Maj. S. E. Nettleton, who was two years United States special treasury agent at the Pribilof islands, or Seal Islands as they are sometimes called, was a close observer of the customs of the Aleutians, and relates many interesting anecdotes of his sojourn there.

Their lives were uneventful until they reached the age of sixteen. Neither had been to school, and they knew nothing of the outside world.

Continuing our walk, we came upon other objects of artistic interest. These were people binding the wheat into sheaves, and others loading the carts, and transporting the sheaves to the place where they were piling them in huge stacks.

DEFINITION OF A TENOR. Von Below regarded such a singer as a blessing, not a man. As a conductor he simply worked marvels, even with an indifferent orchestra.

in her note-book in the agricultural building, hurriedly ran over to a table and pushed to the front with so much zeal that the bystanders supposed she had forgotten her purse or something else equally important.

But the woman was more garrulous. She detained the guard long enough to explain that they lived in Minnesota twelve years and then moved to Ohio. Now they were going back to Minnesota.

When it was harvest-time, he would often lead the way to the places where he hoped to see the harvesters at work. When we were at a little distance from them, he would stop. "See," he would say, "all their movements count."

It sometimes happened that these harvesters would notice that we were observing them, and some of the band would say to the others: "See these Parisians who are looking at us. I should like to see them do our work."

The police court reports in the London papers sometimes quote the price of a pair of shoes usually ranges from half a crown to half a sovereign.

Without being allowed to say a word on his own behalf, the doctor was forthwith officially advised to resign the service to avoid dismissal.

to the ground. But, although they are obstinate, they are not cute, and an Arab, by pretending to submit, can generally get the better of the stubborn beasts. The drivers will ostentatiously remove three or four packages from the load, and the animal, with an inward chuckle of satisfaction, rises at once without proceeding that the parcels have meanwhile been returned to their former place.

Police officers detailed in charge of postal wagons see more of the woes and ills of suffering humanity than most people. Late one night a short time ago a Chicago saloonkeeper called for the ambulance from the West Chicago avenue station, saying there was a man lying on the sidewalk near Carpenter and Front streets badly injured and unconscious.
