ANSWER OF THE ROUTES AMERICAN BOOK CO. TO ITS DEFAMERS.

A STATEMENT OF FACTS BY THE AMERICAN BOOK COMPANY TO THE PEOPLE OF OREGON.

A public attack upon the methods, motives, and business interests of the Amer-St. Paul Kansas City can Book Company, by a small subcommittee of the "Committee of One Hundred," of Portland, Oregon, has recently been published in the "Oregonian," a newspaper of that city.

The "report" embodying this attack is made up of a mass of misinformation, unsupported charges, baseless rumors, and unjustifiable suspicions.

Upon this ex-parte showing, with no solid basis of fact or proof whatever, opon mere assertions and insinuations, our character and our business are assailed. Under such circumstances it is but just to ourselves, and to our many friends and patrons in Oregon and on he Pacific Coast, to make a full and exslicit auswer to these slanderous misepresentations.

HE SUB-COMMITTER'S CHARGES AGAINST

1. That our corporation was frauduently and deceitfully organized. 2. That we constitute a trust and a nonopoly. 3. That this alleged trust and monopoly had existed, as such a "combination," for many years before the incorporation of our company.

4. That we have been guilty of bribery, and that we systematically pursue our business through a policy of bribery and corruption.

5. That our elementary publications are without merit.

6. That we palm off inferior books on what the self-constituted censors style "backwoods states." 7. That our profits in Oregon are

$30,000 a year. 8. That the effect of this alleged mo nopoly is "disastrous to the public school system," and thereby "the public are cheated of the right to independent teachers, good schools, and good books." Having in mind the full force of our words, we most seriously and emphatially declare that each and every one of the above charges is absolutely false, and that they are unsupported by any proof or evidence whatever; and we hereby invite an examination of them in detail. THESE CHARGES WHOLLY LIBELOUS. Although advised by eminent counsel that the charges made against our company are clearly libelous, and would form the basis of successful suits, both criminal and civil, if they were made against us as individuals, we shall not hide behind our corporate organization or wait for the customary slow motion of the courts. We do not shrink from the broader trial of this issue by that public before whom we have been accused, as make this public answer.

PORTS. There is but one reasonable explanation as to the source of these attacks. They emanate from some competitor in busiare copied as news by the various country journals, illustrate the fine art of procuring free advertising.

A "HIDDEN MONOPOLY." It is charged that the American Book Company was incorporated in New lersey, with a capital of $5,000, and that 'under this modest organization was bidden one of the greatest monopolies ever known in this country." It is true that the American Book Company was legally incorporated January 9, 1890, and with this small amount of capital made use of, lications at the reduced prices. and what were the subsequent steps of its corporate development?

New Jersey was chosen because its laws are more favorable to manufacturour large stockholders, who became di- essentials, namely: rectors, reside there. As is required and customary, "a principal place of business" was designated in that state. The all such production. New Jersey laws, however, are so strict that they require the money which repin; or, when the money is not so paid in, shall be purchased as the basis for stock bear stamped on their face, "Issued for property purchased." It was therefore on simple grounds of convenience and economy that a company was at first formed with this small capital, with a view of afterwards purchasing the required properties and issuing property stock therefor, according to the statute law of that state. To have done otherwise would have necessitated the locking up, on the first incorporation of the company, of a very large sum of money in cash, to lie idle until ready to be turned over for the several publishing plants acquired, a very clumsy and expensive proceeding which no sensible man would advise.

Within four months after the original incorporation all the subsequent steps of purchasing property and increasing the capital of the company to five million dollars, the actual cost of its publishing plants, were taken and every one of these steps was official and public, and made matter of record both at the capitol of the state in Trenton, and at Jersey City, in Hudson County, the coporate sear of the company. Thus, if the whole record were quoted and published, instead of being garbled for purposes of deceiving by publishing only the preliminary step incorporation, we should be truthfully and fairly represented. As to the amoun of our capital and the size and import ance of our business we have nothing to conceal; indeed, we regard the great ag gregate of our sales, spread over th whole country, as the measure of confi dence of the school public in our com pany, and as an unimpeachable indorse ment of the superior merit of our public cations.

In order to make this statement con plete and clear, it should be said that the purchase of all school-book propertie made by this company, from whatever source was upon a uniform basis of casl valuation, and according to the established rules of valuing publishing rights plates and plants. The price paid for the Harper school-book interests was no exception to this rule. No bonus or extra inducement of any kind was offered or given to anybody, much less was ther any undue influence or duress exercised forming any alleged "dark chapter," as basely insinuated in this so-called "re port.

A PUBLISHING COMPANY. The statement in the "report" that "this combination had practically been in existence for over ten years prior to its legal incorporation" is wholly false There had been no community of inter ests, no consolidation of businessnothing interfering with the entire independence of each firm, nothing that had the slightest effect upon prices of school books, nothing that influenced or inter fered with their publication and regular sale in any particular. There had been a "Publishers' Association," which at tempted to restrain the evils and extrav agances of agency work for the introduc tion of school books, but nothing that attempted any restriction of the regular business as between publishers, or as be tween the several publishers and the pub lic. The traffic was absolutely open and free, and it has never been otherwise Nearly every reputable publishing hous in the country was represented in thi

Publishers' Association or co-operate-

The answer is the simplest thing of fairness and justice, and therefore in the world-for economy and efficience in conducting the school-book busines THE SOURCE OF THESE SLANDEROUS RE- It was thought that the combined ski of the most experienced and sagacion publishers, the combined judgment of the most accomplished editors, and Jo dicious use of large capital in stimul ness who has the skill to make use of ting the best authorship, would bring venal or gullible persons to publish and the greatest measure of success; that the circulate his own attacks and calumnies | bringing together of these forces would for him, expecting in this way to build tend to utilize the highest educations himself up by defaming the character of thought and crystallize it into the beshis competitors. There are at the present time in the United States, according to the official trade organ, The Publishers' Weekly, more than a hundred corpora tions, firms, and houses issuing school publications, and there are nearly ten thousand different volumes in current publication. It is a matter of notoriety, among all teachers and school officers. that competition between different houses publishing school text-books has never been more active than since the forma tion of the American Book Company, or than exists at the present moment. Competition is even strong enough to stimuand whenever an important adoption is being considered, as is at present the case in the state of Oregon; with the evident purpose of shifting the issue from the merits of the books to a discus sion of personalities.

Stimulated by the charges of such everpresent and sometimes virulent competi tion, there were brought about two legislative inquiries as to the status of the American Book Company, respectively in the states of Pennsylvania and Illinois In these investigations and hearings the testimony of everybody was publicly invited-publishers, booksellers, educators politicians, and public cranks. Each or the two reports, to their respective legislatures, resulting from these investiga tions, completely exonerated the Ameri can Book Company from being, in any sense or form, a trust or monopoly, a had been falsely alleged. At the Harris burg hearing, all the leading publisher of New York, Philadelphia, and othe cities were present, and, testifying under oath, each one declared that he knew o no case where any competitor had been "crushed out" or oppressed by this company. Among the hundreds of thousands of annual transactions of this company, these are the only instances ever cited against it, and these are alleged to have taken place within a few months after though the campaign of abuse and defamation has been actively carried on ever since, its authors and promoters have not been able to add to these old and false accusations, grown threadbare with use.

After citing the above cases, this "re port" goes on to say: "These are only specific instances; but the history of this company's operations in Mississippi, Missouri, Ohio, New Jersey, and other states gives us the impression that its methods are corrupt, and leads this committee to the almost irresistible conclusion that this is a well-defined policy of the company itself in the selection of some of its agents and instrumentalities."

The Washington adoption occurred within a mouth after the company had commenced business, so that it and little share in that. In Mississippi and Missouri, under new laws, general changes in books have taken place in which this company has shared, after most active competion with many other publishing houses.

As to the "backwoods" charge, it is a fact which can be demonstrated by the account books of the company's sales in New England and the Middle and Western States-the older and more densely populated sections of the country, where public education has longest been established-that the text-books of this company are relatively much more largely in use in these States than in remote and more sparsely settled regions.

CHARACTER OF BOOKS PUBLISHED BY THE AMERICAN BOOK COMPANY.

The writer of this "report" has set himself up as a ciltic and censor of the character and merit of the school books published by the American Book Company. He says, while this company has many excellent books, "chiefly confined to the academic and higher grades, it is lenge to any respectable school-book very weak in the lower grades and in publisher in this whole country today to mathematics." He also says "it is cheapcome forward and declare under oath er for the American Book Company to

This book is also approved on its merits by leading educators all over the country, and so widery used that its circulation has reached into millions. The relative profit on this book, however, is not larger than the average profit on other school books.

If there is one characteristic in the American Book Company's list more the organization of the company. And pronounced than another, it is the superior excellence of its elementary books prepared for common and grammar schools, as all teachers, superintendents and unbiased publishers who know the facts will unanimously testify. If a book is found to be faulty, it is corrected; if it has outlived its purpose and usefulness, it is discontinued. TILE TO PUBLIC EDUCATION?

To the charge in the report "that this monopoly is disastrous to our public school system," and that "the public are minded and intelligent class of citizens of your state. It is incredible that a man in his senses would thus attempt to traduce and malign any class of his fellow-citizens, much less the supervisors of public education.

Refuting this infamous charge, we make this clear assertion, and call upon all intelligent men who know the history of the schools of this country to say whether or not it is true. We assert that no body of men have ever done more to stimulate popular education, foster progressive and enlightened methods of teaching, arouse educational thought, and generally promote the in tellectual growth of the country, than the men who, as school-book publishers, were the predecessors of the American Book Company; and they have accomplished all these things by constantly producing, from time to time, the best possible school text-books. We further assert that those who compose the present management of the American Book Company are still faithful to these high traditions, and are still doing for the schools of this country, through furnishing them with good books, all that experience and capital can accomplish.

THE AMERICAN BOOK COMPANY IN OREGON.

It is charged that this company, and the "combination which has existed for many years," framed your text-book laws, and that all your school-books, 'except Brooks' Normal Arithmetic and three other very unimportant books," were selected from the American Book

Company's list. The simple facts are that there never has been any such "combination for many years," or for any time, as is alleged; and that the adoption of books six years ago in Oregon took place two years before the American Book Company came into existence, and under open competion between the different entirely independent houses, as everybody in Oregon knows who had anything to do with the selection at that time. The sales and profits of the schoolbook business are constantly and very greatly exaggerated by those who are ignorant of them. Instead of the profits on school books being $50,000 a year in Oregon, as claimed in the "report," this sum more nearly represents the total amount of annual sales in this statewhich, in any event, is not more than $40,000, and of course only a small portion of this amount can be reck aned as net profit. The American Book Company has never at any time raised so much as finger to influence Oregon legislation in its behalf. On the other hand, what did this company actually do for the people of Oregon when it became the publisher of the books which had already been adopted for use in that state? We state facts known, we believe, to every person in Oregon, when we say that it used every means in its power to render these books easily obtainable by the people and at cheaper rates than ever before To this end and at great expense it brought its business and capital to your state, and established one of its branch houses in your city of Portland. It has thus cast its lot with you and identified itself with your community. We are our selves, therefore, in a business sense, Oregonians, sharing the fortunes of your state, and entitled to fair and just treatment from our fellow-citizens. That we shall receive justice and even generosity at your hands is assured to us by the traditions of the Pacific Coast.
