Miss Mary Andrews accidentally spilled hot water on her foot last week, badly scalding that member. However, the burn is not serious, and she will soon be able to walk again.

Lost—A note dated June 12, 1892, signed by G. W. Swagart, calling for $2,000, in favor of F. C. Thompson. The public is warned against negotiating for or purchasing said note.

J. W. Dawson returned from Monument Saturday. He found the river too high to proceed further, and came back without going to Canyon City. It will be several days before the river can be ferried.

Mrs. Belle Taylor, who has been visiting with relatives in the city for the past few weeks, departed Saturday evening for Colfax. She was accompanied as far as The Willows by Misses Letha Matlock and Daisy Clark.

Ben Case, the Ione blacksmith, spent Sunday and yesterday in Heppner. From reports, Ione expects a good year, crop prospects being good. Republicans are enthusiastic in that precinct, and will poll the usual vote for that party.

In consequence of winter diet and lack of open air exercise, the whole physical mechanism becomes impaired. Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the proper remedy, in the spring of the year, to strengthen the appetite, invigorate the system, and expel all impurities from the blood.

If those who owe us would just pay $1 apiece it would help us to pay our debts. Fact is, the Gazette has got to do some "tall rustling" and we expect our patrons to do something. Our paper house and printers still require hard cash, and cash we must have.

Marian Evans, of Lexington, was in Saturday at which time he reported crops to be in excellent condition. However, for the past two weeks it has been too cold for vegetation to make much growth, but the prospects for a fall crop were never better.

Arthur Smith will clean watches at the reduced price of $1.

E. B. Dufur, the democratic candidate for prosecuting attorney, arrived from The Dalles this morning.

Hon. Henry Watterson's lecture on "Money and Morals" at Portland last week was well attended, and pronounced to be full of good and wise thought.

Eagle: The mill at the Black Butte is now being run day and night, working from 12 to 18 tons of ore per 24 hours.

The ore is said to be averaging about $1 to the ton.

The road between Heppner and the mountains on Willow creek is reported by Luther Hamilton to be in bad condition, and will require fully $300 to put in a passable condition.

Towns Mathews is down from Spokane to Heppner. Towns likes Eastern Washington quite well, but thinks there is no place like Morrow county. The Spokane country is very quiet at present, and there seems to be no immediate signs of improvement.

It is only of late years that rheumatism has been treated as a blood disease. But that this is a correct theory is proved by the extraordinary success attending the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, in this painful and very prevalent malady. It seldom fails of radical cure.

In the near future, the grand drive of 50,000 head or more of Morrow county sheep will start eastward. These are made up of various bands and half of them will be piloted through by Sam Palmer. This is encouraging, even though the price paid is small.

The regular subscription price of the Semi-Weekly Gazette is $2.50 and the regular price of the Weekly Oregonian is $1.50. Any one subscribing for the Gazette and paying for one year in advance can get both the Gazette and Weekly Oregonian for $3. All old subscribers paying their subscriptions for one year in advance will be entitled to the same.

E. L. Matlock arrived from Iowa on this morning's train, after an absence of six months or more. Farmers in Iowa are preparing to put in their corn which never fails there. Times are fair in that section. Horses, however, are dull sale, and that was what most interested Ed. having taken several car-loads from Eastern Oregon last fall.

TRAIN CAPTURED.—Last Saturday morning, the Coxeyites at Troutdale captured the locomotive attached to Supt. Baxter's private car, and switching it onto the side track, they coupled on the freight train, deposited all the company employes, putting in their places "commonwealers," and in a short space of time were pulling eastward. They got along well enough till they reached Arlington. There they were met by some regulars from Fort Walls, Walla under Col. Compton who arrested the whole gang, and were immediately escorted back to Portland where 52 of the ring-leaders were put in jail and 387 of the rank and file kept in box-cars under military surveillance. The leaders will have to answer to the charge of contempt. Judge Bellinger warned them not to molest company property, which they willfully disobeyed. The result will be that a fine lot of muscle will remain inactive till the possessors get through with Uncle Sam.

THE CLUB MEETING.—The meeting of the Republican Club of Heppner, last Saturday evening was a grand success. The speakers of the evening were Hon. A. A. Jayne, of Arlington, candidate for prosecuting attorney, and Hon. E. A. Brundage, organizer of republican clubs in this county, followed by a few scolding remarks by Otis Patterson. The whole was interspersed with campaign and other songs, rendered by the campaign quartet and also by Miss Edie Warren. The meeting closed with the announcement that on next Saturday evening the Republican Club of Morrow county would meet at the opera house with a full program.

WAS RELEASED.—On last Thursday evening, Jas. D. Hamilton and wife were about to depart for California, Mr. Hamilton was placed under arrest charged with forgery, Hon. J. N. Brown, his former partner, being the complainant. The examination came off on Friday before Judge Keittley, and the accused was allowed to go for lack of evidence.

NOT DEAD.—Last Friday Blind Jim, of the Columbia, made his appearance in Heppner again, after an absence of more than a year. Jim was reported to have died not long since, but he seems to be a very live swish, though very infirm from rheumatism. He was accompanied by numerous backs, squaws, papposes, caynes and dogs on their semi-annual pilgrimage to the mountains.

NEW WASHMAN.—George, a first class Chinese washman from Pendleton, has purchased the wash-house from Charley, and will run the same in the future. George wishes to state that he will not be responsible for any of Charley's debts, but promises to conduct the best Chinese wash-house ever established in Heppner. He solicits the custom patronage of not only Charley's old customers, but of all who wish good laundry work done.

THE SUPERIORITY Of Hood's Sarsaparilla is due to the tremendous amount of brain work and constant care used in its preparation. Try one bottle and you will be convinced of its superiority. It purifies the blood which, the source of health, cures dyspepsia, overcomes sick headache and biliousness. It is just the medicine for you.

Delays are dangerous. Take Simmons Liver Regulator in time for dyspepsia, biliousness, and all diseases of the liver.

Mrs. Judge Peck Tells How She Was Cured

Sufferers from dyspepsia should read the following letter from Mrs. H. M. Peck, wife of Judge Peck, a Justice of the Peace, and a writer connected with the Associated Press:

"By a deep sense of gratitude for the great benefit I have received from the use of Hood's Sarsaparilla, I have been led to write the following statement for the benefit of sufferers who may be similarly afflicted. For 12 years I have been a great sufferer from dyspepsia, and Almost everything I ate would distress me. I tried different treatments and medicines, but failed to realize relief. Two years ago a friend prevailed upon me to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. The first bottle I noticed I had no more pain, and taking it, I felt more and more that my friends spoke of the improvement. I have received such great benefit from it.

Heart Trouble. Gladly Recommend It. I now have an excellent appetite and nothing I eat ever distresses me. It also keeps up my Hood's Pills are hand made, and perfect in proportion and appearance. 25c a box.

PINE CITY POLITICS.—Geo. Harrington and the manager of this paper departed Saturday morning for Pine City to attend a meeting of the republican club at that place. Arriving about 12:30, they were provided with food for man and beast by genial Tom Mathews.

After dinner they repaired to the school house where quite a number of enthusiastic republicans had gathered, among whom they noted F. J. Hallock, J. F. Willis and J. S. Boothby, republican candidates, respectively, for clerk, assessor and representative. The club was called together by the chairman, J. T. Hoskins, when a number of those present were called upon to address the club. Those who responded were A. G. Bartholomew, F. J. Hallock, J. F. Willis, J. S. Boothby, Theo. Scott and A. W. Patterson. G. W. Harrington also briefly informed them that while no speaker, yet he was the nominee for sheriff, and should be elected it would be his earnest endeavor to fill the office to the best of his ability. In all, the meeting was an enthusiastic one and shows that the republicans are thoroughly alive in Pine City precinct.

LOST OR STOLEN.—All persons are hereby warned against negotiating for two certain notes, described as follows: One note dated October 5, 1893 for $500 signed by Wm. Penland and Hugh Fields, $100 indorsement. One note dated on or about Oct. 6, 1893 for $150 signed B. F. Vaughan and E. J. Slocum, with $51 indorsement. Both of said notes drawn in favor of Mrs. Elizabeth Walker.

PENSIONS

ADDRESS A LETTER OR POSTAL CARD TO THE PRESS CLAIMS COMPANY,

JOHN WEDDERBURN, Managing Attorney, P. O. Box 463, Washington, D. C.

Honorably discharged soldiers and sailors who served ninety days, or over, in the late war, are entitled, if now partially or wholly disabled by ordinary manual labor, whether disability was caused by service or not, and regardless of their pecuniary circumstances.

WIDOWS of such soldiers and sailors are entitled (if not remarried) whether soldier's death was due to army service or not, if now dependent upon their own labor for support. Widows not dependent upon their own labor are entitled if the soldier's death was due to service.

CHILDREN are entitled (if under sixteen years) in almost all cases where there was no widow, or she has since died or remarried.

PARENTS are entitled if soldier left neither widow nor child, provided soldier died in service, or from effects of service, and they are now dependent upon their own labor for support. It makes no difference whether soldier served or died in late war or in regular army or navy.

Soldiers of the late war, pensioned under one law, may apply for higher rates under other laws, without losing any rights.

Thousands of soldiers drawing from $2 to $20 per month under the old law are entitled to higher rates under new law, not only on account of disabilities for which now pensioned, but also for others, whether due to service or not.

Soldiers and sailors disabled in line of duty in regular army or navy since the war are also entitled, whether discharged for disability or not.

Survivors and their widows, of the Black Hawk, Creek, Cherokee and Seminole or Florida Indian Wars of 1832 to 1845, are entitled under a recent act.

Mexican War soldiers and their widows also entitled, if sixty-two years of age or disabled or dependent.

Old claims completed and settlement obtained, whether pension has been granted under later law or not.

Rejected claims reopened and settlement secured, if rejection improper or illegal.

Certificates of service and discharge obtained for soldiers and sailors of the late war who have lost their original papers.

Send for laws and information. No charge for advice. No fee unless successful. Address, THE PRESS CLAIMS COMPANY, JOHN WEDDERBURN, Managing Attorney, P. O. Box 463, WASHINGTON, D. C.

THE MONOGRAPH. For one Dollar and Your Opinion on This Subject.

What is the best Monetary system for the United States? This is the greatest problem confronting the American people. It is the intention of the publishers that "The Monograph" shall contain the best thought of the nation on this question. The recognized leaders in all political parties have been called upon to contribute plans for their ideal Monetary System. But not content with this, we are determined to embody in the same volume the opinions of thousands of the "Great Common People," and to that end we will allow two dollars on the price of the book for your solution of this problem, expressed in not more than 800 words. The Monograph, the best modern work on Monetary Systems, will be sent to any address on receipt of $3.00. It is a book that will interest and instruct, and is destined to become a giant factor in shaping the future monetary system of the nation.
