STATE TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION .- An exchange in speaking of the State Teachers' Association, held in Portland during the holidays, says it was the largest gathering of the kind ever had in the state of Oregon. Over seven hundred teachers were present from different parts of the state. Of course, the representation from Portland was very large, but the delegations from Eastern Oregon were without precedent. It is probable has never had anything of the kind hitherto, and it is but a just tribute to the people of that portion of the state to give them some recognition, and the teachers were the first to do this.
