J. B. Tedrowe's favorite pug dog, Tuts, died last evening. There seemed to be a diversity of opinion as to the cause of the death, however, the coroner's verdict was that the dog died as a result of an over dose of poisoning, administered by unknown hands. Intermat occurred at 9 a. m. this morning. Sympathies and etc. extended to Ted.

On account of the falling off of the business in the U. S. Marshal's office caused by Judge Bellinger's whiskey-for-indiana decision, Marshal Greedy has made a request to all but three of his deputies to surrender their commissions. John W. Kismus, of this city, was among the list who handed over their commissions.

The formula of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, well known to the medical profession, and universally approved. The reputation of the firm guarantees excellence and uniformity in the medicine, and the world's experience for nearly half a century has fully demonstrated its value.

W. A. Fisher, the enterprising fruit man from Wagner, met with bad luck a few miles out of town on his way home Tuesday, his wagon breaking down with him. However, he managed to get back to town when all necessary repairs were made. He started out again yesterday morning.

Chas. Cunningham will have at the James Jones ranch a band of his French and American Merino and Oxford graded Bucks. All wool growers who are interested in improving their bands will have a chance to see a splendid band of bucks after the list of October. 60 ft.

Jim Shaw, of Galloway, was in town Wednesday. He informed our reporter that he had the misfortune to lose his pocket book, containing quite a sum of money, on Sunday last on the road between his home and J. L. Howard's place. As yet he has not been able to find it.

Mr. T. E. Wiley, 146 Chambers St., New York City, says that Ayer's Sarsaparilla cured him of a dry and scaly tumor, from which he had suffered intolerably. He adds: "I have not now a blemish on my body, and my cure is wholly due to Ayer's Sarsaparilla."

Geo. W. Wells and J. S. Baseick, under the firm name of Wells & Co., are buying and selling grain of all kinds next door to the Gazette office. They pay the highest market prices, and will buy in any quantities. 69 ft.

AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE NOTES.

Pres. Bloss has been on the sick list for several days.

There will be 10 or 12 students in the photography class this year.

The literary societies have met to elect officers and divide the new students among the different chapters.

Military drill began Monday, Sept. 24. The companies have been organized, the officers selected, and the drill begun where it left off last June.

Prof. Pernot has been preparing some work for the bulletins, but is at present making some micrographs of adulterated food, by request of the food commissioner. This involves much more work than is supposed, as the professor has to prepare the slides, etc., himself.

The present enrollment of the O. A. C. is larger than ever before at the opening of the fall term. On the first Monday of last year the enrollment was 181, and on the corresponding day of this year it was 187, showing an increase of six over the best previous record.

The printing department received a handsome sticher from Palmer & Rey, of Portland. The machine is adjusted to three sizes of stiches and uses any size of wire between 28 and 29. This machine will save much time and labor and will cost about one-sixth as much to operate as the old hand machine.

GRAND LODGE KNIGHTS.—The grand lodge session of Knights which was held this week in Portland has been a very interesting one. Portland Knights entertained the visitors in royal style, Tuesday night a Pythian ball was given at the Portland Hotel and proved a very pleasant affair. Wednesday evening the grand lodge and uniform rank divisions paraded the city. Wednesday afternoon the following grand officers were elected: J. L. Hill, of Albany, grand chancellor; Dr. E. P. Geary, of Ashland, grand vice-chancellor; Turner Oliver, of Union, grand prelate; Otis Patterson, of Heppner, grand master-at-arms; E. M. Sargent, of East Portland, grand master; exchequer; G. F. McConnell, grand keeper of records and seal; R. H. Grover, of Hillsboro, grand inside guard and Chas. Fellows, of Portland, grand outside guard. The next session of the grand lodge will be held in Salem.

WRECK NEAR THE DALLES.—The west-bound O. R. & N. train No. 1, was badly wrecked four miles east of The Dalles at 4:20 yesterday morning. The train was running at ordinary speed when a flange on the forward truck of the engine broke, throwing the engine off the track. The mail and baggage cars and smoker followed, the baggage car crashing into the engine. The mail car was thrown on its side in a ditch on one side of the track, while the tender, locomotive, baggage car and smoker landed on the other side. The engine is completely wrecked, being "busted wide open," as an eye witness puts it, and the cars are in no better condition. Engineer Morgan escaped with slight scalds and bruises, but Fireman Crofton's injuries are more serious, several of his ribs being broken, and he is injured internally. A tramp riding on the mail car had his shoulder broken. The injured men were taken to The Dalles and put under care of the company's surgeon. The passengers were placed on a stub train and sent to Portland. The track was cleared yesterday.

A Wonderful Conqueror.

No disease is more common among the people than scrofula. Handed down from generation to generation, it is found in nearly every family, in some form. It may make its appearance in dreadful running sores, in swellings in the neck or groin, or in eruptions of various forms. Attacking the mucous membrane it may be known as catarrh, or developing in the lungs it may be, and often is, the prime cause of consumption. In whatever form scrofula may manifest itself, Hood's Sarsaparilla is its inveterate foe and conqueror. This medicine has such powerful alterative and vitalizing effects upon the blood that every trace of impurity is expelled, and the blood is made rich, pure and beautiful.

S. S. CONVENTION.

A Very Interesting Convention now in Session in this City.

The Morrow county S. S. convention convened yesterday afternoon at 2 p. m., and was opened with devotional service by Rev. J. M. Denison. L. W. Briggs in a few appropriate words welcomed the convention to the city, which was fittingly responded to by Pres. J. A. Adkins. The topic assigned to T. W. Ayers was continued until later as he was not present.

"The superintendent—His duty" was to have been presented by John Harrison, of Hardman, but as he was absent, S. S. Hornor, of this city, presented the subject in a very creditable manner. He was followed by Mrs. C. Spray, W. A. Kirk, J. G. Young, J. Scribner, H. C. Gay, Mrs. M. A. Faqua and Rev. Powell, all of whom offered some practical suggestions for the superintendent's benefit.

Miss Ida Fell next read a very interesting paper on "Best methods of teaching the bible class" which was attentively listened to and further discussed by Rev. Denison.

The convention then adjourned for evening session at the M. E. church 6:30.

Evening Session. The evening session was opened by song, prayer by J. G. Young and praise service led by Rev. F. C. Adkins.

T. W. Ayers being present, he presented the subject of "Origin of the Sunday school—its work in Morrow county" and was followed by Rev. Hoskins.

The next subject presented was "The Sunday school an auxiliary to the church" by M. D. L. French, followed by J. G. Young.

"Duties of Parents to Sunday School" —How to get their Attendance," was the next topic, which was presented in a very interesting manner by A. G. Bartholomew, of Alpine, and further discussed by others present.

After song by choir the convention adjourned to meet at 9 o'clock this morning at the Baptist church.

MORNING SESSION. The morning session opened with song and devotional service led by Rev. J. F. Moore.

Those assigned subjects for this morning's discussion were not present, however, the various topics were taken up and thoroughly discussed by those present.

It might be stated in this connection that Pres. J. J. Adkins, Vice Pres. J. G. Young and Sec. Walter Hill, were present during the entire session. It was decided by unanimous vote that in addition to the annual convention and picnic which is held regularly at Pettes' grove, a convention similar to the one just closed be held in Heppner some time during the month of October, 1895.

After the report of the committee on resolutions, which was unanimously adopted, and which will appear in the Gazette later on, the convention, which had been a profitable and interesting one, adjourned.

A TERRIBLE ACCIDENT.

Grover L. Wright and Wife are Badly Injured by Being Thrown From a Wagon in a Runaway.

Yesterday morning about 10 a. m. C. N. Peck drove into Heppner with Grover L. Wright and wife who were badly bruised and seriously injured caused by a runaway which met with down near his house late Wednesday evening. The following is the statement of the terrible accident as we get it from Mr. Wright and Mr. Peck: Mr. and Mrs. Grover L. Wright, who live out in what is known as the Adkins house on C. A. Rhea's place, accompanied by their five year old boy, were in the city Wednesday for a few provisions. They started home in the afternoon and were about 10 miles out. On approaching a steep hill near Clark's Canyon, Mr. Wright says he noticed that one of the bridles was not very secure and he stopped and repaired it in a manner that he thought was all right. He then started to drive down the hill, but had not proceeded far until he saw the bridge giving away. At this point the little boy jumped out, and escaped with but a few bruises. After the bridge had slipped from the horse's head, the team, which was ordinarily considered gentle, started down the hill at a rapid gait and ran some 30 or 40 rods when the wagon upset throwing Mr. Wright and wife and the contents out upon a rocky bank, breaking Mr. Wright's leg, and rendering both for a time unconscious. The team continued to run until they had almost entirely demolished the wagon in this semi-conscious and horrible condition without food or drink these people lay there with nothing but a thin cover over them, which the little fellow got out of the wreck. He also remained over night with his parents administering to their wants as best he could.

As soon as daylight came the little boy started out to hunt someone and finally came to the home of C. N. Peck, where he rushed in without knocking, but at first was too badly excited and too exhausted to tell them what had happened. However, after considerable questioning they learned that his parents had been badly hurt while coming home from Heppner. Mr. Peck at once started out in the direction of the boy had come, stopping for Mr. J. F. Willis, who accompanied him. They had not proceeded far until they began to find evidence of the wreck, first a singletree, next the front wheels and soon they found the demolished wagon and badly injured couple near by. With great difficulty they were placed in the back as carefully as possible, and Mr. Peck brought them to town, where they were placed in the vacant barroom at the Palace Hotel.

Drs. Shipley and McSwires were at once summoned and they, with the assistance of many willing hands, bathed their faces and administered to their wants. On examination it was found that the lady had received a concussion of the brain and lungs from which she was unconscious. Her body and head were badly bruised, also a deep cut in her left cheek. At first it was thought that Mr. Wright's left leg was dislocated and broken, but on examination it was found that it was not dislocated, but broken about four inches above the ankle. He was also badly bruised about the head and face. After setting his leg and doing everything possible for both of them they were cared for at the hotel last night. This morning they were reported to be getting along as nicely as could be expected. In all this was a very serious accident, however, we are pleased to announce that both will recover, at least this is the doctor's opinion this morning.

Sarsaparilla is carefully prepared by experienced pharmacists from Sarsaparilla, Dandelion, Mandrake, Dock, Pissisewa, Juniper Berries, and other well known vegetable remedies. The Combination, Proportion and Process are Peculiar to Hood's Sarsaparilla, giving it strength and curative power Peculiar to itself, not possessed by other medicines. Hood's

CURES

Cures Scrofula, Salt Rheum, Sores, Bolls, Pimples and all other affections caused by impure blood; Dyspepsia, Biliousness, Sick Headache, Indigestion, Debility, Catarrh, Rheumatism, Kidney and Liver Complaints. It is Not What We Say, but what Hood's Sarsaparilla Does, that Tells the Story—Hood's Sarsaparilla. Hood's Pills are gentle, mild and effective.

A GIRL'S ESSAY.—Boys are men that have not got as big as their pupas, and girls are women that will be ladies by and by. Man was made before woman. When God looked at Adam he said to himself: "Well, I think I can do better if I try again." And He made Eve. God liked Eve so much better than Adam that there have been more women than men. Boys are a trouble. They wear out everything but soap. If I had my way half the world would be girls and the rest dolls. My papa is so nice that I think he must have been a little girl when he was a little boy. Man was made, and on the seventh day he rested, woman was then made and she has never rested since.

When persons are weak and languid, from sickness or overwork, feel dejected and depressed, it is an indication that the blood is out of order, and they need help to throw off the miserable feeling. The best remedy for this purpose is Dr. J. H. McLean's Strengthening Cordial and Blood Purifier. It restores lost strength, gives vigor to circulation, promotes good appetite and a flow of cheerful spirits. Price $1.00 per bottle.

STABBING AT MITCHELL.—The Primeville Review gives the following account of a stabbing affray that happened at Mitchell recently: "It seems that W. L. Campbell, a carpenter, was engaged at work on a new building near the residence of Dr. Houck. Henry Brown rode in and dismounting left his horse standing near where Campbell was at work and entered the physician's residence on an errand. For some reason Campbell chattered to Brown's horse and the animal started as if to move away. From this the man engaged in a quarrel that led to a fight. Campbell ran at Brown to clinch him, and the latter used his pocket knife with such effect that Campbell received a wound about two inches deep and nine inches long below one shoulder, a cut down the breast and a gash through the upper lip. Campbell bled profusely, but his wounds receiving prompt attention will hardly result fatally. Brown furnished bonds in the sum of $250, and was released. Campbell was a resident of Grant county.

WHEAT SACKS.—The Morrow County Land & Trust Co. are putting out wheat sacks at their warehouses on Douglas, Lane and Heppner. All those wishing sacks should see them. 57 ft.

THE SHOE MARK.—Joe Dubois has moved his shoe-making and repair shop from the old May street stand to the room formerly occupied by Green Mathews, barber shop, next door to Noble's harness shop. Joe also has a good workman with him and guarantees satisfaction. Don't overlook him for first class work. 66 ft.

Simmons Liver Regulator is invaluable in the nursery. It is a gentle laxative, and harmless.
