CAN'T SWALLOW HILL.

The nomination of Mr. Hill wrecks all plans of party harmony, since he is the leader and creator of the faction that is responsible for inharmonious. But that is by no means the most serious or the most alarming aspect of Mr. Hill's nomination. In the last days of the year 1891 a great public crime was committed in this state. Mr. Hill was the arch-conspirator three years ago, and last year Mr. Lockwood presided over the convention that nominated the doomed Maynard. Are these nominations an intentional defiance of public virtue? Is it assumed that the people have forgotten the theft of the senate? Where does the Hill leadership lead and what are its fruits? Last year it led to the defeat of all the democratic candidates for state offices and to the election of a republican assembly. More than that, the wave of angry popular protest swept the republicans into unexpected control in the constitutional convention. That convention has prepared and will submit at the polls an abominably unfair and partisan legislative apportionment scheme that will become a part of the constitution if ratified, and will for the next twenty years put it out of the power of the democrats to gain full control of the state legislature. Should the resentment of Mr. Hill's part in the stealing of the senate prove lasting enough and stern enough to defeat him this year, his leadership would be chargeable with the practical destruction of the democratic party in the state. This is not politics, it is madness. The Times would not do its duty to the democracy if it failed to denounce the work of this convention, begun in unusual hopefulness and ending in this act of incredible folly. The democratic party has lost a great opportunity.—New York Times (Dem).

Wilson was recently toasted in England, but now he is being royally roasted in America.

COL. "W. C. T. U." BRECKENRIDGE is being boomed by his friends for senator. Better let the old gentleman have a rest.

In his speech accepting the nomination for governor of Massachusetts Russel admits defeat. Another sacrifice on the altar of democracy.

The editor of a neighboring paper, says an exchange, has gone crazy. In his delirium he chewed up half the type in the office. He had written the "ladies of the bicycle club now wear divided skirts," and the fool compositor got an "h" in the last word.

Down in Texas when two editors fall out, they pull their six-shooters and pump lead into each other. In Klamath Falls they work a more fatal plan. They go to the nearest bar and shoot pizen at each other's "good health."—Klamath Star.

McKinley stated in a recent speech that Wilson had to go to a foreign country to get congratulations for the passage of the tariff law which bears his name. How different with McKinley. He is showered with congratulations from every part of his native land.

AN EXCHANGE says Major Magone, who is now at Ogdenburg, N. Y., is meeting with the endorsement of educators all over the state in his announced determination to write a book giving the experiences of his life. The old Major will not forget the people of Grant county when he comes into the possession of wealth from the sale of his book.

The last number of the Oregon Knight edited and published by H. G. Mathies, of Portland, is a very neat and creditable issue. Bro. Mathies is making the O. K. a fraternal paper that all K. P.s. of Oregon should be proud of, and the grand lodge would certainly make no mistake by selecting it as the official organ.

The anti-Hill democrats of New York have put an independent ticket in the field headed by Everett P. Wheeler for governor. The regular democratic nominees for lieutenant governor and judge were endorsed. Their platform is anything to beat Hill. Let the good work go on, as such moves as this insure the election of Morton.

Judge GAYNOR has positively declined the nomination for judge of the court of appeals on the democratic ticket of New York. The news was received with much regret by Hill and Lockwood but of course was accepted. Judge Chas. N. Brown, of Newburgh, was at once nominated for the position which he accepted.

"BENCO" KELLY and X. N. Steeves, a Portland attorney, have been indicted for the murder of Sayres, whose body was recently found in the river. Garthorne, who was arrested with Kelly, has also been proven innocent, and is now only held as a witness.

The grand commandery of the Knights Templar of Oregon have just held a very successful session at Salem. The next session will be held at Albany.

The Sun, an independent morning daily, is one of the new newspaper ventures in Portland. The first number will be issued October 15th.

CONGRESSMAN ELLIS has kindly consented to lend some assistance to the republicans up in Washington later on in the campaign.

PROGRESS, prosperity and protection is the battle cry of the republicans through all the eastern states just at present.

ANOTHER great victory is recorded for the Japanese. The "Johny got your guns" are apparently not in it.

Life or Death? It is of vital importance that it should be understood by persons whose kidneys are inactive, that this condition of things is finally indicative of a state of the organs where life hangs in the balance. Bright's disease, diabetes, albuminuria are all diseases of a very obstinate character in their mature stage, and all have a fatal tendency. They often battle the most practiced medical skill, and the most approved remedies of modern medicine. But opposed at the outset that is to say, when the kidneys begin to discharge their functions inactively—with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, the dangerous tendency is checked. Very useful, also, is this household medicine for those ailments of common occurrence—constipation, biliousness, dyspepsia and nervousness. It is a safeguard against malaria and averts chronic rheumatism.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.—A pleasant little party was given by Anna McBride last Monday evening, the occasion being her 14th birthday. The following list of those present was kindly handed the Gazette: Belle Hornor, Lillie McNay, Mary Farnsworth, Emma Farnsworth, Beattie Sutton, Elsie Ayers, Alta Rash, Gertrude Bishop, Ethel Walbridge, Dollie Rush, Alma Thompson, Lizzie Howard, Ida Howard, Annie Smith, Lena Glasscock, Essie Hevland and Pearl Wells.

Piles! Piles! Itching Piles. Symptoms—Moisture; intense itching and stinging; most at night; worse by scratching. If allowed to continue tumors form, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore. SWAYNE'S Ointment stops the itching and bleeding, heals ulceration, and in most cases removes the tumors. At druggists, or by mail, for 50 cents. Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia.

BLEE RIVER SCHOOL.

The closing exercises of the school in District No. 59 were held at the schoolhouse, Oct. 9th. The room was tastefully decorated with evergreen boughs and the children were fared expectant of a holiday. At seven o'clock the patrons of the school gathered, bringing with them well filled baskets. Busic tables were soon prepared, on which were spread the luxuries from the several baskets. Any one that had the privilege of enjoying this basket dinner would hardly be convinced that this community had even heard the common cry, "hard times," or if it had, it was forgotten for several hours which were spent in a social way, everyone enjoying themselves.

About two o'clock the school was called to order, when we were treated to a very good program, consisting of songs, recitations, dialogues and remarks from the audience.

All the children did well, doing credit to themselves and also to the efforts of their teacher, Miss Maud Rush.

About four o'clock all bid farewell to each other and to the pleasures of the afternoon; but felt as we parted that these few social hours would long be remembered by all present.

G. A. R. NOTICE. We take this opportunity of informing our subscribers that the new commissioner of pensions has been appointed. He is an old soldier, and we believe that soldiers and their heirs will receive justice at his hands. We do not anticipate that there will be any radical changes in the administration of pension affairs under the new regime.

We would advise, however, that U. S. soldiers, sailors and their heirs, take steps to make application at once, if they have not already done so, in order to secure the benefit of the early filing of their claims in case there should be any future pension legislation. Such legislation is seldom retroactive. Therefore it is of great importance that applications be filed in the department at the earliest possible date.

If the U. S. soldiers, sailors, or their widows, children or parents desire information in regard to pension matters, they should write to the Press Claims Company, at Washington, D. C., and they will prepare and send the necessary application. If they find they are entitled under the numerous laws enacted for their benefit. Address

PATENTS FOR INVENTIONS.

Equal with the interest of those having claims against the government is that of INVENTORS, who often lose the benefit of valuable inventions because of the incompetency or inattention of the attorneys employed to obtain their patents. Too much care cannot be exercised in employing competent and reliable solicitors to procure patents, for the value of a patent depends greatly, if not entirely, upon the care and skill of the attorney.

With the view of protecting inventors from worthless or careless attorneys, and of seeing that inventors are well protected by valid patents, we have retained counsel expert in patent practice, and therefore are prepared to Obtain Patents in the United States and all Foreign Countries, Conduct Interferences, Make Special Examinations, Prosecute Rejected Cases, Register Trade-Marks and Copyrights, Render Opinions as to Scope and Validity of Patents, Prosecute and Defend Infringement Suits, Etc., Etc.

If you have an invention on hand send a sketch or photograph thereof, together with a brief description of the important features, and you will be at once advised as to the best course to pursue. Models are seldom necessary. If others are infringing on your rights, or if you are charged with infringement by others, submit the matter to us for a reliable OPINION before acting on the matter.

Honorably discharged soldiers and sailors who served ninety days, or over, in the late war, are entitled, if now partially or wholly disabled for ordinary manual labor, whether disability was caused by service or not, and regardless of their pecuniary circumstances.

WIDOWS of such soldiers and sailors are entitled (if not remarried) whether soldier's death was due to any service or not, if now dependent upon their own labor for support. WIDOWS not dependent upon their own labor are entitled (if the soldier's death was due to service, or if she has since died or remarried) in almost all cases where there was no dependent.

PARENTS are entitled (if soldier left neither widow nor child, provided soldier died in service, or from effects of service, and they are now dependent upon their own labor for support. It makes no difference whether soldier served or died in late war or in regular army or navy.

Soldiers of the late war, pensioned under one law, may apply for higher rates under other laws, without losing any rights. Thousands of soldiers drawing from $5 to $10 per month under the old law are entitled to higher rates under new law, not only on account of disabilities for which now pensioned, but also for others, whether due to service or not. Soldiers and sailors disabled in line of duty in regular army or navy since the war are also entitled, whether discharged for disability or not.

Survivors and their widows, of the Black Hawk, Creek, Cherokee and Seminole or Florida Indian Wars of 1832 to 1846, are entitled under a recent act. Mexican War soldiers and their widows also entitled, if sixty-two years of age or disabled or dependent. Old claims completed and settlement obtained, whether pension has been granted under later laws or not. Rejected claims reopened and settlement secured, if rejection improper or illegal. Certificates of service and discharge obtained for soldiers and sailors of the late war who have lost their original papers. No charge for advice. No fee unless successful. Address, THE PRESS CLAIMS COMPANY, JOHN WEDDERBURN, Managing Attorney, P. O. Box 463, WASHINGTON, D. C.
