THE Gazette is thankful to State Printer Leeds for a copy of the session laws of 1895.

JUDGE M. D. CLIFFORD, of Canyon City, has been elected grand master of the A. F. & A. M., of Oregon.

THE Gazette is under obligations to the Chautauqua people for complimentary tickets to their gathering at Oregon City, July 10 to 19, 1895.

SENATOR CARTER says: "It is needless to inquire whether the republican party is going to take notice of the silver question. That question is becoming as wide as commerce and absolutely irrepresible."

IF THE free coiners don't watch out, the good times will overwhelm them before the next election.—Salem Statesman. In that case we will all admit that the Wilson bill has done it and all vote for Cleveland again.

THE silver convention at Memphis adopted ringing resolutions. An effort to bring all bimetalists into the silver party failed, as the majority were in favor of making the fight for silver within the lines of present party organizations.

THE Oregonian believes in fighting the goldbugs on their own dunghill, and therefore would advise the members of the respective parties to stay where they are and fight it out. To leave your party now is to surrender to the gold bugs and give them the solid ranks against a rabble.

THE Oregonian says that Idaho ought to be reduced to territorial conditions and ruled with a troop of cavalry. The principal reason why the Oregonian is so hard on Idaho is that it is a silver state—all ar for free coinage over there. It is a common thing for Oregon's big newspaper to abuse Idaho and Nevada. How some people want to rule the earth! Such should be given a country and a crown.

THE infallible Arlington Record, "a paper" of Eastern Oregon that defends Oregonianism, complains that the Gazette is wrong in stating that the production of gold is on the decrease, and goes on to state that the director of the mint says that in the year 1894, $3,500,000 more gold were mined than in 1893. The Gazette said nothing about the year '94, but had in mind reliable estimates of the fiscal year up to June 1, 1895, which show a falling off in gold production. In 1890 the population of the United States was 23,191,876 and that year this country mined $50,000,000 in gold, while in 1894 with a population of over 65,000,000 there were only $39,500,000 worth of gold mined, taking the Arlington Record man's figures for it as being correct, and we find on investigation that they are. Assuming that the year 1895 will show up equally as well in the production of gold as the year 1894, can our people then see any hope for them in the business world by the continuation of the single standard? Now that gold has thrust upon it double work as a money of ultimate redemption, with the amount far short of that produced in 1890 with a population three times as large, it is no wonder that it has become more in demand and has appreciated in purchasing power. This proposition is so plain that even one who is "looney" cannot help but see it. The Gazette would further suggest that the Record's criticisms would be just as weighty if couched in more respectful language. The Gazette allows others to think as they please without believing that they are crazy or a set of fools—the Gazette has opinions of its own and will express them, and back them, too, if need be.

When your heart pains you and unusual palpitation is frequent, accompanied sometimes with shortness of breath and low spirits you are suffering from a disordered state of the liver, digestion is imperfect and there is wind on the stomach. If allowed to remain the trouble will ultimately reach the kidneys and become dangerous to life. Steps should be taken to stay its progress on the appearance of the first symptoms. Dr. J. H. McLean's Liver and Kidney Balm is especially adapted for disorders of this kind. Price $1 per bottle.

SCHOOL TEACHERS CHOSEN.—At the called meeting of the school board last Saturday, the directors of school district No. 1, Heppner, selected the following teachers for the ensuing year: F. M. Overner, of Illinois, principal; Misses May Bailey, Addie Jones and Addie Conlee, same positions as held last year; Miss McIntosh, of Pendleton, primary. The principal will receive $100 per month and the assistants $50 each, term six months. The board authorized the school clerk, Mr. J. J. Roberts, to advertise for bids to furnish 50 cords of wood for the coming year, bids to be opened on July 10th, and wood to be delivered on or before Oct. 1, 1895. The janitor's wages were reduced at this meeting from $25 to $20 per month.

Everywhere We Go We find some one who has been cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla, and people on all hands are praising this great medicine for what it has done for them and their friends. Taken in time Hood's Sarsaparilla prevents serious illness by keeping the blood pure and all the organs in a healthy condition. It is the great blood purifier.

Hood's Pills become the favorite cathartic with every one who tries them. 25c per box.

TELEPHONE CONNECTIONS.—Heppner people should wake up and take some interest in the extension of the telephone line into Heppner. If it looks like a good investment, the "Long Distance" company will construct the line into Heppner. In the event of the completion of the line into this place, we can then talk to all points in Grant county just as easily as Pendleton. To our merchants it is a business proposition, and as we have allowed Pendleton to best us in enterprise we should not be slow to grasp this last chance to hold our own. Will our board of trade call a meeting to agitate the building of this line? It should be done.

Mrs. Moore Was Sinking---Paine's Celery Compound Made Her Well.

The people have given their verdict! Every state, county and most humble village has had a voice in it. There is a consensus of testimony from all America to the fact that Paine's celery compound is making sick, tired out, nervous men and women well and strong again. There have been published by thousands in every state in the country testimonials from people in every station of life in those states telling of the many, many cases where this greatest of all remedies has made people well. The Gazette has published the uncollected testimony of well known and highly esteemed people in Morrow county who have found health and strength in the remedy that was first prescribed by Prof. Edward Phelps, M. D., L. L. D., of Dartmouth college. Men and women of national reputation have written thankful letters on the same subject, which have been published the world over, and have called forth unasked for responsive letters from equally prominent men and women in other lands. Below is a letter that commends itself to every woman in Morrow county. It was voluntarily written to Wells, Richardson & Co. by a lady whose portrait, given above, is assurance of her high character and honest disposition. She is a picture of womanly health. She is Mrs. Robert M. Moore, of Laporte, Ind., and she writes: "Please accept my heartfelt thanks for the great good Paine's celery compound has done me. I do think that there cannot be too much said in its favor. I was completely run down a year ago, and had the advice and attendance of two of the best physicians in the town, who pronounced my sickness nervous prostration. I was treated by one for two weeks, and then went to another and at first he seemed to help me, but after a while instead of getting better I went from bad to worse. "At the earnest solicitation of two of my children and a dear friend, who was very much interested in my case, I commenced to take Paine's celery compound and took seven bottles, and am thankful to say that I am a well woman today. Considering the low state of health in which I was, my cure has been pronounced wonderful. You can use this communication as you see fit." For recovery from the effects of too constant indoor work, worry, over-exertion of body or mind, and for the general depressed state of health that is so apt to result from a sedentary life of hard work and routine, Paine's celery compound is the one strictly accurate relief. It refreshes and restores worn-out tissues, disposes the body to take on new flesh, and rapidly clears the system of the used-up elements that clog its healthy working. Dreading indoor workers who seldom get a long breath of fresh air—and there are many such, both men and women—recover vigor of the nerves and vital organs through the use of Paine's celery compound.

Fred Grant, in New York.
It is now a misdemeanor for a child under fifteen years of age to jump from a moving train within the corporate limits of St. Louis.

WEAPONS INDIANS FEAR.

They Don't Like to Face Telescopic Sights and Heavy Bullets. "Indians sometimes face light firearms with great courage, but they fight shy of the attentions of any weapon that sends a large projectile," said Col. F. A. Blake, who has had wide experience on the western plains. "The rush and scream of the heavy bullets frightens them, and they prefer to keep away from their range. To that not unreasonable prejudice is due the fact that the buffalo hunters of the early '70s, who in following their business were constantly exposed to the attacks of hostile Indians, were molested comparatively little by them. The long, heavy rifle, with its telescopic sights and the knowledge of the deadly certainty of the buffalo hunter's aim, almost invariably served to make the red man keep his distance, and set him temporarily free from the notion of scalp hunting. "One buffalo hunter by the name of Mardock, that I knew, was creeping upon a herd on the Staked Plain when he spotted a band of Comanches riding toward him. He instantly leveled his gun upon them as a warning that the hunter should not approach too near. Checking his warriors, the chief of the band pointed with his hand to a buffalo in the distant herd, then mentioned in the Indian language that the hunter should shoot it. Mardock fired as the chief indicated and the buffalo fell. The Indians gave a loud "How" of approval, waived their hands, turned their ponies and swept on past the hunter, leaving him to pursue his shooting of the buffalo unmolested."
