WANTED IN MICHIGAN. Sensational Arrest of Rev. O. D. Taylor of The Dalles, The Well Known Real Estate Broker.

The Dalles was greatly stirred up last Saturday afternoon by a sensational arrest. Rev. O. D. Taylor, who has figured in the public eye as the promoter of the North Dalles boom scheme of several years ago, was served with a warrant that afternoon by Deputy Sheriff Kelly and taken into custody.

The Michigan officer seemed in great haste to get away, and while the attorney was still in consultation, a buggy drove up to the courthouse, and Officer Owens and his prisoner stepped in and drove off.

THE DOCTORS WILL RESCUER. The victims of last Friday's shooting affray in Portland are still improving, and both Dr. Holmes and Dr. Ausplund are considered entirely out of danger.

ton to attend Dr. Ausplund, has returned home, being satisfied that the wounded man was practically out of danger. It is not probable that any criminal proceedings will be instituted against either man, as there would be no chance of conviction.

A rather unusual story comes from Toledo this week, says the Oberlin Nugget. This is the story as told by the Nugget: "A farmer named Thompson lost his wife a short time ago. She left him a little babe, which he took to the house of a neighbor named Putman to be cared for."

"Thompson visited neighbor Putman's place very frequently to see how the baby was getting along, and after a little while he fell in love with his neighbor's wife. That lady, the story goes, reciprocated. The husband discovered the situation. Instead of getting on his hind feet and making the tills reverberate with jealous rage, he had a friendly talk with Thompson, said he was tired of his wife anyhow, and he would as lief see some other fellow would take her away as not. However, as it was no snap to go out and find some other fellow to take her place on the spot of the moment, and it was absolutely necessary for him to have one around in the house, he wanted another in exchange.

A Remarkable Cure of Rheumatism. WESTMINSTER, Cal., March 21, 1894.—Sometime ago, on awakening one morning, I found that I had rheumatism in my knee so badly that, as I remarked to my wife, it would be impossible for me to attend to business that day.

Two Lives Saved. Mrs. Phoebe Thomas, of Junction City, Ill., was told by her doctors she had consumption and that there was no hope for her but two bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery completely cured her and she says it saved her life.

Local editors will agree with the following from the quill of one of them: "Newspaper men are blamed with a lot of things they can't help, such as being partial in mentioning visitors, giving news about some folks and leaving out others, etc. He simply prints the news he can find. Some people inform him about such things and others do not. An editor should not be expected to know the name and residence of all your friends, saints and sinners, even if he should see them get off and on the train. Tell us about it. It's news that makes a newspaper and every man, woman and child can be an associate editor if they would."

Deafness Cannot Be Cured by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surface.

A proposition is under consideration to buy the Adventist College at Milton, and the educational committee remained in Milton Monday night to look after the matter.

Thousands of persons flounder along for months, yes even years, suffering from indigestion, bowel troubles and liver disorders with their accompanying disagreeable symptoms, because they think they have to. If they would take a short course of Dr. J. H. McLean's Liver and Kidney Balm they would soon get rid of the miserable feeling and incapacity for work, would give place to one of health, vigor and cheerfulness. Price $1.00 per bottle.

Harvesting is about over in this neighborhood. A wedding is reported on Eight Mile, the contracting parties being Bill Anderson and Mrs. Ida Barton. Long life to them. Mr. and Mrs. Stanton are spending a few weeks visiting in the Walls Walls country. They expect to bring home a supply of fruit.

Sunday school every Sunday at 3 o'clock; temperance meeting immediately after. There is talk of organizing an L. T. L. next Sunday. There are a few young men in this community who are models of propriety and good behavior. They attend church, Sunday school, or temperance meeting, keep their places and are quiet and orderly. (Great is the contrast between these and certain other young men, who seem to take pleasure in making a disturbance in such places. They have always been well treated, and kindly requested to be quiet, in the hope of appealing to their better nature and thereby avoid further trouble. But forbearance sometimes ceases to be a virtue, and the order loving people of this community have decided that these disturbances must stop. I will not give any names at present, but the grand jury, or some other jury will soon know who they are unless there is at once a decided change for the better.

"SHUTT, OF THE HERALD." A Brief Biography of a Striking Character Taken Down as It Came From His Own Eloquent Lips.

The following from the East Oregonian is another version of the Shutt story which was published in a recent issue of the Gazette. It appears that Charles Samuel Jackson was an eyewitness: "Not so long ago a crowd of newspaper men and women were standing in the presence of the new depot at Portland, when in staked 'one of the gang' from the 'Bunch Grass Plains' of Eastern Oregon, and of course introductions followed. Among others introduced to the 'Bunchgrasses' was Miss Fay Fuller, quite well known among Oregon newspaper 'boys' through an address delivered the previous year at a meeting of newspaper men and women in an Eastern Oregon town, and of whom the 'Bunchgrasses' had heard. Upon this introduction being made, the 'Bunchgrasses' brightened up, stepped forward and grasped the fair lady by the hand and rapidly engaged the proceedings: 'I am Shutt, E. M., of the Antelope Herald, a bright little fellow, published weekly (spelled correctly) at Antelope in Wasco county, one of the choice spots of earth. I have been constable there; sometimes called on to act as justice of the peace and to perform the marriage rite; am a newspaper rustler and pusher, though, first, last and all the time. I am a member of the leading band of 12 pieces in Wasco, furnish all the music for the dances and balls of the entire section. I am 23 years old, married, and am a father. Fact. Began to set type and furnish music before I was 19. This was back east, in Pittsburg. Have been at it ever since, with no lay-off. I am a prominent member of the A. O. U. W. and came to Portland as a delegate to the state convention, just adjourned. I am the fastest foot-runner in Eastern Oregon. I stand on a plane in several secret orders with such distinguished men as ex-U. S. Senator Dolph, I being the youngest member in the orders. I speculate a little, buy and sell county scrip, shave gilt-edged notes and do everything there is a nible penny in. I am glad to have met so distinguished a lady writer as you are known to be. Have often heard of you. Now, don't forget my name is Shutt, E. M., publisher and proprietor of the Herald and I hail from Antelope, Wasco county. Good day! 'And with a gentle pressure of the hand 'Shutt of the Herald' was gone, while the famous Miss F. was simply dazed. Have you ever met Shutt, E. M.? Not Well, when you meet him you will be convinced that this is no he but a plain unvarnished tale of the hills. Those who listened to this recital will never forget 'Shutt, E. M. of the Herald,' and those who didn't hear it missed a classic."

BLACK HORSE ITEMS. Dust, dust, dust, will it ever rain? Who says Black Horse can't boom? Harvesting in this vicinity is about over. Much complaint is made on account of the warm weather. Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Scott have returned from Teal springs. Mr. and Mrs. William Strait, of Lena, visited Black Horse last week. J. C. Brown is building an immense barn on his place about three miles from town. Farmers are busy hauling from the mountains regardless of dust and bad roads. Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Sweetser have returned from a four weeks' stay at McDuffie springs. Sunday school has been postponed until September 1st, by which time we hope to have a full attendance again. Grandma Gentry, who has been ill for sometime past at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. P. Brown, is able to be around again. We are glad to announce the return of Bert Lacy, son of Mr. Lacy, of this place, from Corvallis. But in conversation with Bert we learn that he intends leaving us again in the near future. The party of young folks, namely, Misses Sarah Gentry, Gertrude McElbee, Ada Gentry, Fannie McElbee, Ethel Gentry and Katie Barton; Messrs. V. Gentry, Vermer Barton, Mac Gentry, Orval Brown and Lillian McElbee, who have been recruiting in the "Bliss" for the past 10 days, have returned. They report a very enjoyable time and lots of fun, notwithstanding the scarcity of berries, and as for game the boys managed to find enough in the grouse line to enable "pet pie" to appear on the bill of fare occasionally. After engaging in various forms of amusement, the lot of which was a farwell ball given by the mountain people, they started home well satisfied with their week's outing. Black Horse, Aug. 10, 1895.
