Give your business to Heppner people and therefore assist to build up Heppner. Patronize those who patronize you.

M. Hammerly, a well-known business man of Hillsboro, Va., sends this testimony to the merits of Ayer's Sarsaparilla: "Several years ago, I hurt my leg, the injury leaving a sore which did not heal. My sufferings were extreme, my leg from the knee to the ankle, being a solid sore, which began to extend to other parts of the body. After trying various remedies, I began taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and before I had finished the first bottle, I experienced great relief; the second bottle effected a complete cure."

This type-setting on the Oregonian is now done by machinery, thereby throwing a large number of men out of employment. The paper presents a very neat appearance, however, in its new dress.

SENATOR HILL'S bill of the present democratic tariff bill is consistent and logical. The democracy is not doing those things it promised to do. It is not uprooting the McKinley principle and aside from wool and lumber it is not giving the manufacturers all it promised in free raw mate late. Hill is still a democrat. It's his party that has abandoned the democratic position.—Spokane Review.

The statement is now being published that an heir of the Crocker millions has received $4,000,000 for letting his name for five years, and that if he gives the flowing bowl a wide berth for this year longer he will receive $400,000 more. This salaried testator is a young man and gets more money for keeping silent than does the president of the United States for keeping the ship of state afloat. This is an easy and well-paying job and every young man ought to be anxious for one like it; but there are not many families able to keep a high-salaried retainer from disgraceful acts or in payroll.—E. O.

W. C. T. U. CONVENTION.

EDITOR GARRETT:

The writer was appointed reporter for your very valuable paper to give particulars of the state convention of the W. C. T. U. You have reasons to be proud of the Heppner Union, as then delegate, Mrs. Spray received splendid recognition and respect from this body of workers. We feel that Heppner has in this convention, as he has in all other conventions, made herself heard and felt and the Union in other parts of the state know that the same God sustains and guides our work who rules in their own far distant Unions. We have been made to feel during this convention the truth of the lines of our national son, "There are bands of ribbon white, around the world." The first day's session was opened Monday at 8:30 a. m., with devotional services led by Mrs. Amelia Mead, state evangelist, subject, "The Promise of God." After this very inspiring devotional hour the business services were called to order by the president, Mrs. Anna R. Riggs, of Portland. The roll-call of officers and superintendents showed some twenty five to be present. Madame Scott, of Union county, and White, of Yamhill, were appointed committee on credentials and Madame Holman and Royal, of Salem, committee on courtesies. A special committee consisting of Mrs. R. Mick, Sunbury, and Mrs. Hyde, of Ashland were appointed to carry the greeting to the Ministerial Association of Salem at their regular meeting that morning. The afternoon session was opened with devotional exercises led by Mrs. Rowland of Lafayette, subject, "Hourly Promises." Business session then called to order and Revs. Gee, of Shedd, and Gronois, of Salem, were introduced and spoke briefly words of cheer.

The report of the corresponding secretary was read showing marked progress, notwithstanding the great financial pressure, through which every thing is passing. Two new Unions reported, five sent in encouraging reports, Ashland reports more honorary than active members, showing that the men are alive to the work. La Granda reported a Loyal Temperance Legion of 223 members. Summary was as follows: Number of Unions reporting 65; active membership 1316; honorary members 92; Y's 133; L. T. L. 825; schools of methods 12 lectures given 372, seven Unions have prohibition by law; five keep saloons out by persistent efforts; eleven Unions have headquarters; 299 copies of national organ, "The Union Signal," taken, 150 copies of "White Ribbon," the state paper; 31 Democrat Contests held during the year. The president appointed a committee on plan of work all county presidents and as Morrow county is an unorganized county, Mrs. Spray, your delegate, was invited to a place on that committee at the evening session. Mrs. Royal, Salem's local Union president, presided. Music by the choir of the First M. E. church, of Salem, scripture lesson read by Mrs. Mead, and prayer by Mrs. Linda Romick. The address of welcome in behalf of the W. C. T. U. of Salem, was given by Mrs. R. S. Wallace, also an address of welcome in behalf of the ministers of the church of Rev. Shales, of South Salem, formerly of Heppner; response by Mrs. Lilli A. Amos, of Portland, followed by a solo and chorus, Mrs. Anna R. Riggs then gave her annual address which was spoken of by a letter in this manner: "I have listened to many annual addresses of this leader of Oregon forces, but I say without fear of contradiction that this exceeds them all." The choir then sang the World are Bands of Ribbon White, and we were dismissed with the benediction by Mrs. Harford.

The second morning session was opened with devotional exercises led by Mrs. Reese of Beasburg. The report of county presidents was then taken up—each one showing good work in her county. As I have before spoken of Morrow county being unorganized your delegate was admitted to the privileges of a county president. I take the following from the Statesman in regard to her report: "Mrs. Spray, of Heppner, Morrow county, gave a verbal report giving glimpses of the work in that far away place. The spirited speech of this earnest woman received the hearty applause of the delegation. This Union is determined to have a clean city and clean councilmen."

The report of the Refuge Home given from State Evangelist's report showed a wonderful work done in that home. Eight girls gave themselves to Jesus in one day. Since last September forty-three girls have been received in the "home" and all but four have been converted. The superintendents of departments continued to report. Mrs. Ada Ulrich also given one hour for her work, that of the L. T. L. She was assisted in this by Mrs. Scott, of La Granda. A beautiful banner was then presented to this Legion. It being the L. T. L. sending out the largest number of graduates from the L. T. L. course of study. A lovely banner was also presented to Heppner L. T. L. for the largest increase in membership. East of Oregon has just cause to be proud that both the handsome banners have come to her showing that no longer does she desire the name of a rough uneducated and lawless part of this, the grandest state in the Union.

The evening session was given to the Democrat medal contest. The contestants being, Cusa, Galloway, of McMinnville; M. S. Williamson, of Salem; Minnie Baxton, of Forest Grove; Maggie Robinson, of Fruitland; Ethel Gardfield, of Pendleton. The contestants each acquitted themselves well and when the decision was announced by the judges it was shown that the marks were close to the judges had awarded the gold medal to Miss Lena Parker, of Forest Grove. Very fine music was rendered by a male quartet, consisting of Dr. O. J. Epley, J. Wenger, H. Kaudreth and E. M. Brownson, of Salem. The third and last morning of the convention was opened with devotional exercises led by Mrs. Osmond, of Sunbury. This being the time for election of officers, the following were elected for the ensuing year: President, Mrs. Narcissa White Kinney, of Astoria; Corresponding Sec., Mrs. Susie E. Foster, of University Park; Res. Sec., Mrs. Helen B. Harford, of Newberg; Trans. Sec., Mrs. Jessie Shales, of Portland; Y. W. C. T. U. Sec., Mrs. Minnie Thomas, of Corvallis; L. T. L. Sup't., Mrs. Ada Curvial, M. S. A. R. Riggs was elected delegate at large to the National convention. A children's temperance Sunday was adopted. The former superintendents were most all retained. Our State Evangelist being about to start on a "round the world" missionary trip a resolution was passed endorsing her. The last evening was claimed by the Young Women's Christian Temperance Union. Mrs. Mead reading the scripture lesson, followed by prayer by Mrs. Riggs. Mrs. Minnie Thomas, state secretary of the Y's, presided very gracefully. The music was conducted by the choir of the Christian church. Reports were read from the Y's and after a very telling and the finest collection speech we have ever heard the convention was adjourned by the singing of "God Be With You Till We Meet Again," and the benediction by R. S. Gronois, pastor of the First M. E. church. The next annual meeting will be at Roseburg.

A Good Appetite

Always accompanies good health, and an absence of appetite is an indication of something wrong. The universal testimony given by those who have used Hood's Sarsaparilla, as to its merits in restoring the appetite, and as a purifier of the blood, constitutes the strongest recommendation that can be urged for any medicine.

IN MEMORIAM.

Jemima Kesley Andrews was born in the state of New York, November 25, 1806. Moved to Ohio when about six years old; was married to Ebenezer Andrews at the age of 23. Joined the Methodist church when 35 years old, of which she was a consistent member until death.

Her husband died Nov. 30, 1861. After his death she conducted the farm of 25 acres from which she received support until 1884, when she came to Oregon to live with her children.

She died at Alpine, Oregon, June 17, 1894, aged 87 years, 6 months and 23 days.

The funeral was conducted by Rev. J. T. Hoekins, of Galloway, Oregon. A son, Arthur Andrews, and a daughter, Mrs. Phoebe Wright, of McMinnville, Oregon, and nine grandchildren remain to mourn her departure. All were present except one grandson, C. L. Andrews.

The last two months of her life were days of great suffering, yet she bore it with a wonderful degree of patience, trusting God who doeth all things for the best.

The Most Successful Gas Engine

In the market is run without an electric spark battery. Theory is all very well, but the every-day experience of constant practical use is the best test of merit. The man who rims a launch and finds his self drifting with tide and wind because the "spark" fails to ignite the charge of gas in his engine; the man who prints a daily paper and fails to get it off on time because the "spark" again fails; the man who has fruit that is injured for lack of irrigation because the "spark" fails in his engine that runs the pump; not only such parties but others who have trouble from like causes should bear in mind that the Hercules Gas and Gasoline Engine is free from such difficulties. The ignition is simple and sure. Send for a catalogue. If you want second-hand engines of other makes of cheap types we can supply you. We have a number taken in trade and cannot take any more until they are realized on. FALMER & WYER FOUNDRY, Front & Alder Sts., Portland Oregon.

CROWN AND SCEPTER.

The emperor of China is studying French and German and will take a course in law.

KING KHAMMA, the firm ally of the British in their South African war is a Christian, a monogamist and a teetotaler.

The Japanese believe that their emperors are descendants from the gods, the present mikado being the one hundred and twenty-first in direct line from the Heavenly being.

The maharajah of Kapoortholla, with his youthful wife and suite, are indulging in the social gayeties of Vienna. The prince and princess take daily lessons in social etiquette.

The widowed crown princess of Austria has presented her bridal robe of brocaded white satin, embroidered with her own arms and those of the Hapsburgs, to the church of Dozen. It has been transformed into a magnificent chasuble.

KING LORENZOLA's pictures show the royal savage to be a man of extraordinary proportions. His only dress is a plume stuck in his woolly hair, a cape made of feathers and a kilt made of the bushy part of ox tails, hence his picture is totally unlike a Paris fashion plate.

LAND OF BIG-NOSED MEN.
Arizona So Named Because of a Facial Feature.

Who would for a moment suppose, says the St. Louis Republic, that the word "Arizona," which we associate with balmy breezes, music, moonlight nights and amazons, could mean nothing more or less than "a great big nose?" The southwestern portion of what is now the United States was originally inhabited by a tribe of natives noted far and wide for their prominent, beak-like noses, and, although nature had been extremely lavish in her gifts when she conferred nasal appendages upon these queer aborigines, they sought to enlarge those organs by piercing the vertical septum or ariste between the nostrils and wearing enormous ornaments therein. One division of this big-nosed tribe would wear a ring hammered from native gold or silver; another an ornamented shell, while a third were content with a sharp stick driven through the cartilage in such a manner as to permit of the ends projecting several inches to the side of each nostril. To the early Spanish invaders these queer but harmless creatures were known as "the Big Noses." In the Spanish language "nose" is nariz. My authority says in that language you can also express a diminutive or an argumentative by a termination to the name word. Thus, narizito would mean "a little nose," and narizon "a great big nose." The feminine of narizon would be narizona. The "it" having been eliminated by usage and time, we have the name as it stands to-day—Arizona. In much the same manner the state of Oregon receives its name from a tribe of Indians noted for their enormous ears. They pierced the auricle and enlarged the lobe much in the same manner that the Narizons enlarged their noses. In the Spanish, "ear" is oreja. Now attach on the argumentative to the word oreja, leaving off the final a from the word meaning ear, and we have Or jon. Time, which, like care, will kill a cat, has changed the "j" to "z" and given us the word "Oregon."

AFRICAN COIFFURES.

Styles That Would Hardly Find Favor in This Country.

A recent visitor to Samoa tells of a famous village beauty in that remote region whose hairdresser is thus described: "Round her forehead was a band of small pieces of nautilus shell; above towered a mass of human hair that had been bleached for months in a marsh, with scraps of looking-glass arranged in front, the whole surmounted with a trail of red humming-birds' feathers."

Dr. Drummond, in his book of African travel, makes mention of the chief's daughter, whose hair, heavily greased with ground-out-oil, was made up into small-sized balls, like black currants, and then divided into patterns—diamonds, circles, and parterres, designed with the skill of a landscape gardener. Both these "arrangements" would, in the eyes of civilized artists and connoisseurs, be probably regarded as average monstrosities; but it is to be doubted whether they are not utterly surpassed by the goldfinch and canary arrangement, by a kingfisher's wing crowned with red shivering glass and sham jewels, both in tawdry insolence and depravity of taste. What is called "barbarous" if found among savages may, after all, be the very height of fashion in Mayfair, though the cheap finery of the Samoan or African belle is marked neither by civility to the victim nor by gain to the artist.

Simmonds' Liver Regulator has never been known to fail to cure sick headache.

INFLUENZA,
Or La Grippe, though occasionally epidemic, is always more or less prevalent. The best remedy for this complaint is Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

"Last Spring, I was taken down with La Grippe. At times I was completely prostrated, and so difficult was my breathing that my breast seemed as if confined in an iron cage. I procured a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and no sooner had I begun taking it than relief followed. I could not believe that the effect would be so rapid and the cure so complete. It is truly a wonderful medicine."—W. H. WILLIAMS, Crook City, S. D.

THE WESTERN PEDAGOGUE.

We are in receipt of the May number of our state school paper. It exceeds any of the former numbers in value. The paper this month contains many new and valuable features. The illustrated series on the schools of the state is introduced by a paper on the Friends Polytechnic Institute at Salem, Oregon. These papers cannot fail to be of great value both to the schools and to the public.

There are also several fine articles by our best writers and the departments "Current Events," "Sunday Thoughts," "Educational News," "The Oracle Answer," "Correspondents," etc., each contain much valuable reading for teachers or parents. The magazine has about 50 pages of matter, well printed and arranged. We pronounce the Western Pedagogue the best educational monthly on the coast.

Everyone of our readers should have the paper if they are at all interested in education. No teacher, school director or student can get along well without it. We will receive subscriptions at this office. Price only $1.00 a year. When desired we will send the Western Pedagogue and Gazette one year to one address for $3.00. Call and examine sample copies. PATENTS

FOR INVENTIONS.

Equal with the interest of those having claims against the government is that of INVENTORS, who often lose the benefit of valuable inventions because of the incompetency or inattention of the attorneys employed to obtain their patents. Too much care cannot be exercised in employing competent and reliable solicitors to procure patents, for the value of a patent depends greatly, if not entirely, upon the care and skill of the attorney.

With the view of protecting inventors from worthless or careless attorneys, and of seeing that inventions are well protected by valid patents, we have retained counsel expert in patent practice, and therefore are prepared to Obtain Patents in the United States and all Foreign Countries, Conduct Interferences, Make Special Examinations, Prosecute Rejected Cases, Register Trade-Marks, and Copyrights, Render Opinions as to Scope and Validity of Patents, Prosecute and Defend Infringement Suits, Etc., Etc.

If you have an invention on hand send a sketch or photograph thereof, together with a brief description of the important features, and you will be at once advised as to the best course to pursue. Models are seldom necessary. If others are infringing on your rights, or if you are charged with infringement by others, submit the matter to us for a reliable OPINION before acting on the matter.

PENSIONS

IF YOU WANT INFORMATION ABOUT

THE PRESS CLAIMS COMPANY,
JOHN WEDDERBURN, Managing Attorney,
Washington, D. C.

P. O. Box 463, Washington, D. C.

Honorably discharged soldiers and sailors who served ninety days, or over, in the late war, are entitled, if now partially or wholly disabled for ordinary manual labor, whether disability was caused by service or not, and regardless of their pecuniary circumstances.

Widows of such soldiers and sailors are entitled, if not remarried, whether the soldier's death was due to army service or not, if now dependent upon their own labor for support. Widows not dependent upon their own labor are entitled, if the soldier's death was due to service.

CHILDREN are entitled, if under sixteen years, in almost all cases where there was no widow, or she has since died or remarried.

PARENTS are entitled, if soldier left neither widow nor child, provided soldier died in service, or from effects of service, and they are now dependent upon their own labor for support. It makes no difference whether soldier served or died in late war or in regular army or navy.

Soldiers of the late war, pensioned under one law, may apply for higher rates under other laws, without losing any rights.

Thousands of soldiers drawing from $5 to $10 per month under the old law are entitled to higher rates under new law, not only on account of disabilities for which now pensioned, but also for others, whether due to service or not.

Soldiers and sailors disabled in line of duty in regular army or navy since the war are also entitled, whether discharged for disability or not.

Survivors, and their widows, of the Black Hawk, Creek, Cherokee and Seminole or Florida Indian Wars of 1832 to 1845, are entitled also, if sixty-two years of age or under disabled or dependent.

Old claims completed and settlement obtained, whether pension has been granted under late laws or not.

Rejected claims reopened and settlement secured, if rejection improper or illegal.

Certificates of service and discharge obtained for soldiers and sailors of the late war who have lost their original papers.

Send for laws and information. No charge for advice. No fee unless successful. Address,
