

UNTOLD MISERY FROM RHEUMATISM

C. H. King, Water Valley, Miss., cured by Ayer's Sarsaparilla

"For five years, I suffered untold misery from muscular rheumatism. I tried every known remedy, consulted the best physicians, visited Hot Springs, Ark., three times, spending $1000 there, besides doctors' bills; but could obtain only temporary relief. My flesh was wasted away so that I weighed only ninety-three pounds; my left arm and leg were drawn out of shape, the muscles being twisted up in knots. I was unable to dress myself, except with assistance, and could only hobble about by using a cane. I had no appetite, and was assured, by the doctors, that I could not live. The pains, at times, were so awful, that I could procure relief only by means of hypodermic injections of morphia. I had my limbs bandaged in clay, in sulphur, in poultices; but these gave only temporary relief. After trying everything, and suffering the most awful tortures, I began to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Inside of two months, I was able to walk without a cane. In three months, my limbs began to strengthen, and in the course of a year, I was cured. My weight has increased to 165 pounds, and I am now able to do my full day's work as a railroad blacksmith."

Hall's Vegetable Station Hair Restorer is, unquestionably, the best preservative of the hair. It is also effective of dandruff, better, and all scalp affections.

Hon. W. R. Ellis departed for Portland last Saturday to have his leg, which was broken in the runaway over in Gilliam county during the campaign of '93, examined, and if necessary, again operated upon. Notwithstanding the fact that this limb was broken more than three years ago, it has given Mr. Ellis much trouble ever since that time, and for a few weeks past he has at times suffered great pain. If an operation is necessary we trust Mr. Ellis will soon recover from the same, and that he may again have perfect use of the injured limb.

C. M. Grimes, of The Dalles, returned to Heppner last Friday from a quick trip over in Gilliam county where he secured 15 carloads of cattle from the Gilman-French Stock company for shipment. C. F. Walker came up from Portland last Friday to receive two carloads of hogs from Messrs. Walker and Davidson, of Davidson. Both the hogs and cattle were loaded on a special train that came up yesterday morning and departed late in the afternoon. Both shipments are for the Union Meat company at Troutdale.

Mayor Thomas Morgan arrived home from Canyon City last Sunday evening where he appeared before the recent session of the county court of Grant county on behalf of the Heppner board of trade in the interest of the Parrish creek road. Tom informs the Gazette that he found the people over there very favorably disposed toward this road, and that the court willingly granted an order for the survey of the same.

John D. Holliday, the gentleman who visited Heppner a few weeks since in the interest of sheep-shearing machinery plant, returned again last Saturday evening. He has visited several other Eastern Oregon points since his former stay with us, but comes back very favorably impressed with this point as a suitable one for the location of such a plant. He will remain in this city several days.

Sunday Welcome: Some people always push things too swift when they could do better by waiting awhile. For instance, recently in Florida, church services were interrupted by a mob that took the preacher out and hung him. Besides the poor breeding displayed the mob could just as well wait until services were over.

Miss May Bailey, one of Heppner's most progressive teachers for several years past, left on this afternoon's train for Poughkeeps, N. Y., where she will enter college for the next year. Miss Bailey was again selected as one of the teachers for the Heppner school for this year, but resigned in order to enter college.

D. M. French, one of the leading bankers of The Dalles and also one of the owners of the Gilman-French stock ranch, was in Heppner over Sunday looking after the Grimes shipment of stock that came from that famous stock ranch. Mr. French returned home on the special stock train yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. C. Cate and daughter, Bertha, left on this afternoon's train for Walla Walla, where they expect to make their future home. Mrs. Cate makes this change of residence in order that her daughter may complete her school education. Bertha will enter Whitman college at the beginning of the fall term.

There is nothing to prevent anyone concocting a mixture and calling it "sarsaparilla," and there is nothing to prevent anyone spending good money testing the stuff; but prudent people, who wish to be sure of their remedy, take only Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and so get cured.

Ke Ennis has a stock of bicycle repairs and will fix your wheel up at reasonable rates. It is his intention to make a specialty in this line, and as the number of wheels is rapidly increasing, this will certainly be pleasing news to those who are so fortunate as to own a bike.

One of the Gazette's mountain readers informs us that there is an entire absence of bears on the mountain pines this season. This is a very rare occurrence and can hardly be accounted for unless caused by the many cold mountain breezes this season.

Ben Mathews is now sole proprietor of the city meat market where he keeps a fresh supply of beef, pork, mutton, veal, sausage, bacon and lard, which he sells for the lowest market price. Fred Beck, the Portland butcher, is still with him.

Exchange: Take your home paper. Do not imagine the big dailies fill up all the space. There are many little erections of good cheer, social sunshine, personal mention in a home paper that the dailies don't care for, do not print.

Wills & Slocum are now in a position to give their customers some rare bargains in dry goods, boots and shoes, as they buy nearly all of the above mentioned direct from the factories, thus saving the middle man's profit.

Rev. Denison preached his last sermon during his present stay in this city on a unusually large audience last Sunday evening. Rev. Denison and family departed on this afternoon's train for their new home at Hood River.

Mrs. Geo. Fell departed last Saturday for Portland to select a fall stock of millinery and fancy goods. She will also place orders with a representative of a New York house for a spring stock.

Shiloh's Cure, the great Cough and Croup Cure, is in great demand. Pocket size contains twenty-five doses only 25c. Children love it. Sold by T. W. Ayers, Jr.

C. G. Roberts, the well known wood buyer of Portland, came up from the Dalles Saturday evening and spent Sunday in this city.

Isaac Large and little boy came up from Portland last Saturday. Mr. Large expects to again locate in this city in the near future.

EVIDENTLY A MISUNDERSTANDING.—Since adjournment of court last Friday, there has been considerable censure, by a number of the citizens of this city, of Judge Fee's dismissing court when Joseph McAlith, who was indicted by the grand jury, asked for trial. It occurs to the Gazette that if the circumstances were all known there would not be any grounds for this censure. When the defendant was arraigned and had informed the judge that he had no means to employ counsel, J. N. Brown was appointed by the court as attorney for him. After consulting with Mr. McAlith, at his request, Mr. Brown asked for a continuance until next term to plead. This was granted by the court, and was requested by the defendant, thinking that it would be to his interest and that he could again secure the same bondsmen for the bail which had been placed at $750. But on inquiry he failed to get the bondsmen, and then informed his attorney that he was ready to go to trial. In the meantime the jury had all been dismissed, and under the circumstances no special jury could be selected, so the case could not be tried at that time, though, on request, the judge reduced the amount of the bail to $500. As the entire venire of jurors had been held all week at the expense of the county without any labors to perform, and as from all appearances would not be needed, it was a stroke of economy on the judge's part to dismiss them. The court had also disposed of all matters before it and was likewise adjourned at noon, which also adjourned the grand jury, that was still in session. As the judge was in a hurry to get away on the afternoon train he requested Clerk Morrow to receive the grand jury's report. So, all in all, there is no ground for complaint, in fact Judge Fee should be commended for his economical acts.

IN YOUR BLOOD.—The cause of that tired, languid feeling which afflicts you at this season. The blood is impure and has become thin and poor. That is why you have no strength, no appetite, cannot sleep. Purify your blood with Hood's Sarsaparilla, which will give you an appetite, tone your stomach, and invigorate your nerves.

Hood's Pills are easy to take, easy in action and sure in effect. 25c.

BOUND OVER.—Last evening A. E. Matson, commonly known as "Shorty," who was arrested on a warrant sworn out by D. A. Herren, on a charge of assault and battery, was given a hearing before Recorder Hallock, as ex-officio justice of the peace, owing to the absence of Judge Freeland. He was represented by T. R. Lyons while Harry Bagley looked after the state's interests. After consultation with his attorney, the defendant waived examination, but was bound over to await the action of the next grand jury on the testimony of the state's witnesses. The facts in the case are as follows: Last Sunday Matson, while in Heppner, imbued rather freely of John Barleycorn, and late in the afternoon started out for Wm. Peuland's ranch where he has been working, with a considerable amount of the above spirits under his belt. He arrived at Wm. Walbridge's home after dark, and went up to the house greatly frightening the children, who, with Mabel Herren, were alone at that time. He caught Mabel by the arm and attempted to force her to go riding with him, but she got away from him and closed and barred the doors. It is said that Matson was just preparing to force an entrance into the house when Lenus Peuland came along and took him home. The little folks were greatly frightened, though it is reported that Miss Herren retained enough presence of mind to load a gun and stand ready to guard the house at all hazards if necessary. Matson was bound over and his bonds placed at $100 by Judge Hallock who had taken the matter under advisement until this morning.

JUSTICE GRIND.—Last Friday Frank Whitestone and Albert Ren were arrested on a charge of being drunk and disorderly and brought before Ex-Judge Hallock Friday afternoon, when both pleaded "not guilty" and demanded a separate trial. In Frank's case, which came up first, he was represented by Harry Bagley, while A. A. Roberts looked after the state's interests. Frank was acquitted and court adjourned until 10 o'clock Saturday morning, when Albert's case came up for trial. He was represented by Frank Whitestone, while Harry Bagley represented the state in this case. Albert's kindly demanded a jury trial, when the following jury was selected and empaneled: S. P. Gargano, Geo. Shipley, John Hamous, Floyd Thomas, George Fell and John Hayes. Albert treated the case in rather a peculiar manner which apparently did not meet with the approval of the jury, for after a brief adjournment it returned a verdict of guilty and recommended that, inasmuch as defendant had put the city to the expense of a jury trial and had attempted to make a farce of the case, the court show no leniency. Acting upon this verdict Judge Hallock imposed a fine of $25 and costs. The Gazette regrets to record such a case as this and can hardly think that Albert would intentionally make light of a legal body and proceeding of this kind. Both cases attracted more than usual notice because of the new talent employed, which by the way, created much favorable and complimentary comment.

Matthews Bros., City hotel barber shop, honorably articles. Haircutting, shaving, shampooing, etc., done satisfactorily. 1 bath at 25 cents apiece.

MARRIED.—At the residence of Tom Scott, at Galloway, Oregon, Wednesday evening, Sept. 4, 1895, in the presence of many invited guests, Mr. Arthur Matthews and Miss Lala Wilson were united in marriage. Rev. J. T. Hoskins, officiating. The affair was a very happy one. The bride was most elegantly attired and the groom could not have looked better. The happy couple were congratulated by many friends. After partaking of a bountiful supper and passing the evening pleasantly till 11 o'clock all repaired to their homes feeling happy.

INTERESTING LECTURE.—Prof. M. G. Royal, of the Weston Normal school, who was one of the instructors before the institute last week, delivered a very interesting lecture, replete with thought, theory and facts, on the subject of "The Reality of the Unreal," at the M. E. church last Friday evening. He dealt with the subject from psychological standpoint, and presented many thoughts both amusing and interesting. Prof. Royal has convinced his many friends that he is equally as much at home as a lecturer or minister, as an instructor in the school room.

VERY LARGE SHIPMENT OF STOCK.—W. F. and J. G. Courtney, of Tacoma, who passed through Heppner a short time since en route to Crook county to look after a large shipment of cattle, returned last Sunday morning. From them we learn that about 1500 of the 3000 head of cattle previously engaged by them over in that country, are now ready for shipment. These they expect to receive and ship from this point the first of next week. Three or four special trains will probably be required for the large shipment which now go to feeding grounds over in the Yakima country, and later to Tacoma and Seattle markets.

FAREWELL SURPRISE.—A very pleasant farewell party in the form of a surprise for Rev. J. M. Denison and wife was given at the home of Albert Slocum last evening. Between 50 and 75 members of the M. E. church and friends of the minister and family had gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Slocum previous to the arrival of Rev. Denison and wife who had accepted an invitation to spend the evening at that place. In all it was a very pleasant affair and greatly appreciated by Rev. Denison and wife who request the Gazette to express their heartfelt thanks and appreciation for this token of regard and esteem, shown for them on the eve of their departure from the city.

None But Ayer's at the World's Fair.
Ayer's Sarsaparilla enjoys the extraordinary distinction of having been the only blood purifier allowed an exhibit at the World's fair, Chicago. Manufacturers of other sarsaparillas sought by every means to obtain a showing of their goods, but they were all turned away under the application of the rule forbidding the entry of patent medicines and nostrums. The decision of the World's fair authorities in favor of Ayer's Sarsaparilla is in effect as follows: "Ayer's Sarsaparilla is not a patent medicine. It does not belong to the list of nostrums. It is here on its merits."

LOSS ADJUSTED.—Toll Thompson, special adjuster for the State Insurance company, was in Heppner the latter part of last week to look after the recent Swagart loss. We learn that some was adjusted satisfactory to Mr. Swagart. Some of our readers will remember Toll Thompson as the man who with Judge Hayes, ex-state senator from Clackamas county, was arrested last fall on charges of attempting to rob a woman of Oregon City of her insurance money, and by blackmail and threats, frightened her to sign a statement that she had burned her property to secure the insurance. A great many thought the case a trumped up one, and in fact it has been continued from time to time ever since that date. It came up in the justice court in Portland last Wednesday, but was again postponed as neither side was ready for trial.

FAREWELL PARTIES.—A farewell party was given at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Biebee Saturday evening last, in honor of their daughter, Lillian, and one at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. M. D. L. French on Monday evening, in honor of Miss Bertha Cate. Both these young ladies are well and favorably known in Heppner. They both leave this week to enter school; Miss Biebee going to Portland, and Miss Cate to Walla Walla. They will be missed in Heppner's social and religious circles, but as they go and we must bid them farewell, we wish them abundant success at school, and will be glad to welcome them back to our city again when they have finished their labors at school for the year. At both parties games and music were indulged in until a late hour when all partook of the repasts which had been so carefully prepared. Those present were: Misses Floss Farnsworth, Mand Rush, Mabel Leizer, Ethel Sperry, Laura Nutt, Myrtle Hornor, Grace Ball, Mand Glascock, Bertha Cate, Lena Belme, Mary Howard, Elsie Lacy, Lillian Biebee, Cora Hart, Jennie Noble, Ardella Reed, Messrs. Floyd Thomas, John Hornor, Harry Warren, Edward, Clyde and Will Saling, Roy Glascock, Charles Freeland, James Hart, Willie Kellogg, Jay Shipley, Walter Van Dahn, H. T. Bagley and Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Brown. All present enjoyed themselves in every sense of the word, and after bidding farewell to Misses Lillian and Bertha, those present departed.

Overwork, either physical or mental, will produce weakness and loss of energy. For many business or family cares, overwork in the harvest field, an excess of woman's work and worry will produce months of misery. To prevent this, the exhausted system should be reinforced immediately. Dr. J. H. McLean's Strengthening Cordial and Blood Purifier is an appropriate remedy. Price $1.00 per bottle.

NEW TEACHERS.—Since the selection of teachers for the Heppner schools at a meeting of the school board last June, there has been several resignations and a number of changes in the corps of teachers as selected. Both Prof. F. M. Overacre, the principal, and Miss McIntosh, the primary teacher, resigned shortly after the selections were made, having learned that both the salary and term had been cut down, and better positions having been offered them. Recently Misses May Bailey and Addie Conlee handed in their resignations, thus leaving only Miss Ada Jones of the original selection, and it is reported that she will resign by January 1st. At a meeting of the board August 1st, Prof. J. D. Brown, of Lexington, was selected as principal and at last Friday's meeting the following new selections were made: Jay Shipley for Miss Bailey's position; Miss Florence Crittenden, of Grant county, for Miss Conlee's position and Mrs. A. M. Faqua, of Eight Mile, for the primary room, for which position Miss McIntosh was originally selected. School begins October 7th, this being the first Monday of that month.
