W. C. Atherton came in yesterday from Grant county.
The Niles-Vinson, Marble Works, Walla Walla, Wash.
Geo. Hayward is over from Monument to dispose of his wool.
Messrs. Boyd & Saling have enlarged their ice cream parlors.
Tom Boothby and sister came up Saturday from Lexington.
The Pioneer Association of Oregon will meet in Portland June 14th.
The Sunday school picnic last Saturday in Jones' grove was a success.

Rev. E. R. Beach, of Lexington, will preach in Heppner in the near future.
La Grande Marble Works, La Grande Ore. S. C. Smith, salesman, Heppner.
Philip Blahm, brother of Henry Blahm, arrived from Russell, Kans., last week.
Now is the time to kill squirrels; and Swaggart's "Sure Shot" is the stuff to do it with.
Try Ayers' squirrel poison before buying any other. Only $2.50 per dozen.

The Heppner Mitchell road matter should be kept alive and pushed to completion.
Miss Anna Hill and Chas. Johnson were callers at the Gazette office last Saturday.
Sunday Frank Wilmoth, Harry Warren and John McCarty left for the mines up in Okanogan.

A break on the Gazette's press last Tuesday and today has interfered with getting out on time.
Al Emerson went down to Portland Saturday last with two car-loads of Morrow county sheep.
If you want to rent a bicycle or get repairs for same, call on Ike Ennis at his bicycle livery, power house.
Heppner Tent of Macebees was organized last Friday evening by Deputy Supreme Commanders Limes and Bartlett.
W. L. Bartlett left for Pendleton yesterday, but Mr. Innes will remain a few days in the interest of the Macebees.

Chas. Johnson and John Mahoney, two Wyoming sheep buyers, came in yesterday and desire to make a shipment East.
Gibbons Bros., will soon go to the interior country to be absent until the latter part of this month. Await their return.
Misses Ivy and Elbry Swaggart came up yesterday from their home at Tub springs to visit relatives and friends in Heppner.

Press Cresswell made us happy yesterday by leaving his measure for our valuable journal. Our books are not full yet.
Our Heppner merchants are out for business this year and deserve patronage. Buy at home and keep your money at home.
J. E. Jones and John Jenkins were in from Eight Mile yesterday. These gentlemen do not seem to be discouraged over crop prospects.

Hon. W. R. Ellis, Miss Elizabeth Matlock, Mr. W. C. Brock and wife and Miss Ada Rhea were passengers on yesterday's down train.
C. C. Sargent went down to the Dalles Friday to visit his parents and other relatives, returning last night. He was accompanied by his little son.
E. Minor and Wm. Ayers returned Friday from a week's fishing trip to the Canas country. They were very successful, though the rain interfered some.

Shiloh's Cure, the great Cough and Croup Cure, is in great demand. Pocket size contains twenty-five doses only 25c. Children love it. Sold by T. W. Ayers, Jr.
Dave Campbell has been appointed chief of the fire department of Portland. Dave worked his way up from the very bottom of the ladder and deserves much credit.
Dr. B. F. and E. A. Vaughan leave next Monday for the interior country, and those needing work should come in at once. All work guaranteed to be of the finest quality.

T. W. Ayers, Jr., is making squirrel poison that he guarantees. No kill no pay, and sells it at 25 cents per can, 6 cans for $1.50; $2.50 per dozen. Get a sample and try it.
Mr. Lewis Hood, of Hillsboro, arrived Saturday on a visit to his brothers, Andrew and Ed. Mr. Hood is one of the solid men of Washington county and a most estimable citizen.
Frank Natter and Ernest Gilhousen, of Heppner, went down to Lexington on their wheels—nine miles—in 37 minutes last Saturday, and didn't rush either. They returned in 45 minutes.
Geo. Ely was up Monday from Douglas. He mother recently went back to Iowa on a visit to relative and friends, and during her absence George is running a bachelor's ranch.

E. H. Clarke, accompanied by his nephew, Harry Hays, came to Saturday from Pendleton. Mr. Clarke says that wool is selling at about the same prices at Pendleton as at Heppner.
John Baker came in Saturday from his place—nines miles just above the mouth of Potomac on the North Fork, bringing in nine ounces of duck, the result of eighteen days run. This gold is hard to mine.
Fred Becker, an experienced butcher from Portland, has accepted a position in Hayes & Matthews butcher shop, where he will serve the public in the best of style. Fresh meats and honest weight to everyone.

A race Friday between a horse and bicycles on Main street attracted quite a crowd. Harry McCreedy rode the p-ry while Ernest Gilhousen managed the wheel, both "standing start," the horse winning by a length.

In the spring, the human body needs assistance to throw off the stagnation produced by winter diet. As the temperature rises under the growing heat the sun's rays we feel tired, half sick and low in spirits, because the blood is stagnant and full of impurities. Dr. J. H. McLean's Strengthening Cordial and Blood Purifier is a reliable spring remedy to invigorate the body and give tone to the digestion. Price $1 per bottle.

Mrs. V. A. Stephens, of Hardman, is very ill with pneumonia. Some time ago she went down to Portland hoping for relief, but was pronounced incurable, and since her return has been stopping in Heppner, attended by her husband. Mr. Stephens informs our scribbler that she has been confined to her bed for the past six months.

Frank Shephard, an engineer on the Southern Pacific Ry., who resides at Los Angeles, Cal., was troubled with rheumatism for a long time. He was treated by several physicians, also visited the Hot Springs, but received no permanent relief. He used Chamberlain's Pain Balm. He says it is the best medicine in the world for rheumatism. For sale by Slocum-Johnson Drug Co.

Ben Hunsaker got in Friday last from a trip to Portland. While below he had his maimed shoulder examined by a competent physician who said nothing could be done surgically, that in time it would get better. Ben was hurt last winter by being thrown off his stage, while owner of the Heppner-Monument line.

Ike Ennis has a stock of bicycle repairs and will fix your wheel up at reasonable rates. He is his intention to make a specialty in this line, and as the number of wheels is rapidly increasing, this will certainly be pleasing news to those who are so fortunate as to own a bike.

From what the Gazette can learn, the fact that the Long Creek Pendleton road cannot be passed over without paying toll is working against Pendleton. The Heppner Long Creek road is the shorter, is in good condition and costs not a cent to travel over it.
E. O.: Rev. Frank C. Adkins, of Heppner, accompanied by Mrs. Adkins, Miss Adkins and Miss Lacy, are in the city to attend the district conference of the South M. E. church. John Horner, of Heppner, is a lay (e) delegate who is in the city.

Lost—Between the depot and town, last Saturday, a ladies' gold watch, with fob chain. The watch is blue enameled on both sides. Finder will be liberally rewarded by returning same to Miss Cora Hart at depot.
Mr. John Brown and wife, and nephew, A. W. Moore, and wife, accompanied by Miss Mollie Moore, came over yesterday from Lone Rock, and Mr. Moore, wife and sister leave today for the East where they will remain.

B. F. Swaggart is prepared to furnish his "Sure Shot" squirrel poison in wholesale lots. He has already received a large order from Washington and Idaho. Every where it has been used, it has not failed to exterminate the little pests.
The celebrated Kentucky Jack, Eagle, will stand the season at Willis Stewart's livery stable. Terms are reasonable and will be made known on application. See Pap Simons or Willis Stewart.
Karl's Clover Root will purify your blood, clear your complexion, regulate your bowels and make your head clear as a bell. 25c., 50c., and $1. Sold by T. W. Ayers, Jr.

Vane Hinton and Vines Kelly arrived Friday from Long Creek with wool. They had been on the road some twelve or fifteen days and had a very hard, disagreeable trip.
The G. A. K. will have a grand campfire and reunion at Lexington on the 3rd and 4th of Jul. All are invited to camp on ground.
Jay Devins met with a runaway last week while hitching his team to a back, and sustained three broken ribs before he could get matters straight again.

Our citizens should encourage the extension of the "long distance" telephone into Heppner. Without it we are behind our neighbors.
L. Heppner woke up and made an effort to get telephone connections with the main line, extending from Portland to Spokane.
Mr. Landsdale, the operator at Willows Junction, accompanied by his wife, spent Sunday with Wm. Dunn and family.

L. G. Atherton and Roland Kribbs pulled out for Dayton, on their wheels, early yesterday morning.
E. O.: Mrs. Jerry Cohn, of Heppner, a sister of Mrs. Mark P. John, is visiting in Pendleton.
Wanted—Laundry work by Mrs. C. Nelson, Old Mountain House, Mending neatly done.
Jas. McHaley and wife have moved to their John Day possessions for the summer.
D. R. Atherton arrived Saturday from Dayton, coming the entire distance by wagon.

When your heart pains you and unusual palpitation is frequent, accompanied sometimes with shortness of breath and low spirits you are suffering from a disordered state of the liver, digestion is imperfect and there is wind on the stomach. If allowed to remain the trouble will ultimately reach the kidneys and become dangerous to life. Steps should be taken to stay its progress on the appearance of the first symptoms. Dr. J. H. McLean's Liver and Kidney Balm is especially adapted for disorders of this kind. Price $1 per bottle.

CALLED TO PORTLAND.—Rev. W. E. Potwin, rector of the Church of the Redeemer, has been extended by the vestry of St. Mark's Protestant Episcopal of Portland, a unanimous call to that parish. St. Mark's was served by Rev. W. L. McLean, whose death occurred recently. Mr. Potwin has not yet officially notified his congregation and has been giving the call considerable thought for several days. St. Mark's is the second church in size and wealth among the protestant Episcopal churches of the region.—E. O.

S. H. Clifford, New Cassel, Wis., was troubled with neuralgia and rheumatism, his stomach was disordered, his liver was affected to an alarming degree, appetite failed and he was terribly reduced in flesh and strength. Three bottles of Electric Bitters cured him.
Edward Shepherd, Harrisburg, Ill., had a running sore on his leg of eight years' standing. Used three bottles of Electric Bitters and members of Backley's Anker Salve, and his leg is sound and well. John Speaker, Catawba, O., had five large fever sores on his leg, doctors said he was incurable. One bottle of Electric Bitters and one box Backley's Anker Salve cured him entirely. Sold by T. W. Ayers, Jr.

Dr. J. H. McLean's Strengthening Cordial and Blood Purifier is a reliable spring remedy to invigorate the body and give tone to the digestion. Price $1 per bottle.

SHE CLAIMS A MINE.

Bandit Evans' Daughter Eva Again Before the Public.
From the Examiner.
Eva Evans, daughter of the Fresno bandit, has brought a suit to recover an interest in a mine in the Fresno mountains which was owned by John Sontag, the partner of her father. The suit is brought on the ground that she was a widow of Sontag, and thus entitled to the interest of her husband, who was killed while being hunted down in the mountain chase two years ago.
Miss Evans married an actor, John Ellis, who played in the thrilling drama, "Evans and Sontag," in which the Evans family blossomed forth some time after Chris had been taken to the Folsom penitentiary. Ellis, by the way, played the role of John Sontag. The couple lived in Oakland, 1213 Eleventh avenue, for a time, but they recently moved to Visalia, where they now dwell. The fact that Eva claims to have been Sontag's widow is made a further bit of news in the fact that she married a namesake, Frank Evans, just before she became a member of the dramatic company. She was subsequently divorced from him, however, and then contracted the next alliance with Ellis.

"We take pleasure in recommending Chamberlain's Cough Remedy because it is praised by all who try it," says J. W. Cox & Son, druggists, Marshfield, Oregon. No one afflicted with a throat or lung trouble can use this remedy without praising it. It always gives prompt relief. It is especially valuable for colds as it relieves the lungs, makes breathing easier and aids expectoration. A cold will never result in pneumonia when this remedy is taken and reasonable care exercised. For sale by Slocum-Johnson Drug Co.

ONE OF THE MEN WHO WERE IN THE mountains cutting wood were compelled to leave on account of rain.
Mr. and Mrs. Bert Courter will please accept our best wishes for their welfare, and may their lives be happy and prosperous.
One of our correspondents, "J. D.," made some mistakes in regard to the officers of the W. C. T. U. After conferring with the secretary, corrections will be made in the near future.

Had we not better call an extra session of legislature to ascertain who owns the land, the farmers or the squirrels? The question is, what shall be done with the squirrels? They are getting very numerous, notwithstanding a great deal of poison has been used.

EIGHT MILE, Or., May 27, 1895.

REGULAR COUNCIL MEETING.—Council met in regular session last evening, all councilmen present and Mayor Morgan presiding. Minutes of the last regular meeting read and approved.
Report of recorder and treasurer read, referred to committee on finance, to report at next meeting.
Bills allowed: Thompson & Binn, $6, laid over; A. A. Roberts, $100; F. J. Hallock, $38.33; A. T. McVay $7.50, reduced $2.50; R. A. Ford, $4; Heppner Light & Water Co., $140; Heppner Transfer Co., $425, $1 laid over. Marshal reported 100,000 gallons of water in large reservoir on the first each of the months of May and June.
Ordinance licensing Chinese laundries, read third time and passed unanimously.
Ordinance No. 61, on solicitors, referred to the committee on ordinances.
The matter of an additional public watering-trough referred to the committee on streets and public property.
The matter of draining the street at the junction of Main and Willow streets was referred to the street commissioner.
On motion, the marshal was instructed to keep bicyclists off the sidewalks. Council adjourned.

Piles! Piles! Itching Piles.
Symptoms.—Moisture; intense itching and stinging; most at night; worse by scratching. If allowed to continue tumors form, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore. SWAYNE'S OINTMENT stops the itching and bleeding, heals ulceration, and in most cases removes the tumors. At druggists, or by mail, for 50 cents. Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia.

CHANCE OF BUSINESS.—H. A. Emerson and Johnny Hager, both well known in this city, have purchased the entire interest and good will of J. F. Spray in the butcher business, formerly conducted in Heppner. These gentlemen will continue business at the old Liberty Meat Market, west side lower Main street, where they respectfully solicit the patronage of all, and where will at all times be kept a fresh supply of meats, sausage, corn beef, lard, fish, etc. 41 41.

TRAM WANTED.—I want to buy a good, gentle team of about 1200 pound horses. Also a good, second-hand wagon and harness and a gentle saddle pony. Have some good, young Short-horn bulls for sale; also the poultry and eggs for hatching. Took first prize on my cattle and fowls at State fair last year. Call at the J. C. Wilson place above Heppner.

THIS MAN... HAS STRUCK BOTTOM!

That is what our competitors have to say of Minor & Co.

That there is nothing left to cut on—that they have reached the bottom on everything.

WE CLAIM to carry the largest and best selected stock to be found in this city. No Cheap-John goods kept in stock, you can find them elsewhere.

We boast on the quantity and quality we handle, but as to our own honesty we have nothing to say; we are like the rest of the human race, born to cheat, misrepresentation and fraud.

Talking Through His Hat!

The man who talks through his hat is everywhere in evidence—in every objectionable evidence it is, too, in most cases.

The man of intelligence covers his cranium with one of T. R. HOWARD'S fine straw hats, which is in itself a sign of prosperity and good taste.

He also buys his groceries, gent's furnishings, stockmen's supplies, etc., at T. R. HOWARD'S. Mr. Howard makes a specialty in those things required by sheep and cattlemen.

Remember the place—HEPPNER BLOCK, Main St., Four doors south of the City hotel.
