PATENTS!

NOTICE TO INVENTORS.

There was never a time in the history of our country when the demand for inventions and improvements in the artand sciences generally was so great as now. The conveniences of mankind in the factory and workshop, the household and on the farm, as well as in official life require continual accessions to the apportenance and impliments of each in order to says labor, time and expense, The political change in the administration of government does not affect the progress of the American inventor, who being on the alert, and ready to perceive the existing deficiencies, does no permit the affairs of government to deter bim from quickly conceiving to remedy to overcome existing discrepan cies. Too great cure cannot be exer alsed in choosing a competent and skillful attorney to prepare and prosecute an application for patent. Valuable interests have been lest and destroyed in naumerable instances by the employ ment of incompetent counsel, and copecially is this advice applicable to those who adopt the "No patent, no psy" system. Inventors who entrust their business to this class of attorneys to so at imminent risk, as the breadth and strength of the patent is never cone dered in view of a quick endeavor to get an allowance and obtain the fee. When on July 4, 1776, the continental congress declared the English-American colonies to be free and independent states, they appointed a committee to report a device for a seal— the emblem of sovereignty. That committee and others from time to time presented unsatisfactory devices. Fi-nally, in the spring of 1781, Charles Thompson, the secretary of congress, gave to that body a device largely suggested to John Adams, then United States minister to the court of Great Britain, by Sir John Prestwich, an eminent English antiquary. This sugrestion was made the basis of a design adopted by congress, June 20, 1893, and which is still the device of the great seal of the republic. .
