

THE CITY ELECTION.

Two weeks from today, Tuesday, February 5, 1895, occurs the annual municipal election of Heppner. Although this is a matter of considerable import to our citizens, as yet very little interest is manifested in the event and from this we would naturally infer that the people of Heppner generally are satisfied with the administration of municipal affairs during the past year and are cognizant of the fact that the mayor and council have ever had an economical eye on the welfare and best interests of the city and people. It is no more than right and just to say that Mayor Borg, in his official capacity as the chief executive of our thriving little city, has done his duty well and conscientiously, with deserving credit to himself and honor to our city and its people. Working in harmony with the council he has at all times been subservient to the best interests of the people, and during his incumbency of the mayor's office the past year has given a wise and economical administration of municipal affairs. So far we have heard of no opposition to Mayor Borg's candidacy for re-election, and as it is generally conceded, as a mark of respect and esteem, that an efficient and wise official is deserving of recognition at the hands of the people, and the saying that one good term deserves another will most likely be demonstrated in this instance and Mayor Borg re-elected to succeed himself as Heppner's chief executive for his second term without any opposition.

The retiring councilmen at the coming election are Messrs. Johnston, Yeager and Keithley, who have served the people faithfully and conscientiously during the past two years, working in harmony with the mayor and other members, always doing their duty as they saw it, and to the best interests of the city. These gentlemen are of the opinion, that they have held the office long enough and would rather step down and out and allow others to shoulder the responsibilities in the management of city affairs during the next two years.

To fill the vacancies of the retiring councilmen the names of J. B. Natter, Thomas Quaid and Alexander Thompson have so far been prominently mentioned. They are representative business men prominently connected with the best interests of the people, and would, no doubt, if elected, prove able and conscientious guardians of our city's welfare.

The present incumbent of the city treasurer's office, Mr. A. M. Gunn, will not be a candidate for re-election, owing to the fact that he intends shortly to remove from the city. However, we have heard the name of Mr. L. W. Briggs mentioned in connection with the office. Mr. Briggs is manager of the P. C. Thompson Co., in this city, and would, no doubt, make a good officer.

For the office of city recorder Fred J. Hallock will, we are informed, be a candidate for re-election. Fred has filled the office with credit during the past year and done his duty well. However, there is plenty of time yet for candidates for municipal honors to "bob up serenely" and would suggest that it might be a good idea for all those who have their eye on some official plum to insert their announcement in the Gazette.

OUR PUBLIC SCHOOL.

The fact that we have here in Heppner one of the best equipped and foremost institutions of learning in the state should be an incentive to our people to put forth every endeavor for the future maintenance and perpetuity of our school on an equitable basis financially with the public schools of other cities. In our school there are eleven grades taught, necessitating the employment of six teachers, at a cost to the district in the neighborhood of $400 monthly, and when we take into consideration the grand educational facilities and opportunities offered, and the good work being accomplished by an excellent and competent corps of teachers in the proper moral and educational training of the young of Heppner and vicinity, fitting them out to fight the battles of life intelligently, when they arrive at the proper age to enter the great arena of business cares and religious and political duties of this world, the cost of maintaining our public school is comparatively small. Too much cannot be said in commendation and praise of this institution, and our people who, at heart, are proud of their school and the grand opportunities it offers for the education of their children, should not lose sight of the fact that the district is in debt in the neighborhood of $2500 and that a meeting is to be held the 30th of this month for the purpose of levying a school tax to raise funds to meet this indebtedness, and for the continuance of our school another year. Every father who has the future educational welfare of his children at heart should take a deep interest in this matter and be on hand to attend the meeting at the stated time, and by his vote in favor of the tax levy show that he is abreast of the times and alive to the best educational interests of our city.

THE VOTE AGAINST DOLPH.

The following is a list of the representatives in the senate and house who voted against Dolph at the recent caucus meeting in Salem. Every free silver man in the state should read these names carefully, so they can see how their representatives acquitted themselves:

- SENATORS. Alley, Lane County; Johnson, Linn county; Price, Umatilla county; Patterson, Marion county; Woodward, Multnomah county. REPRESENTATIVES. Baker, Lane County; Barkley, Marion county; Boothby, Morrow county; Burkley, Multnomah county; Cleeton, Columbia county; Coon, Wasco county; Craig, Marion county; Curtis, Clatsop county; Davis, Umatilla county; Dunn, Jackson county; Gates, Washington county; Guild, Yamhill county; Gurdane, Umatilla county; Hillegas, Lane county; Hofer, Marion county; Hope, Malheur county; Lester, Clatsop county; Lyle, Crook county; Moores, Marion county; Patterson, Grant county; Rinearson, Clackamas county; Scott, Linn county; Shurtum, Umatilla county; Smith, Linn county; Tigard, Washington county; Wright, Union county; Yates, Washington county.

The New Years edition of the Roseburg Review has reached our desk and, to say the least, it is a very creditable paper.

The September grand jury, at Portland, has found a true bill of indictment against Richard Banker, the swindler of the A. O. U. W.

PUGLISH FITZSIMMONS has been indicted by the grand jury at Syracuse, N. Y., for manslaughter in the first degree, in causing the death of his sparring partner, Con Riordan.

The earthly remains of ex-Governor S. F. Chadwick were laid to rest in Laurel Hill cemetery, at Salem, Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. All state offices were closed at 12 o'clock out of respect to the highly honored deceased.

The county court of Multnomah county has decided that the jury in the Steeves murder case are entitled to but $2 per day for their services, while they naturally expected what had formerly been paid jurors on murder trials, which was $4 per day. There is talk of contesting the matter in the courts.

Hox. J. A. WRIGHT has thoroughly canvassed the matter and says that as an advocate of silver he firmly believes he represents fully two-thirds of the people of Union county, and he intends to represent his constituency. If Mr. Wright's promises are correct, his position becomes a duty he owes to the people of his county.—Union Republican.

HERMAN REINHART, convicted a short time ago in Portland of embezzling some $5000 from the firm of Dittenhoefer, Haas & White, by whom he was employed as book-keeper, and sentenced to three years in the penitentiary, and whose case was appealed to the supreme court with the result that the lower court's judgment was affirmed, was taken to the penitentiary Saturday.

Some time ago Mr. Simon Goldbaum, of San Luis Rey, Cal., was troubled with a lame back and rheumatism. He used Chamberlain's Pain Balm and a prompt cure was effected. He says he has since advised many of his friends to try it and all who have done so have spoken highly of it. It is for sale by Stearns Johnson Drug

A POSSIBLE DEADLOCK.

The fight over the United States senatorship, today at Salem, will predict will be hotly contested with Lord in the field as the favorite of the anti-Dolph men. Although the so-called caucus got the best of it by 40 to 32 in favor of Dolph, considering the questionable means employed to bring about this caucus, it should not, and in all probability will not, be considered binding. There is a possibility of a deadlock in the election of a United States senator.

Personally we like Mr. Dolph well enough, but are not in accord with his policy, and are supported in our opinion by a majority of the people of Oregon and, also, of the republican party. The "machine," which includes some of the old fossils who are beyond the age of change, even though the world argues against them, and too childish to be dangerous, and a small coterie of bankers, with exceptions even in this class, are the only ones standing in with Mr. Dolph.

A SPECIAL MEETING.

The need of a city marshal was made very apparent by the riotous disturbances created in this city last evening, and will most likely result in the council taking immediate, decisive and permanent action in the matter of maintaining law and order in this city in the future. Mr. S. S. Horner has been circulating a petition among the taxpayers today praying the council to immediately appoint a marshal at a salary of not to exceed $40 per month, it being generally understood that the old marshal, deposed a short time ago, and who is well acquainted with the duties of the office, having signified a willingness to act as marshal for that amount. Nearly every taxpayer approached signed the petition and Mr. Horner will have a large number of names of the leading taxpayers of the city to present to the council at their special meeting, called for this evening, for the purpose of acting in the matter of the appointment of a marshal.

One of the retiring councilmen at the coming city election is Mr. W. A. Johnston, who has, during the past two years, served the city well and faithfully in the discharge of his duties. Ever advocating an economical administration of municipal affairs, Mr. Johnston has all along labored zealously in harmony and unison with the other members to the best interests of the people. Mr. Johnston's many friends, realizing his qualifications and fitness for the office, are anxious that he should reconsider his decision to retire from the council chamber at the expiration of his time and again allow his name to be brought before the people of Heppner for re-election.

In Friday's issue of the Oregonian, Mr. A. Mallory, writing from this city, takes occasion to say there is no other source open for the denial of the statements made in the Heppner Gazette, other than through the Oregonian. This statement of Mr. Mallory's we wish to emphatically deny, and will state that the columns of the Gazette are always open for both sides of the question that is of public import.

GOVERNOR PENNOYER was very explicit in explanation of his paroling proclivities in his message, saying that he had not been influenced by newspaper clamor or public cavil but by the merits of the cases brought before him. He hit the lower courts a friendly tap by saying that there would and could be no use for pardoning if they were infallible—but pardons, still, were necessary.

The retiring state printer, Hon. Frank C. Baker, complimented the members of the legislature each with an elegant pad of lithographed letter paper upon the opening of the session.

REPRESENTATIVE BOOTHBY in a letter published in the Sunday Oregonian, says that he is neither a goldbug nor a Dolph man. He defines his position clearly and takes the stand in favor of silver.

An Old Soldier's Recommendation. In the late war I was a soldier in the First Maryland Volunteers, Company 1. During my term of service I contracted chronic diarrhoea. Since that I have used a great amount of medicine, but when I found any that would give me relief it would injure my stomach, until Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was brought to my notice. I used it and will say it is the only remedy that gave me permanent relief and no bad results follow. I take pleasure in recommending this preparation to all of my old comrades, who, while giving their services to their country, contracted this dreadful disease so I did, from eating unwholesome and uncooked food. Yours truly, A. E. Bending, Halsey, Oregon. For sale by Stearns-Johnson Drug Co.

STEVE HELBOCK, a Portland raised boy aged 22 years, has been arrested in that city charged with counterfeiting silver dollars. He was arrested at the instance of a government detective. No very strong case has as yet developed against the youth and the officers have so far failed to secure any of the money or any part of the outfit which he is supposed to have used in turning out the spurious coin. His mother, Mrs. Helbeck, who is confined in the insane asylum, will be released from that institution in a few days. Young Helbeck had always borne a good reputation. His bonds were placed at $2,000.

A BOY'S BAD START IN LIFE.

Dayton D. Day, a Portland Boy. Robs His Mother of $150.

From the Telegram. At the Union depot last night Officer W. B. Johnston arrested a 13 1/2 year-old lad named Dayton D. Day, whose parents reside at Kenilworth, for stealing $150 from his mother. Day has the appearance of a youth 16 years old, and but for the timely action of the police he would have succeeded in getting away with his spoils.

He left home Thursday evening, and his parents believed him to have gone to a meeting of the Salvation Army, of which he is a member. He did not return in the night, of which circumstance his mother and father thought nothing as he frequently slept with a companion living on Grand avenue and East Twelfth street. But yesterday forenoon Mrs. Day had occasion to go to a bureau drawer in which the money was kept, and then she discovered she had been robbed. With her sad story she hurried to her husband, who works in Iman, Paulsen & Co.'s mill, and he advised her to report the loss of the money to the police.

In the afternoon Mrs. Day called on Chief of Police Minto, relating her tale of woe to him, leaving nothing unthought. When the chief suggested that her boy might have penetrated the theft, she at first could not be made to believe it, as he had always been kindly treated, and in fact, he was a model youth. At last, though, the chief got her into his way of thinking, and she informed him that Dayton had a brother living in Walls Walla, and another at The Dalles. After obtaining a description of the boy and the piece of information, Chief Minto sent Mrs. Day home, promising to do what he could for her to recover the stolen money.

Officer Johnston was at once furnished with a pen picture of the young Salvation Army lad, together with instructions to closely watch all outgoing trains for him. His vigilance was rewarded by the capture of the youthful thief, who had with $40 of the stolen money bought a ticket for Kansas City, where he had a sister, and upon his person was found $38 in money. The chief succeeded in having the railroad company refund the money for the ticket, so that Mrs. Day is only $12 out. The lad when landed at the central police station, said that he was asleep, and wanted to go to bed at once, which led to the inference that he must have had a "night off" with the missing $12.

Marvelous Results.

From a letter written by Rev. J. Gauderman, of Dimondale, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: "I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist church at River Junction she was brought down with Pneumonia succeeding La Grippe. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours with little interruption and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery; it was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in results." Trial bottles free at T. W. Ayers, Jr. drug store. Regular size 50c. and $1.

PATENTS FOR INVENTIONS. Equal with the interest of those having claims against the government is that of INVENTORS, who often lose the benefit of valuable inventions because of the incompetency or inattention of the attorneys employed to obtain their patents. Too much care cannot be exercised in employing competent and reliable solicitors to procure patents, for the value of a patent depends greatly, if not entirely, upon the care and skill of the attorney. With the view of protecting inventors from worthless or careless attorneys, and of seeing that inventions are well protected by valid patents, we have retained counsel expert in patent practice, and therefore are prepared to Obtain Patents in the United States and All Foreign Countries, Conduct Interferences, Make Special Examinations, Prosecute Rejected Cases, Register Trade-Marks and Copyrights, Render Opinions as to Scope and Validity of Patents, Prosecute and Defend Infringement Suits, Etc., Etc. If you have an invention on hand send a sketch or photograph thereof, together with a brief description of the important features, and you will be at once advised as to the best course to pursue. Models are seldom necessary. If others are infringing on your rights, or if you are charged with infringement by others, submit the matter to us for a reliable OPINION before acting on the matter.
