Ben Hunsaker, the original and only Ben, a hustler from Butte, Oregon, seeks to tell the public that he is ready to do business with them at the stand formerly occupied by Jerry Cobb. A. B. Alexander, representing Jas. G. Butler, Tolson City, St. Louis, Mo., was in town Wednesday afternoon, advertising the "Sassafras" brand which is a favorite of that company.

M. D. Hayman and Chris Hansen came together in Gid Batt's barber shop yesterday morning. Hayman winning the contest in one round. Chris' face looked much the worse for the battle at the close, while Mr. Hayman suffered a dislocation of one of the metacarpal bones of the right hand. Each settled in the usual manner before Judge Hallock. The row was all caused by Chris abusing Hayman because he would not allow the former to use profane and vulgar language in the City hotel office earlier in the day.

In the spring, the human body needs assistance to throw off the stagnation produced by winter diet. As the temperature rises under the growing heat of the sun's rays we feel tired, half sick and low in spirits, because the blood is sluggish and full of impurities. Dr. J. H. McLean's Strengthening Cordial and Blood Purifier is a reliable spring remedy to invigorate the body and give tone to the digestion. Price $1 per bottle.

At a meeting of Tiger Hose Co. last night the old officers were re-elected, J. J. Roberts, foreman; Green Mathews, 1st assistant; Horace Matlock, 2nd assistant; J. V. Hallock, Pres.; Walt Thompson, Secy.; Harry Warren, Secy.; E. G. Slocum, Treas. Some new members were taken in and regular meetings and drills will be had in the future. A little fire does some good, even though some person must be the loser.

Vaughan & Vaughan, the popular dentists, will leave for inferior points in the near future, and the Gazette would advise all those who desire work to come in at the earliest opportunity. These gentlemen have taken thorough courses in one of the leading dental colleges of the day, and are up to date in all the latest and finest work. They guarantee satisfaction in every respect. 29th.

Way over in the Peewee-Commerces, we see that Dick Neville has broken out in some nice poetry. The Gazette doesn't understand why the demands of home consumption in the article mentioned are not satisfied first before going over on the Sound to rush into print. And we are not inclined to be a bit jealous either.

Fossil Journal: The only original Ben Hunsaker is now proprietor of the leading grocery store in Heppner. As a reminder of former experiences, in his advertisement in the Gazette Ben has his photograph, taken on horseback, with his arms in the air and his horse on the dead run after a sick ear. Ben ought to get there.

Frank Shephardson, an engineer on the Southern Pacific Ry., who resides at Los Angeles, Cal., was troubled with rheumatism for a long time. H. L. Thompson, father of Walt Thompson, the stage man, came in yesterday from Athens, on his way to the Greenhorn, Crooked and Powder-rivers on a mining expedition. Mr. Thompson intends to get back to Athens by harvest time, but as he is well impressed with the Heppner section, may locate here next fall.

Dr. J. H. McLean's Strengthening Cordial and Blood Purifier is admirably adapted to make "a little health go a long way." Its curative power is largely attributable to its stimulant, tonic and nutritive properties, by which the energy of the system is recruited. It is pleasant to the taste, easily borne on the stomach and harmless under prolonged use. Price $1.00 per bottle.

In view of the fact that Drs. B. F. and E. A. Vaughan, the dentists, will shortly leave Heppner for a tour of the interior, to be absent some time, it is well to avail yourselves of the opportunity to get your work done at once. Bridge and crown work a specialty. All work first class and guaranteed. 29th.

Uncle John Handy came in from Ella, via Lexington, on Monday's train. He had been to Lexington with his mother-in-law, Mrs. B. A. Casick, to erect a monument at the grave of the latter's deceased husband.

Wm. Biddle dropped in Tuesday from Gooseberry. He says nearly all the wheat of his section is going to Ione, for the reason that prices are higher than paid at Heppner. Why is this?

The fire last night raised a crowd, but it had no effect on Minor & Co.'s prices. They still remain the lowest of any house in Eastern Oregon.

Mrs. R. L. Shaw arrived Wednesday evening on a visit to the home folks.

WHEAT SALES, ETC.—Much complaint is being made in the country that Heppner buyers are not paying as much for wheat as those down at Ione, which, considering that the rate to Portland is just the same from both places, would seem to require some explanation. The Gazette has asked the question as to why this difference should exist elsewhere in this issue, and having interviewed some of our buyers will state what they have to say concerning the matter. They aver that at all times they have paid the full market price for wheat, allowing reasonable warehouse charges and that the prices paid at Ione are the result of competing warehouses, who in the contest to get the wheat have paid many times more than the market would warrant, and allowing next to nothing for handling. Personally, the Gazette is not familiar with the grain business, but we do know that Heppner men ought, can and will pay as much for grain as any one can afford, and at the same time observe safe rules of business. It occurs to us, too, that there is no reason, either, why Heppner cannot sell as cheaply as any town like situated, quality considered.

When your heart pains you and unusual palpitation is frequent, accompanied sometimes with shortness of breath and low spirits you are suffering from a disordered state of the liver, digestion is imperfect and there is wind on the stomach. If allowed to remain the trouble will ultimately reach the kidneys and becomes dangerous to life. Steps should be taken to stay its progress on the appearance of the first symptoms. Dr. J. H. McLean's Liver and Kidney Balm is especially adapted for disorders of this kind. Price $1 per bottle.

The Discovery Saved His Life. Mr. Caillonette, Druggist, Beaverville, Ill., says: "To Dr. King's New Discovery I owe my life. Was taken with La Grippe and tried all the physicians for miles about, but of no avail and was given up and laid I could not live. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in my store I sent for a bottle and began its use and from the first dose began to get better, and after using three bottles was up and about again. It is worth its weight in gold. We won't keep store or home without it." Get a free trial at T. W. Ayers' Jr. drug store.

BENEFIT OF THE DISCOVERY. About 4 o'clock yesterday morning, the Heppner people were awakened by the rapid clanging of the fire bell. Investigation proved that the residence belonging to J. W. Matlock was a mass of flames, but very soon the fire boys had a stream going, though nothing could be done but to protect adjoining property by keeping down the fire. In a very short space of time there was nothing left but the walls, the rest having succumbed to the devouring element. The property had been vacant most of the time since Mr. Matlock moved to Portland, after a year ago, the only occupants since that time having been Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Walls who lived in the property a short time moving out the first of the present month. The origin of the fire is not known. The dwelling was insured for $800 in the Palatine Ins. Co., and this will probably cover the loss.

"We take pleasure in recommending Chamberlain's Cough Remedy because it is praised by all who try it," says J. W. Cox & Son, druggists, Marshfield, Oregon. One afflicted with a throat or lung trouble can use this remedy without praising it. It always gives prompt relief. It is especially valuable for colds as it relieves the lungs, makes breathing easier and aids expectoration. A cold will never result in pneumonia when this remedy is taken and reasonable care exercised. For sale by Slocum-Johnson Drug Co.

MUST BE HARVEST TIME.—"An aged matron of the forest," as we were wont to read about in school-days, but in reality a withered, old Columbia river "kloochman," planted herself on Minor & Co.'s sidewalk elevator the other day. The "Bad Boy" of the establishment saw a chance for some fun, and pretty soon the machine dropped a foot or so. For a time the atmosphere was full of squaw, red blanket and other "lojins" gawgaws. She didn't appreciate the joke very well, and wanted three dollars for mental and other damages, but her argument wasn't good. The crowd, like the average, however, thought it was royal sport, but no one enjoyed it more than the squaw's companion, a buxom lass of some twenty snows, who held one hand over her mouth and laughed a pain in her side at the incident.

E. Y. Judd Visits Heppner.—Last Tuesday evening E. Y. Judd dropped in from the outside and left Wednesday for Pendleton. Mr. Judd has been absent the greater part of the past six months, visiting across the Atlantic. He was in England, on the continent, and wintered in Egypt which he says is the finest winter climate he ever saw. He says that stipulated after stipuloid of foreign grown wool of fine texture is being shipped to the United States, articles which defy competition of American wool growers. He does not have a very flattering opinion of the future for our wool men, at least under present circumstances. The wool scouring mill at Pendleton, of which he was one of the chief promoters, is a success, and now that prices are low there is more of a demand than ever to ship less dirt and save money thereby.

A FORTUNE TELLER.—L. G. Sherry and W. O. Minor returned the first of the week from Canyon City, and report that their efforts came to naught because no petitioner for the road put in an appearance to go on as bondsmen. The bondsman is road matter must be one who signed the petition. Nothing can now be done till July and the work of getting the road through to the Mitchell section will be delayed too long to get the spring business of that section. However, Heppner should not relax her efforts.

Mr. T. S. Hawkins, Chattanooga, Tenn., says "Snyder's Vitalize saved my life." I consider it the best remedy for a debilitated system I ever used. It cures dyspepsia, liver or kidney trouble, etc. Price 75 cents. Sold by T. W. Ayers, Jr.

HON. W. R. ELLIS' LECTURE.—Mr. Ellis' lecture at the opera house Wednesday evening on the subject, "The Essentials of Good Citizenship," was greatly appreciated by a fair-sized audience. His entire talk was filled with so many good things and contained such an abundance of sound advice that it is to be regretted that more of the residents of this city, and especially the young men and women, did not hear it. Mr. Ellis said in part that good citizenship was not only essential for self, associate, friend and brother, but was also necessary to maintain and perpetuate our present form of government. Morality should be encouraged, and slang, profanity and intemperance stamped out. He paid a high tribute to ambition and energy and urged that it should enter into every walk of life. In concluding, Mr. Ellis said he very much regretted that he had not every boy and girl in the city as a part of his audience. It was then decided by a unanimous vote of those present that he be invited to talk to the young folks Saturday evening, May 4th, beginning at 7:30. No admission will be charged on this occasion, and Mr. Ellis should be greeted with a large house composed largely of our young people.

Benny Patterson returned last evening from a day's trout fishing out on Rhea creek with 96 trout, weighing 20 pounds. Sixteen fine representatives of the finny tribe, weighing 13 pounds and one of which was 17 inches long, were caught from one hole. This is the finest lot of fish yet caught this season.
