Fossil Journal: Wm. Rattie reached Heppner on the 18 h with the 1400 mutou sheep sold to Lucy Bron. By Rattie & Patterson and A. G. Ogilvie. Not one was lost in the drive from Fossil, and all arrived in good condition. Lucy shipped a train load from Heppner. Chas White taking two cars of it for a bunch he shipped to Chicago on his own account. Frank Lacey said they did very well on the previous train load, which was shipped from The Dalles.

There are many accidents to live stock which cause delay and loss to the farmer in his work. In a large number of instances the delay would be but trifling if a remedy was promptly applied. Dr. J. H. McLean's Volcanic Oil Liniment has for many years been regarded as the farmers' friend. Its healing influence on the flesh of domestic animals is immediate and permanent. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle.

We learn that J. L. Beymer met with a very serious accident out at Mallory's mill on Rook creek the latter part of last week. Mr. Beymer, while conversing with a friend, forgot that he was sitting on the table where the slab saw operates, and leaning back came in contact with the saw and was terribly lacerated. However, the wound was carefully dressed and at last accounts he was resting easy and will no doubt recover.

There comes a time to all of us, when we feel mean and "out of sorts" and in a condition to invite disease. It is then we need such a remedy as Dr. J. H. McLean's Strengthening Cordial and Blood Purifier. To persons exhausted by sickness or over-work its invigorating influence is surprising, promptly restoring health, energy and cheerful spirits. Price $1.00 per bottle.

Dan Horner returned last Monday evening from Sacramento where he has been employed for two months past. Dan reports times in that section of California even worse than here, and says Heppner is good enough for him. He will probably go in business here again.

Ike Ennis has a stock of bicycle repairs and will fix your wheel up at reasonable rates. It is his intention to add a specialty in this line, and as the number of wheels is rapidly increasing, this will certainly be pleasing news to those who are so fortunate as to own a bike.

TRANSCRIPT FILED.—The case of J. B. Eddy, railroad commissioner, against H. R. Kincaid, secretary of state, is now in the supreme court on appeal. The transcript was filed last Wednesday and there is a stipulation of parties that the case may be taken up out of its order. The court is engaged on some Pendleton cases now and so soon as those are disposed of, it is likely arguments will be heard on this case, so as to get it out of the way.

Cure for Headache.
As a remedy for all forms of Headache Electric Bitters has proved to be the very best. It effects a permanent cure and the most dreaded habitual sick headaches yield to its influence. We urge all who are afflicted to procure a bottle, and give this remedy a fair trial. In cases of habitual constipation Electric Bitters cures by giving the needed tone to the bowels, and few cases long resist the use of this medicine. Try once. Large bottles only fifty cents at T. W. Ayers, Jr., drug store.

THE OLD SILVER DOLLAR.—How dear to our heart is the old silver dollar, when some kind subscriber presents it to us; the liberty head without necktie or collar, and all the strange things that seem to us so new; the wide spreading eagle, the arrows below it, the stars and the words with strange things they tell; the coin of our fathers, we're glad that we know it, for some time or other 'twill come in right well—the spread eagle dollar, the star spangled dollar, the old silver dollar we all love so well.

The Discovery Saved His Life.
Mr. Callonette, Drugist, Beaverville, Ill., says: "To Dr. King's New Discovery I owe my life. Was taken with La Grippe and tried all the prescriptions for mine about, but of no avail and was given up and told I could not live. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in my store I sent for a bottle and began its use and from the first dose began to get better, and after using three bottles was up and about again. It is worth its weight in gold. We won't keep store or house without it." Get a free trial at T. W. Ayers, Jr., drug store.

THE COMPANIES KICK.—Charles Cunningham, the big sheep owner who suffered a severe loss by recent fires, estimated at $35,000 or more, has received notification that the several companies holding insurance upon his damaged property deny in all, or part, liability. Representatives of the Home Mutual Insurance company, Fire Association Pacific company, Hartford Fire Insurance company have filed notice to this effect, on the ground of misrepresentation in obtaining insurance. The fact that several fires of incendiary and not accidental origin preceded those of a few weeks ago, and this knowledge was material to the risk, is the objection upon which the denial is based. Mr. Cunningham will bring suit against the several companies for the recovery of his insurance.

Lost Strayed or Stolen.
A bay mare, six years old, branded with a W, has a young foal. Was last seen near Heppner and Harney. Five dollars reward will be paid for her return to E. J. KERRY, Heppner, Oregon.

CURRENT PLEASANTRIES.

She—You western cowboys have a thirst for blood all the time, don't you?
He (with a corkscrew)—Oh, no, ma'am. We change it sometimes.—Detroit Free Press.
"I understand that a fellow has to know a lot to get into office under the District government," said the young man.
"Ye-e-s," said the old employee. "It's a good idea for him to know considerable, provided he doesn't tell any of it."
—Washington Star.

The Judge—Have you any reason to offer why sentence should not be pronounced upon you?
The Prisoner—I ain't got much to say, but it's right to the p'nt. When I shot the feller I was only doin' it fer fun; an' here you fellers are wantin' to hang me in cold-blooded malice, so you air.—Indianapolis Journal.

"I trust," began the seedy customer, argumentatively.
"I don't," responded the grocer, decisively.
Somehow the conversation languished after that.—Albany Argus.

"I'm going now; yes, I'm going, going," murmured Steiger.
"What an excellent auctioneer you'd make," said the heartless but tired Miss Nycegirl.—Boston Courier.

"There's nothing worse in the world than ostentation," said Garraway.
"Oh, yes, there is," said Gorse. "Bostontation is much worse."
"What is Bostontation?"
"Ostentation plus Boston," said Gorse.—Harper's Bazar.

Employer—I don't see why you should ask me to pay you more money; you do no more work than formerly.
Typewriter—No, sir; but I have a husband to support now.—Puck.
"Mrs. Brown never sits up to wait for her husband."
"No?"
"No. When she expects him to be out late she retires early, sets the alarm at 3 o'clock, and gets up, refreshed and reproachful."—Life.

That Tired Feeling.
Is a common complaint and it is a dangerous symptom. It means that the system is debilitated because of impure blood, and in this condition it is especially liable to attacks of disease. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the remedy for this condition, and also for that weakness which prevails at the change of season, climate or life.

Hood's Pills act easily, yet promptly and efficiently on the bowels and liver. 25c.

CAUSE OF MATHIES' DEATH.—E. L. E. White, editor of the East Portland Chronicle, who was also a member of the executive committee of the O. P. A., and one of three who accompanied H. G. Mathies to Newport recently, attributes the indirect cause of his death to eating rock oysters while over at Yaquina bay at that time. The oysters were out of season, at which time they are dangerous to health, but this fact does not seem to be known to lovers of the oyster. Mr. Mathies was predisposed to Bright's disease, and his partaking of the oysters appears to have aggravated the disease.

However, Mr. Mathies was the most robust of the party and it seems strange that he should be the first to succumb to the effects. A singular effect of his illness also was total blindness ensuing about 10 days before death took place, though he was cheerful under this great affliction and clung to the hope of recovery. Mr. Mathies' funeral occurred last Tuesday under the auspices of Newcomb Lodge, K. of P. The Portland City Press Club also attended it.

I Prize Hood's Sarsaparilla
Sarsaparilla more than any remedy I have ever taken. I have never been robust and was subject to severe headaches, and had no appetite. Since taking Hood's Sarsaparilla and Hood's Pills I am a well woman, have a good appetite and sleep well. I cordially recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla. MRS. S. M. GORHAM, Fillmore House, Fillmore, California.

Hood's Pills cure all liver ills, biliousness, headache, etc.

Main Street, Heppner, Or

Don't Pass It By!
Never pass a good thing. Always take advantage of legitimate opportunities to make the most out of everything, which applies to a purchase of drugs, medicines, etc., down at T. W. Ayers Drug Store. Just opened for the inspection of the public one of the finest lines of toilet articles, perfumery notions, and the like, ever seen in Heppner. Ayers has anything and everything in endless profusion filled day and night.
Heppner Building, next door to T. R. Howard's.
T. W. AYERS, Jr., Heppner, Oregon.

TRAM WANTED.—I want to buy a good, gentle team of about 1200 pound horses. Also a good, second-hand wagon and harness and a gentle saddle pony. Have some good, young Short-horn bulls for sale; also fine poultry and eggs for hatching. Took first prize on my cattle and fowls at State fair last year. Call at the J. Q. Wilson place above Heppner. N. C. MARSH, 37-51.

The editor of the Gold Hill Miner is a bachelor with considerable pretensions, and the young ladies of that enterprising burg the other night assulted his residence. Bro. Roberts had conveniently absent himself, however, and the succeeding party was disappointed.—Jacksonville Times. The above refers to T. K. Roberts, who was in the employ of the Gazette during the summer of 1892.

The following advertisement appeared in an Aurora paper last week: "Wanted—A second-hand bicycle, by a young lady with a leather seat." The Woodburn Independent says: "We know a number of ladies in Aurora, but have never seen one that answers the above description."
