Good bye Grover, good bye.

The sugar interests dictated and passed the Gorman bill.

Congress has adjourned till next December. The country is thankful.

The French are being worked in Soudan at the hands of the Arabs.

Gov. WALTER, of Colorado, has been arrested for opening another person's letter without permission.

The Gorman law is one of "perfidy and dishonor." So says Grover. But he allowed it to become a law just the same.

The steamer, Queen, formerly on the Portland-Frisco route, was badly damaged by being stranded on rocks near Alert bay, early this week.

SENATOR STEWART is involved in a divorce suit. One Charles L. Glasscock claims that the senator alienated his wife's affections. Stewart admitted blackmail.

A TOLEDO, Ore., minister found a three-ounce bottle in the intestines of a 31-pound Chinook salmon containing an account of the sinking of the schooner, Alaskan.

There is nothing probable about free wool now; it is a startling reality. Our sheepmen will surely suffer as they never did before till the republican party comes to their relief.

A. L. MILLER was recently appointed by Gov. McGraw to succeed Judge Wiswall, who was drowned a short time ago at Clatsop beach. The judicial district comprises the counties of Clarke, Klickitat and Skamania, Washington.

The Dulles Chronicle advocates present-ownership books for Wasco county. Morrow county has a set, but it remains to be seen whether or not they are worth the money they cost. We are inclined to think, however, that they will prove a good investment to the county.

The Gorman bill became a law at midnight Monday, without the president's signature. Although characterized by the chief executive as a bill of "perfidy and dishonor," as such it was permitted by him to take its place on the statute books. Contemplated democratic tariff legislation has wrought as much ruin as the Gorman bill can possibly produce, only now the present condition of affairs will be continued till the republicans come into power in 1896. Mr. Cleveland, his faction or full party will not escape condemnation, though the president has endeavored to put the burden on other shoulders than his own. If he is really the courageous man that he is reputed to be, he would have shown backbone enough to have either vetoed the measure or signed it. Grover Cleveland has some bull-dog stubbornness but at heart has shown himself to be an arrant coward.

Braze the Nerves.

Sedatives and opiates won't do it. These nervines do not make the nerves strong, and failing to do this fall short of producing the essential of their quietude—vigor. And while in extreme cases—and these only—of nervous irritation such drugs may be advisable, their frequent use is highly prejudicial to the delicate organism upon which they act, and in order to renew their quieting effect increased and dangerous doses eventually become necessary. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is an efficient substitute for such pernicious drugs. It quiets the nerves by bracing, toning, strengthening them. The connection between weakness of the nervous system and that of the organs of digestion is a strong and sympathetic link. The Bitters, by imparting a healthy impulse to the digestive and assimilating functions, promotes throughout the whole system a vigor in which the nerves come in for a large share. Use the Bitters in malaria, constipation, biliousness and kidney trouble.

A horse kicked H. S. Shafer, of the Freemyer House, Middleburg, N. Y., on the knee, which laid him up in bed and caused the knee joint to become stiff. A friend recommended him to use Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which he did, and in two days was able to be around. Mr. Shafer has recommended it to many others and says it is excellent for any kind of a bruise or sprain. This same Remedy is also famous for its cures of rheumatism. NEW EQUIPMENTS.

The pupils' chances for acquiring knowledge in the public schools of this place have been very much increased, perhaps nearly doubled, by the new equipments enumerated below. They were purchased with the proceeds from the entertainment given by the school last year.

For Room 1: Pictures to decorate the walls, and also new books of exercises, songs and recitations. Also Sesside and Wayside No. 1.

For Room 2: Handy, Map of the United States, Map of the Hemispheres, Aunt Martha's Corner Cupboard, Leaves and Flowers, Sesside and Wayside No. 2, My Saturday Bird Class, Common Sense Health Notes, King's Picturesque Geog. Reader No. 1, The Stories Mother Nature told her children, Cats and Dogs, Old Mother Earth: Her Highways and Byways, Seven Little Sisters.

For Room 3: Handy globe, Map of the United States, Map of the Hemispheres, Talks About Common Things, Sesside and Wayside No. 3, Frye's Primary Geography, Common Sense Health Notes, King's Picturesque Geog. R. Nos. 2 and 3, Montgomery's Beginner's History of the U. S., Feathers and Furs, Geographical Spies.

For Room 4: Handy globe, Map of the United States, Map of the Hemispheres, Ballou's Footprints of Travel, Sesside and Wayside No. 4, Greek Heroes, Physiology stories, Common Sense Health Notes, Wings and Pins, The World, Map Studies of the Mercantile World, Anderson's History of the United States.

For the High School: Map of the Hemispheres, Cram's Map of the U. S. and the world. Also a late Cong. Map of the U. S. through kindness of Hon. W. R. Ellis, and a Music Chart purchased by the school board. The use of my Johnson Cyclopaedia, Mineral Cabinet, and volumes of Literary Digest will be accorded to the pupils of the High School. A. W. Wren, Prin.

THE LIAR'S CLUB.

Grasshoppers are so numerous in Door county, Wis., that the citizens have to wear goggles over their eyes to prevent being blinded while they are walking along the country roads. This is stated on the authority of a Wisconsin newspaper of good standing and excellent reputation for veracity, as newspapers go in Wisconsin.

Michigan makes a strong bid for first place with this whopper: A Blue creek man tore a splinter off a stable timber, picked the lock with it, walked out, picked up a piece of charcoal and scribbled on the stable door: "Gone to lunch; be back when the hay is over," and disappeared.

Farmers in the Grand Traverse section of the Wolverine state are seeking a method of cultivating red lice. Why? Well, they say the lice tickle the backs of the grasshoppers and make these pests fly away.

The directory man, who has been extorting his talents at Wichita, Kan., gives that town a population of 30,000, he is regarded as the champion liar of the state.

CONCERNING COINS.

Some of the early copper coins of Connecticut bear curious legends. One is, "Value me as you please;" another, "I am good copper;" another, under the image of an ax, "I cut my way through."

Some of the later Massachusetts coins bear a rude device illustrating the parable of the Good Samaritan and were called Good Samaritan shillings. There are only two or three known to be in existence.

All coins minted at Charlotte, N. C., bear, in addition to all other marks, the letter C; those at Dahlonega, the letter D; those at New Orleans, the letter O; those at Carson City, C. C.; those at San Francisco, S.

The first Maryland coins were minted in 1663, and were put in circulation by an act of council ordering every householder to bring in sixty pounds of tobacco and receive ten shillings of the new money in exchange for it.

The earliest coinage intended for America was of copper and made in the Bermuda Islands in 1615, and was called the "Hogge Penny," from the figure of a porker on the obverse. Only two pieces are known to be in existence.

MILK THAT IS BLACK.

Ed Marsh, of Mineral township, comes to the front with a story that is both wonderful and unique, but true in every detail. About five weeks ago a Durham Alderney cow, aged two years, gave birth to a calf, and they began to milk the cow, but were thunderstruck when they discovered that its milk was black. The calf, however, thrived upon the milk, and last week Mrs. Marsh, having overcome her prejudices, decided to try some of the milk. It tasted the same as other milk, only it was much richer, and by leaving a crock of it set for four hours nearly two inches of cream, a little lighter in color than the milk, would rise to the top. Two gallons of the cream were churned and four pounds of butter were secured.

The butter was examined by a chemist, who pronounced it perfect butter, except in color, and gave the reason for color something yet unknown to science in the blood of the animal. The butter much resembles coal tar and has a delicious taste. People are coming from far and near to see the freak, and Mr. Marsh has been offered big sums for the cow. He has decided not to sell her, however, in the hope that he can raise some more stock of the same kind. A roll of butter will be sent to this city and placed on exhibition. The milk makes fairly good ink and the cream might be used for printers' ink. — New York World.

A Good Appetite

Always accompanies good health, and an absence of appetite is an indication of something wrong. The universal testimony given by those who have used Hood's Sarsaparilla, as to its merit in restoring the appetite, and as a purifier of the blood, constitutes the strongest recommendation that can be urged for any medicine.

THE EDITOR'S HOME BURNED.

Saturday evening the pretty white cottage belonging to the editor of this paper was consumed by fire, together with everything it contained save a bed and a few articles of clothing. We had started a fire in the kitchen stove and gone down town, leaving the house temporarily without an occupant. The woodbox caught fire and soon the building was a mass of flame and smoke. The house was not insured, and our loss is about $900 altogether. To us the fact that we were not insured is gratifying. That fact only takes away from our burned threshold the odium of a suspicion whose brand would have been a much heavier misfortune than the loss of a few hundred dollars. We have been over twelve years in Oregon, and are well known to the newspaper fraternity of the state. Our brethren of the press, also our citizens in Klamath, will cheerfully acknowledge that thus far our conduct has been pretty clear of offensiveness. Had the house been insured, however, the circumstantial evidence against us would have been damning, and an innocent man would have been doomed to bear forever the brand of a criminal who burned his residence to rob an insurance company. Thank God that we escaped that misfortune, anyhow!—Klamath Star.

STAYED OR STOLEN.

One horse branded M. S. FINDER will please return to George M. Massinger, in the mountains, or to A. Abrahamssick, Heppner, Ore., and receive suitable reward. There are other brands on the animal besides the one mentioned, but the writer cannot describe them.

PATENTS

FOR INVENTIONS.

Equal with the interest of those having claims against the government is that of INVENTORS, who often lose the benefit of valuable inventions because of the incompetency or inattention of the attorneys employed to obtain their patents. Too much care cannot be exercised in employing competent and reliable solicitors to procure patents, for the value of a patent depends greatly, if not entirely, upon the care and skill of the attorney.

With the view of protecting inventors from worthless or careless attorneys, and of seeing that inventions are well protected by valid patents, we have retained counsel expert in patent practice, and therefore are prepared to obtain Patents in the United States and all Foreign Countries, Conduct Interferences, Make Special Examinations, Prosecute Rejected Cases, Register Trade-Marks and Copyrights, Render Opinions as to Scope and Validity of Patents, Prosecute and Defend Infringement Suits, Etc., Etc.

If you have an invention on hand send a sketch or photograph thereof, together with a brief description of the important features, and you will be at once advised as to the best course to pursue. Models are seldom necessary. If others are infringing on your rights, or if you are charged with infringement by others, submit the matter to us for a reliable OPINION before acting on the matter.

Honorably discharged soldiers and sailors who served ninety days, or over, in the late war are entitled, if now partially or wholly disabled for ordinary manual labor, whether disability was caused by service or not, and regardless of their pecuniary circumstances.

WIDOWS of such soldiers and sailors are entitled (if not remarried) whether soldier's death was due to army service or not, if now dependent upon their own labor for support. Widows not dependent upon their own labor are entitled (if the soldier's death was due to service, or if she has since died or remarried).

CHILDREN are entitled (if under sixteen years) in almost all cases where there was no widow, or she has since died or remarried.

PARENTS are entitled (if soldier left neither widow nor child, provided soldier died in service, or from effects of service, and they are now dependent upon their own labor for support. It makes no difference whether soldier served or died in late war or in regular army or navy.

Soldiers of the late war, pensioned under one law, may apply for higher rates under other laws, without losing any rights.

Thousands of soldiers drawing from $2 to $20 per month under the old law are entitled to higher rates under new law, not only on account of disabilities for which now pensioned, but also for others, whether due to service or not.

Soldiers and sailors disabled in line of duty in regular army or navy since the war are also entitled, whether discharged for disability or not.

Survivors, and their widows, of the Black Hawk, Creek, Cherokee and Seminole or Florida Indian Wars of 1822 to 1842, are entitled under a recent act.

Mexican War soldiers and their widows also entitled, if sixty-two years of age or disabled or dependent.

Old claims completed and settlement obtained, whether pension has been granted under later law or not.

Rejected claims reopened and settlement secured, if rejection improper or illegal.

Certificates of service and discharge obtained for soldiers and sailors of the late war who have lost their original papers.

Send for laws and information. No charge for advice. No fee unless successful. Address,
