W. C. T. U. COLUMN. For God and Home and Every Land.

Better to weave in the web of life A bright and golden filling.

We again gladly greet our friends through the medium of our own loved W. C. T. U. column.

Our hearts beat high with hope of what we may accomplish along all our lines of work.

It may seem that we have accomplished little, yet enough has been done to cause much condemnation from enemies.

These trials are what we must expect to encounter and are to be considered as offsets to the momentum of our progress.

Between right and wrong there is no ground save a battle ground.

When a reformer grows popular he has missed his mission and made terms with the enemy.

The Women's Temperance Publishing Association printed over one hundred million pages of literature in the past year.

Total abstinence and prohibition, as principles, have been weighed in the balances and tried in the fires of science and statesmanship.

It was deeply regretted that the public presentation of the Polygot Edition to the United States government, which occurred on the evening of February 15, had to be made without the presence of Miss Willard and Lady Henry Somerset.

It is a pity that the "one" and "four" are always regarded as the dots on the other face of the die.

IMPLEMENTS OF GAMING. Curious Origin of Playing Cards, Dice and Dominoes.

Who would suppose that playing cards were originally derived from the knuckle bones of sheep?

There are about sixty thousand characters in the Chinese language proper, but the average Chinaman no more knows all of these characters than the everyday American knows the one hundred thousand words in the English language.

It will be observed that the sum of any two opposite numbers is always seven. This may have something to do with the fact that seven used to be regarded as a magical number.
