Here and There.

Millions ride the Rambler. Ike Ennis has bicycles to rent. Ayers guarantees his poison. Only $2.50 per dozen.

Oregon is not being overlooked by the latest "epidemic" this season. The syndicate show is now in the state, having shown at the Dalles last Saturday, and the great Wallace show is advertised for the same place on August 1st.

County Superintendent Anna J. Balsiger returned from a 17 days' trip visiting the mountain and adjoining school districts. She reports the schools in a flourishing condition, the attendance and interest good and teachers showing an enthusiastic and progressive spirit.

The tongue of the scandal monger is now busy in Heppner. How so many people can find pleasure in defaming, traducing, reproaching and disgracing the name of anyone is a mystery.

There are many accidents to live stock which cause delay and loss to the farmer in his work. A large number of these accidents are the result of a remedy which was promptly applied.

John W. Landy, formerly night operator at Arlington, but at present assistant cashier in the Arlington National bank, and Miss Grace E. Bedford, daughter of J. W. Bedford, of the Hotel Grande, were united in marriage last Tuesday evening.

The Gazette office receives requests for back numbers of the paper containing some particular land or mining decision. These decisions are published regularly, but it is impossible for us to find some unless dates are furnished.

There comes a time to all of us, when we feel mean and "out of sorts" and in a condition to invite disease. It is then we need such a remedy as Dr. J. H. McLean's Strengthening Cordial and Blood Purifier.

It is reported that Rocky Mountain Smith, the tourist printer who has tramped all over the United States at least, and who has several times visited Heppner, has decided to start a democratic paper at Prineville.

Ed J. Stanton and W. W. Brannan were in from the Eight Mile country yesterday. For Sale—A lot of household furniture and an organ. Call at the M. E. parsonage.

Al Hale came over from the Pilot Rock country and spent the Fourth in this city. Call on Minor & Co., we are the leaders. We handle more goods than all the rest combined.

Ed J. Stanton accompanied his wife below last Friday where she goes for medical treatment. The Ennis returned Saturday evening from a brief visit with home folks down at Hillsboro.

Minor & Co. received nine cars of freight last month and have in transit 10 cars more. Price Florence writes up from Portland that his wife is not improving as rapidly as he had hoped.

Minor & Co. buy for cash and sell the same, do not charge you a commission to pay for poor accounts. Wanted—Plain or fancy sewing. Will go to the house or take sewing at home.

Woman may laugh in her sleeve more comfortable than ever but she cannot look over her shoulder any more. Minor & Co., the reducers of prices, have made some extra good buys. Call and see what we can do for you.

Wm. Duns and family and Miss Belle O'Brien enjoyed the Fourth down at the Dalles, returning last evening. Judge Freeland is moving into the Boyd property above the power house which he recently purchased.

A. J. Spencer, an old-time Heppnerite, who has been absent for sometimes, returned to Heppner the latter part of last week. Gillhouse Bros. will soon go to the inner country to be absent until the latter part of this month. Await their return.

Green Mathews for shaving, hair-cutting, shampooing and all other work in that line. Baths at any time during business hours. By going straight to headquarters you are sure of getting the lowest prices and saving you the trouble of looking over town. Minor & Co.

RETURNED WITH A WIFE.—Mr. Ous Williamson returned home last Friday evening from a brief visit with Kansas friends, bringing with him a wife, much to the surprise of his many Heppner friends.

While in Stockton, Cal., sometime ago, Thos. F. Lougan, of Los Banos, that state, was taken very severely with cr-mus and diarr-rea. He chanced to meet Mr. C. M. Carter, who was similarly ill.

A PAINFUL ACCIDENT.—While returning from the dance given last Thursday night up near Parker's mill, where the mountain celebration was held, Miss Elsie Smith, of Hardman, met with a very painful accident.

It is reported that Rocky Mountain Smith, the tourist printer who has tramped all over the United States at least, and who has several times visited Heppner, has decided to start a democratic paper at Prineville.
