Disorders in the liver and kidneys are responsible for many of the ailments of humanity, which, when neglected, develop into serious and often fatal maladies. Prudence would suggest the prompt use of Dr. J. H. McLean's Liver and Kidney Balm to remove the disorder as soon as possible, and restore the diseased organs to healthy and vigorous action. Price $1.00 per bottle.

Some sneak thief entered the stores of Slocum & Willis and Leezer Bros. Wednesday night. The cash drawers were torn out of the counters in a vicious manner but the thief got little pay for his trouble, there being nothing in them. Some little articles were missed from the shelves at each place, but as cash seemed to be what the fellow wanted nothing else of value was disturbed. An effort to break into C. S. Van Dym's place failed as his door was bolted too securely. We state above that the fellow got no cash, but understand that his work at Leezer Bros. was rewarded by 14 cents which had been left in one of the cash drawers. It is pretty well known who the party is and an arrest will likely be made.

Jade Switzer commenced last week delivering the big herd of horses he has sold to the Portland Horse-Meat Canning company, says the East Oregonian. He has sold his entire band, and the number will run from 5000 to 6000. Mr. Switzer does not know just how many horses he has lost. There may be 5000, and there may be 7000, but he thinks there are between 5000 and 6000. Last week 300 were swam across the Columbia river for loading on the train at this side. He will bring over a bunch every few days, until all have been delivered. The average price he received for the entire band is about $3 per head. The horses are in very fair condition, and will doubtless cut up into juicy steaks.

F. O. Beckum arrived from below Monday evening. He has been traveling for the past month through Wasco, Sherman and Gilliam counties, and has formed a good idea of the crop outlook for this section of Eastern Oregon. While fall sown grain in Wasco and Sherman counties will make a fair yield, spring sown grain is very poor. In Gilliam county there is a great shortage in crops. In many localities he found plenty of grasshoppers, but aside from the drought the squirrels appear to have done the greatest amount of damage.

The supreme court has affirmed the decision of the lower court in the case of Nellie M. Stevens vs. J. L. Carter, appealed from Union county. Miss Stevens was elected school superintendent to succeed Carter, who refused to give up the books of the office because she was a woman. Miss S. brought suit to compel Carter to give up the books and won in the circuit court. An appeal was taken with the above result. The court, however, refused to pass upon the eligibility of Miss Stevens, until the matter is brought before it directly.

Pains in the small of the back indicate a diseased condition of the kidneys. Owing to the dangerous nature of the disease which attacks these organs it is important that measures should be taken to remove the trouble before it has become too firmly fixed. Prudence would suggest the prompt use of Dr. J. H. McLean's Liver and Kidney Balm which has specific action on the liver and kidneys and will cause an early restoration to healthy conditions. Price $1.00 per bottle.

The truth was never better told than the following from the Lebanon Express: If the big dailies gave half of the space they give to scandal and pagilists each day to a truthful publication of the vast resources of the state and the many industries offered homeseekers, they would soon have a better field in which to work up their circulation, and at the same time they would be doing Oregon some good service.

It is a big thing to say but nevertheless true, that a great multitude of people have crowned Simmons Liver Regulator as the "King of Liver Medicines." There is nothing like it for Malaria, Rheumatism, Chills and Fever, Constipation, Biliousness, Sick Headache, Indigestion and all troubles arising from a sluggish or diseased liver. Simmons Liver Regulator is the prevention and cure for these ailments.

Fossil Journal: Sils-Keeney's mother, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Cash Ryehard, left for Eugene Sunday. Mrs. Ryehard will remain with her mother in Eugene about four months, when she will leave to join her husband in Montana. Cash went to Montana with the cattle purchased in this section by Tom Rhee and got a steady job from the man for whom Mr. Rhee bought the cattle. You cannot be cheerful or happy while your liver is disordered. Life is but a weary burden to persons so afflicted. Dr. J. H. McLean's Liver and Kidney Balm is the right thing to put this organ into healthy condition. It increases the secretion of bile, stimulates the kidneys and restores the organs of the body to the proper performance of their functions. Price $1.00 per bottle.

Judge Caldwell, of the United States circuit court, has decided that when an insurance company considers a policy void enough to collect premiums upon it, it cannot successfully make an entry into court, and, to escape loss, successfully plead the invalidity of the policy. The decision is sensible and in harmony with the eternal principles of justice.

E. O. J. Robin Fletcher came in Saturday evening from his trip over the line of the proposed Pendleton-Canyon City telephone system to be built by the Blue Mountain company, having completed the work of staking. Thos. W. Marshall, the candy man, was interviewing the Heppner tradesmen yesterday morning, taking his departure for outside points on the afternoon train. Alvah W. Patterson, of this paper, was elected first vice-president of the Oregon Press Association, at their meeting at Newport this week. The quilt drivers had a big time on the coast according to all reports.

An exchange says: The angels must come with a vengeance to be ready for usefulness which some mortals display throughout their whole lives. To do nothing aggressively seems the height of some men's ambition.

A very large concourse of people attended the funeral of J. L. Boyner out at Hardman Tuesday afternoon. He had a large circle of friends and acquaintances and they came from far and near to attend the funeral services.

Mrs. R. W. McCall, of McMinnville, Or., fell into a well 16 feet deep the other day. The water was up to her chest, but she kept her presence of mind and climbed up the pump pipe, coming out as wet as a drowned rat, but unharmed.

The semi-annual report of Stock Inspector William Waters, of Grant county, shows that there are 168 bands of sheep in the county, of which 37 bands, or nearly one-fourth, are afflicted with disease. Mr. Waters found 241,300 sheep in the county, of which E. Stewart is the largest owner, 14,000 being his share.

Secretary Hoke Smith has requested the treasury department to pay $800,000 due to the Indians in Idaho for their lands sold a year ago. Payment was stopped two months ago on account of charges of fraud of various sorts. These have been proven unfounded. The treasury has $1,829,000, each of whom will receive a little over $500.

Thousands of persons suffer along for months, yes even years, suffering from indigestion, bowel troubles and liver disorders with their accompanying disagreeable symptoms, because they think they have it. If they would take a short course of Dr. J. H. McLean's Liver and Kidney Balm they would soon get rid of the miserable feeling and that overpowering sense of weariness and incapacity for work, would give place to one of health, vigor and cheerfulness. Price $1.00 per bottle.

The bloomers that bloom in the spring. Tra-la. Are a wild and wonderful sight, With puffs like a parachute wing. Tra-la. And the legs a ridiculous thing. Tra-la. Till horses shy off in fright! Till horses shy off in fright! And that's what we mean when we scornfully sing "Get out the bloomers that bloom in the spring." Tra-la-la-la-la. Tra-la-la-la-la. The bloomers that bloom in the spring. —Rutland Tribune.

Knight of the Macebaes. The State Commander writes us from Lincoln, Neb., as follows: "I'm trying other medicines for what seemed to be a very obstinate cough in our two children, we tried Dr. King's New Discovery and at the end of two days the cough entirely left them. We will not be without it hereafter, as our experience proves that it will cure where all other remedies fail." —Signed, F. W. Stevens, State Com. Why not give this great medicine a trial, as it is guaranteed and trial bottles are free at the drug store of F. W. Ayers, Jr.

A GREAT MYSTERY—Butte is contributing to what it calls "the mule fund," money so raised to go to keeping a mule in rest and clover the balance of his days for kicking to death a wife-beater. The man, who was a wife-beater, practiced unusual cruelty on his mule and finally used a bridle with bits made of barbed wire. The mule drew the line at this and kicked the stuff out of his cruel master. When the neighbors took his body home they found his wife chained to a staple in the wall. The "mule fund" is rapidly growing, contributions being collected in nickels. Montanians may be a little if in some things, but they have the proper opinion of the man who tests his wife.

Any one who has ever had an attack of inflammatory rheumatism will rejoice with Mr. J. A. Stumm, 220 Boyle Heights, Los Angeles, over his fortunate escape from a state of that distressing ailment. Mr. Stumm is foreman of Morrison's construction establishment. Some months ago, on leaving the heated work room to run across the street on an errand, he was caught out in the rain. The result was that when ready to go home that night he was unable to walk, owing to inflammatory rheumatism. He was taken home and on arrival was placed in front of a good fire and thoroughly rubbed with Chamberlain's Pain Balm. During the evening and night he was repeatedly bathed with this liniment, and by morning was relieved of all rheumatic pains. He now takes especial pleasure in praising Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and always keeps a bottle of it in the house. For sale by Slocum-Johnson Drug Co.

POETRY AND DRESSMAKING. The warmth of summer's tender glow ("I've cut the sleeves out, here they are. Baste them together neatly—no.") Spreads over blossoming fields afar. The mated birds beside the nest Flutter and chirp ("Remember, dear, Those inside seams must all be pressed.") With ringing notes of love and cheer. Sweet dream of beauty! ("Yes, oh yes. A bias lining for the cut.") Let all my soul expand, ("I guess An inch will be quite wide enough.") Fair summertime! ("Shir! in the top.") What thoughts the poet's soul may nurse While—"Oh, good gracious! must I stop Right in the middle of a verse!" Bright hope! ("The facing is too long: Slope it just where the curve begins; Or, here!—Adieu, my musings sing!")—Hand me the scissors and some pins!" MADREISE E. BRIDGES. —From Demorest's Magazine for August.

A BANKER'S OPINION. Banker Hoares, of New York, says that the people everywhere see the fallacy of the gold standard. In a recent letter he says: "Public attention is being irresistibly drawn to the currency question all over the world by the continuous fall in prices, the growing burden of indebtedness and the generally unsatisfactory state of trade. These are circumstances which, if they are allowed to continue unchecked and unchecked, tend to produce discontent, restlessness, anarchy, and it is the business of statesmen to prevent their continuance by seeking and adopting before it is too late an effectual remedy. In England, France, Germany, Spain and India pronounced measures have been taken in favor of bimetalism by responsible politicians. In this country public opinion is coming round to bimetalism to a most remarkable extent, for the producing and manufacturing classes see that excessive cheapness and constantly falling prices are not conducive to their benefit and are beginning to believe that the craze for the single gold standard is at all events partly responsible for the evils from which they are suffering. It is reported by many persons that the next house of commons will contain about forty members pledged to support the cause of international bimetalism. It is believed that the majority of the royal commission now sitting on agriculture will report in favor of it."

MR. MCCONNELL'S VIEWS ON SILVER. The Idaho Governor Defines His Position on the Question.

Governor W. J. McConnell, of Idaho, was in Portland the other day, en route to Yaquina bay, where he will spend sometime at the beach. Speaking about the policy of the silver men, he said: "The friends of silver will not force the financial issue in the national republican convention next year, further than to secure a declaration in the platform that the nominee of the party, if elected president, shall sign any measure passing congress that not only affects the financial system of the country, but also the pensions of soldiers of the rebellion, the building of the Nicaragua canal, the annexation of the Hawaiian islands and other issues of paramount interest to the country."

"The individual who heads the ticket is of little consequence to me, as long, of course, as he is a sound protectionist. I don't care what his views on the financial question are as long as he stands on the platform of his party and that platform contains the declaration we propose."

If ever a man was harassed by persons anxious for salaries, Secretary of State Kincaid is that man. Some of those state commissioners whose salaries are withheld by reason of the doubt as to their title to the positions are very angry with the secretary and hold him responsible for their lack of funds as each recurring month and quarter slips by. One of the latest and bitterest letters received is from H. B. Luce, the well known Granger and populist who has occupied and thinks he still occupies the honorable position of dairy and food commissioner. He makes a piteous appeal to Mr. Kincaid to hurry up his lawsuit or to pay his salary without waiting for any further ceremony. In fact Mr. Luce displays as much anxiety to get at the public funds as though he were a "thieving reproblican," and he seems to utterly ignore the resolutions of his brother Grangers which patred Mr. Kincaid on the back for withholding the salaries of commissioners and urged him to "do so some more." Mr. Luce says his taxes are unpaid and his railroad pass has been taken up and he needs funds very much. The letter really ought to be addressed to the supreme court. The case upon which depends the salary of Mr. Luce and other officials in the same fix is now in the hands of that august body and the rapidity of movement will have to come through that source. Mr. Luce is one populist who does not believe much in saving the taxes that go to salaried commissioners—Salem Statesman.
