

TIME TABLE.

Stage for Hardman, Monument, Long Creek, John Day and Canyon City, leaves as follows: Every day at 6 a. m., except Sunday. Arrives every day at 6 p. m., except Monday. The cheapest, quickest and best line to or from the interior country.

W. L. THOMPSON, Prop. Phil Cohn, Agent. You can get the best beer in Heppner at G. B. Tedrow's, 5 cents per glass.

If you want the finest liquors, cigars, etc., call at Ted's City Hotel Bar!

Here and There. Millions ride the Rambler. The Ennis has bicycles to rent. A cool resort, Boyd & McDowell's.

Wm. Brown came in from London Friday last. Ayers guarantees his poison. Only $2.50 per dozen.

The Niles-Vinson, Marble Works, Walla Walla, Wash. A. P. Bradbury, the cracker man, Sundayed in Heppner.

Chas. E. Fell made proof on his homestead today before Clerk Morrow. La Grande Marble Works, La Grande Ore. S. C. Smith, salesman, Heppner.

Born—To the wife of Jake Pearson, on the 14th inst., on Butter creek, a boy. Now is the time to kill squirrels; and Swaggart's "Sure Shot" is the stuff to do it with.

Try Ayers' squirrel poison before buying any other. Only $2.50 per dozen. Nellie Forwood is up from The Dalles visiting her relatives in this neighborhood.

For Sale—A lot of household furniture and an organ. Call at the M. E. parsonage. Wanted—Laundry work by Mrs. C. Nelson, old Mountain House. Mending neatly done.

Oscar Minor was unfortunate in losing a fine, thoroughbred Shorthorn bull last Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. A. Andrews and daughter, Miss Minnie, were in from Alpine yesterday and today.

Lost—A $3 cal. pistol. Finder will be rewarded by returning the same to Leslie Matlock, Heppner. Towards the mountains last Friday and Saturday nights frost did considerable damage to gardens.

If you want to rent a bicycle or get repairs for same, call on Ike Ennis at his bicycle livery, power house. Wm. Farrer got in from Dayville Saturday with a big band of cattle which were shipped at this point.

W. R. Mellick, of Cutbank, Montana, arrived last week to receive the big shipment of cattle Sunday. When irrigation is at its height up the creek, the mill flame goes dry, not leaving enough water for sprinkling purposes.

Billy Robbins, formerly of Long Creek is traveling with a phonograph and is entertaining Heppner people this week. Gilhouse Bros., will soon go to the inner country to be absent until the latter part of this month. Await their return.

The Parrish creek road matter should not be allowed to die. It should be completed in time for next season's trade. Have you read "Coin's Financial School" and his other books? If not you should see Don Carlos Boyd and get them.

Clarence Noble fell off a horse, out at his father's McKinney creek ranch, Saturday last, breaking one bone of his left arm near the wrist. Mr. Walker, the well-known stockbuyer, was severely kicked in the head a few days ago down at Portland, and it is thought he cannot live.

Tom Crow made a hundred mile ride Saturday night and Sunday to get a tooth pulled, coming from the Middle Fork of the John Day. Miss Anna Baisger, school superintendent, will be absent from her office for the next two weeks visiting the schools in the mountain districts.

James Maloney was badly injured in the Monument tunnel, near Sasauville, last week, one leg being badly broken as a consequence amputation. T. W. Ayers, Jr., left on yesterday's train for Portland, and will represent Heppner Lodge No. 63, A. F. & A. M., at their grand lodge meeting this week.

New stock of working gloves in sheep, goat, buck and calf. Just received and for sale by F. C. Thompson Company. Prices from 40 cents per pair upward. 21 For sale—A fine, Short Horn grade bull, four years old. Price, $25. Or will trade for other cattle. Address Harrison Chapin, Hardman, Or. 2-1m.

Shiloh's Cure, the great Cough and Croup Cure, is in great demand. Pocket size contains twenty-five doses only 25c. Children love it. Sold by T. W. Ayers Jr. A. M. Cree started his drive of 5,000 sheep, Wyomingward yesterday. He will pick up a few bunches along the road, making in all a bunch of 7,000 head.

Grid Hat's manager is minus a black bear cub, it having climbed out of the enclosure and made its escape one day last week. No doubt the finder would be liberally rewarded. Captain Sweeney, U. S. A., San Diego, Cal. says: "Shiloh's Catarrh Remedy is the first medicine I have ever found that would do me any good." Price 50c. T. W. Ayers, Jr.

Twenty nice carloads of cattle were shipped out of Heppner Sunday, destination Montana. These were made up of the Gilliam and Grant county cattle, brought in late last week. The least wool clip is about 11 m, but considerable wool is expected in from the John Day. John Ambrose and others came in with Mr. Ambrose's clip yesterday, and others on the road.

The railroad rates to the Oregon City Chautauque are 1 1/2 fare on Southern Pacific and 1-1/2 on O. R. & N. lines. Or fare from Portland, 25 cents for round trip; Oregon City, 5 cents. Orin L. Patterson arrived from Portland last evening, accompanied by his wife, and son, Ott, Jr., whom he met at Pendleton on their return from an extended visit to relatives in Indiana.

Fossil Journal: L. M. Lacey sent out word from Arlington by Thursday's stage to Bettie & Patterson and A. G. Ogilvie to drive their wagon sleep to Heppner instead of Grants, as he had learned there was a poisonous weed on the route to the other station.

In the spring, the human body needs assistance to throw off the stagnation produced by winter diet. As the temperature rises under the growing heat the sun's rays we feel tired, half sick and low in spirits, because the blood is sluggish and full of impurities. Dr. J. H. McLean's Strengthening Cordial and Blood Purifier is a reliable spring remedy to invigorate the body and give tone to the digestion. Price $1 per bottle.

Sunday last Sullivan & Co., represented by Mr. Mahoney, manager, outfit for their long sheep drive to Wyoming. Albert Res, Ed. Drickell and Nick Willingham will go along with the outfit. They all pulled out yesterday morning, and will soon have the 7,000 slowly moving towards their destination.

Frank Sheperdson, an engineer on the Southern Pacific Ry., who resides at Los Angeles, Cal., was troubled with rheumatism for a long time. He was treated by several physicians, but received no permanent relief until he used Chamberlain's Pain Balm. He says it is the best medicine in the world for rheumatism. For sale by Slocum-Johnson Drug Co.

Sheriff Geo. Harrington got back Saturday from Salem. Marshal Johnson, the unfortunate young man who he accompanied to the asylum, went down without trouble, though he is badly demented. Justice Freeland, who went along with Mr. Harrington, will visit relatives at Halsey before his return.

Dr. J. H. McLean's Strengthening Cordial and Blood Purifier is admirably adapted to make "a little health go a long way." Its curative power is largely attributable to its stimulant, tonic and nutritive properties, by which the energy of the system is recruited. It is pleasant to the taste, easily borne on the stomach and harmless under prolonged use. Price $1.00 per bottle.

Died—In Heppner, Saturday, June 15, 1895, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Tilden, aged about 6 months. The child had been ill for some time and its death was not unexpected. The interment occurred Sunday in the Heppner cemetery. The sympathy of all is extended to the bereaved.

The Gazette in its last issue forgot to say that the young people of the Epworth League cleared about $20, as the result of the entertainment given by them. The play was most successfully repeated on Tuesday evening of last week, in many respects more successfully than the first night.

Ike Ennis has a stock of bicycle repairs and will fix your wheel up at reasonable rates. It is his intention to make a specialty in this line, and as the number of wheels is rapidly increasing, this will certainly be pleasing news to those who are so fortunate as to own a bike.

Geo. Ely is up from Douglas with his cousin, E. E. Ely, who, while climbing out of a well yesterday down at Mr. C. J. Wilson's, near Douglas, fell some ten feet, cutting his head badly. Dr. McSwords took a few stitches in the wound and he will doubtless get well soon.

The readers of the Gazette will see that Heppner merchants are out for business. They ought to be patronized by our home people, to the exclusion of those who pay no taxes and do nothing towards helping build up the community.

Rev. J. M. Denison returned Friday last from the Hood River conference. He will take a place in the valley conference for the coming year. His many friends regret that Heppner must lose the presence of himself and charming family.

Harry Bagley, who is completing John Horner's Canyon school, will complete his labors next Saturday, at the close of which he will visit for a short season with his relatives and friends at Hillsboro.

On July 2, 3 and 4 the O. R. & N. will sell tickets to any point within 300 miles one fare for round trip. Tickets expire at midnight of the 6th prox. This is a splendid opportunity to travel on business or pleasure.

Boone Mulkey arrived about a week ago, and has been confined to his room, down at the Central house, with dropsy ever since. Yesterday he left for Portland for treatment.

B. F. Swaggart is prepared to furnish his "Sure Shot" squirrel poison in wholesale lots. He has already received a large order from Washington and Idaho. Every where it has been used, it has not failed to exterminate the little pests.

President Conner, of the Heppner board of trade, wishes the members and all interested to meet tomorrow evening at the council chambers to settle up the Parish creek road matter, and to consider new business. All come.

The Dallas Paper: Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Johnston, who have been residing at Heppner for the last few years, removed to Dallas during the week, where Mr. Johnston will engage in business.

Hon. J. B. Huntington passed through Heppner last week on his way to Salem. He will return in a few days, accompanied by his daughter, who has been attending school down there.

A. Beard and Mr. Parsons, accompanied by Byron Barnard and others, came to Friday with a big lot of cattle for shipment to Montana. They were in splendid condition.

The G. A. H. will have a grand campfire and reunion at Lexington on the 3rd and 4th of July. A. M. Cree is invited to attend. Come prepared to attend. He camp on ground.

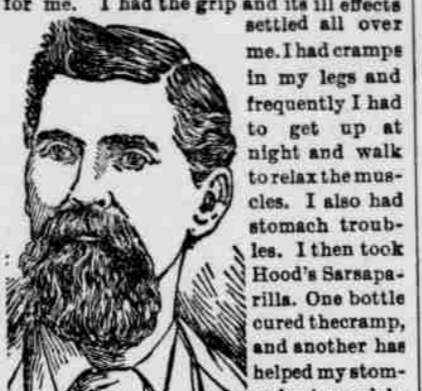

John Hays came in from his Lone Rock sheep ranch last week. He has completed his shearing and has his band in the mountains for the summer. Backler's Arnica Salve. The best salve in the world for cuts, Bruises, Sores, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Fever Sores, Itch, Chapped Hands, Chilblains, Corns, and all skin eruptions, and positively Cures Piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by T. W. Ayers, Jr.

Billy Barrett Sundayed in Heppner. His sheep was up in the mountains on summer feed. Volney McHaley arrived yesterday morning from Hamilton and left on the afternoon train.

Business Note. Persons who are subject to attacks of bilious colic will be pleased to know that prompt relief may be had by taking Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It acts quickly and can always be depended upon. In many cases the attack may be prevented by taking this remedy as soon as the first indication of the disease appears. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Slocum-Johnson Drug Co.

McFarland Mercantile Co. will pay cash for wheat, barley, hides and pelts. Farmers should call and see them.

I Am Glad

To tell what Hood's Sarsaparilla has done for me. I had the grip and its ill effects settled all over me. I had cramps in my legs and frequently I had to get up at night and walk to relax the muscles. I also had stomach troubles. I then took Hood's Sarsaparilla. One bottle cured the cramp, and another has helped my stomach each trouble.

THIS MAN...

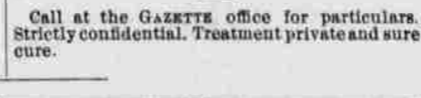

... HAS STRUCK BOTTOM! That is what our competitors have to say of Minor & Co. That there is nothing left to cut on—that they have reached the bottom, on everything.

WE CLAIM to carry the largest and best selected stock to be found in this city. No Cheap-John goods kept in stock, you can find them elsewhere.

We boast on the quantity and quality we handle, but as to our own honesty we have nothing to say; we are like the rest of the human race, born to cheat, misrepresentation and fraud.

Talking Through His Hat! The man who talks through his hat is everywhere in evidence—very objectionable evidence it is, too, in most cases. The man of intelligence covers his cranium with one of T. R. HOWARD'S fine straw hats, which is in itself a sign of prosperity and good taste. He also buys his groceries, gent's furnishings, stockmen's supplies, etc., at T. R. HOWARD'S.
