

Here and There.

John Spray is over from Haystack. T. A. Ibea is rustling cattle over in Grant county. Genial Jerry Brosnan was in from Lena yesterday. Lee Patberg and sister were up from Lexington yesterday. Arthur Smith will clean watches at the reduced price of $1. Shearing was in full blast up at Reub Sperry's ranch Saturday. Hood's Pills become the favorite cathartic with every one who tries them. Wanted—A few more customers for the home laundry, Mountain House. Alva Leach and Henry Patberg, of Lexington, were in the city yesterday. The Heppner Canyon stage line is the best, cheapest and quickest in the interior. W. J. Brown and Pat Kellbar, of Butter creek, were seen on our streets yesterday. Those that have county scrip for sale should call on George Conner at The First National Bank. Candidates are now on the alert, and will be into the hapless victim who falls into their clutches. The commencement exercises next Friday night at the opera house will be well worth attending. The Gazette will be sent to any address in the United States till after campaign for 50 cents. Produce $2.50 and get the Gazette for one year. Nice family paper, and built to paper adobe. Photographs $1.50 per dozen at Sheppard's gallery, near opera house, north Main St., Heppner, Ore. Legal blanks, plenty of them, at the Gazette office, and at world's prices. Discounts on large orders. The Lexington school bonds having been sold, the projected school house will be built immediately. Green Matthews has opened up his barber shop, next door to Hayes Bros Shaves, etc., on top as usual. C. S. Van Duxen is preparing to open up a grocery store in the Thompson building, old reading room. Frank Farnsworth returned Saturday from Frisco where he had been taking a course in a business college. The Morrow county republican club quartette will furnish music for the meeting at Hardman next Saturday. The Gazette will take county scrip at face on subscription, and pay balance of same in cash at highest market price. The Gazette office now runs an insurance and notarial shop. Come in when you want to do your insuring and swearing. W. S. Brown, the sheep-buyer, has been unable to get started East with his flocks so far, but will have all in readiness to move in a few days. C. J. Curtis besides running for representative down in Clatsop county, gets out the newest little paper in the state. C. J. is a "bummer" of the first order. Arthur Hodson, the popular young teacher, called at the Gazette office Saturday last. His spring term of school was concluded some weeks ago. Joseph B. Keener returned Sunday morning from a visit to Walla Walla, Lewiston, Union Flat, Spokane, and other points in Washington and Idaho. J. W. Vaughan is moving the Lexington stock of goods up to Heppner, and hereafter will be located in the D. A. Herben building, formerly occupied by Oscar Minor. Echo stage leaves Heppner for Echo Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday. Arrives Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays. Fare, one way, $2.50. Phill Cohn, agent, A. Andrews, Prop. Married—At the court house, Saturday, May 12, 1894, by Judge Kirby, Mr. Chas. M. Ruston and Miss Edith Lending, both of Hardman. The Gazette extends congratulations. L. Blum-nal arrived here Sunday morning and having purchased the Kolman stock from the creditors, is preparing for business. Joe Biber is still at the helm as chief salesman. Emil Vorz returned from Grant county Saturday last. He reports business rather quiet over there. However, political activity is now ripe in that section, and the field is being thoroughly canvassed by the different aspirants. Hon. Rowell P. Horr at Heppner on the 26th inst., at 1:30 p. m. Come out and get a good dose of hard facts. The time-tried principles of republicanism will be dispensed on that occasion with a free hand. Everybody invited. A. M. Gunn representing Willow Lodge No. 66, I. O. O. F., accompanied by I. L. Van Winkle, of the same lodge, and also Jas. Iskeep, of Lone Bald Lodge, I. O. O. F., Hardman, departed this morning to attend grand lodge at Pendleton. Antelope Herald. Mr. E. T. Gleason, his wife and family, returned to their home near Antelope last Wednesday, after running a hotel in Heppner for nearly a year. They are firmly of opinion that the Antelope country is hard to beat. If those who owe us would just pay $1 apiece it would help us to pay our debts. Fact is, the Gazette has got to do some "tall rustling" and we expect our patrons to do some "hing." Our paper house and printers still require hard cash, and cash we must have. Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Bradley have leased the City hotel, and shortly intend to open it for the accommodation of the traveling public. They have had much experience in that line, and are so well known as successful caterers that they need no recommendation at our hands. Dr. S. F. Scott, Blue Ridge, Harrison Co., Mo., says: "For whooping cough, Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is excellent." By using it freely the disease is deprived of all dangerous consequences. There is no danger in giving the Remedy to babies, as it contains nothing injurious. 30 cent bottles for sale by Slocum-Johnston Drug Co. Morrow county leads the state for gallantry. Miss Martha Neville (democrat) and Miss Annie Balsiger (republican) are the candidates for school superintendent—Baker City Blade. Ticket for the popular opera house, for the benefit of the anti-slavery cause, will be on sale Friday, May 18, 1894, at 8 p. m., and Eight Mile in the evening at 7:30. This change is made to accommodate Mr. Gowen, who will arrive from Grant county just in time for the Eight Mile meeting Friday evening.

Eagle: E. P. Vorz, of the McFarland Mercantile Co., of Heppner, has been in Grant county during the past week in the interest of his firm. The Eagle was the recipient of a pleasant call from Mr. Vorz. An-tin Gentry and Billy Doonan are in the Cripple creek mines, Colorado, and report quite a boom and wages good. Eagle: Johnny Crisman got in Wednesday from Heppner with freight for business men of this city. A. S. Baly, a well known traveling man, is in Heppner looking after business matters here. J. J. Roberts reports that he has about half completed the assessment of the county. Geo. T. Davis, the wool buyer, came in Saturday last.

A CORVALLIS TRAGEDY.—About 7:30 o'clock on the evening of May 12th, north of Corvallis, as Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kenyon were returning home from town, and were about a mile from their home a shot was fired at them from behind a tree, which took effect in Kenyon's body near the hip. The man then stepped from behind the tree and proved to be Dr. J. M. Applewhite, who is treasurer of the board of regents of the state agricultural college. Several shots were exchanged by Applewhite and Kenyon, one of which took effect in the hip of Mrs. Kenyon and passed into her body. Applewhite shielded himself from the shots of Kenyon by standing behind Mrs. Kenyon, who called to her husband not to shoot. Kenyon, bleeding profusely, jumped into his buggy and drove to the home of Leon Locke, who came to summon medical aid and notify the sheriff. Applewhite and Mrs. Kenyon were finally found a half mile from the scene of the tragedy. Mrs. Kenyon was dead from the effects of a two ty-grain dose of morphine which had been administered by Applewhite. The latter was suffering from a similar dose, but as he had been using morphine for more than a year, he was conscious and bids fair to recover. He had attempted to open the arteries of his wrists but failed, but tried to shoot when his captors closed in on him. The tragedy was the outcome of improper relations between Mrs. Kenyon and Dr. Applewhite, which finally culminated in flight to Frisco. On their return both were arrested for adultery, but the wife finally turned Kenyon's evidence, repented and was taken back by her husband. Applewhite was intensely jealous of Mrs. Kenyon, and it is thought reason forsook him, ending in as given above.

REPUBLICAN MEETING AT LENA.—Geo. Harrington, Frank Gilliam, W. L. Saline, S. P. Garrigue, E. A. Brundage and A. W. Patterson left Saturday morning for the Little Butter creek country to attend a republican meeting, as previously announced, at Lena, at 1:30 p. m. Arriving at the home of Jerry Brosnan shortly after the noon hour they were provided with an excellent dinner to which all did justice, and for which Mrs. Jerry Brosnan and Mrs. Felix Johnson received the united thanks of all the visitors. Messrs. Willis and Boothby, of Lexington, were also present as were J. W. Morrow and J. R. Simons, two democratic nominees, all of whom ably assisted in disposing of the bountiful dinner. Following this all repaired to the school house. Jerry Brosnan, president of the club, called the meeting to order, when a number of those present were called upon to address the club. Among those who responded were: E. A. Brundage, J. S. Boothby, Frank Gilliam, J. W. Morrow, J. R. Simons, W. L. Saline and A. W. Patterson. The speeches were interspersed with campaign songs by Messrs. Saline and Patterson. In all, the meeting was a pleasant one, and all departed with a hearty and kindly feelings for the citizens of Lena precinct.

THE HEPPNER CLUB.—The regular meeting of the Heppner Republican Club was held at the opera house last Saturday evening with Chairman Brown in charge. No program had been arranged for the evening, but Mrs. J. N. Brown came to the rescue with a recitation which was well delivered, and enthusiastically received by the audience. A. W. Patterson and Will Mallory also briefly addressed the club. The campaign quartette club also furnished appropriate music for the occasion. The Morrow County Republican Club will meet on next Saturday evening at which time Hon. A. W. Gowen, republican nominee for joint senator, will address the citizens of Heppner and vicinity on the political issues of the day. Everybody invited.

NUPTIALS.—On last Sunday eve at 9:30, occurred at the M. E. parsonage, of this place, the marriage of two well known and highly respected residents of this county, Mr. Benjamin F. Vaughan, of Heppner, and Mrs. Nannie W. Bryans, of Gooseberry. The ceremony was pronounced by Rev. J. M. Denison in a most impressive manner, in the presence of a few friends and relatives of the interested parties. Both have a host of friends, and one and all join in extending their well-wishes, trusting that their wedded life will ever be one of unalloyed happiness and bounteous prosperity.

"A LITTLE MORE CIDER."—Chris Borchers appreciates, as the song goes, "a little more cider," but he don't like the corks, particularly when they become transformed into dynamite bombs and bullets. While operating a cider bottle Sunday, the cork flew out and landed stopping on Chris' right eye, and ever since the injured member has been in a sling. Such playful pranks are all right in their season, but harvest has not yet arrived. The optic is not seriously injured, however, and in due course of time "Richard" will be himself again.

Hall's Hair Renewer is pronounced the best preparation made for thickening the growth of the hair, and restoring that which is gray to its original color. Present to the taste and readily taken is Simmons Liver Regulator. It cures heartburn.

POLITICAL CARDS. FOR JOINT SENATOR. Frank Kellogg, Of Morrow County.

THE MONOGRAPH. For one Dollar and Your Opinion on This Subject.

What is the best Monetary system for the United States? This is the greatest problem confronting the American people. It is the intention of the publishers that "The Monograph" shall contain the best thought of the nation on this question. The recognized leaders in all political parties have been called upon to contribute plans for their ideal Monetary System. But not content with this, we are determined to embody in the same volume the opinions of thousands of the "Great Common People," and to that end we will allow two dollars on the price of the book for your solution of the problem, expressed in not more than 800 words. The Monograph, the best modern work on Monetary Systems, will be sent to any address on receipt of $3.00. It is a book that will interest and instruct, and is destined to become a great factor in shaping the future monetary system of the nation.

THE MONOGRAPH PUBLISHING COMPANY, Room 44, German Ave., St. Paul, Minn. Reference by permission, Nat'l Ger. Am'n Bank. THEY WANT NAMES. The Russell Art Publishing Co., of 928 Arch Street, Philadelphia, desire the names and address of a few people in every town who are interested in works of art, and to secure them they offer to send free, "Cupid Guides the Boat," a superbly executed water color picture, size 10x13 inches, suitable for framing, and sixteen other pictures about same size, in colors, to any one sending them at once the names and address of ten persons (admirers of fine pictures) together with six two-cent stamps to cover expense of mailing, etc. The regular price of these pictures is $1, but they can all be secured free by any person forwarding the names and stamps promptly.

NOTE.—The editor of this paper has already received copies of above pictures and considers them really "Gems of Art." KICKED BY A HORSE.—Last evening, while playing with a pet horse, Eddie, the nine-year-old son of Jesse Kirk, of Rhea creek, was kicked in the face, sustaining a fracture of the nasal bones and concussion of the brain. Dr. E. T. Gagen was called and gave such assistance as was in his power. He is of the opinion that the child will recover, though when he left the patient he was only partially conscious, not having rallied entirely from the immediate effects of the accident.

SHOEMAKER.—Ed. Birbeck, a shoemaker and repairer of many years' experience, has just located in the Abrahamson building, on May street, where he is prepared to do everything in his line. Mr. Birbeck is strictly a first-class workman and warrants all work. Give him a call. He'll

WHAT WE INHERIT. The Gifts of Our Ancestors Are More Than Wealth and Name. I dwell upon the past because the present is its natural legacy. When you read of the efforts now being made to raise the living, or at least to prevent them from sinking any lower, remember that they are what the dead made them, says Walter Besant in Scribner. We inherit more than the wealth of our ancestors; we inherit the consequences of their misdeeds. It is a most expensive thing to suffer the people to drop and sink; it is a burden which we lay upon posterity if we do not continually spend and be spent in lifting them up. Why, we have been the best part of two thousand years in recovering the civilization which fell to pieces when the Roman empire decayed. We have not been fifty years in dragging up the very poor whom we neglected and left to themselves, the galleys, the cat, and the press gang only a hundred years ago. And how slow, how slow, and sometimes hopeless is the work.
