The Portland Telegram calls it "chrysanthemumania."

The remains of the dead czar have been laid to rest.

PUBLIC sentiment must be educated in order to accomplish all reforms.

SENATOR DON CAMERON says that though he is a silver man he is a republican.

REPORTS from all parts of the country indicate that times are improving some.

ANTON GRONOR RUBINSTEIN, the Roumanian composer and pianist, has passed to the beyond.

KOBLER is raising a racket down in Alabama and insists that he shall be sworn in as governor. A row will result.

The sentiment that non-partisan control of cities is conducive to public good, is growing. New York has set the pace and it will be followed up by other cities.

IT is the opinion of an American officer on the Concord that unless China comes to the terms demanded by Japan that the latter nation will annihilate her. The Japs are marching men daily towards Peking.

"ASTORIA is to have a railroad." This is the headline that is now seen in many of our leading journals. We hope Astoria will get a railroad, but the Gazette has heard so much about it that it has grown somewhat skeptical.

SINCE the new bond issue has become an assured fact, gold has been withdrawn from sub-treasuries in large amounts. In fact, Uncle Sam will be compelled to buy back his own gold. This is one of the "admirable" features of the single standard.

PORTLAND winds up with the tail-end of the World's Fair. The Midway Pleasance will be a painted affair down there. This will not be so realistic as the Chicago or San Francisco show, but it will perhaps give our local society of baldheads some idea of the original.

IT is reported that many republican free silver men will insist that the next national platform of that party contain an unequivocal declaration for free coinage of silver. If this is not done it is asserted that a new party will be formed declaring for protection and free silver.

The popularity of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and the high esteem in which it is held leads us to believe it to be an article of great worth and merit. We have the pleasure of giving the experience of three prominent citizens of Redondo Beach, Cal., in the use of the remedy. Mr. A. V. Trudell says: "I have always received prompt relief when I used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy." Mr. James Orchard says: "I am satisfied that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy cured my cold." Mr. J. M. Hatcher says: "For three years I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in my family and its results have always been satisfactory. For sale by Slocum-Johnson Drug Co.

The chrysanthemum season is now on, and is so much the rage down in Portland that a three days' flower carnival is being held, an exhibition of chrysanthemums being the principal feature.

ONE ITEM.
Our Sunday school is progressing nicely.

Another rainfall would improve the roads and give the grain a good start.

Mr. John Ritchey will probably rent a ranch on the creek in the near future. Hauling water is tedious work and don't pay.

Miss Ivy Mitchell contemplates attending school at The Dalles. Miss Ivy is our Sunday school secretary and a good student.

There is great rejoicing among the republicans in our vicinity in view of the grand redemption of republicanism in the East. The election was a stunner and far beyond expectation. More than that, it was a sweeping tornado which swept everything before it throughout the North and could barely be checked by the South. We challenge any one to show us a parallel in the history of the United States. Everybody wanted a change and our grand victory has been achieved mainly by the renewed confidence of the laboring classes in the republican party. The workmen have opened their eyes once more and will not take chances on closing their eyes upon principles which are of vital importance not only to their nation and homes, but to the coming generation. They will not look in vain. The American people have expressed themselves emphatically for protection and men of all political faith look forth to renewed prosperity in due time.

When others fail
Hood's Sarsaparilla builds up the shattered system by giving vigorous action to the digestive organs, creating an appetite and purifying the blood. It is prepared by modern methods, possesses the greatest curative powers, and has the most wonderful record of actual cures of any medicine in existence. Take only Hood's.

Hood's Pills are purely vegetable, and do not purge, pain or gripe. 25c.

FROM LEXINGTON.

Miss Jennie Kincaid's school will close next Friday in the Boomer district.

Mrs. Chas. Fagan, of The Dalles, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Warfield, in Lexington.

Olav Johnson has been ill for the past few days, and W. B. McAllister has taken his place at the depot.

All the houses for rent in town are fast being occupied by families moving in for the purpose of attending school.

Miss Amy Leach departed last week for the valley where she will remain some time visiting her aunt, Mrs. Henry Pentland.

The farmers are busily engaged in hauling wheat. And a glance at the platform and depot grounds is enough to convince the eye witness what Morrow county is capable of doing for the farmer.

Rev. Gregory will attend the quarterly meeting at Pine City, Saturday and Sunday. Mr. Gregory is a most estimable gentleman and greatly admired by all. His earnest efforts for the upbuilding of church interests here are rarely excelled.

The new school building will soon be completed under the skillful workmanship of Davis & Berggren, and when finished will be a very fine building. The school will move about the first of December, with the able and genial Prof. Brown as principal.

Con-table Jess Lienault and his brother, Joe, are hunting up Clyde Sperry. "Gene Jones was brought to town yesterday, but at last accounts Sperry has not been captured. The boys should consider that stealing cattle in broad daylight is risky business and that the laws of our country are very strict. It should learn the boys a lesson not to be forgotten. (Gene was acquitted Tuesday of the charge placed against him.—Ed.)

Rev. W. W. Gregory, accompanied by Miss Lula Boothby, of Lexington, attended the entertainment at Eight Mile Center last Thursday evening, given by the ladies of the M. E. church. A pleasant time was enjoyed by all who participated. The address of welcome read by Mr. A. C. Carl, of Heppner, was highly appreciated; also the remarks made by that estimable Christian lady, Mother Ashbaugh, and others. The ladies of Eight Mile fully understand the art of cooking; also entertaining friends. On the following Sunday Rev. Gregory preached at Eight Mile, and at the Road school house which was well attended.

Died—On Nov. 6th, at 3 p. m., the populist party. It was so shocked at hearing of Missouri going republican that it died of heart failure. The remains were laid down in their last resting place by the republicans and democrats of Lexington and the surrounding country. May they ever rest in peace hereafter in the wishes of

OPEN AIR MEETING.

No one can question the great spiritual good which has been accomplished in open air meetings. But it is also an established fact that there is great danger of bodily harm to be received at such gatherings. Standing on cold ground, exposed to chilling winds, or talking in the damp evening air, frequently starts a cold which, unless promptly treated, results seriously. For all the purposes of a cough medicine and as a sudorific expectorant, to allay irritation, prevent coughing and check the progress of a cold, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral leads all others. It was the only remedy for disease of the throat and lungs receiving a medal and diploma at the World's Columbian Exposition.

The Oregon State Agricultural College, of Corvallis, Oregon, has added a farmers' course of five weeks, tuition free, beginning January 8th and ending February 11th, 1895.

This will not last long. The Gazette, one year in advance from date of order, and one of Galtson's life-size crayons all for $4.70. Call and see us for particulars.

The excess that has attended the use of Dr. J. H. McLean's Volcanic Oil Liniment in the relief of pain and in curing diseases which seemed beyond the power of medicine, has been truly remarkable. Hundreds supposed to be crippled for life with arms and legs drawn up crooked or distorted their muscles withered or contracted by disease have been cured through the use of this remedy. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle.

Geo. W. Jenkins, editor of the Santa Maria "Times," Cal., in speaking of the various ailments of children said: "When my children have cold there is only one patent medicine that I ever use and that is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It possesses some medical properties that relieve the little sufferers immediately. It is, in my opinion, the best cough medicine in the market. If this remedy is freely given as soon as the coughy croup appears it will prevent the attack. It is also an ideal remedy for whooping cough. There is no danger in giving it to children, as it contains nothing injurious. For sale by Slocum-Johnson Drug Co.

FORGET OF LAND DECISION.—Furnished by W. D. Harlan, Land Attorney, Washington, D. C., for the Gazette: "As between two claimants for Oklahoma lands, each of whom allege settlement in the afternoon of the day on which the lands were open to settlement, priority of right may be properly accorded to the one who first reaches the tract and puts up a 'stake' with the announcement of his claim thereon, where such initial act of settlement is duly followed by the establishment of residence in good faith. Ass't Sec'y Sims."

A. E. Kilpatrick, of Fillmore, Cal., had the misfortune to have his leg caught between a cart and a stone and badly lamed. Ordinarily he would have been laid up for two or three weeks but says: "After using one bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm I began to feel better, and in three days was entirely well. The peculiar soothing qualities which Chamberlain's Pain Balm possesses I have never noticed in any other liniment. I take pleasure in recommending it." This liniment is also of great value for rheumatism and lame back. For sale by Slocum-Johnson Drug Co.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.—The Morrow County Teachers' Institute will be held in this city Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, Nov. 20th, 27th and 28th. Day session will convene at 8:30 a. m., each day at the school house. Sessions will be held Monday and Wednesday evenings at the M. E. church, beginning at 7:30 p. m. On Tuesday evening a reception will be given the teachers, by the ladies of Heppner, which will occur at the opera hall. A special program has been arranged for the evening sessions. Citizens of Heppner should show their appreciation of the superintendent's effort in arranging such an interesting program, by attending every session, and no teacher can afford to miss this institute. 5c

THE SHOE MAKER.—Joe Duhois has moved his shoe-making and repair shop from the old May street stand to the room formerly occupied by Green Matthews, barber shop, next door to Noble's harness shop. Joe also has a good workman with him and guarantees satisfaction. Don't overlook him for first class work. 65 H.

One Savage and Edith Gibson, charged with robbing the express office with the self-confessed culprit, Klein, have been exonerated by a Wasco county grand jury. They will be held, however, for the postoffice robbery.

Happy Character Drawing.
A writer in Scribner's has the butler in mind when he records his impressions in the episode subjoined. That mixture of conscious self-importance and settled melancholy which gives the butler an austere and formal look like a boss undertaker's is admirably noted with free hand: "I rung and brought the desired Lipton. He had been with us only a few days, but I had noticed that he was possessed with a deeper gloom than is usual even with his class. He bore the afternoon tea quite as if it were the cremated remains of the most valued member of the family and had a sacrificial sort of way of offering up breakfast and dinner."

HELP THAT DIDN'T WORK.
The Conductor Knew a Trick Worth Two of the Other Fellows.

"Yes," said the smart man who sat on the rear seat of the snaker, "it's dead easy to bluff these conductors if you know how. Now, I'll make a small bet, that, although I have a ticket, I can travel to my destination without showing it or putting up a cent."

"I don't believe it," said the man in the front seat.

"Well," insisted the smart man, "just watch me when the conductor comes along."

Ten minutes later the conductor did come along. He inquired for tickets in a peremptory manner. The smart man made no move to get his.

"Tickets," said the conductor again, when he reached the rear seat.

"See here, old fellow," said the smart man, "I haven't got any ticket. I'm an old railroad man. Used to be a conductor on the Santa Fe, and I want to go a piece with you."

"Used to be on the Santa Fe, did you?" inquired the conductor. "Well, I don't know but I can guess you. By the way, what time is it? My watch isn't running just right."

The smart man winked at the man in front of him and pulled out his watch.

"It's 20 minutes to 12," he said.

The conductor held out his hand.

"Give me your ticket or money enough to pay your fare, or I'll put you off the train," he said, sharply.

The smart man reluctantly pulled out his ticket. As he handed it over, he said:

"How in thunder did you know I was bluffing?"

The conductor laughed a bit.

"Oh," he said, "you were easy. If you'd been in the railroad business for 10 minutes you'd have said 11:30 instead of 20 minutes to 12."

Haunted!

A haunted house in these practical and unromantic days is something of a rarity, but an individual haunted with the idea that his ailment is incurable is a personage frequently met with. Disbelief in the ability of medicine to cure is only a mild form of monomania, although in some cases repeated failures to obtain relief from many different sources would almost seem to justify the doubt. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters has demonstrated its ability to overcome dyspepsia, constipation, liver and kidney trouble, neuralgic complaints and nervousness, and its recorded achievement in the curative line ought at least to warrant its trial by any one troubled with either of the above ailments, even although his previous efforts to obtain remedial aid have been fruitless. Used with persistence, the Bitters will conquer the most obstinate cases.

NEARLY AN ACCIDENT.—They say that "a miss is as good as a mile," but the close calls are not pleasant, to say the least. Wednesday morning as the back bearing the Masonic committee was crossing the track near the depot the huge car unlatched leaving the vehicle in imminent danger of being run down by the approaching train. Engineer Patterson's attention was called to something in the rear of the locomotive, and it was with some effort that the train was stopped within fifteen feet of the back. It is unnecessary to state that the passengers received quite a scare.

A Household Treasure.
D. W. Fuller, of Canajoharie, N. Dykeman, Druggist, Catskill, N. Y., says that Dr. King's New Discovery is undoubtedly the best cough remedy; that he has used it in his family for eight years, and it has never failed to do all that is claimed for it. Why not try a remedy so long tried and tested. Trial bottles free at T. W. Ayers, Jr., Drug Store. Regular size 50c, and $1.

PATENTS

FOR INVENTIONS.

Equal with the interest of those having claims against the government is that of INVENTORS, who often lose the benefit of valuable inventions because of the incompetency or inattention of the attorneys employed to obtain their patents. Too much care cannot be exercised in employing competent and reliable solicitors to procure patents, for the value of a patent depends greatly, if not entirely, upon the care and skill of the attorney.

With the view of protecting inventors from worthless or careless attorneys, and of seeing that inventions are well protected by valid patents, we have retained counsel expert in patent practice, and therefore are prepared to Obtain Patents in the United States and all Foreign Countries, Conduct Interferences, Make Special Examinations, Prosecute Rejected Cases, Register Trade-Marks and Copyrights, Render Opinions as to Scope and Validity of Patents, Prosecute and Defend Infringement Suits, Etc., Etc.

If you have an invention on hand send a sketch or photograph thereof, together with a brief description of the important features, and you will be at once advised as to the best course to pursue. Models are seldom necessary. If others are infringing on your rights, or if you are charged with infringement by others, submit the matter to us for a reliable OPINION before acting on the matter.

Honorably discharged soldiers and sailors who served ninety days, or over, in the late war, are entitled, if now partially or wholly disabled for ordinary manual labor, whether disability was caused by service or not, and regardless of their pecuniary circumstances.

WIDOWS of such soldiers and sailors are entitled (if not remarried) whether soldier's death was due to army service or not, if now dependent upon their own labor for support. WIDOWS not dependent upon their own labor are entitled (if the soldier's death was due to service) to a pension (if under sixteen years) in almost all cases where there was a widow, or she has since died or remarried.

PARENTS are entitled (if soldier left neither widow nor child, provided soldier died in service, or from effects of service, and they are now dependent upon their own labor for support. It makes no difference whether soldier served or died in late war or in regular army or navy.

Soldiers of the late war, pensioned under one law, may apply for higher rates under other laws, without losing any rights.

Thousands of soldiers drawing from $5 to $20 per month under the old law are entitled to higher rates under new law, not only on account of disabilities for which now pensioned, but also for others, whether due to service or not.

Soldiers and sailors disabled in line of duty in regular army or navy since the war are also entitled, whether discharged for disability or not.

Survivors and their widows of the Black Hawk, Creek, Cherokee and Seminole or Florida Indian Wars of 1832 to 1845, are entitled under a recent act.

Mexican War soldiers and their widows also entitled, if sixty-two years of age or disabled or dependent.

Old claims completed and settlement obtained, whether pension has been granted under later law or not.

Rejected claims reopened and settlement secured, if rejection improper or illegal.

Certificates of service and discharge obtained for soldiers and sailors of the late war who have lost their original papers.

Send for laws and information. No charge for advice. No fee unless successful. Address,
