

OVERWORK -INDUCED- Nervous Prostration

Complete Recovery by the Use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla

"Some years ago, as a result of too close attention to business, my health failed. I became weak, nervous, and unable to look after my interests, and manifested all the symptoms of a decline. I took three bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, began to improve at once, and gradually increased my weight from one hundred and twenty-five to two hundred pounds. Since then, I and my family have used this medicine when needed, and we are all in the best of health, a fact which we attribute to Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I believe my children would have been fatherless to-day had it not been for Ayer's Sarsaparilla, of which preparation I cannot say too much."—H. O. Hinson, Postmaster and Planter, Kinard's, S. C.

Morris Abrahams, the well known and popular organ drummer, was in town last week.

Ben Leland came over Sunday from Long Creek and is located with Willis & Slocum.
Wm. Barnett and C. N. Peck, of the Lexington country, were in town Saturday last.
Wiley Wattenberger's little daughter, five years old, is quite ill out near Galloway.
Mrs. T. W. Ayers returned from below today. She has been under treatment for rheumatism.
Frank Readick, well known here as a successful actor, will be here soon with a strong company.
There will be a grand masquerade ball at the opera house on Thanksgiving eve. Don't forget the date. n5-25.
"Grandpa" Florence was in town yesterday, looking very well indeed for a man of 85 years, nearly.
A premium to cash purchasers at Phil Cohn's drug store. Don't fail to get your ticket for the wheel. n5-25.
C. S. Van Dorn has improved the appearance of his dining room very much by adding a lot of nice house plants.
F. A. Cook came in from Pendleton Friday, overland, to look after D. M. Osborne & Co.'s affairs at this place.
When you want to feel merry call on Lishe Sperry, at the Belvedere Saloon, where they keep the finest wet goods in town.
A sidewalk should be built to the depot before winter comes on in dead earnest. To do this the street must be opened.
Elmer Slocum, the artist, will make cabinet photos for the next 30 days at $2 per dozen. Gallery opposite opera house.
W. E. Kahler departed yesterday to look up a new location. He will probably visit the southern country before returning.

Clay Humphrey, a resident of Eugene for many years, killed himself with morphine at Portland Saturday last. He was about 37 years old.
Mathews Bros., City hotel barber shop, tonsorial artists. Haircutting, shaving, shampooing, etc., done scientifically. Baths at 25 cents apiece.
C. H. Gardner's little son, seven years old, broke his left arm just below the elbow, Friday eve. Dr. McSwords looked after the sufferer.
E. P. Sine was up from Lexington Saturday and has so improved in health that he contemplates resuming the practice of his profession.
G. B. Hatt, the tonsorial artist, can be found at his parlors, Matlock corner, where he will dispense at popular prices, shaves, shampoos, haircuts, etc.
The Gazette is informed that a big dance was given out at Mrs. Benze's place, following the Eskelson-Benge suit. All had a royal good time.

Miss Florence French was given a farewell party at the residence of her father, M. D. L. French, Saturday last. There were present: Edna Van Dorn, Mary McSwords, Bessie Sutton, Clara Morgan, Lizzie Howard, Ida Howard, Bertha Frisole, Luella Nelson, Zoe Patterson, Ester Ford, Marion Smith and Virgie Crawford.
You may eat cheap food and not be seriously hurt by it; but you cannot take cheap medicines without positive injury. If you use any substitute for Ayer's Sarsaparilla, you do so at the peril of your health, perhaps your life. Insist on having Ayer's, and no other.
Ben Leland, the old veteran dry goods man, has associated himself with Willis & Slocum and will be found at the old Blackman brick, Main St., Heppner, where he will be pleased to see his old-time friends. The Gazette congratulates the firm on securing the services of such a valuable man.
Mr. M. D. L. French and family will soon depart for The Dalles where they will take up their future residence. A farewell reception will be tendered them by their friends tomorrow evening. They are indeed estimable people and the Gazette regrets that Heppner must lose them.
Ben Poppen is carrying around a very bad finger, having gotten a splinter in it which is causing serious inconvenience. As troubles never come singly, Mr. Poppen's children are also sick. He reports crops looking well up about Hardman.
Charley Jones, the well-known "old-timer" in the tonsorial line, has again located in Heppner, having purchased Green Mathews' shop, Minor building opposite the city hotel. Charley will appreciate a call when in town.
Our Pine City (Galloway) correspondent writes a very interesting lot of items for this issue. It is a pleasure indeed to handle correspondence so neatly gotten up and so full of matters of general interest.
The Telegram in a recent issue says: "G. W. Harrington, an attorney of Heppner, is registered at the Holton." The reporter who does the hotels for the Telegram, must not care much for little inaccuracies.
J. W. Kerns, the city painter, is prepared to do all kinds of painting and paper hanging and will do house cleaning and take up and put down carpets. Office on Main street, opposite City hotel.
For $22.50 I will sell a first class, high grade, high arm sewing machine guaranteed for 10 years. For further particulars call on or address, N. A. Leach, Lexington, Oregon.

Each 25 cent purchase entitles you to a ticket for the $100 bicycle at Phil Cohn's drug store, next door to Minor & Co. n5-25.
Best accommodation and courteous treatment at the Imperial Hotel, Seventh and Wash. Sts., Portland, Oregon.
You can Believe
The testimonials published in behalf of Hood's Sarsaparilla. They are written by honest people, who have actually found in their own experience that Hood's Sarsaparilla purifies the blood, creates an appetite, strengthens the system and absolutely and permanently cures all diseases caused by impure or deficient blood.
Hood's Pills for the liver and bowels, act promptly, easily and effectively.

MUSICAL PARTY.—The musical society or glee club met again last evening, that being the regular meeting night, and spent an enjoyable time in singing and social amusement at the residence of Hon. J. N. Brown. This society is composed of the music-loving portion of Heppner's society people, and it is safe to predict that much benefit will be derived from these gatherings. Those present on last evening were as follows: Misses Mabel Leezer, Laura Muir, Jennie Noble, Florence Crittenden, Ada Jones, Bessie Estes, Messrs. T. R. Lyons, W. L. Saling, C. E. Freeland, James Hart, Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Horner and Mrs. Arthur Minor.

An Egyptian Curiosity.
In July, 1881, there were discovered in the ancient city of Thebes, the mummies of Egypt's mightiest Pharaohs, among them that of Rameses the Great. There were also found seals, ovals, statuettes, preserved food, and a few rolls of papyrus, some of the latter being of great value, curiously bound together, and, notwithstanding the mould and mildew of ages upon them, as easily read as if written yesterday. A queer little book entitled, "A Night with Rameses II.," has been executed so cleverly, that the oxidized seal, suggestion of mould, antique coloring, and partially decayed and ragged-edged papyrus carry it once to the mind the possession of a veritable relic from the dawn of civilization. Mailed to any address on receipt of 6 cents in stamps, by J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.

A Great Blessing
My wife and I have found in Hood's Sarsaparilla. She had rheumatism very severely, with ankles and legs badly swollen, and hardly able to get up and down stairs without help. Many other remedies failed, but Hood's Sarsaparilla entirely cured her. It was only shortly after that I was taken with the same complaint, affecting my limbs and hips, so I just tried the same medicine with the same result. My wife and children take Hood's Sarsaparilla whenever they feel the need of a medicine and it immediately makes them feel better.

Otis Patterson NOTARY PUBLIC CALL AT OFFICE
CONVEYANCER

We Call the Attention * * *
OF THE PUBLIC

TO THE FACT that when a merchant advertises that he or they can undersell anyone else, he is talking through his hat; or, in other words, he is a liar and the truth is not in him. We do not claim to undersell every one else, but we defy any man to undersell us; that is an advantage that no man has ever achieved by being truthful to their brother merchants (which we are sorry to say is not the case with Heppner merchants).

We invite the public to inspect our stock, and believe you will find it a clean, fresh, first-class stock and well selected, and our prices are as cheap as any store in Eastern Oregon.

Call and see us and you will find we mean just what we say.
Very Respectfully Yours,
HORNER & RHEA.

Other parts have been treated, but none that'll get treated. For the people don't do what they say. They'll buy a bottle, try it, and we are it in. And you'll buy at Horner & Rhea.

Step into the store and look over our stock. You'll find us at the same street and number as before. You'll find us at the same street and number as before. When you purchase of Horner & Rhea.
