Scott reports that he is in the midst of a beautiful hay harvest. Wanted—A few more customers for the home laundry, Mountain House. J. A. Friston and Lee Cantwell left Wednesday for The Dalles for freight. Hood's Pills are the best after-dinner pills, assist digestion, prevent constipation. Produce $2.50 and get the Gazette for one year. Nice family paper, and but 10 paper dollars. A summer institute for educated Indians and teachers will be held in Salem, July 23 to 28. Those that have county scrip for sale should call on George Conner at The First National Bank. 2 ft. The Gazette office was the recipient of a beautiful bouquet Thursday at the hands of Miss Elsie Jones. Photographs $1.50 per dozen at Shepard's gallery, near opera house, north in St. Heppner, Ore. 26 ft. Our merchants are short of provisions and merchandise in general, but hope to be able to replenish in the near future. Joe Kilbourne and Clans Johnson in Wednesday. Lee tried to sell wool but the price offered was not satisfactory. The Gazette is in receipt of a program of the 12th annual commencement exercises of the State Normal School, of month, June 17-20, 1894. Mrs. Frank Adkins gave a sewing party last Monday. We believe the girls devoted their energies principally towards manufacturing a rag carpet. A great bargain sale has just commenced at the McFarland Mercantile Co's big store. Everything at cost for cash, until full stock is laid in. See "Ad." Bob Matteson jumped from a banking horse early in this month to save going over a cliff, dislocating his knee. The horse went on over, but was not injured. Next Jones' team ran away Tuesday evening last, going up a street at a pretty lively gait. They were caught near Mr. A. Wright's place. Little damage was done. Echo stage leaves Heppner for Echo Tuesday, Thursdays and Saturdays. Arrives Monday, Wednesdays and Fridays. Fare, one way, $2.50. Phil Coburn, agent, A. Andrews, Prop. Mrs. J. B. Sperry accompanied by her daughters, Misses Bessie and Lottie Masters, left yesterday for the valley, via The Dalles. They were accompanied for as far as The Dalles, overland by Mr. J. B. Sperry. Hawthorne, The Dalles store-breaker, has been captured though dangerously wounded before he gave up. Before surrendering he fatally shot Harpouten, an Indian policeman. Hawthorne's confederates escaped. In a runaway up at Weston recently, J. J. Stewart, representing the Portland Cracker Co., a one-armed man, met with internal injuries of a serious nature. S. J. Freedman, representative Esberg, Buchanan & Co., had his leg broken at the same time. Wm. Gilliam, supervisor of the upper Elbea creek district, sued Jas. Young for $500 due on road work, before Judge Hallock Wednesday. Mr. Gilliam handled the case for the state, Hon. J. N. Brown appearing for the defense. Judge Hallock decided for the prosecution. Bill Simmon and Lisha Watkins were over from the "breaks" of the John Day Wednesday. Pall recently captured an antelope and a deer, both young, which he is tanning. Antelope are scarce in this band tonight "the sand" down towards the Columbia. Mazamas, or Cliff Climbers, is the name of a new organization with headquarters at Portland, Oregon. We have received a prospectus printed under the direction of the society, and find that it is really a literary gem. Mount Hood will be visited under the auspices of the society, July 19, 1894. A. C. Carle, of Boise City, Idaho, has purchased the tennorial parlor formerly owned by Gid Hatt, at the Matlock building next door to Simons' blacksmith shop, where he invites the patronage of all who desire strictly first class work at reasonable prices. Haircut, shave or shampoo, 25 cents each. Give him a call. The regular subscription price of the Semi-Weekly Gazette is $2.50 and the regular price of the Weekly Oregonian is $1.50. Any one subscribing for the Gazette and paying for one year in advance can get both the Gazette and Weekly Oregonian for $3. All old subscribers paying their subscriptions for one year in advance will be entitled to the same.

A SINGULAR CASE.—In the quiet little village of Sweet Home, 20 miles east of Albany, there has developed a sensation attending the death of a citizen there, says an Oregonian dispatch. For many years Otto Lubker and another German have been living quietly together as bachelors. A few days ago Mr. Lubker's partner died, when it was discovered his companion was a woman. She had been living as a man and performing manual labor for years. Even Mr. Lubker declares he was absolutely ignorant of the fact both were hard-working and industrious Germans. She was buried at Sweet Home, leaving unsolved the mystery of her strange life.

Invalid 3 Years, Cured by Hood's

"I was so nervous I could not bear the least noise, and I had to walk with crutches for six months, as I could not put one of my feet to the floor. Physicians did not do me any good, so a friend told me to get Hood's Sarsaparilla, but I said there was no use. However, after thinking the matter over, I decided to give it a trial, and have taken six bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and the result is that I am well as any one could wish to be, and can do any kind of work. I advise all my friends to take Hood's Sarsaparilla for I believe it will do them good." Miss Susie Dodson, Cotton, California.

HOOD'S PILLS cure liver, bile, constipation, biliousness, jaundice, sick headache, indigestion. QUILTING PARTY.—On last Wednesday Mrs. Jas. Jones gave a quilting party to a number of lady friends. There were present: Mesdames Jas. Sperry, Wm. Ayers, Judy Mitchell, J. R. Simons, Jas. J. Roberts, Jas. Matlock, Frank Adkins, E. G. Sperry, Geo. Noble, E. G. Sloan, Walt Richardson, Misses Pearl Davis, Effie Fields, Bessie and Tot Masters. In the editor's boyhood days, quilting parties were in vogue, but of late years are not common. Like "hushing bees" and "log rollings," we have been wont to class them with events of the past, but we quite well remember that such occasions were always enjoyable, and from all accounts, the little gathering of Wednesday was appreciated by those present. As a hostess, it is a well known fact that Mrs. Jones has few equals in our community.

DEATH OF BERT BIEBE.—On last Saturday Mr. T. H. Biebe, of this place, received word from Rev. Shules, of Salem, announcing the death of Mr. Biebe's son, Bert. He has been in poor health for some years, and about two years ago lost his mind. Since that misfortune came upon him he has been at the asylum. Mr. Biebe departed early this week, expecting to meet the remains at The Dalles, but telegraphic communication being very irregular, it is more than likely that Rev. Shules did not receive the telegram in time and that Mr. Biebe went on to Salem.

A BOY AND A PISTOL.—This morning about 10 o'clock Louis Boyd, Jr., accidentally shot Harry Phillips' son, Billy, in the foot. Both are little fellows, and by some means became the possessors of an old revolver, 22 Cal. While playing up near L. D. Boyd's residence, Louis let his thumb slip off the hammer, discharging the weapon with the above result. A physician was called removing the bullet. While the wound is not a dangerous one, it is another proof that "a boy and pistol" are as dangerous as a dynamite bomb.

WEDDING BELLS.—On Wednesday, June 20th, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Warren, Rev. F. A. Parrish and Miss Effie Warren were joined in the holy bonds of wedlock, Rev. Denison officiating. The ceremony was pronounced in the presence of some twenty-five invited guests, under beautiful decorations. Mr. and Mrs. Parrish will make their home in Heppner.

SQUIRREL POISON.—Ben Swaggart has a new kind of squirrel poison which is a dead shot on squirrels. It is for sale at Phill Coburn's, at the low figure of $1 per gallon, in bulk. This poison is guaranteed, or money will be refunded. It is something that squirrels will eat, even at this time of the year. Now is the time to kill them.

MACHINE OILS.—Peuland & Co. have on hand a fine assortment of machine oils, for sale cheap.

A NARROW ESCAPE!

How it Happened. The following remarkable event in a lady's life will interest the reader: "For a long time I had a terrible pain at my heart which fluttered almost incessantly. I had no appetite and could not sleep. I would be compelled to sit up in bed and belch gas from my stomach until I thought every minute would be my last. There was a feeling of oppression about my heart, and I was afraid to draw a full breath. I couldn't sleep a room without sitting down and resting, but thank God, by the help of New Heart Cure all that is past and I feel like another woman. Before using the New Heart Cure I had taken different so-called remedies and been treated by doctors without any benefit until I was both discouraged and disgusted. My husband bought me a bottle of Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure, and am happy to say I never regretted it, as I now have a splendid appetite and sleep well. I weighed 125 pounds when I began taking the remedy, and now I weigh 109. The effect in my case has been truly marvellous. It far surpasses any other medicine I have ever taken or any benefit I ever received from physicians."—Mrs. Harry Hartz, Pottsville, Pa., October 12, 1892. Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure is sold on a positive guarantee by all druggists, or by the Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind., on receipt of price, $1 per bottle, six bottles $5, express prepaid. This great discovery by an eminent specialist in heart disease, contains neither opiate nor dangerous drugs.
