PATENTS

NOTICE TO INVENTORS.

There was never a time in the history of our country when the demand for inventions and improvements in the arts and sciences generally was so great as now. The conveniences of maskind in the factory and workshop, the household and on the farm, as well as in official life, require continual accessions to the appurtenance and impliments of each in order to save labor, time and expense. The political change in the administration of government does not affect the progress of the American inventor, who being on the alert, and ready to perceive the existing deficiencies, does not permit the affairs of government to deter him from quickly conceiving the remedy to overcome existing discrepancies. Too great core cannot be exereised in choosing a competent and skillful attorney to prepare and prosecute an application for patent. Valuable interests have been lost and destroyed in innumerable instances by the employ ment of incompetent counsel, and especially is this advice applicable to those who adopt the "No patent, no pay" system. Inventors who entrust their business to this class of attorneys do so at imminent risk, as the breadth and strength of the patent is never considered in view of a quick endeavor to get an allowance and obtain the fee. THE PRESS CLAIMS COMPANY, John Wedderburn, General Manager 618 F street, N. W., Washington, D. C., representing a large number of important daily and weekly papers, and general periodicals of the country, was instituted to protect its patrons from the unsafe methods beretofore employed in this line of business. The said Conpany is prepared to take charge of all patent business entrusted to it for reasonable fees, and prepare and prosecute applications generally, including me-chanical inventions, design patents, trade-marks, labels, copyrights, interferences, infringements, validity reports, and gives especial attenion to rejected cases. It is also prepared to enter into competition with any firm in securing foreign patents. Write for instructions and advice.

Again, the operation could were represented that showed that after the periosteum had been scraped away sawing had been resorted to. Primitive people, he said, were very carcless as to these operations, and even five hundred years ago in Germany a piece of the skull was removed as a cure for melancholy. If a savage suffered in the head from a blow trephining was accomplished, and doubtless the sufferer from fits who was considered to be possessed, was lieved by a similar operation. From the skulls he had examined he found that the holes were generally made immediately above those parts of the brain where an injury would induce fits. Often the piece of bone was replaced in the skull and at other times it was split up into amulets. No doubt the dwellers in the stone age looked into the operation as something very special, and considered that the bone

PRIZES ON PATENTS.

How to get $100 and Perhaps Make a Fortune.

We secure patents and to induce people to keep track of their bright ideas we offer a prize of one hundred dollars to be paid on the first of every month to the person who submits to us the most meritorious invention during the preceeding month. We will also was in the parlor. The peculiarity of the National Recorder, a weekly newspaper, published in Washington, D. C., which has an extensive circulation throughout the United States and is devoted to the interests of inventors, NOT SO HARD AS IT SERMS.

The idea of being able to invent something strikes most people as being very difficult; this delusion the company wishes to dispel. It is the simple things and small inventions that make the greatest amount of money, and the complex ones are seldom profitable. Almost everybody, at some time or another, conceives an idea, which, if patented, would probably be worth to him a fortune. Unfortunately such ideas are usually dismissed without thought. The simple inventions like the car window which could be easily slid up and down without breaking the passenger's back, the sauce pan, collar button, the nut lock, the bottle stopper, the snow shovel, are the serpents themselves are turned things that almost everyone sees some way of improving upon, and it is these kind of inventions that bring the greatest returns to the author.

The prize we offer will be paid at the end of each month, whether the application has been acted upon by the Patent Office or not. Every competitor must apply for a patent on his invention through us, and whether he secures the prize or not, the inventor will have a valuable patent.

THE PRESS CLAIM COMPANY. JOHN WEDDERBURN, Gen'l Manager,
