TIME TABLE.

Stage for Hardman, Monument, Lone Creek, John Day and Canyon City, leaves as follows: Every day at 6 a. m., except Sunday. Arrives every day at 10 p. m., except Sunday.

Give your business to Heppner people, and therefore assist to build up Heppner. Patronize those who patronize you.

Here and There.

On who would not a populist be. And run around with the bold Coxie. To Washington we then all could go. And have a glorious monkey show.

We're marching on to Washington. Our ragged coats we jerk; We're hooting through the country. But—

Don't Want Work! Those Stubble-d, of Monument, was in the city over Sunday.

Andrew Rood has moved to the country for the summer. Born—Apr. 27, near Hardman, to the wife of W. H. Atkins, a girl.

Wanted—A few more customers for the home laundry, Mountain House. To counteract the desire for strong drink take Simmons Liver Regulator.

J. W. Hydon and Spencer Akers, of Gooseberry, were in Heppner Saturday. The Heppner-Canyon stage line is the best, cheapest and quickest to the interior.

Nobody will suffer with liver or kidney disease if they take Simmons Liver Regulator. Henry Blackman, of Portland, Sunday with his family. He returned below last night.

If you want a good gun or sewing machine, come to the Gazette office and we'll fit you out. Monday of last week Jas. P. Rhea returned from a trip to Weiser, Idaho, and Huntington, Or.

Miss Dillie K. Sperry, of East Portland, will shortly give a literary entertainment in Heppner, Ore. Those that have county scrip for sale should call on George Conser at The First National Bank.

The Gazette will be sent to any address in the United States till after campaign for 50 cents. Photographs $1.50 per dozen at Shepard's gallery, near opera house, north Main St., Heppner, Ore.

Legal blanks, plenty of them, at the Gazette office, and at world's prices. Discounts on large orders. Green Matthews has opened up his barber shop, next door to Hayes Bros. Shaves, etc., on tap as usual.

Every man who takes any interest in fast stock should subscribe for The Horseman. Gazette shop, agents. The Gazette will take county scrip at face on subscription, and pay balance of same in cash at highest market price.

The Gazette office now runs an insurance and notarial shop. Come in when you want to do your insuring and swearing. Walden Rhea was up from below visiting with some folks Sunday. He departed again for Portland on last evening's train.

Buch Fields came in Saturday from Brownsville, and will remain in this vicinity to look after business matters for a few weeks. Bob Williamson, Chas. Sheldon and J. C. Hanson left Sunday with Sam Palmer to prepare for the big sheep drive to Nebraska.

Peter McIntire, of Salem, woolbuyer for the Oregon City Mills, arrived Saturday morning and will probably remain during the wool season. Hall's Hair Renewer enjoys the confidence and patronage of people all over the civilized world who use it to restore and keep the hair a natural color.

J. S. Boothby and J. F. Willis were up from Lexington Saturday night last to attend republican club meeting. Don't overlook Boothby and Willis. If you desire a luxuriant growth of healthy hair of a natural color, nature's crowning ornament of both sexes, use only Hall's Vegetable Silitian Hair Renewer.

Echo stage leaves Heppner for Echo Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays. Arrives Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays. Fare, one way, $2.50. Phil Cohn, agent, A. Andrews, Prop.

Tom Bradley and wife arrived at Heppner Saturday morning. They will, perhaps, remain here a few days. Mrs. Bradley going on over to visit her relatives in Grant county, while Thos. will remain here till she returns.

Let—A note dated June 12, 1892, signed by G. W. Stewart, calling for $2,000, in favor of P. C. Thompson. The public are warned against negotiating for or purchasing said note. A check of 16 to 1 has been fully established, that is, 16 ounces to 1 pound. No 14 oz. notes used by P. C. Thompson Co. from weight and first class goods at hard time prices for cash. Try them and be convinced. $1. If those who owe us would just pay $1 apiece it would help us to pay our debts. Fact is, the Gazette has got to do some "tail rustling," and we expect our patrons to do something. Our paper's horses and printers still require hard cash, and cash we must have.

Chris. Hansen and Bob Krick had a little set-to down at Krick's saloon Saturday evening in which, from all appearances, Chris. came out second best. A billiard cue and the free use of considerable language is said to have passed prominently in the scene.

"A wolf in sheep's clothing"—The subscribers offered by the "center" as being just as good as Ayer's Sarsaparilla. If you don't want to be bitten, insist upon having Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and insist upon getting the genuine. Depend on even if it is cheaper for you in the end, it will be.

Dr. S. F. Scott, Blue Ridge, Harrison Co., Mo., says: "For whooping cough Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is excellent." By using it freely the disease is deprived of all dangerous consequences. There is no danger in giving the Remedy to babies, as it contains nothing injurious. 50 cent bottles for sale by Slocum-Johnston Drug Co.

Did Hart has now established a tonorial parlor, at the Matlock building next door to Simons' blacksmith shop where he invites the patronage of his old customers and all who desire strictly first class work, shaving, shampooing and hair-cutting at living prices. Don't overlook.

Preaching at the opera house on Sunday evening next by Elder Gray of the Christian church. Subject: "The Work of the Holy Spirit" text, 1 Cor. 12:13; "For by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body." A cordial invitation is extended to the public.

A revivifying of nature's latent forces occurs every spring. At this time, better than any other, the blood may be cleansed from the humors which infest it. The best and most popular remedy to use for this purpose is Ayer's Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla.

Mrs. Arthur Minor and Miss Anna Balsiger spent Saturday at Lexington, the occasion being a populist gathering at that place. However, Miss Balsiger was called upon and spoke briefly, concluding her remarks principally to the advancement of education.

Joe Hayes, the populist candidate for sheriff, is back from a tour of the south end of the county. He reports a good prospect for crops. He also seems to think that the crop of voters of the Hayes variety are pretty numerous.

J. H. Kolman was closed by the sheriff Saturday evening last, on attachment issued by authority of the Brownsville Woolen Mills. Mr. Kolman's liability to that firm is something near the sum of $1,000.

London Globe: John Lyons, a bright and energetic young man, came down from his home at Walla Walla this week and will remain during the summer with his brother, T. R. Lyons, and study law.

Mr. Hugh McGuire, president of Pacific Paper Co., of Portland, is in town today in the interest of his house.

Louis Stoltenberg arrived from Los Angeles, Calif., Sunday, and will accompany Sam Palmer across the trail.

Pat Kelehar will soon leave for the Greenhorn, near Austin Station, to work with sheep for Nels Jones.

Frank Rogers returned Sunday morning from Seattle. He had been over there to visit his mother.

Martin Anderson returned last week from a few months' rustling out among the woolly monarchs.

Produce $2.50 and get the Gazette for one year. Nice family paper, and bulwark to paper cabins.

W. S. Brown will start Newbraskawood the last of this week with 7,000 head of sheep.

Jerry Brosnan, of Lena, one of our prominent republicans, was with us yesterday.

Mistakes will happen. Chas. Mallory's boy was a girl, and it was born the 26th ult.

C. S. Van Duyn left last night for The Dalles where he may go into business.

Mrs. W. A. Johnston returned from a visit below last Sunday morning.

Joe Eskelson was in from his ranch near Lexington yesterday.

C. E. Fell left last night for Illinois, to be absent a few weeks.

Arthur Smith will clean watches at the reduced price of $1.

A short season of warm weather has arrived. We need it.

Lee Kilbourne was in town yesterday from Gooseberry.

Jas. Wyland came down yesterday from Hardman.

Mrs. Geo. Thornton is back from The Dalles.

HEPPNER'S NEW POSTMASTER.—Joseph P. Williams was appointed Saturday by telegram of his appointment by the president as postmaster of Heppner. Joe was immediately surrounded by many friends regardless of political faith, who hastened to congratulate him for being the successful man. Mr. Williams will take charge as soon as the formalities of receiving his commission, filing bond, etc., have been completed with. A newspaper always has constant dealing with a postmaster and consequently is interested in the appointment.

With Joe Williams in charge we feel that our relations during his term of office will be as they have been with Mr. Mallory, very pleasant in every particular.

THROWS FROM HER BOOZY.—Mrs. J. Cantwell, of this city, was seriously injured last Wednesday evening by being thrown out of her buggy by a runaway horse which she was driving. The horse became frightened at an object by the roadside and in making a short turn to cross Willow creek on Morgan street, Mrs. Cantwell was thrown out striking on her side and back. The horse missed the bridge and went over the bank into the creek, which was very shallow at that point. Fortunately the runaway was captured without injury to either horse or buggy. Mrs. Cantwell's injuries are not thought to be dangerous and it is hoped that she will soon recover.

NOT AGAINST HEPPNER.—E. Y. Judd, one of the projectors of the Pendleton sewerage mill, was in Heppner over Friday. Mr. Judd says that the report has gained ground that he was against Heppner, and would do no further business here in the purchase of wool. This he reports to be a mistake. He will buy wool here this year as he has formerly done. Mr. Judd says they have a fine mill in Pendleton, but will only scour the heavy, dirty wools. The cleaner wools will be shipped East as they come from the backs of the woolly monarchs.

LOST OR STOLEN.—All persons are hereby warned against negotiating for two certain notes, described as follows: One note dated October 5, 1893 for $500 signed by Wm. Penland and Hugh Fields, $160 indorsement. One note dated on or about Oct. 6, 1893 for $150 signed B. F. Vaughan and E. J. Slocum, with $51 endorsement. Both of said notes drawn in favor of Mrs. Elizabeth Walker.

4-t. ELIZABETH WALKER. Nobody can be troubled with constipation or piles if they take Simmons Liver Regulator.

A REPORT CORRECTED.

Joe Waldrop Will Remain in the Fight Till the Close of the Polls.

To the Populists and Voters Generally in the Second Congressional District of Oregon: Information having reached me that a report has been circulated to the effect that I had withdrawn from the race in favor of Mr. Raley, and that harm would result to our cause if the report were not corrected, I hereby positively deny any such arrangement, and state that I have never authorized any one to make such a statement. I accepted the nomination for congress in good faith and will remain in the fight till the close of the polls on the fourth day of June.

Respectfully, JOE WALDRUP.

We publish the above letter at the request of the populists of this district, from which it will be seen that Mr. Waldrop expects to remain in the race for congressman, notwithstanding the reports circulated by the democracy that he would withdraw in favor of Mr. Raley.

Piles! Piles! Itching Piles. SYMPTOMS: Moisture; intense and stinging; most at night; worse by scratching. If allowed to continue turns form, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore. SWAIN'S Ointment stops the itching and bleeding, heals ulceration, and in most cases removes the tumor. At druggists, or by mail, for 50 cents. Dr. Swaine & Son, Philadelphia. sw 1 yr.

NASBY AGAIN. (Second Series—Chap. 1.)

MR. EDITOR: I again take the opportunity to address you on the subject of politics, we (when I say we, I mean we the peoples party) are going to have a great big pow-wow over to Lexington on six Saturday as we would like to see all gude pops in attendance, as I expect they will be some gude tooken. We expect the rev. bro. judge the man that we will crown on the fourth day of next June, but whether it will be a crown of glory or a crown of thorns we can not tell yet.

an we expect that grate and larned man from hardman, w. I. Lewis, that man that says if we cannot get our rittels by the ballots we must buy the ballots.

another man, mr. c. m. hogs, the man that sed he wood not live in heppner a year for 4 times the salary of the country treasurer, but the are all gude men an dont wont off.

and their ar sevral other gude men on hour ticket that i will speak abut at sum other time.

the other party hav sum gudemmen to, now their is j. a. Boozey, he is sed to be a party gude man, but he has got no teeth. we want a man to go to Salem that has gude teeth and hour man has for i seen 'em.

V. NASBY. ALPINE, Or., May 1, 1894.

Do Not Waste Money, Time or Patience. If you need power for any purpose whatever, send at once for catalogue of Heron's Gas and Gasoline Engines. They are simple, strong, safe and substantial. Their economy, reliability, strength and superior workmanship are beyond question, and we defy tests to the contrary. PALMER & HAY FOUNDRY, Front & Alder Sts., Portland, Or.

SCHOOL GRADUATION.—On the evening of May 18th, at the opera house, will occur the graduation exercises of the Heppner High School, at which time an appropriate program will be presented. This is an important event in the history of the Heppner High School, and it is hoped that every parent in Heppner and all others interested in educational affairs, will be present. Some expense will be incurred in the matter of hall rent, programs, etc., and it is the intention to charge 10 cents admission to the hall on that evening.

REGULAR COUNCIL MEETING.—Council met last Monday evening. Mayor Borg presiding and all councilmen present except Farnsworth. Minutes of last regular session read and approved. Bill allowed: The Weston-Dyckert Book Mfg. Co., $3 30; Heppner Light & Water Co., $70; P. C. Thompson Co., $4 50; F. J. Hallcock, $17 30. Council discussed condition of bridges, etc., in the town and then adjourned.

OUR mutual friend, James W. Hare, postmaster at Astoria under Harrison, has been nominated by the republicans of Clatsop county for sheriff. Mr. Hare's successor, Herman Wise, was named Saturday, so Jim will step out just in time to step into the sheriff's office of that county. Many of the ladies of Heppner will remember Mr. Hare as the gentleman who auctioneered off the bouquets so successfully at the festival during the convention of the grand lodge, Knights of Pythias, in this city last fall, and it is safe to say that Mr. Hare will receive their united support.

POLITICAL ADDRESSES. The Hon. R. G. Horr, late member of congress from Michigan, and at present the assistant editor of the New York Tribune, the leading republican paper of the East, will address the voters of the state of Oregon on the political issues of the day at the following points:

THE MONOGRAPH.

For one Dollar and Your Opinion on This Subject.

What is the best Monetary system for the United States? This is the greatest problem confronting the American people. It is the intention of the publishers that "The Monograph" shall contain the best thought of the nation on this question. The recognized leaders in all political parties have been called upon to contribute plans for their ideal Monetary System. But not content with this, we are determined to embody in the same volume the opinions of thousands of the "Great Common People," and to that end we will allow two dollars on the price of the book for your solution of this problem, expressed in not more than 800 words. The Monograph, the best modern work on Monetary Systems, will be sent to any address on receipt of $3.00. It is a book that will interest and instruct, and is destined to become a giant factor in shaping the future monetary system of the nation.
