After Acute Bronchitis
CURED BY USING
AYER'S Cherry Pectoral
A PREACHER'S EXPERIENCE.

"Three months ago, I took a violent cold which resulted in an attack of acute bronchitis. I put myself under medical treatment, and at the end of two months was no better. I found it very difficult to preach, and concluded to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. The first bottle gave me great relief; the second, which I am now taking, has relieved me almost entirely of all unpleasant symptoms, and I feel sure that one or two bottles more will effect a permanent cure. To all ministers suffering from throat troubles, I recommend Ayer's Cherry Pectoral."—E. M. BRAWLEY, D. D., Dist. Secretary, Am. Bapt. Publication Society, Petersburg, Va.

Many people, when a little constipated, make the mistake of using saline or other drastic purgatives. All that is needed is a mild dose of Ayer's Pills to restore the regular movement of the bowels, and nature will do the rest. They keep the system in perfect order.
Halvor-Sperry—At the residence of the bride's parents, 525 East Ankeny, last Wednesday evening at 9 o'clock, Rev. Roland D. Grant solemnized the marriage of Miss Dolly Kathleen Sperry and Mr. William Stevens Halvor. Many friends of the couple were present, and enjoyed the wedding supper served. Mr. Halvor is a government employe—Oregonian. Miss Dolly K. Sperry has relatives and friends at Heppner who join in the congratulations.

Here and There.

"Turn the rascals out"—the familiar party cry—may be applied to microbes as well as to men. The germs of disease that lurk in the blood are "turned out" by Ayer's Sarsaparilla as effectively as the old postmasters are displaced by a new administration.

V. A. Stephens returned yesterday morning from Marysville, Iowa, accompanied by his little daughter. Mrs. Stephens left Heppner the third of last July to take her wife, who was very seriously ill and not expected to live, back to Iowa that she might die among her own people. She passed away in twenty days after reaching their destination. Mr. Stephens remained in that state during the summer and fall, but has returned to Morrow county, where he still has all his property, to reside.
Danville (Ind.) Republican: The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. P. Darnall died some time Tuesday night, the parents not being aware of the fact until next morning when it was found dead in bed. The funeral services were held yesterday afternoon, the remains being interred in the east cemetery. The parents have the sympathy of the entire community in their bereavement. (Mrs. Darnall was formerly Miss Cora Patterson, known to many old residents of Heppner.)
Sore throat. Any ordinary case may be cured in one night by applying Chamberlain's Pain Balm as directed with each bottle. This medicine is also famous for its cures of rheumatism, lame back and deep-seated and muscular pain. For sale by Sloum-Johnson Drug Co.
Judge and Mrs. A. Mallory departed Wednesday for Redley, Calif., where they will spend some time visiting C. M. Mallory and family. On their way down they will visit their relatives near Salem, Wednesday before leaving, Granddaddy Sloum invites old people and other kin over to partake of a farewell dinner. It is a cordial that contains already digested food and is a digester of food. It is effective in removing distress after eating, and creates an appetite for more food so that eating becomes a pleasure. Thin, thin people become plump and healthy under its use. It arrests the wasting of consumption.
There has never been such a step forward in the cure of indigestion as this Shaker Cordial. Your ragged will be glad to give you a little book descriptive of the product.
Give the babies LAXOL, which is Castor Oil made as palatable as honey.
BROKE JAIL.—Last night along about 7 o'clock, Os Wells and Albert Brebroke out of the city jail, then walked to Lexington and took the train. Their present whereabouts are unknown, and as they were guilty of a misdemeanor only, no effort will be made to punish them further, so long as they grace Heppner with their absence.

None But Ayer's at the World's Fair
Ayer's Sarsaparilla enjoys the extraordinary distinction of having been the only blood purifier allowed an exhibit at the World's Fair, Chicago. Manufacturers of other sarsaparillas sought by every means to obtain a showing of their goods, but they were all turned away under the application of the rule forbidding the entry of patent medicines and nostrums. This decision of the World's Fair authorities in favor of Ayer's Sarsaparilla is not a patent medicine. It does not belong to the list of nostrums. It is here on its merits.
Has Been "Filled."
A recent issue of the Telegram has the following:

Ben Mathews is now sole proprietor of the city meat market where he keeps a fresh supply of beef, pork, mutton, veal, sausage, ham and lard, which sells for the lowest market price. Fred Cook, the Portland butcher, is still with him. 27-28.

TO A DEAD BIRD.
Poor, perished thing,
How helpless, now, thy anguished wing;
How tired of death the unfastened grace
That lingers on the little feathered face!
Could any gem that mortals choose to prize
Assume to match the radiance of thine eyes?
Some man destroyed thee that 'er again can be
In killing thee.
Say, silent thing,
Hast thou the Heaven-invented gift to sing?
Couldst chant a sonnet, undefiled by art,
And thrill and win the chosen of thy heart?
Couldst hush the silent sobbing of the air,
With strains of jewelled laughter, free from fear?
One fancies some of God's untrilled glee
Went back with thee.
Distant love to fling
Thyself upon the swelling breast of Spring?
Didst joy to tread the airy lanes with ease,
Or find a way to throne among the trees?
May I send a message to the restless soul,
Couldst ride along the billows of the gale?
Heaven meant the earth and azure sea and froe,
For such as thee.
But, plumaged thing,
If deathly splendor can a comfort bring,
If but thy body, from its sweet control,
May send a message to the restless soul,
Rejoice! It hath a more than royal bell!
Thy mausoleum is my lady's head,
And I can fancy many swains I see,
That envy thee!

For more than a hundred years the Shakers have been studying the remedial properties of plants. They have made many discoveries, but their greatest achievement was made last year. ## Pure Blood

Is the secret of the restoration to health which Hood's Sarsaparilla gives.

"It gives me pleasure to recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla. It has cured me of many complaints, and purified my blood. I was troubled with my liver, had hip disease and other troubles, with swelling of my ankles. For a long time I had to walk with a cane. For several years I was gradually breaking down. I had the grip in a severe form. I procured six bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla and it built me up. My recovery I owe to Hood's Sarsaparilla. All my ills have gone and I feel like a new person. I sleep well and eat heartily."
MRS. CHARLOTTE KELLY, Hayward, Cal.
Hood's Sarsaparilla is the only true blood purifier prominently in the public eye today. Try it.
Hood's Pills cure habitual constipation. Price 25c. per box.

Otis Patterson NOTARY PUBLIC CALL AT OFFICE
CONVEYANCER

We Call the Attention * * *
OF THE PUBLIC
TO THE FACT that when a merchant advertises that he or she can undersell anyone else, he is talking through his hat; or, in other words, he is a liar and the truth is not in him. We do not claim to undersell every one else, but we defy any man to undersell us; that is an advantage that no man has over another providing they be truthful to their brother merchants (which we are sorry to say is not the case with Heppner merchants.)
We invite the public to inspect our stock, and believe you will find it a clean, fresh, first-class stock and well selected, and our prices are as cheap as any store in Eastern Oregon.
Call and see us and you will find we mean just what we say.
Very Respectfully Yours,
HORNER & RHEA.
We'll beat you on any goods you buy. And the public will bear what he'll say. For the people don't care a cent what they say. They'll buy what they see. You'll find we are in it. And you'll buy of Horner & Rhea. When you purchase of Horner & Rhea.
