinion on This Subject.

What is the best Monetary system for the United States? This is the greatest problem confronting the American people. It is the intention of the publishers that "The Monograph" shall contain the best thought of the nation on this question. The recognized leaders in all political parties have been called upon to contribute plans for their ideal Monetary System. But not content with this, we are determined to embody in the same volume the opinions of thousands of the "Great Common People," and to that end we will allow two dollars on the price of the book for your solution of this problem, expressed in not more than 800 words. The Monograph, the best modern work on Monetary Systems, will be sent to every address on receipt of $2.00. It is a book that will interest and instruct, and is destined to become a giant factor in shaping the future monetary system of the nation.

A NARROW ESCAPE!

How it Happened.

The following remarkable event in a lady's life will interest the reader: "For a long time I had a terrible pain at my heart, which did not go away. I could not sleep, and I could not sit up in bed and hold gas from my stomach and thought every minute would be my last. There was a feeling of oppression about my heart, and I was afraid to draw a full breath. I could not sweep a room without sitting down and resting; but, thank God, by the help of New Heart Cure all that is past and I feel like another woman. Before using the New Heart Cure I had taken different special remedies and been treated by doctors without any benefit until I was both discouraged and disgusted. My husband bought me a bottle of Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure, and an happy to say I never regretted it, as I now have a splendid appetite and sleep well. I weighed 125 pounds when I began taking the remedy, and now I weigh 109. It is for all purposes any other medicine I have ever taken or any benefit I ever received from physicians."—Mrs. Harry Starr, Portville, Pa., October 12, 1902.

Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure is sold on a positive guarantee by all druggists, or by the Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind., on receipt of price, $1 per bottle, six bottles $5, express prepaid. The great discovery by an eminent specialist in heart disease, contains neither opiates nor dangerous drugs.
